

Bolton and St. Hellens' Road. (Amendment of Act.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the tenth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing and improving the roads from Bolton-le-Moors to the Turnpike-road, in Parr, leading from Saint Hellens to Ashton, all in the county palatine of Lancaster;" or to repeal the said Act, and to grant more effectual powers for repairing and maintaining the roads included in the said Act, except so much thereof as may be within the limits of any local act for paving or improving any town, borough or place; and in such Bill it is intended to repeal or otherwise to omit and discontinue the power to make and maintain two certain diversions and alterations in the said roads, one of the said diversions being described in the said Act, as commencing at or near a garden in the occupation of William Parr, in the township of Parr, and terminating at or near the north-westerly corner of a meadow, called Long Close, in the occupation of Peter Dixon, in the said township of Parr; and the other said diversion being also described in the said Act as commencing at or near a farm-house, called Top-o'th-Brow, in the occupation of John Hill, in the said township of Parr, and terminating in the road leading from Saint Hellens to Ashton, at a piece of waste ground near to a farm-house, called Rimmers, in the occupation of Henry Taylor, in the said township of Parr; and notice is hereby further given, that by such Bill it is intended to alter the tolls now payable upon the said roads, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, or duties, and other rights and privileges.—Dated this first day of November 1849.

J. K. Watkins and Son, Solicitors, Bolton.

Colonization Assurance Company, for incorporating and giving powers to the Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to incorporate the Company, commonly called or known by the name of "The Colonization Assurance Company," established for the purpose of effecting life insurances (including an application of the principle of life assurance to the sale of land, calculated to promote the peopling and cultivation of the various colonies and dependencies of the British Empire), for dealing in annuities, reversions and endowments, and for carrying forward emigration, either from Great Britain or other countries to the colonies and dependencies aforesaid, and to confer or to enable the said Company to acquire from the Imperial Government and the Legislatures of all the said colonies and dependencies, respectively, all rights, privileges, and immunities necessary or convenient for the objects of the said Company, including the rights of buying, holding, leasing, and selling lands, and including also in the said Bill provisions for the purpose of limiting the responsibility of the proprietors of the stock of the said Company to the amount of their shares in such stock respectively, and enabling the said Company to sue and be sued in their corporate capacity, and all necessary and convenient powers and facilities for making, enforcing and recovering calls, reducing or altering the amount of the shares, for creating and transferring scrip and shares, and executing mortgages, debentures and other securities, for increasing the capital of the said Company, for consolidating and converting shares into stock, and for raising and borrowing money by mortgage or otherwise, together with such powers for adjusting and protecting the rights of the insurers and the shareholders, and the remittance or payment of dividends or interest in respect of shares or other interests in, and debentures and other obligations of, the said Company, and such further and other powers, privileges, and immunities in relation to the premises, or any of them respectively, as may be deemed advisable, and to confer, vary and extinguish exemptions from all other rights or privileges which will obstruct or interfere with the carrying into effect the purposes of the said Company.—Dated this 3rd day of November 1849.

G. W. Abbott, Solicitor, 13, Birchin-lane.

Law, Holmes, Airton, and Turnbull, Parliamentary Agents, 18, Flud-der-street.

The Carlisle Gas Light and Coke Company.

(Authorizing a Transfer of the Company's Works and Powers to the Corporation: Enabling the Corporation to light the City and its environs, and to raise money, and to execute other powers: Repeal or alteration of Acts for lighting the City and its environs; and other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for leave to bring in a Bill to authorize The Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the city of Carlisle to purchase or acquire, or to accept a transfer of, all the houses, lands, plant, works, mains, pipes, stock, debts, gas-rents, and other monies, shares, property, and effects, and powers, rights, and privileges of "The Carlisle Gas Light and Coke Company," incorporated by an Act passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, entitled "An Act for lighting the City of Carlisle, and the suburbs thereof with gas;" and also to enable the said Company to contract for the sale or transfer of their said undertaking and powers, rights, and privileges, and to sell, convey, and transfer the same accordingly to the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens for the benefit of the inhabitants of the said city, or otherwise.

And notice is also hereby given, that in the said Bill so to be applied for powers will be inserted for the following purposes, or some of them; that is to say: To enable the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens to light, and to furnish a further and better supply of gas to the said city, and the several portions without the said city of the several parishes of Saint Mary otherwise Saint Mary, Carlisle, Saint Cuthbert otherwise Saint Cuthbert, Carlisle, and the parish of Stanwix, all in the county of Cumberland, and the liberties, precincts, and extra-parochial places within the said city and parishes, or any of them (being the district comprised within the limits of the said Act incorporating the said Company), and for such purposes to enlarge and extend the present gasworks of the said Company, and to construct other gasworks, and to lay down mains and pipes and other apparatus in and through the streets, squares, courts, alleys, highways, lanes, roads, thoroughfares, and public passages and places within the limits of the said district; to enable the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens to receive and recover rents and charges for the supply of gas to the inhabitants, and for the public lights, within the said district, and to purchase and hold lands and houses for the purposes to be authorized