FRIDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1849.

THE following Addresses were presented to the Queen, on the occasion of Her Majesty's late return from Scotland, and were very graciously received by Her Majesty:

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful subjects, the undersigned Chamberlains, Common Council, and Freemen of the ancient borough of Alnwick, and the Magistrates, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the town of Alnwick, humbly beg permission to embrace the opportunity of your Majesty's progress through Northumberland to present to your Majesty our sentiments of warm and loyal attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to express the hope that your Majesty's reign—hitherto so happy and prosperous—may long continue distinguished by unbroken peace, and by the progressive improvement of the moral, intellectual, and physical condition of all your Majesty's subjects.

We pray that your Majesty, your illustrious Consort, and your Family, may all be blessed with long life, health, and happiness; and that the Royal Children—emulating the bright example set before them—may grow up in every grace and virtue, and transmit to future generations all those excellencies for which their august Parents are so eminently distinguished.

[Here follow the signatures.]

Unto Her Most Gracious Majesty VICTORIA, QUEEN of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Provost, Bailies, and Councillors of the royal burgh of Dunbar, beg most respectfully to approach your Majesty to tender our loyalty and obedience to our Most Gracious Sovereign, and to express our sincere attachment to your Majesty's Throne and Person.

It has afforded us, along with the entire population of Scotland, much gratification to see the periodical visits of your Majesty, with your Royal Consort and the younger branches of the Royal Family, to this our native land; to enjoy, among the loyal and devoted subjects of this portion of your Majesty's dominions, that quiet and retirement from the onerous duties of your Majesty's exalted station which the Highlands of Scotland are so fitted to afford, and from which we earnestly trust your Majesty has derived such benefit as may induce your Majesty to return in future years to reside among us.

That you may have a comfortable and safe journey southward, and that your Majesty may be long spared to reign over a free, a loyal, and a happy people, is the earnest prayer of your Majesty's most humble and dutiful subjects.

Signed for, and as authorised by, the Magistrates and Council, and the seal of the burgh is hereunto affixed by

To the Guardians of the Poor of the several Unions and Parishes throughout England;

To the Councils and other Governing Bodies of Cities and Boroughs, Commissioners under Local Acts, the Surveyors of Highways, their Deputies and Assistants, the Trustees, County Surveyors, and others, by Law entrusted with the care and management of the Streets and Public Ways and Places within the said Unions and Parishes;

To the Owners and Occupiers of Houses, Dwellings, Churches, Buildings, and Places of Assembly within the said Unions and Parishes, and others having the care and ordering thereof;

And to all whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by the provisions of the "Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Act, 1848," for the prevention of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases, We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention (as far as possible) or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, or contagious diseases; and whereas by the said Act it is provided that the directions and regulations to be issued as aforesaid shall extend to all parts or places in which the said provisions of the said Act shall for the time being be in force, under the Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council, unless such directions or regulations shall be expressly confined to some of such parts or places, and then to such parts or places, as in such directions and regulations shall be specified:

And whereas by an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 28th day of September, 1848, the said provisions of the said Act were directed to be put in force throughout the whole of Great Britain for a period of six calendar months thence next ensuing: And whereas by another Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March, 1849, the said recited Order of the 28th day of September, 1848, was renewed for a further period of six calendar months from the date of the said last-mentioned Order: And whereas by another Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 25th day of September, 1849, the said first-mentioned Order was renewed for a further period of six calendar months from the said 25th day of September, 1849, which last mentioned Order is now in force throughout the whole of Great Britain: And whereas in order to obviate any doubt as to the continuance in force of the directions and regulations hereinafter contained, which were issued under the authority of the said first recited Order, it is desirable that the same should be expressly renewed as hereinafter expressed:

Now in exercise of the authority vested in us as aforesaid, We the General Board of Health do issue the directions and regulations hereinafter contained, to extend to all parts and places within the several unions and parishes throughout England, and to all extra parochial places adjoining to such unions or parishes, viz.:

I. We direct that all Councils and other governing bodies of cities and boroughs, commissioners under local acts, surveyors, and district or assistant-surveyors of highways, trustees, county surveyors, and others, by law entrusted with the care and management of the streets, and public ways and places, within the parts or places to which these directions and regulations extend, shall once at least in every 24 hours effectually cleanse all such of the streets, rows, lanes, mews, courts, alleys, and passages, and public ways and places, under their respective care and management, as by the medical officer of the Guardians, or others authorized to superintend the execution of this direction and regulation, shall be certified in writing, to be in a state dangerous to health, or to require frequent and effectual cleansing by way of precaution against disease, and shall remove all filth, ordure, and nuisances therefrom.

II. And where any such streets, rows, lanes, mews, courts, alleys, and any passages, public ways, or places, to which any houses or tenements adjoin, which have not been entrusted by law to the care or management of any council, commissioners, surveyors, trustees, or others, have been certified in writing, by such medical officer as aforesaid, to be in a state dangerous to health, or to require such frequent and effectual cleansing, we direct that every occupier of a house or tenement so adjoining, shall keep or cause to be kept sufficiently cleansed, at least once in every 24 hours, such part of the street, row, lane, mews, court, alley, or passage, way, or place as adjoins the house or tenement occupied by him.

And we direct that all such works of cleansing and removal of filth, ordure, and nuisances as are required by these directions and regulations, shall be done in such manner by effectual washing, or otherwise, and with the use of such fluids or substances for preventing the escape of noxious effluvia during the operation as the medical officer of the Guardians or others authorized to superintend the execution of these directions and regulations shall think necessary and shall direct.

III. We do hereby authorize and require the said Guardians, by themselves or by their officers or persons employed under them in the administration of the laws for the relief of the poor, or by officers or persons specially appointed in this behalf, to superintend and see to the execution of the foregoing directions and regulations within their respective unions or parishes, and in any extra-parochial places adjoining thereto respectively.

IV. And further, where it shall appear that by want or neglect of the Council of any city or borough commissioners, surveyors, trustees, or others entrusted with the care and management as aforesaid, or by reason of poverty of the occupiers or otherwise, there may be any default or delay in the cleansing of or removing nuisances from any street, row, lane, mews, court, alley, passage, or public way, or place certified as aforesaid, within any of the said unions or parishes, or any extra-parochial place adjoining thereto, we authorize and require Guardians of such union or parish, to cause such street, row, lane, mews, court, alley, passage, way, or place, to be effectually cleansed, and all nuisances to be removed therefrom, and to do all acts, matters, and things necessary for that purpose.

V. We also direct as follows—

That,

When, and so often as any dwelling-house in any part or place to which these directions and regulations extend, is in such a filthy and unwholesome condition as to be a nuisance to, or injurious to the health of any person; or

Where upon any premises, or any part or place as aforesaid, there is any foul and offensive drain, ditch, gutter, privy, cesspool, or ashpit, or any drain, ditch, gutter, privy, cesspool, or ashpit, kept or constructed so as to be a nuisance to or injurious to the health of any person; or,

Where upon any such premises, swine, or any accumulation of dung, manure, offal, filth, refuse, or other matter or thing is kept, so as to be a nuisance to or injurious to the health of any person; or,

Where upon any such premises (being a building used wholly or in part as a dwelling-house) or being premises underneath any such building any animal is kept so as to be a nuisance or injurious to the health of any person;

In each of the above recited cases, the owner or occupier, and persons having the care or ordering of such dwelling-house, or of the premises where the nuisance or matter injurious to health may be, shall cleanse, whitewash, or otherwise purify, as the case may require, such dwelling-house or building; or abate or remove the nuisance or matter injurious to health as aforesaid, with all reasonable speed after the publication of these our Directions and Regulations, or after the nuisance or matter injurious to health shall have arisen.

VI. In case, by reason of poverty or otherwise, the occupier of any such dwelling-house or premises is unable to perform any works required by these directions or regulations, such occupier shall give notice of such his inability to the Guardians of the union or parish comprising the place wherein the premises shall be situated.

VII. We authorize and require the Guardians aforesaid, by themselves or by officers by them authorized in this behalf:

To see to the execution of the directions hereinbefore contained for the cleansing and purifying of dwelling-houses, and for the abatement and removal of nuisances and matters injurious to health, in every case in which there shall not be a council or other governing body of a city or borough, or commissioners having jurisdiction for the removal of nuisances, or where such council, governing body, or commissioners, shall not cause to be effectually executed such directions; and for that purpose,

To visit, from time to time, or cause to be visited the several dwellings and places where there may be ground for believing that necessity will arise for executing such directions:

VIII. And in every case in which from the poverty of occupiers or otherwise there may be default or delay in the cleansing or purifying of any such dwelling-house, or in the abatement or removal of any such nuisance or matter injurious to health, and the medical officer, or other person duly authorized as aforesaid, shall certify that the same requires immediate attention; and in every case in which from want of co-operation of the owners or occupiers there is any default or delay in cleansing any such drain, ditch, watercourse, or gutter into which several dwellings or tenements may drain;

We authorize and require such Guardians to cause such dwelling-houses to be cleansed and purified, and such drain, ditch, watercourse, or gutter, to be frequently and effectually cleansed, and such nuisance or matter injurious to health to be abated and removed respectively, and to do all acts and provide all matters and things necessary for that purpose.

IX. And we do further authorize and require the Guardians to direct their clerk to make out from the Register of Deaths, or from the District Medical Relief Books, and from any public books or other sources from which information may be obtained within the union, a list of places where epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases have of late been frequent.

X. And we authorize and require such Guardians to cause the medical officers employed by them, or specially appointed for the purpose, to visit the places, of which a list shall be made out as aforesaid, and all such neighbouring or other places within such union or parish, as shall appear to such medical officers (from being under like circumstances with the places included in such list or otherwise) to require visitation or examination.

XI. And each such medical officer shall, where it may be necessary, certify in writing to the Board of Guardians, and to the surveyors, trustees, occupiers, or others, required to execute these directions and regulations, all such places as are in a state dangerous to health, or need frequent and effectual cleansing by way of preservation against disease, and such dwelling-houses as are in a filthy and unwholesome condition, and all such nuisances and matters injurious to health as ought to be abated, cleansed, and removed under these regulations.

XII. And each such medical officer shall forthwith, upon any case of cholera, or of typhus, or other epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases becoming known to him within the parish, union, or district under his visitation, report the same to the Board of Guardians.

XIII. And where it shall be certified to the Guardians by their medical officer or officers, or where it shall otherwise sufficiently appear to such Guardians, that extraordinary medical aid is required for persons attacked or threatened by cholera or epidemic, endemic, or contagious disease, we authorize and require such Guardians to provide sufficient medical aid, and in suitable places such medicines as may be required within their respective unions or parishes for necessitous persons attacked by cholera or by premonitory symptoms, and to make arrangements for the distribution of notices, stating the places where aid and medicines shall have been provided.

XIV. Whereas it has heretofore been found impracticable to ensure proper treatment in their own houses to many of the poorer classes, we authorize and require the said Guardians, where it shall appear that such extraordinary aid is required, to provide suitable rooms or places, capable of accommodating necessitous cases, to which persons attacked by cholera, who cannot be properly treated in their own houses, may be conveyed.

XV. And we also authorize and require the said Guardians, where it shall appear needful, to provide rooms or places of refuge to which may be removed the families of such necessitous persons as have been attacked with cholera, and also such necessitous persons living under the same roof with, or in the vicinity of, persons so attacked, as the medical officers acting under the authority of the said Guardians may deem it necessary to remove; and the houses, rooms, or dwellings, from which persons may have been so removed to the houses of refuge, shall be cleansed and purified by the owners, persons having the care or ordering thereof, or, in their default, by the said Guardians.

XVI. And on the occurrence of any case of cholera, or other epidemic, endemic, or contagious disease, in any room occupied by one family or more, we hereby authorize and require the medical officer to remove or cause to be removed, either the patient, or so many of the occupants of such room as he shall consider would, unless removed, tend to prevent the recovery of the patient, or endanger the spreading of the disease.

XVII. And in case of death by cholera, or any other epidemic, endemic, or contagious disease, we hereby authorize and require the last medical attendant, upon the person of the deceased, or in case of there having been no medical attendant, the housekeeper or person present at the death, or who is in charge of the body, forthwith to notify the fact of the death to the medical officer of the district who is charged with the execution of these orders for the prevention of the spread of such disease.

And we do hereby authorize such medical officer to give such directions as may appear to him to be needful, in respect to the care, removal, and the time of interment of the body for preventing the communication or spread of disease.

And we hereby authorize and require all persons to give such information or such assistance to such medical officer, and to be otherwise aiding him as he may need in the execution of these orders.

XVIII. And in the event of the fatal termination of any case of cholera, or of epidemic, endemic, or contagious disease, in any room occupied as a living or sleeping room by one family, or more, or by numerous persons, we hereby authorize and require the medical officer to remove, or cause to be removed as speedily as may be, either the corpse, or the persons occupying such rooms, until the corpse can be conveniently removed and properly interred.

XIX. And we do authorize and direct the said Guardians to make arrangements for obtaining daily lists of persons attacked by cholera or other epidemic disease, within their respective unions or parishes, with the particulars of their cases and treatment, and for communicating the same daily to the General Board of Health.

XX. And we do hereby authorize and direct the said Guardians, where it may appear needful, to appoint such additional medical officers, and also to appoint such other officers as may be necessary to execute, and superintend the execution of these

Regulations, and to publish and circulate, by printed handbills, or other means, notices of the provisions of the said Act for the prevention of nuisances, and of our regulations and instructions, or of such part of any of them, as it may appear desirable to make publicly known,

XXI. And we hereby direct that in these directions and regulations, the words "Guardians of the Poor," shall mean the guardians, directors, wardens, governors, or other like officers having the management of the poor for any union, parish, or place, where the matter requiring the cognizance of any such officers arises; and the word "Parish" shall include every place where the relief of the poor is administered by a Board of Guardians for such place.

Given under our Hands and under the Seal of the General Board of Health, this twenty-eighth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine.

To the Parochial Boards of the several Parishes and Combinations throughout Scotland.

To all Magistrates of Burghs; Town Councils; Commissioners of Police; Trustees or Commissioners having the charge of the Paving of Streets; Trustees having the charge of Turnpike Roads and other Highways; Trustees or Commissioners having the charge of Docks, Ports, or Harbours; Inspectors, Surveyors, or other Officers, acting under such Magistrates, Town Councils, Commissioners and Trustees; and all other Persons intrusted by Law with the care and management of the Streets and Public Ways and Places throughout Scotland;

To the Procurators Fiscal, and other Persons authorized to conduct Prosecutions before the local Courts in Scotland;

To the Owners and Occupiers of Houses, Dwellings, Churches, Buildings, and Places of Assembly, and others having the care and ordering thereof throughout Scotland;

And to all else whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by the provisions of the "Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Act, 1848," for the prevention of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases, We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, or contagious diseases. And, whereas by the said Act, it is provided that the directions and regulations to be issued, as aforesaid, shall extend to all parts or places in which the said provisions of the said Act shall, for the time being, be in force under the Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council, unless such directions or regulations shall be expressly confined to some of such parts or places, and then to such parts or places as in such directions and regulations shall be specified.

And whereas by an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 28th day of September, 1848, the said provisions of the said Act were directed to be put in force throughout the whole of Great Britain for a period of six calendar months thence next ensuing: And whereas by another Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March, 1849, the said recited order of the 28th day of September, 1848, was renewed for a further period of six calendar months from the date of the said last-mentioned Order: And whereas by another Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 25th day of September, 1849, the said first-mentioned Order was renewed for a further period of six calendar months from the said 25th day of September, 1849, which last-mentioned order is now in force throughout the whole of Great Britain: And whereas, in order to obviate any doubt as to the continuance in force of the directions and regulations hereinafter contained, which were issued under the authority of the said first-recited order, it is desirable that the same should be expressly renewed as hereinafter expressed.

Now, in exercise of the authority vested in us as aforesaid, We, the General Board of Health, do issue the directions and regulations hereinafter contained to extend to Scotland, and be in force throughout that part of the United Kingdom.

I. We direct that all magistrates, town councils, commissioners, trustees, and others by law entrusted with the care and management of the streets and public ways and places shall, through their inspectors, surveyors, or other persons under their direction, once at least in every twenty-four hours effectually cleanse all such of the streets, roads, lanes, mews, courts, alleys, wynds, entries, common stairs, and passages and public ways, and places under their respective care and management, as by the medical officer of the Parochial Board shall be certified in writing to be in a state dangerous to health, or to require frequent and effectual cleansing by way of precaution against disease, and shall remove all filth, ordure, and nuisances therefrom.

II. And where any such streets, roads, lanes, mews, courts, alleys, wynds, entries, common stairs, passages and public ways, or places adjoining to any houses or tenements, have not been entrusted by law to the care or management of any magistrates, town councils, commissioners, trustees, or others, on a notice signed by the inspector of the poor or other person, authorized by the Parochial Board, to the effect that the same has been certified by the medical officer to be in a state dangerous to health, and to require such frequent and effectual cleansing (such notice being served by delivery to any person on the premises or being pasted on the door), we direct that every occupier of a house or tenement so adjoining, shall keep or cause to be kept sufficiently cleansed, at least once in every twenty-four hours, such part of the street, road, lane, mews, court, alley, wynd, entry, common stair, passage, way, or place as adjoins the house or tenement occupied by him.

And we direct that all such works of cleansing and removal of filth, ordure, and nuisances as are required by these directions and regulations, shall be done in such manner by effectual washing or otherwise, and with the use of such fluids or substances for preventing the escape of obnoxious effluvia during the operation, as the medical officer of the Parochial Board shall think necessary and shall direct.

III. We do hereby authorize and require the Parochial Boards throughout Scotland, by themselves or by their officers or persons employed under them in the administration of the laws for the relief of the Poor, or by officers or persons specially appointed in this behalf to superintend and see to the execution of the foregoing directions and regulations within their respective parishes and combinations.

IV. And further, where it shall appear that by want or neglect of the magistrates, town councils, commissioners, trustees, inspectors, surveyors, or others entrusted with the care and management as aforesaid, or by reason of poverty of the occupiers, or otherwise, there may be any default or delay in the cleansing of or removing nuisances from any street, row, lane, mews, court, alley, wynd, entry, common stair, passage, or public way or place, certified as aforesaid, we authorize and require the parochial board of the parish, or combination, to cause such street, row, lane, mews, court, alley, wynd, entry, common stair, passage, way, or place, to be effectually cleansed, and all nuisances to be removed therefrom, and do all acts, matters, and things, necessary for that purpose.

V. We also direct as follows: That—

When and so often as any dwelling-house, in any part or place to which these directions and regulations extend, is in such a filthy and unwholesome condition as to be a nuisance to, or injurious to the health of, any person; or,

Where, upon any premises, or any part or place as aforesaid, there is any foul and offensive drain, ditch, gutter, privy, cesspool, or ashpit, or any drain, ditch, gutter, privy, cesspool, or ashpit, kept or constructed so as to be a nuisance to, or injurious to the health of, any person; or,

Where, upon any such premises, swine, or any accumulation of dung, manure, offal, filth, refuse, or other matter or thing, is kept, so as to be a nuisance to, or injurious to the health of, any person; or,

Where, upon any such premises, (being a building used wholly or in part as a dwelling-house) or being premises underneath any such building, any animal is kept, so as to be a nuisance, or injurious to the health of, any person.

In each of the above-recited cases, the owner or occupier, and persons having the care or ordering of such dwelling-house, or of the premises where the nuisance or matter injurious to health may be, shall cleanse, whitewash, or otherwise purify, as the case may require, such dwelling-house or building, or abate or remove the nuisance, or matter injurious to health, as aforesaid, with all reasonable speed after the publication of these our directions and regulations, or after the nuisance, or matter injurious to health, shall have arisen.

VI. We authorize and require the Parochial Boards throughout Scotland, by themselves, or by officers by them authorized in this behalf—

To see to the execution of the directions hereinbefore contained, for the cleansing and purifying of dwelling-houses, and for the abatement and removal of nuisances and matters injurious to health, in every place in which there shall not be magistrates, town councils, commissioners, trustees, or others, having jurisdiction or authority to put the above directions in force, or where they have not caused them to be effectually executed; and for that purpose—

To visit, from time to time, or cause to be visited, the several dwellings and places where there may be ground for believing that necessity will arise for executing such directions.

VII. And in every case in which, from the poverty of occupiers, or otherwise, there may be default or delay in the cleansing or purifying of any such dwelling-house, or in the removal of any such nuisance or matter injurious to health; and the medical officer, or other person duly authorized, as aforesaid, shall certify that the same requires immediate attention.

We authorize and require such Parochial Boards to cause such dwelling-houses to be cleansed and purified, and such drain, ditch, watercourse, or gutter, to be frequently and effectually cleansed, and such nuisance, or matter injurious to health, to be removed respectively, and to do all acts, and provide all matters and things necessary for that purpose.

VIII. And we do hereby authorize and require each Parochial Board to direct their inspector, or any other competent person, to make out from their parochial register, or from any books of medical relief, or from any other public books, or any other available source, a list as complete as the circumstances will admit of being framed, of places where epidemic, endemic, or contagious diseases have of late been frequent.

IX. And we authorize and require the Parochial Boards to cause the medical officers employed by them, or specially appointed for the purpose, to visit the places, of which a list shall be made out as aforesaid, and all such neighbouring and other places within such parish or combination as shall appear to such medical officers (from being under like circumstances with the places included in such list or otherwise) to require visitations or examination.

X. And each such medical officer shall, where it may be necessary, certify in writing to the Parochial Board, and to the magistrates, council, trustees, commissioners, inspectors, surveyors, occupiers, or others required to execute these directions and regulations, all such places as are in a state dangerous to health or need frequent and effectual cleansing by way of preservation against disease, and such houses as are in a filthy and unwholesome condition, and all such nuisances and matters injurious to health as ought to be cleansed and removed under these regulations.

XI. And we hereby direct that whenever any Parochial Board shall be certified through their medical officer, or otherwise, that any person has been attacked with malignant cholera within the bounds of their parish or combination, they shall intimate the same by the earliest post or other obtainable conveyance to the General Board of Health, in order that the said Board may issue regulations to such Parochial Board relating to medical relief.

XII. And each such medical officer shall forthwith, upon any case of cholera or of typhus or other epidemic, and other contagious diseases becoming known to him within the parish or district under his visitation, report the same to the Parochial Board.

XIII. And we do hereby authorize and direct the said Parochial Boards, where it may appear needful to appoint such additional medical officers, and also to appoint such other officers as may be necessary to execute and superintend the execution of these regulations, and to publish and circulate by printed hand-bills or other means, notices of the provisions of the said Act for the Prevention of Nuisances, and of our regulations and instructions or of such part of any of them as it may appear desirable to make publicly known.

XIV. We direct that where it shall be certified to any Parochial Board by their medical officer or officers, or where it shall otherwise sufficiently appear to such Parochial Board, that extraordinary medical aid is required for persons attacked or threatened by cholera, or epidemic, endemic, or contagious disease, we authorize and require such Parochial Board, without further notification, to provide sufficient medical aid and in suitable places, such medicines as may be required within their respective parishes for necessitous persons attacked by cholera, or by premonitory symptoms, and to make arrangements for the distribution of notices stating the places where aid and medicines shall have been provided.

XV. Whereas it has heretofore been found impracticable, to insure proper treatment in their own houses to many of the poorer classes, we authorize and require the Parochial Board, where it shall appear that such extraordinary aid is required, to provide suitable rooms or places capable of accommodating necessitous cases to which persons attacked by cholera, who cannot be properly treated in their own houses, may be conveyed.

XVI. And we also authorize and require the Parochial Board, where it shall appear needful, to provide rooms or places of refuge to which may be removed the families of such necessitous persons as have been attacked with cholera, and all such necessitous persons living under the same roof, with or in the vicinity of persons so attacked, as the medical officer or officers acting under the authority of the Parochial Board may deem it necessary to remove; and the houses, rooms, or dwellings from which persons may have been so removed to the places of refuge, shall be cleansed and purified by the owners or persons having the care or ordering thereof, or in their default by the Parochial Board.

XVII. And on the occurrence of any case of cholera, or other epidemic, endemic, or contagious disease, in any room occupied by one family or more, we hereby authorize and require the medical officer to remove or cause to be removed, either the patient or so many of the occupants of such room as he shall consider would, unless removed, tend to prevent the recovery of the patient, or endanger the spreading of the disease.

XVIII. And in case of death by cholera, or any other epidemic, endemic, or contagious disease, we hereby authorize and require the last medical attendant upon the person of the deceased, or in case of there having been no medical attendant, the housekeeper, or person present at the death, or who is in charge of the body, forthwith to notify the fact of the death to the medical officer of the district, who is charged with the execution of these orders for the prevention of the spread of such disease.

And we do hereby authorize such medical officer to give such directions as may appear to him to be needful in respect to the care, removal, and the time of interment of the body, for preventing the communication or spread of disease.

And we hereby authorize and require all persons to give such information or such assistance to such medical officer, and to be otherwise aiding him as he may need in the execution of these orders.

XIX. And in the event of the fatal termination of any case of cholera, or of epidemic, endemic, or contagious disease in any room occupied as a living or sleeping room by one family or more, or by numerous persons, the corpse shall be interred by those who have the charge of interring the same, within such time as may be fixed by the medical officer, and intimated by a notice signed by the inspector of the Parochial Board, and left with any person on the premises; and in the event of interment not taking place within the time so fixed, we hereby authorize and require the Parochial Board to cause to be removed, as speedily as may be, either the corpse, or the persons occupying such room, until the corpse can be conveniently removed and properly interred.

XX. And we do authorize and direct the said Parochial Boards to make arrangements for obtaining daily lists of persons attacked by cholera, or other epidemic, endemic, or contagious disease within their respective parishes, with the particulars of their cases and treatment, and for communicating the same daily to the General Board of Health.

XXI. And we do hereby authorize and direct the said Parochial Boards, where it may appear needful, to appoint such additional medical officers and also to appoint such other officers as may be necessary to execute and superintend the execution of these regulations, and to publish and circulate by printed hand-bills, or other means, notices of our directions and regulations, or of such part of any of them as it may appear desirable to make publicly known.

XXII. And we hereby direct, that in these directions and regulations and the directions and regulations already issued by us as aforesaid, the words "Parochial Board" shall mean the Parochial Board or other like officers having the management of the poor for any parish, combination, or place, where the matter requiring the cognizance of such officers arises, and the word "parishes" shall include "combination."

XXIII. And whereas, by the said Act it is provided that whosoever shall wilfully obstruct any person acting under the authority or employed in the execution of the same, or shall wilfully violate any direction or regulation issued by the General Board of Health, shall be liable for every such offence to a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds recoverable by a summary process before the Sheriff or two Justices of the Peace, at the instance of the Procurator Fiscal, or any other person; all Procurators Fiscal, and other persons who may be concerned, are hereby required to institute such proceedings according to law, as may be necessary for the enforcement of these regulations.

Given under our Hands, and under the Seal of the General Board of Health, this twenty-eighth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine.

CONTRACT FOR BUNTIN, WORSTED, COLOURS, FLAGS, &c.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, September 28, 1849.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Tuesday the 23rd October next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dockyards with

Buntin and Worsted; and Colours and Flags, made of Silk, Buntin, and Linen; and Linen and Thread for making Colours and Flags.

Samples of the Buntin, Worsted, Linen, and Thread, and a form of the tender, may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Buntin, &c." and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £1000, for the due performance of the contract.

London Assurance Office, No. 7, Royal Exchange, Cornhill, October 3, 1849.

THE Court of Directors of the Corporation of the London Assurance hereby give notice, that the dividend warrants for the half year ending at Michaelmas 1849, will be ready to be delivered to the Proprietors in both charters on Saturday the 13th instant, and will continue to be delivered every day, from eleven till three o'clock, Saturdays and holydays excepted; also that the property tax, payable under the Act eleventh Vict. cap. 8, will be paid by the Corporation and not deducted from the dividends.

John Laurence, Secretary.
