

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1849.

THE following Addresses were presented to the Queen, on the occasion of Her Majesty's late return from Scotland, and were very graciously received by Her Majesty:

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Mayor and Magistrates of the borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, and of the Mayor, Alderman, and Burgesses of the said Borough, in Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and devoted subjects, the Mayor and Magistrates of the borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, and the Mayor, Alderman, and Burgesses of the said borough in council assembled, beg to approach your Majesty with the expression of our unfeigned loyalty and attachment.

We cannot on such an occasion forget how much the public and private morality of the people and the safety and stability of the State depend upon the conduct and character of the Sovereign; and we gladly proclaim our belief that the love and reverence which your Majesty's private life and public career have inspired greatly conduced to avert from our shores the shock of that political tempest which on the Continent rent society to its foundations, and overturned the most established governments.

We beg to express our grateful sense of the warm and lively interest which your Majesty evinces in the welfare and happiness of the people committed to your charge; and we fervently pray that God may shield from every harm that sacred life which is bound up with the destiny of millions, and preserve your Majesty to enjoy many happy years to be the ornament and example of the age in which we live.

Given under the common seal of the said borough, and under the hands of the said Mayor and Magistrates, at Berwick-upon-Tweed, this 24th day of September 1849.

[Here follow the signatures.]

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, in council assembled, approach your Majesty with the tender of a respectful but heartfelt welcome.

We recur with a grateful recollection to the period of your Majesty's former visit to the town of Birmingham, in the company of your Majesty's August Mother, when the hopes of the people hailed your Majesty as heir presumptive to the Throne, and we rejoice in this opportunity of renewing to your Majesty those expressions of sincere attachment with which the inhabitants then so cordially greeted the presence of their future Sovereign.

We beg most respectfully to express to your Majesty our warm admiration of your Majesty's constitutional Government, our affectionate devotion to your Majesty's Person, and our unswerving loyalty to the Throne.

It is our earnest prayer that your Majesty, blessed in the affections of your Illustrious Consort and the tender love of your Children, may long be spared to extend the genial influence of your Majesty's bright example throughout all classes in these kingdoms, and to receive the grateful homage of a loyal and faithful people.

In testimony whereof the corporate common seal of the said borough is hereunto affixed, the 28th day of September 1849.

Samuel Thornton, Mayor.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty QUEEN VICTORIA.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Magistrates, Clergy, Ministers, Gentry, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the town of Darlington and the neighbourhood, approach your Majesty with feelings of the most respectful and dutiful attachment to your august Person and Throne, and beg to offer the warmest and most cordial expression of our welcome on this your first royal progress through the county of Durham.

We beg to express our grateful sense of the deep interest which your Majesty has ever been graciously pleased to evince in the welfare of your Majesty's subjects at large, and which has been so especially shown towards the inhabitants of Ireland by the late royal visit to that country, which we fervently hope will strengthen the ties that attach them to your Majesty's Throne and Person.

We pray that your Majesty's reign may be long and prosperous, characterised by that continued progress in social advancement which has rendered Great Britain so pre-eminent amongst surrounding nations.