

parts of places comprised within the boundaries of the said borough for the purposes of the said Act, for the regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales, and that such area, places, and parts of places should be and constitute a district for the purpose of the said Public Health Act accordingly."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby, under and in pursuance of the Public Health Act, 1848, order and direct, that from and after the date of this Order, the Public Health Act, and every part thereof, except the sections numbered 50 and 96 in the copies of that Act, printed by Her Majesty's printers, shall be applied to and be in force within and throughout the entire area, places, and parts of places comprised within the boundaries at present fixed as the boundaries of the borough of Wigan, in the county of Lancaster, and that such area, places, and parts of places shall be and constitute a district for the purposes of the said Public Health Act accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Whitehall, October 13, 1849.

The Queen has been pleased to present the Reverend James Hay to the church and parish of Lunan, in the presbytery of Aberbrothock, and county of Forfar, vacant by the death of the Reverend Robert Barclay, late Minister thereof.

Whitehall, October 15, 1849.

The Queen has been pleased to present the Reverend Robert Stewart to the church of Strontian, in the presbytery of Mull, and shire of Argyll, vacant by the transportation of the Reverend Colin A. McVean, late Minister thereof, to the parish of Kilninver.

In pursuance of the directions of an Act, passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to repeal so much of two Acts, made in the tenth and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, as authorizes the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out writs for the election of Members to serve in Parliament, in the manner therein mentioned, and for substituting other provisions for the like purposes:"

I do hereby give notice, that it hath been certified to me, in writing, under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament; that Daniel Callaghan, Esq., late a Member serving in this present Parliament for the city of Cork, departed this life on the 30th day of September last; and that I shall issue my warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new writ for the electing of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the said city, in the room of the said Daniel Callaghan, deceased, at the end of fourteen days after the insertion of this notice in the London Gazette.

Given under my hand the 13th day of October 1849.

CHARLES SHAW LEFEVRE, Speaker.

Whitehall, October 3, 1849.

The Queen, taking into Her royal consideration that, upon the decease of John, late Earl of Mayo, without issue, which happened on or about the 23rd day of May last, the title and dignity of Earl of Mayo devolved upon his nephew and heir Robert, now Earl of Mayo, as eldest son of the late Richard, Lord Bishop of Waterford, the second son of Joseph Deane, Earl of Mayo, and next brother to the said John, late Earl of Mayo, and that, according to the ordinary rule of honour, the sisters of the said Robert, now Earl of Mayo, cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to them in case their said late father had survived his brother, the said John, late Earl of Mayo, and had thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Earl of Mayo; Her Majesty hath been graciously pleased to ordain and declare, that Mildred, the wife of Robert Uniacke, of Woodhouse, in the county of Waterford, Esq. Frances, the wife of William-Henry Carter, of Castlemartin, in the county of Kildare, Esq. and Catherine, the wife of Henry-Prittié Perry, Clerk, the sisters of the said Robert, now Earl of Mayo, shall henceforth have, hold and enjoy, the same titles, place, pre-eminence and precedence as if their said late father, Richard, Lord Bishop of Waterford, had survived his elder brother, John, late Earl of Mayo, and had thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Earl of Mayo.

And Her Majesty hath been further pleased to command that the said royal order and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, October 16th, 1849.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto John-Ernest Pickering, of Christleton, in the county palatine of Chester, Gentleman, second son of Thomas Pickering, of the same place, by Arabella, his wife, one of the sisters of the late Thomas Hodson, of the city of Chester and of Christleton aforesaid, Soap Manufacturer, deceased, Her royal licence and authority that he, the said John-Ernest Pickering, and his issue, may, in compliance with a proviso in the last will and testament of his late maternal uncle, the said Thomas Hodson, deceased, assume, take and bear, the surname of Hodson, in lieu of the surname of Pickering, and continue to bear the surname of Hodson only:

And also to command that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Newport.—Legal Quay.

We, the undersigned, being two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby, under the authority of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Customs," appoint the following place, within the port of Newport, to be a legal quay for the lading and unlading of goods, and we do hereby declare the bounds and extents of such quay to be as follow; that is to say: All that open place, quay, or wharf, situate on the east-north-east side of the Custom-house, called Blaendare-wharf, bounded on the north by the Tredegar Packet-wharf, on the south by the Blaenaven-wharf, on the east by the river Usk, and on the west by the canal, being in length across the centre fifty-nine yards, in breadth at the centre thirty-two yards, and along the river side thirty-seven yards, and along the canal side fifty yards.

Whitehall Treasury Chambers, this 11th day of October 1849.-
