Shropshire Union Railways and Canal.

Abandonment of Newtown to Crewe and Chester and Wolverhampton Lines, Reduction of Capital, Arrangements with London and North-Western Railway Company, Amendment of Acts.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session for an Act to authorize the Shropshire Union Railways and Canal Company to relinquish and abandon the formation of the whole of the railways, branch railways, and works respectively authorized to be made by "The Shropshire Union Railways and Canal Newtown to Crewe (with Branches) Act, 1846," and "The Shropshire Union Railways and Canal (Chester and Wolverhampton Line) Act, 1846," and to repeal all powers in the said Acts, or in either of them contained for constructing or maintaining the said railways, branch railways, and works, or for converting into railways certain canals in the said Acts mentioned, or for stopping up such canals.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to reduce the capital of the said Company, and the amount which the said Company are authorized to borrow, and to alter the nominal value of the shares into which such capital is divided and the number of such shares.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to provide that the powers granted by the Shropshire Union Railways and Canal Lease Act, 1847, to the London and North-Western Railway Company to take, and to the Shropshire Union Railways and Canal Company to grant, a lease of the undertaking of the said last-mentioned Company, shall extend and apply to the undertaking of such Company after the abandonment of the works aforesaid; and powers will be given by the said intended Act to the said Companies to make such alterations in the terms upon which the said undertaking is now authorized to be leased, as may be necessary or expedient, and to alter the provisions of the last-mentioned Act with reference to the use and management of the said undertaking, and with reference to the constitution of the Joint Committee of Management by such Act appointed, and generally to make all such arrangements with reference to the use, maintenance, and management of the said undertaking, and for the payment of the debts or liabilities of the said Shropshire Union Railways and Canal Company as may appear proper or expedient, and to authorize the levying by the said London and North-Western and Shropshire Union Railways and Canal Companies, or either of them, of tolls, rates, and duties, in respect of the use of the works which will hereafter form the said undertaking, and the raising of money for the purposes aforesaid, or some of them.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to alter, extend, amend, vary, enlarge, or repeal some of the provisions of the following Acts of Parliament, or some of them, relating to the Shropshire Union Railways and Canal Company; (that is to say): Local and Personal Acts, 9 and 10 Vic., caps. 304, 322, and 323; and 10 and 11 Vic., cap. 236; and also of the following Acts, relating directly or indirectly to the London and North-Western Railway Company; (that is to say): Local and Personal Acts, 8th and 9th Vic., cap. 156; 9th and 10th Vic., caps. 67, 80, 82, 152, 182, 184, 193, 204, 231, 233, 244, 248, 261, 269, 309, 328, 331, 359, 368, 369, 396; 10th and 11th Vic., caps. 73, 107, 114, 118, 121, 132, 139, 159, 178, 188, 228, 270, 271, 278, and 294; 11th and 12th Vic., caps. 60 and 130; and 12th and 13th Vic., cap. 74. And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to alter, amend, vary, repeal, or to consolidate the powers and provisions of the following Acts, or some of them, namely—the Acts relating to the Ellesmere and Chester Canal Navigation, passed respectively in the eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the 4th, in the 11th year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the 4th, in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, in the fifth year of the reign of Her said present Majesty, in the eighth year of the reign of Her said present Majesty, and in the ninth year of the reign of Her said present Majesty; the Act relating to the Shrewsbury Canal Navigation, passed in the 33rd year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the 3rd; and the several Acts relating to the Montgomeryshire Canal, or Eastern Branch of the said Montgomeryshire Canal, passed respectively in the 34th and 55th years of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the 3rd, in the second year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the 4th; and the several Acts relating to the Western Branch of the Montgomeryshire Canal, passed respectively in the 55th year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the 3rd, and in the fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the 4th.

Metropolitan Waterworks.

(Henley-on-Thames and London Aqueduct.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session for leave to bring in a Bill for the supply of water to the metropolis from the River Thames, at or near the Henley Reach thereof, which Bill is intended to contain provisions for the following purposes, or some of them; namely:

1. The appointment of Commissioners, to whom shall be entrusted the execution of the Act when obtained.

2. The removal of the lock called the Hambleton Lock, with the weir and other works adjacent thereto, such lock and weir being situate on the Thames and Isis navigation, in the parishes of Hambleton, in the county of Bucks, and Remenham, in the county of Berks, or one of them; and the embankment of the River Thames from the present situation of such lock in the said parishes, or one of them, through and into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places of Hambleton and Medmenham, or one of them, in the county of Bucks, and Remenham, Wargrave, and Hurley, or some of them, in the county of Berks; and the construction of a new lock and other works at the termination of such embankments, at or near Medmenham Abbey, in the said parishes of Medmenham, Hurley and Wargrave, or some of them.

3. The making of a watercourse for carrying off the water from Hambleton Mill, such watercourse commencing at or near the said mill, in the said parish of Hambleton, and terminating in the River Thames, in the said parish of Medmenham, near to Medmenham Abbey aforesaid.

4. The making of a watercourse for the drainage of the lands, from near Hambleton Lock aforesaid, through the parishes of Remenham, Wargrave, and Hurley, and terminating in the River Thames, in the last-named parish, near Medmenham Abbey.

5. The making and maintaining of an aqueduct, with the necessary cuts or conduits for the purpose of conveying water for the supply of the districts mentioned in the ninth section of this notice; such aqueduct commencing from and out of the south side of the River Thames (at or near the new lock so to be constructed as before described) in the said parish of Hurley, passing thence from, in, through, and into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places of Remenham, Wargrave, Hurley, Bisham, Cookham, Bray, and Maidenhead, or some of them, in the county of Berks; and Burnham, Taplow, Hitcham, Farnham Royal, Stoke Poges, Wexham, Upton, Upton cum Chalvey, Langley Marsh, Slough, Colnbrook, and Iver, or some of them, in the county of Bucks; Hillingdon and West Drayton, Uxbridge, Hayes, Norwood, Southall, Cowley, Harlington, Harmondsworth, Heston, Cranford, Perivale, Greenford, Hanwell, Northolt, Ickenham, Ruislip, Pinner, Harrow-on-the-Hill, New Brentford, Ealing, Acton, Twyford, Twyford Abbey, Hendon, Willesden, Harlesden, Kingsbury, Paddington, and Saint John, Hampstead, or some of them, in the county of Middlesex; and terminating at or near Shoot-up-hill-lane, near West End, in the said parish of Saint John, Hampstead.

6. The making and maintaining of a main conduit from the reservoir hereinafter fourthly mentioned in the parish of Saint John, Hampstead, passing through the several parishes of Saint John, Hampstead; Willesden; Paddington; Saint Marylebone; Saint Mary Abbott, Kensington; Saint George, Hanover-square; Saint Martin in the Fields; Saint James, Westminster; Saint Margaret, Westminster; Saint John the Evangelist, Westminster, or some of them, in the county of Middlesex; crossing the River Thames at or near Vauxhall Bridge, passing thence through the several parishes of Saint Mary, Lambeth; Saint Giles, Camberwell; Saint Mary, Newington; and Battersea, or some of them, in the county of Surrey, and terminating at the reservoir hereinafter sixthly described.

7. The construction and maintenance of the following reservoirs, with the needful waste weirs, works, and approaches thereto; namely: 1st. A reservoir at or near the road from Cookham through Northtown to Maidenhead, and near Northtown aforesaid, in the parish of Cookham; 2nd. A reservoir at or near the Great Western Railway Station and the Grand Junction Canal, at West Drayton, in the parish of Hillingdon; 3rd. A reservoir at or near Horsington Green, in the parishes of Perivale and Harrow-on-the-Hill, or one of them; 4th. A reservoir at or above the terminus before described of the aqueduct at Shoot-up hill-lane, near West End, in Hampstead, with pumping engines, filtering-beds, and basins attached to this reservoir; 5th. A reservoir in the parish of Paddington, upon the northern side of the Paddington Canal, near the Manor House and the Bayswater Rivulet, with the necessary conduits and works, to communicate with the sewers of the metropolis, as hereinafter mentioned; 6th. A reservoir on Champion-hill, between Denmark-hill and Herne-hill, on the western side of the road leading from Camberwell to Norwood, in the Brixton district of the parish of St. Mary, Lambeth, and in the parish of Camberwell, or one of them.

8. The compulsory purchase and removal of all the mills on the River Thames situated eastward of the said new lock, which mills will be enumerated in a schedule intended to be deposited with the plans and sections hereinafter mentioned, together with all mill-streams, locks, dams, races, and works belonging to or connected with those mills.

9. The supply of water from the River Thames as aforesaid, and remotely from the navigation of the Rivers Thames and Isis, to the following parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places, and the breaking up the streets and roads, and laying pipes therein; namely: All Saints, Poplar; Saint Andrew, Holborn above Bars; Saint Andrew, Saffron-hill Liberty; Saint Anne, Limehouse; Saint Anne, Westminster; Saint Bartholomew the Great; Saint Botolph, Aldersgate; Saint Botolph Without, Aldgate; Chelsea; Chiswick; Christchurch, Middlesex; Saint Clements Danes; Saint Dunstan, Stepney; Saint Dunstan, Poplar and Blackwall; Edmonton; Fulham; Saint George, Bloomsbury; Saint Giles-in-the-Fields; Saint George-in-the-East, Middlesex; Saint George, Hanover-square; Saint George the Martyr (Queen-square); Hammersmith (hamlet); Hammersmith (parish); Saint James, Westminster; Saint James, Clerkenwell; Saint John, Clerkenwell; Saint John, Hackney; Saint John, Hampstead; Saint John, Hoxton; Saint John, Wapping; Saint John the Evangelist, Westminster; Saint Catharine, Middlesex Precinct; Saint Leonard, Shoreditch; Saint Leonard, Foster-lane; Saint Luke, Chelsea; Saffron-hill, Hatton-garden; Ely Rents and Ely-place; Ely Rents (liberty of); Old Artillery-ground (extra-parochial); Saint Catharine by the Tower; Charterhouse; Glasshouse-yard (liberty); Hatcham (manor of); Saint Peter (chapelry); Brompton (hamlet); Highgate (chapelry); Saint Luke, Old-street; Saint Margaret, Westminster; Saint Mark's District, Clerk-

Burchell and Parson, 47, Parliament-street, Westminster.

East and West India Docks and Birmingham Junction Railway.

Branches to the Eastern Counties Railway and London and Blackwall Extension Railway,—Power to raise further Capital,—Power to the London and North Western Railway Company and the East and West India Dock Company to subscribe,—Power to sell or lease,—Amendment of Act and repeal of provisions therein relating to the construction of bridges and Viaducts.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for an Act to authorize the East and West India Docks and Birmingham Junction Railway Company to effect a junction with the Bow extension of The London and Blackwall Railway by a Branch Railway diverging from the said East and West India Docks and Birmingham Junction Railway, at a point closely contiguous to the Bow-road, in the parish of Bromley Saint Leonard, in the county of Middlesex, passing thence wholly through the said parish of Bromley Saint Leonard, and terminating in the same parish by a junction with the said Bow Extension of the said London and Blackwall Railway, at a point closely contiguous to the south-eastern corner of the City of London and Tower Hamlets Cemetery, in a field belonging to the London and Blackwall Railway Company or Mrs. Eleanor Sarah Ram.

And also to authorize the construction and maintenance by the said East and West India Docks and Birmingham Junction Railway Company of a branch or connecting railway, with all proper works, approaches, and conveniences connected therewith, diverging from and out of the line of the East and West India Docks and Birmingham Junction Railway, at a point near to the Bow-road, in the parish of Saint Mary, Stratford-le-Bow, otherwise Saint Mary-le-Bow, in the county of Middlesex, in a field or market-garden belonging to the said last-mentioned Company and Sir Charles Morgan, or one of them, and now in the occupation of Isaac Ratford, from thence passing wholly through the said parish of Saint Mary, Stratford-le-Bow, otherwise Saint Mary-le-Bow, and terminating by a junction with the Eastern Counties Railway in a field or market-garden belonging to the said Sir Charles Morgan, and now in the occupation of the said Isaac Ratford, in the same parish and county.

Also a branch or connecting railway, with all proper works, approaches, and conveniences connected therewith diverging from the said East and West India Docks and Birmingham Junction Railway, at a point closely contiguous to Old Ford-road, in the said parish of Saint Mary, Stratford-le-Bow, otherwise Saint Mary-le-Bow, in a field belonging to the said East and West India Docks and Birmingham Junction Railway Company, and now in the occupation of Farnham Flowers, passing thence wholly through the said last-mentioned parish, and terminating by a junction with the Eastern Counties Railway in a field or market-garden also belonging to the said Sir Charles Morgan, and in the occupation of the said Isaac Ratford.

And also a branch or connecting railway, with all proper works, approaches, and conveniences connected therewith, diverging from the last-mentioned proposed branch railway, at a point in the last-mentioned parish, where the new road leading from Bearbinder-lane to Old Ford-road, diverges from Bearbinder-lane aforesaid, in fields belonging to the said East and West India Docks and Birmingham Junction Railway Company and Sir Charles Morgan, and now in the occupation of the said Company, and the said Isaac Ratford, passing thence wholly through the said last-mentioned parish, and terminating in the same parish by a junction with the said Eastern Counties Railway at a point near to Fairfield-road, and the South Western corner of the coach manufactory of Messieurs Adams and Company.

And it is also intended by such Act to take power to stop up, alter, or divert, whether temporarily or permanently, all turnpike and other roads and highways, railways, tramways, aqueducts, canals, streams, and rivers, or any of them, within the aforesaid parishes which it may be necessary to stop up, alter, or divert by reason of the construction of the said intended works, or any of them.

And it is also intended by such Act to authorize the said East and West India Docks and Birmingham Junction Railway Company to raise additional capital for the purposes of the said branch railways and other purposes of the said Company, and to take powers for the purchase of lands by compulsion or agreement for the aforesaid purposes, and for levying tolls, rates, and duties, in respect of the use of the said branch railways and works, and to grant certain exemptions from such tolls, rates, and duties.

And it is further intended by such Act to vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges in any manner connected with the lands proposed to be purchased or taken for the purposes of the said undertaking, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, or use thereof, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And it is also intended to repeal such of the provisions in "The East and West India Docks and Birmingham Junction Railway Act, 1846," as relate to the construction of the bridges and viaducts on the Camden estate, and also such of the provisions in the said Act as relate to the construction of the bridge over the Limehouse Cut of the river Lea Navigation, and to substitute other provisions in lieu thereof respectively.

And it is also intended by such Act to obtain powers for enabling the London and North Western Railway Company and the East and West India Dock Company out of their corporate or other funds to take shares in and subscribe for or towards the making, maintaining, working, and using the railway and works by "The East and West India Docks and Birmingham Junction Railway Act, 1846," authorized to be made; and also for or towards the making, maintaining, working, and using the said proposed branch railways and works; and to enable The London and North Western Railway Company and the East and West India Dock Company to raise money by shares, mortgage, or otherwise, for the purposes aforesaid, or some of them.

And it is further intended by such Act to enable The East and West India Docks and Birmingham Junction Railway Company to sell, transfer, let, or lease the said East and West India Docks and Birmingham Junction Railway, and also the said intended branch railways and works, or any of them, or any part thereof respectively, and all or any powers and privileges of such Company in connection therewith, or in relation thereto, to The London and North Western Railway Company or any other Railway Company, and to enable the said London and North Western Railway Company or other Railway Company to purchase, lease, or rent the said East and West India Docks and Birmingham Junction Railway, and the said intended branch railways and works, or some or one of them, or some part thereof, and to exercise such powers and privileges or any of them.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections describing the lines and levels of the proposed branch railways with a book of reference thereto, together with a published map whereon the general course or direction of such branch railways respectively will be defined, and a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Middlesex, at Clerkenwell, and that on or before the said 30th day of November a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to each of the parishes before mentioned, together with a copy of the said Gazette notice, will be deposited with the respective parish clerks of such parishes, at their respective places of abode.

And notice is hereby further given, that for carrying into effect all or any of the above objects it is intended to apply for powers to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of "The East and West India Docks and Birmingham Junction Railway Act, 1846;" and also an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the 9th and 10th years of the reign of her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to consolidate the London and Birmingham Grand Junction and Manchester and Birmingham Railway Companies;" and also of the several Acts relating to the said London and Birmingham Grand Junction and Manchester and Birmingham Railways, or The London and North Western Railway, or some of them, and which several Acts are distinguished in the Queen's printers' copies thereof as follows; that is to say: "local and personal" 8th and 9th Vict. cap. 156; 9th and 10th Vict. caps. 67, 80, 82, 152, 182, 184, 193, 204, 231, 233, 244, 248, 261, 269, 309, 328, 331, 359, 368, 369, and 396; 10th and 11th Vict. caps. 73, 107, 114, 118, 121, 132, 139, 159, 178, 188, 228, 270, 271, 278, and 294; and 11th and 12th Vict. caps. 60 and 130; and 12th and 13th Vict. cap. 74; and also of the several Acts relating to The East and West India Dock Company, or some of them; that is to say: an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the 1st and 2nd years of the reign of her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the several Acts relating to the East and West India Dock Company and the East India Dock Company, and to consolidate the said Companies;" and also the several Acts relating to the said West India Dock Company and East India Dock Company, or some of them, and which are distinguished in the Queen's printers' copies thereof as follows; that is to say: "local and personal" 9th Geo. 4th, cap. 95; 2nd Wm. 4th, cap. 52; 6th Wm. 4th, cap. 44; and 1st and 2nd Vict. cap. 9.

Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Carlisle Railway.

Amendment of Acts, Station at Newcastle, sale or lease of Land.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session for an Act to alter, amend, enlarge, or repeal some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Carlisle Railway Company, passed respectively in the tenth year of the reign of his Majesty King George the Fourth; in the second and fifth years of the reign of his Majesty King William the Fourth; and in the first, fifth, tenth, and thirteenth years of the reign of her present Majesty Queen Victoria.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is proposed by the said Act, so to be applied for, to authorize the Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Carlisle Railway Company to sell or lease to the York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway Company, and to authorize the last-mentioned Company to purchase, but not by compulsion, or to accept a lease of certain lands and buildings at or near the terminus of the Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Carlisle Railway, in the county of the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in and near to a place called the Spital, where the said Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Carlisle Railway Company are empowered to build and provide a station, under the Acts hereinbefore mentioned, or some of them; and to authorize the York, Newcastle, and Berwick

Railway Company to sell or lease to the Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Carlisle Railway Company, and to authorize the last-mentioned Company to purchase, but not by compulsion, or to accept a lease of certain land and buildings of the said York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway Company, adjoining and near to the land and buildings first above mentioned, and to authorize the construction of a station, buildings, and offices upon the lands above mentioned, or some of them, and upon other adjoining lands belonging to the said Railway Companies, or one of them, and to prescribe the terms, or authorize an agreement or arrangement to be made, under which the said station, buildings, and offices shall be used, and to authorize the Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Carlisle Railway Company to raise additional capital by shares and loan, or otherwise for the purpose of their undertaking.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to take powers to reduce the number of Directors of the said Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Carlisle Railway Company, and to extend the time within which lands purchased by the said Company, and not used for the works, may be sold and conveyed.

And it is also intended by the said Act to authorize the said Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Carlisle Railway Company to enter into contracts or agreements with all or some of the Railway Companies following; that is to say: the Maryport and Carlisle Railway Company, the Lancaster and Carlisle Railway Company, the Caledonian Railway Company, and the York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway Company, or any other Companies for working the lines of railway hereinafter mentioned, or any of them, or any part thereof, and for the regulation, management, and conduct of traffic, merchandize, and passengers to pass and be conveyed along the said Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Carlisle Railway, and the railway or railways of all or any of the said other Railway Companies above named, during such period not exceeding twenty-one years, and upon such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon, and to authorize the said several Railway Companies above mentioned to enter into and execute the like contracts and agreements.—Dated this 12th day of November 1849.

Peterborough Improvement, Police and Cemetery, and Amendment of existing Act.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for an Act to alter, amend, extend, enlarge, or to repeal an Act passed in the thirtieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for paving and otherwise improving the city and township of Peterborough," and for making further and better provisions for watching, draining, cleansing, and otherwise regulating and improving the several streets, lanes, roads, paths, ways, courts, passages, bridges, and other places lying and being within the parish of Saint John the Baptist, Peterborough, in the county of Northampton, and the extra-parochial district or place called or known as the Minster-precincts, which is surrounded on all sides by the same parish; and for regulating the houses and buildings within the district aforesaid, and for making and maintaining drains and watercourses, and improving the existing drains and watercourses, and removing and preventing encroachments, nuisances, annoyances, and obstructions, within the said district; also for paving all and singular the district aforesaid, excepting so much thereof as is known as the Boongate and Boonfield districts or wards, and the districts or wards known as the Crescent, the West-end, and the said extra-parochial district known as the Minster-precincts.

And powers will be applied for in the intended Act for establishing and maintaining a good and effective police within the whole of the town and city of Peterborough, including the Minster-precincts; and powers will also be applied for to enable the present Commissioners acting under the provisions of the Act hereinbefore recited, or to appoint other Commissioners to carry the said intended Act into effect; and to enable such Commissioners to purchase by compulsion or agreement, or to take on lease, all such lands and houses, tenements and hereditaments, within the district aforesaid, excluding the Minster-precincts, and that may be necessary for the purposes aforesaid; and to vary, repeal, or extinguish any existing rights and privileges connected with the lands and houses, tenements and hereditaments proposed to be taken, and also to enable the Commissioners within the said district, except the Minster-precincts, and the Dean and Chapter of Peterborough, within the said Minster-precincts, to levy and collect rates and duties, for carrying into effect the objects of the said intended Act; and to continue or alter existing tolls, rates, and duties; and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, or duties, and other rights and privileges; and also to raise money by mortgage or otherwise upon the security of the said rates and duties, and of the rates, rents, tolls, and duties to be levied by the Dean and Chapter of Peterborough, and the inhabitants of the Minster-precincts, under the powers of the said intended Act, for the purpose of carrying all or any of the objects aforesaid into effect.

And powers will be applied for, in the said Act to enable the Commissioners or other persons to to be named in, or appointed by virtue of the said Act, to supply and light with gas, or otherwise, or to contract with any Company, body or persons, to supply and light with gas or otherwise, the various streets and other public passages and places within the said city and town of Peterborough, including the Minster-precincts, except the districts or wards in the said city called or known by the name of Boongate and Boonfield; and to erect any gasometers or other works, for making and supplying gas, or to purchase by agreement any existing gasometers or works for such purposes, and to levy and collect rates or rents, for and in respect of the gas so to be supplied; and for that purpose to provide and lay down, under, or through any public or private lands, streets, roads, ways, courts, and thoroughfares, within the aforesaid districts, all necessary mains, pipes, and other works and apparatus, or to contract with other Companies, bodies or persons so to do.

And powers will also be applied for in the said Act to enable the Commissioners acting in the execution thereof to contract and enter into agreements with the Dean and Chapter of Peterborough, and the inhabitants of the precincts known as the extra-parochial district called the Minster-precincts, for paving, lighting, watching, cleansing, and otherwise regulating and improving the said district and precincts, and the streets, ways, courts, passages, and places therein; and to enable the said Dean and Chapter and the inhabitants of such precincts to levy rates, rents, tolls, and duties for the objects aforesaid, and for providing and establishing, and maintaining the Cemetery hereinafter referred to, and to alter existing rates, rents, tolls, and duties, and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from rates, rents, tolls, and duties, and other rights and privileges.

And powers will also be applied for in the said Act to enable the Churchwardens and Overseers of the parish of Saint John the Baptist, Peterborough aforesaid, together with the said Commissioners, or some of them, to provide and establish a Cemetery, with chapels annexed thereto, for the burial of the dead within the said parish of Saint John the Baptist, Peterborough, and the said Minster-precincts; which said intended Cemetery, and chapels in connection therewith, are proposed to be made, constructed, and erected in and upon the lands hereinafter mentioned, or some part thereof; videlicet:

A piece of arable land, containing twenty-one acres and thirty-six perches, called White Post Close, belonging to the Bishop of Peterborough and the Reverend Henry Parsons, and John Gates, his lessees, bounded on the south by Crawthorne Hill-road, on part of the west by the Lincoln turnpike-road, on the west and north by lands belonging to the Vicar of Peterborough, and on the east by other lands belonging to the said Bishop and his said lessees.

A close of pasture land, containing five acres and sixteen perches, belonging to the said Bishop and his said lessees, now in the occupation of Arthur Garratt, bounded on the east by the Thorney Turnpike-road, and on all other sides by lands of the said Bishop and his said lessees.

Two closes of pasture land, containing five acres, three roods, and ten perches, belonging to John Whitsed, Esquire, M.D. now in the occupation of Philip Dudley and Thomas Hill, respectively bounded on the west by the Thorney Turnpike-road, on the north by the Padholme-road, and on the east and south by the estate of Earl Fitzwilliam.

A close of arable land, containing five acres and three perches, belonging to John Gates, now occupied by John Whitwell, bounded on the north by Padholme-road, on the east by the Fen-lane, on the south by the estate of the devisees of Robert Muggleston, deceased, and on the west by the estate of Samuel Taverner.

Two closes of land, one arable and one pasture, containing twelve acres or thereabouts, now occupied by George Rowell and John Andrew Robinson, respectively belonging to the said Bishop of Peterborough and the said Henry Parsons and John Gates his lessees, bounded on the west by the Spital-road, and on all other sides by the estates of the said Bishop and his said lessees.

And it is intended by the said Act to give powers to the said Churchwardens and Overseers and Commissioners as aforesaid, to purchase by compulsion or agreement the lands and hereditaments upon which it is proposed to establish the said Cemetery, and to vary and extinguish all existing rights or privileges connected with such lands and hereditaments, and to authorise the demand and receipt of the same dues, fees, and other payments for and in respect of interments within such Cemetery as are now payable in respect of interments within the present parochial burial grounds within the said parish of Saint John the Baptist, Peterborough, and also to authorise the demand and receipt of payments in respect of exclusive rights of burial in the said Cemetery. And also to raise money by rates or assessments to be levied on all houses, lands, and hereditaments within any part of the said parish of Saint John the Baptist, Peterborough, for the purpose of purchasing, forming, and maintaining such Cemetery; and to borrow money for such purposes on the security of the said rates or assessments, and of any rates, rents, tolls, or duties to be levied by the said Dean and Chapter and the inhabitants of the said Minster-precincts, for the purposes of the said Cemetery.

And in the said Act will be contained all the powers and provisions usually inserted in Bills of a similar description, or which may be deemed necessary or expedient for carrying into effect the objects and purposes aforesaid.—Dated this sixth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine.

Clerkenwell Improvement.

(Amendment of Acts and Transfer of Powers.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for an Act to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge, or to repeal some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts following, relating to the formation of the new street to Clerkenwell-green, in the county of Middlesex, in continuation of the new street from Farringdon-street, in the city of London, called the Clerkenwell Improvement; that is to say: an Act passed in the third and fourth years of the reign of her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for opening a street to Clerkenwell-green, in the county of Middlesex, in continuation of the new street from Farringdon-street, in the city of London," and also of the several Acts passed in the fifth and sixth, in the ninth, and in the eleventh and twelfth years of the reign of her said present Majesty, for amending the said Acts, and granting further powers to the Commissioners thereby appointed.

And it is also intended to enable the Commissioners acting in the execution of the said Acts to transfer their powers to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the city of London, or to any other corporation or persons, and to enable such corporation or persons to carry out the said improvements and execute the said Acts, and also to authorize the advance of a further sum of money to the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty, out of the funds appropriated, or to be appropriated to metropolitan improvements, or out of any other fund under the management and control of the Commissioners of her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, and the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty, or of either of them.

And it is intended to vary or extinguish any rights or privileges of any persons or parishes under the said Acts, or any of them; and provision will be made for more effectually carrying out the said improvements.—Dated this 13th day of November 1849.

The Reading Union Waterworks.

For the better supplying with Water the Town of Reading and the Hamlet of Whitley, in the County of Berks.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for an Act to establish and incorporate a Company to be called "The Reading Union Waterworks Company," for the purpose of better supplying with water the inhabitants of the parishes and hamlet following; that is to say: St. Giles, St. Lawrence, and St. Mary, Reading, and the hamlet of Whitley, in the said parish of St. Giles, all in the county of Berks. And it is proposed by the said intended Act to enable the said Company to construct the works following; that is to say: an aqueduct or conduit to commence from and out of the river Kennet, opposite a meadow commonly called Chapman's-meadow, in the occupation of James Thorpe, and shortly above the point where a certain ditch, commonly known as the Foundry-ditch, otherwise Fouldrey-ditch, unites with the said river, and to terminate in a certain field adjoining the said ditch on the other side thereof, in the occupation of Richard Billing; an aqueduct or conduit to commence in the said last-mentioned field and to terminate at or near a field belonging to Sir William George Milman, Baronet, which said field abuts upon the road leading from Reading to Shinfield, and is near to the point of junction of the said road with the road called New-road, or Kendrick's-road, there to communicate with the reservoir lastly hereinafter mentioned.

An aqueduct or conduit to commence in the said last-mentioned field to form a communication with the said reservoir lastly hereinafter mentioned, and to terminate at or near the north-west corner of the said field, all in the said hamlet of Whitley, and the said parish of Saint Giles, Reading; also one or more reservoir or reservoirs to be situate partly in the said field hereinbefore described as being in the occupation of Richard Billing, and partly in a certain yard, garden, and brick-field adjoining thereto, also in the occupation of the said Richard Billing, or his under tenants; and a reservoir to be situate in or near to the said field belonging to Sir William George Milman, Baronet, together with all necessary filtering-beds, cuttings, embankments, wells, tanks, pipes, drains, engines, sluices, cocks, communications, works, and conveniences, all of which said aqueducts, conduits, and other works will be situate within the hamlet of Whitley, in the said parish of Saint Giles, Reading, in the county of Berks. And it is proposed by the said intended Act to obtain powers to take water from the river Kennet for the purposes thereof, and to enable the said Company to exercise all necessary powers for the breaking up of streets, roads, lanes, and other places for laying pipes for supplying water within the parishes and hamlet before mentioned, and also to purchase by compulsion or otherwise all such lands, tenements, and other hereditaments as may be necessary for constructing and maintaining the aqueducts, conduits, reservoirs, and works before mentioned, and to vary, extend, or extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with such lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and with the said river Kennet as would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction or maintenance of the said aqueducts, conduits, reservoirs, and works.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to enable the said Company to levy and collect rents and charges for the supply of water within the said several parishes and hamlet upon all such persons as shall be willing to take the same, and to grant total or partial exemptions from the payment of such rents and charges, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to alter, vary, interfere with, or extinguish all or some of the rights and privileges vested in, or claimed by the Reading Waterworks Company to take water out of the river Kennet, and also to enable such last-mentioned Company, and the Company proposed to be incorporated by the said intended Act, to enter into and carry into effect such agreements and contracts for the purchase or lease of the waterworks, property, estate, and effects of the said Reading Waterworks Company, or any part thereof, and for such several purposes to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of the several Acts following; that is to say: an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the better and more effectually supplying with water the inhabitants of the several parishes of St. Mary, St. Lawrence, and St. Giles, Reading, in the county of Berks," and an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to enable the Reading Waterworks Company to extend their works, and for explaining and enlarging the powers of the Act relating to such Company." And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans describing the line or course and situation of the said intended aqueducts, conduits, and reservoirs, and the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with sections of the said aqueducts, conduits, and reservoirs, and a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the said lands, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Berks, at his office, at Abingdon, and that on or before the said 30th day of November a copy of the said plans and sections and book of reference, together with a copy of this notice, will be deposited with the parish clerk of the said parish of St. Giles, Reading, at his place of abode.—Dated this fifth day of November 1849.

South Devon Railway.

(Creation of additional Capital, and regulation of Priority of Dividends.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for an Act to authorize the South Devon Railway Company to raise an amount of capital to be applied exclusively in redemption of the mortgage or bond debt of the said Company created under the powers of their existing Acts, such capital to be raised by the creation of shares, of such nominal value, and with such privileges attached of priority or preference in the payment of dividend to all existing classes of shares in the Company, as may be determined upon by the Company, or enacted by Parliament; and to authorize and empower the said Company, and the holders of mortgages or bonds granted by the said Company, to enter into mutual arrangements for the substitution and allotment of such shares in lieu and in payment of such mortgages or bonds, and to place the holders of such shares in the same position, as nearly as may be, as the holders of the mortgages or bonds granted by the said Company as aforesaid.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to authorize the said Company to raise additional capital, by the creation of shares or by the issue of shares in lieu of cancelled or forfeited shares, of such nominal value and with such privileges attached of priority in payment of dividend as may be determined upon by the Company or enacted by Parliament, for the purpose of enabling the said Company to discharge all their other outstanding debts and liabilities, and for the general purposes of the Company.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to authorize the cancelling or merging in the general stock of the Company of all or any shares in the Company which have not been issued, and also all or any shares which have been or may be forfeited or surrendered to the Company; and it is also proposed by the said intended Act to commute or vary the privilege of priority in payment of dividends now attaching to certain shares created under the authority of the South Devon Railway Act (Amendment and Branches), 1846, and also to enable the said Company, and the several classes of shareholders in the said Company, to enter into such mutual arrangements as they shall think fit, for the redemption or commutation of all or any peculiar rights and privileges attached to any particular class of shares, and to provide that the consent of a majority of not less than three-fifths of any particular class of shareholders, shall bind the minority in respect of any such arrangement as aforesaid, and generally to make such arrangements with reference to the existing capital of the Company as may be expedient or determined on by the Company.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to transfer, or ratify and confirm to the Midland Railway Company the power of appointing a director of the South Devon Railway Company, conferred by the "South Devon Railway Act, 1844," upon the then Bristol and Gloucester Railway Company, since incorporated with the Midland Railway Company.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to alter, amend, vary, extend, enlarge, or repeal all or some of the provisions of "The South Devon Railway Act, 1844;" "The South Devon Railway Act (Amendment and Branches), 1846;" and of "The South Devon Railway Act (Extensions and Amendment), 1847."—Dated the tenth day of November 1849.

W. O. and W. Hunt, 10, Whitehall, London.

Southampton Improvement—(Amendment and Extension of Act).

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for leave to bring in a Bill to amend, extend, and enlarge the powers of an Act passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for Paving, Lighting, Draining, Cleansing, and otherwise Improving the Town of Southampton, and for removing and preventing Nuisances and Annoyances therein." And by said Bill it is intended to alter the qualification of the Commissioners, and to levy tolls, rates, and duties, and to alter existing tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, and extinguish other rights and privileges, also powers for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses, and to extinguish all rights and privileges in any manner connected with the lands and houses proposed to be taken for the purposes of the said Bill; and also powers enabling the Commissioners under said intended Bill to recover the rates authorized by said recited Act, and said intended Bill, to be levied by means of the County Court, or by imprisonment, as in the case of poor's rates, and also to restrain the Commissioners having more than two rates in the course of collection.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended by said Bill to obtain powers to prevent the erection of any building within 15 feet of the centre of any highway within the limits of said intended Bill, and also for the better prevention of nuisances, and for the punishment of persons committing same; and also to take powers to erect, form, and maintain a public library and scientific institution for all classes; and also to erect baths and wash-houses, and also common lodging-houses, and to compel the owners or occupiers of factories, upon notice, to erect water-closets for the use of persons employed therein, and all other powers for the sanitary and general improvement of said town and the public health of the inhabitants.

And it is intended to obtain powers for making either the mortgagee or owner of property pay the sewer rates or fees; also for prohibiting interment in the All Saints' Burial-ground, except in vaults or brick graves already constructed, and to prohibit the bringing of any action or prosecution against any person executing the provisions of said Bill, six months after the cause of action shall arise.

And notice is hereby further given, that by said Bill it is intended to take powers to enable the Commissioners to borrow a sum of money upon the security of the rates by said recited Act or intended Bill authorised to be levied for the completion of the sewerage of the said town of Southampton. And also a further sum of money to carry out and complete the several improvements authorised by said recited Act and intended Bill. Also to give powers to said Commissioners, at their discretion, to make and complete out of such money, and also by and out of the rates authorised to be levied, all and every the improvements authorised by the said recited Act or intended Bill, and for this purpose to repeal or vary any clause or clauses restricting same in the said Act of 7th and 8th Victoria.

And notice is hereby given, that it is intended by said Bill to give power to said Commissioners thereunder to make a New street into French Street, in the parish of Saint Michael, leading from the High Street, in the parish of Holy Rhood, opposite to Bridge Street, in the parish of Holy Rhood aforesaid, and passing down the north side of Saint Michael's Church into Saint Michael's Square, in the parish of Saint Michael aforesaid. And that on or before the 30th day of November instant, Plans, Sections, and Books of Reference to the aforesaid street and works, and also a copy of this Notice, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Southampton, at his office, in the city of Winchester; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the town and county of the town of Southampton, at his office, in Portland-street, in the said town and county of the town of Southampton. And also on or before that day, a copy of so much of the said Plans, Sections, and Books of Reference as relates to each of the parishes in or through which said works are intended to be made, and a copy of this Notice, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his place of abode.—Dated this eighth day of November 1849.

Solicitor for the Bill.*

River Dee Conservancy and Improvement.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session for an Act to constitute Commissioners or Trustees, or a Board or Committee of Conservancy, for the River Dee and estuary thereof, from a point in the said river called Wilcox Point, in or near to the city of Chester, in the parish of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, in the city of Chester, and county of the same city, down to a point called the Point of Aire, at or near the mouth of the said river, on the west shore thereof, in the parish of Llanasa and county of Flint; and also down to another point called Hilbre Point, likewise at or near to the mouth of the said river, on the east shore thereof, in the parish of West Kirby, in the hundred of Wirral, in the county of Chester, and including all streams, havens, creeks, bays, and inlets within the limits aforesaid; and to vest in such Commissioners, Trustees, Board, or Committee, all the rights, powers, and privileges, which the Company of Proprietors of the undertaking for recovering and preserving the navigation of the River Dee, or the Mayor or Citizens of Chester, or any other corporations or persons, have heretofore possessed at common law, by prescription, grant, usage, custom, or charter, or under the Acts of Parliament hereinafter mentioned or referred to, or under any other Act or Acts, in and over the said River Dee and estuary thereof, and the soil and bed of the same, in so far as the said soil or bed of the river and estuary has not been already enclosed by the said Company or others aforesaid; and the several rivers, streams, creeks, and watercourses within the flow and reflow of the stream or tide, within the said river and estuary, within the limits aforesaid, and connected therewith.

And notice is hereby given, that it is intended by the said Bill to take powers to replace and restore, as nearly as may be, a certain pile called "The Standard," or some other convenient pile or piles, for the purpose of ascertaining the depth of the said River Dee, according to the true intent and meaning of an Act passed in the seventeenth year of the reign of George the Second, intituled "An Act for explaining and amending an Act passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to recover and preserve the navigation of the River Dee, in the county palatine of Chester;'" and another Act passed in the fourteenth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for incorporating the undertakers of the navigation of the River Dee;' and for repealing the tonnage rates payable to the said undertakers; and for granting to them other tonnage or keelage rates in lieu thereof; and for other purposes therein mentioned," and constantly to maintain the same; and also to restore the state of the navigation of the said River Dee to the depth and condition prescribed by the said last-mentioned Act; and further to improve the navigation of the said river and estuary thereof, by the formation of a new channel through the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places following; viz: Wepre, Golftyn, Kelsterton, otherwise Kelsterton, Leadbrook Major, Leadbrook Minor, Flint, Northop, Holywell, Coleshill Fawr, Coleshill Vechan, Bagilt Fawr, Bagilt Vechan, Whelstone, Holywell, Greenfield, Whitford, Isglan, Bychton, Tre Mostyn, Llanasa, Picton, Trewaleod, Gwesbyr, Gronant, Meliden, Burton, Ness and Little Neston, Burton, Great Neston, Leighton, Heswell, Gayton, Heswell-cum-Oldfield, Thurstaston, West Kirby, Caldý, Little Meols, Hoose, Great Meols, Hilbre, and Saint Oswald, or some or one of them, in the several counties of Flint and Chester, or one of them, from or near a place called Wepre Gutter, above Connah's Quay, in the several parishes of Hawarden and Northop, or one of them, in the county of Flint, to a point in the estuary of the said river, at or near to the head of the Deep, called Mostyn Deep, in the several parishes of Holywell, Whitford, Heswell, and Thurstaston, or some or one of them, in the several counties of Flint and Chester, or one of them; and also to cleanse, scour, dredge, deepen, alter, straighten, enlarge, or contract, and improve, the present or altered channel of the said river and estuary, within the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places first above-named, or some or one of them; and also within or through the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, and Saint Mary-on-the-Hill, in the city of Chester, Sealand, Saltney, and Hawarden, in the several counties of Chester and Flint, and the county of the city of Chester, or some or one of them; and to make and maintain such embankments, mounds, fences, river-walls, dams, cuts, sluices, channels, and other works within the said parishes, townships, and places, as may be necessary for that purpose. And it is intended by such Act to apply for powers to make bye-laws for the regulation, improvement, and management of the said River Dee, and the estuary thereof, and such other rivers, streams, and watercourses, havens, creeks, and inlets as aforesaid; and to set out boundaries, and to lay down, make, and maintain all necessary embankments, cuts, channels, reservoirs, and other works; and to widen, deepen, straighten, dredge, protect, and otherwise improve the bed, channel, and banks of the said river, and of all parts of the waters and estuary connected therewith; and to remove all obstructions to the free navigation of the said river and estuary; and to impose penalties on all persons placing or continuing obstructions, or throwing, emptying, or depositing ballast in the said river or estuary; and to authorize the said Commissioners, Trustees, Board, or Committee, to appoint and remove harbour-masters, collectors, and other officers; and to place buoys, beacons, and mooring-chains in said river and estuary; and to regulate and manage the police thereof; and to compel the removal of wrecks therefrom; and to raise and take chalk, gravel, sand, or other ballast from the bed of the said river, and from ships and vessels lying or riding therein, with all necessary powers for that purpose; and also to make, maintain, grant, and license basins, docks, harbours, piers, jetties, and quays, with all proper conveniences for the navigation and improvement of the said river and estuary, and for the safety and convenience of ships, steam-vessels, and other craft navigating the same.

And it is intended by the said intended Act to obtain power for the purchase of lands, houses, tenements, and hereditaments, waters, and buildings, for the purposes aforesaid; and to purchase private moorings; and likewise to repeal, alter, modify or transfer, all tolls, rates, town, quay, coal and ballast, or other rates and dues, levied upon or in respect of ships, vessels, or other craft, or goods, wares, merchandize, ballast, and other commodities, laden or unladen, entering into or using the said navigation, within the limits aforesaid, and all exclusive rights and privileges connected therewith; and also to obtain powers for the said Commissioners, Trustees, Board, or Committee, to levy the same or other rents, tolls, rates, and duties, in respect of the navigation of the said river and estuary, and the works connected therewith; and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which may in any manner interfere with the improvement of the navigation of the said river and estuary, or with the powers sought to be conferred by the said intended Act; and to compound for tolls; and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from tolls, rates, and duties; and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges.

And it is further intended by the said intended Act to amend, alter, or repeal so much of the Acts still in force following, namely: an Act passed in the eleventh and twelfth years of the reign of William the Third, intituled "An Act to enable the Mayor and Citizens of the city of Chester to recover and preserve the navigation upon the River Dee;" an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of George the Second, intituled "An Act to recover and preserve the navigation of the River Dee, in the county palatine of Chester;" an Act passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of George the Second, intituled "An Act for incorporating the undertakers of the navigation of the River Dee;" the Act passed in the seventeenth year of the reign of George the Second above recited; an Act passed in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of George the Second, intituled "An Act for confirming an agreement entered into between the Company of Proprietors of the undertaking for recovering and preserving the navigation of the River Dee and Sir John Glynn, Baronet, Lord of the Manor of Hawarden, and several freeholders and occupiers of land within the said manor; and for explaining and amending three several Acts of Parliament of the sixth, fourteenth, and seventeenth years of his present Majesty's reign, for recovering and preserving the navigation of the said River Dee;" an Act passed in the thirty-first year of the reign of George the Third, intituled "An Act for confirming an agreement entered into between the Company of Proprietors of the undertaking for recovering and preserving the navigation of the River Dee and certain lords of manors, and other persons entitled to right of common upon the wastes and commons and the Old Common Salt Marshes, lying on the south side of the said river, below or to the north-east of Greenfield Gate, in the county of Flint; and an award made in consequence thereof;" and of all other Acts, Charters, Grants, Customs, Rights, and Privileges, as may be inconsistent with, or which would interfere with the exercise of the powers aforesaid, and the provisions of the said intended Act.

And it is intended by the said Act to impose, levy, and raise certain rates and taxes in gross, and certain annual rates and taxes upon the whole or any parts of the lands recovered and enclosed by the said Company of Proprietors of the undertaking for recovering and preserving the navigation of the River Dee, under and by virtue of the said recited Acts, or some or any of them, and now belonging to the said Company, or in which they have any interest, for the purpose of raising money to restore the said standard, and make and maintain, or to assist in making and maintaining the foresaid works for the restoration and improvement of the navigation of the said river and estuary, or any or some of them, and also of meeting any outlay that may be occasioned by unforeseen circumstances, and of carrying into execution all or any of the other powers and authorities to be conferred by the said Act.

And it is intended by the said Act to make the several rates and taxes, to be levied and raised from the said lands as aforesaid, payable by the occupiers of the lands on which the same are charged, and to impose penalties for the non-payment thereof; and to authorize occupiers to deduct the rates and taxes paid by them out of their rents; and to give to the said Commissioners or Trustees, or Board, or Committee, powers to reduce, and again to increase all or any of the rates or taxes to be so levied and raised as aforesaid; and also to agree with the said Company of Proprietors of the undertaking for recovering and preserving the navigation of the River Dee, or others the owners of the said lands, for the redemption of all or any portion of such rates or taxes.

And it is also intended by the said Act to obtain powers to raise money on the credit of the tolls, rates, and duties to be granted or transferred by the said Act, for carrying the purposes of the said intended Act into execution; and all such other powers and provisions as may be deemed necessary for carrying into effect the purposes aforesaid, or such other powers and provisions as are usually inserted in Bills of a similar nature.

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, duplicate plans and sections of the said River Dee, between the points aforesaid, within which the same is intended to be improved, and of the said intended works for the improvement of the navigation thereof, together with books of reference to such last-mentioned plans, and a copy of this notice, published in the London Gazette, of the intended application to Parliament, will be deposited at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Chester, and also at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of the city of Chester, at their respective offices in Chester; and at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Flint, at his office in Mold, and on or before the said thirtieth day of November instant, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each of the parishes in which such works are intended to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his place of abode; and in case of an extra-parochial place, with the parish clerk of some parish immediately adjoining such extra-parochial place, at his place of abode.

Bradford Improvement, Police, and Purchase and Closing of Bradford Canal.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for an Act to amend, or repeal an Act passed in the 43rd year of the reign of His Majesty King George 3rd, intituled "An Act for paving, lighting, watching and improving the Town of Bradford, and part of the Hamlet of Little Horton adjoining thereto, in the County of York, and for removing and preventing all nuisances therein;" and also to amend or repeal an Act passed in the 11th year of the reign of His Majesty King George 3rd, intituled "An Act for making a Navigable Cut or Canal, from Bradford, to join the Leeds and Liverpool Canal at Windhill, in the Township of Idle, in the County of York," and to amend an Act passed in the 3rd year of the reign of His Majesty King George the 4th, intituled "An Act for lighting with Gas the Town of Bradford and the neighbourhood thereof, within the parish of Bradford, in the West Riding of the County of York;" and to amend an Act passed in the 8th year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to alter the provisions of an Act for lighting with Gas the Town of Bradford and the Neighbourhood thereof within the parish of Bradford, in the West Riding of the County of York;" and to amend an Act passed in the 5th year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for better supplying with Water the Town and Neighbourhood of Bradford in the West Riding of the County of York;" and to amend "The Bradford Waterworks, Amendment Act, 1849."

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to vest in the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Bradford aforesaid all rates, penalties, or other monies due to, and all monies and other property now vested in the Commissioners under the said first-mentioned Act, and to preserve all existing rights and liabilities, under and by virtue of the same Act; and to confer on the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses aforesaid powers to appoint and remove officers for the purposes of the said intended Act, and powers for better paving, lighting, watching, watering, draining, cleansing, regulating and improving the said borough and the several streets, roads, lanes, streams, drains, watercourses, and other public and private ways and places within the limits thereof, and for repairing the same, and for improving the sanitary condition of the said borough, and for removing all ruinous or dangerous buildings, and all obstructions within the same, and for preventing and removing all nuisances within the same; and for removing and prohibiting the future erection, or placing of any projecting buildings or other obstructions therein, and for regulating the width, level, and the mode of laying down, constructing, paving, repairing and maintaining streets, roads, lanes, and other public and private ways and places within the same, and for regulating and directing the construction, erection, repairs and maintenance of houses, warehouses, manufactories, workshops, privies, ashpits, cesspools, private drains, and other buildings within the said borough, and for constructing, repairing, and maintaining public drains and cesspools within the same, and for providing and regulating slaughterhouses and weighing machines, and for the inspection of weights and measures, and for licensing and regulating lodging-houses and hackney carriages therein, and for purchasing by compulsion or agreement, lands and houses, and making bye-laws for all or any of the purposes aforesaid, and for imposing penalties for breach of the provisions of the said intended Act.

And to enable the Company of Proprietors of the Bradford Navigation to sell the Bradford canal and other the hereditaments, rights, and powers to them belonging, and to enable the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses to purchase and sell the same, and to close the said canal, and to extinguish any rights and privileges connected therewith.

And to obtain powers for levying rates, assessments, or other payments within the said borough or any district within the same, for the purposes aforesaid, and for defraying the costs of obtaining and executing the proposed Act, and for levying penalties for overweight of waggons, and tolls, rents, and stallages for the use of slaughterhouses, and for altering the rates, assessments, or payments now existing in the said borough, and for charging any of the rates, assessments, or other payments to be levied or altered on the owners or occupiers of particular classes of property, and to grant exemptions from the payment thereof, and for borrowing money on the credit thereof, or by mortgage of the lands, property, rents, and revenues of the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, or on debenture, bond, or otherwise, and to obtain all such other powers and provisions as may be considered desirable or expedient for all or any of the purposes aforesaid.

And it is proposed to incorporate in the said intended Act the whole or some portion of the following Acts, viz., "The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847;" "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845;" "The Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847;" "The Town Police Clauses Act, 1847;" "The Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847;" "The Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847;" "The Markets and Fairs Clauses Act, 1847;" an Act passed in the 3rd year of the reign of His Majesty King George the 4th, intituled "An Act to amend the general Laws now in being for regulating Turnpike Roads in that part of Great Britain called England;" and an Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the 5th and 6th year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the 4th, intituled "An Act to repeal an Act of the 4th and 5th year of His present Majesty relating to Weights and Measures, and to make other provisions instead thereof."—Dated this 6th day of November 1849.

Caledonian and Edinburgh and Glasgow Railways Amalgamation Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in next session for an Act to effect, or to authorize the effecting of the Union, Amalgamation, and Consolidation into one Company of the Caledonian Railway Company and the Edinburgh and Glasgow Railway Company, and to vest in such united Company, or to authorize the transference to them by the said separate Companies of the undertakings, property, and effects, of each of the said separate Companies, and of the rights and powers now belonging, or which may at the date of the amalgamation belong to them, to or over any other railway, canal, property, or effects whatsoever. And it is proposed by the Act so to be applied for, to fix and regulate, and, if found expedient, to alter and change the order of preference in which, and the extent and degree to which, the several holders of stock or shares in, or of mortgages or claims on the undertakings of the said separate Companies, shall be interested in the receipts of, or be entitled to enforce such mortgages and claims against the property of the said united Company; and also to fix and regulate, and, if thought expedient, to alter and change the order of preference in which, and the extent and degree to which, the several holders of stock, or of shares in, or of mortgages or claims on the railways and canals to or over which the said separate Companies have right or power as aforesaid, shall be interested in the receipts of, or be entitled to enforce such mortgages and claims against the said railways and canals, or the receipts or property of the said united Company. Which union and amalgamation is intended to be authorized or effected upon and subject to such provisions, exceptions, and qualifications, and on such terms and conditions as may be, or shall have been agreed upon between the said separate Companies, or as may be fixed by the Act so to be applied for. And it is farther proposed by the said Act to authorize such united Company to fix, levy, and receive, the tolls, rates, and duties, payable on, and for the use of, the undertakings of each of the said separate Companies, and on and for the use of the railways and canals, to or over which they have right or power as aforesaid, and generally to exercise the powers, and enjoy the privileges of each of the said separate Companies. And it is also proposed by the said Act so to be applied for, to alter, vary, and increase such tolls, rates, and duties, and to vary or extinguish exemptions from the payment thereof, and to confer new exemptions, or other rights and privileges. And it is farther proposed by the Act so to be applied for, to authorize the said Caledonian Railway Company and the said Edinburgh and Glasgow Railway Company respectively, or otherwise, to authorize the said united Company to raise additional capital. And for the above and other purposes it is proposed, by the said Act, to alter and amend, and so far as necessary, to repeal some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the undertakings of the said separate Companies, and to the railways and canals, to or over which they have right or power as aforesaid, and among others the following, or some of them; that is to say: "The Caledonian Railway Act, 1845;" Local and Personal Acts, 7 George IV., chapter 103; 7 and 8 George IV., chapter 88; 10 George IV., chapter 107; 11 George IV., chapters 62 and 125; 1 and 2 William IV., chapter 58; 4 William IV., chapter 41; 1 Victoria, chapters 100, 116, and 118; 1 and 2 Victoria, chapter 60; 2 and 3 Victoria, chapter 58; 3 and 4 Victoria, chapters 107 and 123; 4 Victoria, chapters 5 and 11; 6 and 7 Victoria, chapter 49; 7 and 8 Victoria, chapters 87 and 98; 8 and 9 Victoria, chapters 31, 160, and 192; 9 and 10 Victoria, chapters 130, 142, 143, 188, 201, 206, 229, 249, 314, 329, 334, 379, and 395; 10 Victoria, chapters 22, 23, and 24; 10 and 11 Victoria, chapters 75, 82, 91, 95, 168, 169, 172, and 237; 11 and 12 Victoria, chapters 73, 78, 121, and 148; and 12 and 13 Victoria, chapters 67 and 90. An Act passed in the first and second years of the reign of her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making a railway from Edinburgh to Glasgow, to be called 'The Edinburgh and Glasgow Railway, with a branch to Falkirk,'" Local and Personal Acts, 57 George III., chapter 56; 59 George III., chapter 29; 1 and 2 George IV., chapter 122; 4 George IV., chapter 18; 7 George IV., chapter 45; 3 and 4 Victoria, chapter 108; 4 and 5 Victoria, chapters 43 and 59; 5 Victoria, session 2, chapter 12; 6 and 7 Victoria, chapter 55; 7 and 8 Victoria, chapters 58 and 70; 8 and 9 Victoria, chapters 91, 148, and 182; 9 Victoria, chapter 70; 9 and 10 Victoria, chapters 160, 161, 162, 165, 202, 263, 332, and 377; 10 and 11 Victoria, chapters 245 and 246; 11 and 12 Victoria, chapters 70, 116, 118, 127, and 160; and 12 and 13 Victoria, chapters 39, 72, and 86.

(Power to raise further Money; Alteration of Terms of issue of Hull and Selby Purchase, &c. Shares; Power to hold Shares in the Hull and Selby Railway Company, and the Malton and Driffield Junction Railway Company; Alteration of Tolls on the York and North Midland Railway, and Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for an Act to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge, and to repeal some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the York and North Midland Railway Company, passed respectively in the 6th year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, and in the 1st, 4th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, and 13th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, and also of the several Acts relating to the Hull and Selby Railway Company passed respectively in the 6th year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, and in the 6th and 9th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, and also of "The Malton and Driffield Junction Railway Act, 1846," and to enable the York and North Midland Railway Company to raise a further sum of Money for the general purposes of the same Company by the creation of new shares or stock, with such guaranteed preference or priority in the payment of dividends, as the same Company may think fit, or as may be enacted by Parliament; and to grant to the York and North Midland Railway Company further and more effectual powers for raising money by mortgage or bond, or by the enforcement of calls upon shares in the same Company, and to alter the terms and conditions on which certain shares in the York and North Midland Railway Company, called "Hull and Selby Purchase, &c. Shares," were issued, and to make and enter into new and other terms and conditions with the proprietors of such shares; and to authorize the application of any money which has already been, or may hereafter be, raised by such last-mentioned shares, to the general purposes of the said Company, in lieu of the purposes to which such money was proposed to be applied, when such shares were issued; and also to grant to the said Company power to purchase, take, and hold shares in the Hull and Selby Railway Company, and in the Malton and Driffield Junction Railway Company, and to legalize the purchase of any shares in the same two last-mentioned Companies respectively, which may, at the time of the passing of such intended Act, have been purchased by the York and North Midland Railway Company, or by any of the Directors of that Company, on behalf of the same Company, out of the funds or capital thereof.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to alter the tolls, rates, and duties, by the said recited Acts, or some of them, authorized to be levied upon the several lines of railway now in the possession or occupation of the York and North Midland Railway Company, and to continue and extend the powers and provisions of the said recited Acts in reference thereto.—Dated this 9th day of November 1849.

Chippenham Waterworks.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session for a Bill to incorporate a Company for supplying with water the town and neighbourhood of Chippenham, in the county of Wilts, within the limits of the borough of Chippenham, as defined by an Act passed in the 2nd and 3rd years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the 4th, cap. 64, and for that purpose to enable the said Company so to be incorporated to make, erect, construct, and maintain all necessary bays, dams, banks, reservoirs, mains, pipes, conduits, sluices, drains, channels, and other works and conveniences connected therewith.

And it is also intended by the said Bill to empower the said Company to make and maintain the waterworks following; that is to say: An impounding reservoir to be situate in Lockswell Wood, in the parish of Chippenham aforesaid, in the occupation of Mrs. Charlotte Starky, and into which said impounding reservoir the waters of certain springs, brooks, or streams, known as Lockswell Springs, and Cockle Mill Brook, or some part thereof, will be diverted, flow, and proceed. And also another impounding reservoir, to be situate in a field called or known as the Isle of Cockles, in the extra-parochial place of Pewsham, in the said county, in the occupation of Robert Brittan, and into which said last mentioned impounding reservoir the waters of a certain other spring or brook, also called Lockswell, or Cockle Mill Brook, arising in the said parish of Chippenham, and flowing through the said last mentioned field, will be diverted, flow, or proceed.

And also to lay down or construct main pipes, or conduits, intended to commence from and out of each of the said impounding reservoirs, and to terminate in the reservoir hereinafter described.

And also to lay down or construct pipes or conduits to supply with water certain farms, in the tything of Stanley, in the parish of Chippenham aforesaid, known as Stanley Farms, in the occupation of Jacob Fry and John Henley.

And also to construct a reservoir and works to be situate in certain fields called the Hermitage and Little Hermitage, in the parish of Chippenham aforesaid, in the occupation of John Salter and James Wright, lying on the south side of the turnpike-road from London to Bath, and bounded on the east by a certain highway, in the parish of Chippenham aforesaid, called Crickets-lane, and on the south by a lane called Wood-lane, into which last mentioned reservoir the waters from the said impounding reservoirs, and the springs, brooks, and streams aforesaid, will be diverted, flow, and proceed, and from thence by means of pipes and conduits, be continued into the parishes of Chippenham and Langley Burrell for supplying the inhabitants thereof with water.

And also to make and maintain all other works necessary for the purpose of cleansing, collecting, diverting, and storing up in the said reservoirs, mains, and conduits the waters aforesaid, and also the waters of the several springs, brooks, rivulets, streams, and drains, which rise or flow in or to or in the course of the said reservoirs, mains, or conduits, together with all embankments, dams, sluices, cuts, channels, culverts, drains, pipes, and other works necessary for collecting and conveying the said water; which said reservoirs, cuts, channels, and other works, will be situate within the parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places of Chippenham, Pewsham, and Langley Burrell, in the county of Wilts, or some or one of them. And it is intended by the said Bill to take powers to lay down mains, conduits, pipes, or other works, in, under, over, across, or through, and to break open for the purpose the streets, lanes, and public passages, places, turnpike and other roads, and highways, bridges, viaducts, brooks, streams, waters, and watercourses, within the parishes and places aforesaid, as it may be necessary and expedient for the purpose of furnishing such supply of water, and of making the said works, and to alter, divert, stop up, or construct such sewers, drains, watercourses, and ways, as may be necessary or convenient for the said intended works.

And it is also intended to take powers for the purchase, compulsorily or otherwise, or to take on lease houses, messuages, lands, tenements, springs, streams, and hereditaments for the purposes of the said works, and to alter, vary, or extinguish all or any rights or privileges in any manner connected with or incident to any such messuages, lands, tenements, springs, streams, and hereditaments respectively, which can in any manner impede or interfere with the execution of the said works; and also power to make lateral deviations from the line of the said works to the extent and within the limits defined on the plans hereinafter mentioned; and powers will be also applied for to levy tolls, rates, rents, or duties, in respect of the supply of water, and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, rents, and duties, and other rights and privileges.

And notice is further given, that a plan of the said proposed works, and also a duplicate thereof, with a section and a duplicate thereof, together with a book of reference thereto, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Wilts, at his office at Wilton, in the same county, on or before the thirtieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, and on or before the said thirtieth day of the said month of November, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each parish in or through which the works are intended to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, and a copy of this notice as aforesaid, will be deposited with the clerks of each of the said parishes respectively at their respective places of abode.

Dated the 8th day of November 1849.

Hartlepool Pier and Port.

Amendment of Acts, and Appropriation of the Tolls, Rates, and Duties heretofore payable to the Commissioners for Improving the Pier and Port of Hartlepool in respect of Ships and Vessels using the Works of the Hartlepool West Harbour and Dock Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for leave to bring in a Bill in order to obtain an Act to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge or repeal, wholly or in part, the following Acts of Parliament; that is to say: an Act passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for improving the Pier and Port of Hartlepool, in the county of Durham," an Act passed in the second year of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for amending and rendering more effectual an Act of King George the Third, for improving the Pier and Port of Hartlepool, in the county of Durham," an Act passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for amending an Act of the second year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, and for granting further rates and powers for improving the Port of Hartlepool, in the county of Durham," and another Act passed in the ninth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for amending the Acts relative to the improving of the Pier and Port of Hartlepool, in the county of Durham." And by the said intended Act it is intended to provide that the Commissioners for improving the Pier and Port of Hartlepool shall, from and after the passing of the said intended Act, keep separate and distinct accounts of all and singular the tolls, rates, and duties, payable or to become payable to the said Commissioners, on, for, or in respect of ships and vessels entering the harbour and works of the Hartlepool West Harbour and Dock Company, and that the said Commissioners shall pay over unto the said Company all the said last-mentioned tolls, rates, and duties, until, by means of such payment to the said Company of the said tolls, rates, and duties, the said Company shall have been paid (together with interest thereon in the meantime not exceeding five per centum per annum,) all the monies, costs, charges, and expenses which the said Company shall, previously to the passing of the said intended Act, have expended, or been put to, or become liable for, in making and maintaining alterations, additions, and improvements to the harbour of the said Company, called the Hartlepool West Harbour, as first constructed under the authority of the said Company's Act of Incorporation, and "The Hartlepool West Harbour and Dock Act, 1847," or either of them, or in anywise relating thereto; and also until the said Company shall have been repaid (together with interest thereon, in the mean time not exceeding the rate aforesaid) all the monies, costs, charges, and expenses, which the said Company shall, after the passing of the said intended Act, expend in enlarging, altering, improving, and maintaining the said harbour of the said Company, or in anywise relating thereto. And it is also intended by the said intended Act to provide that it shall not be lawful for the said Commissioners to mortgage, charge, or encumber the said tolls, rates, and duties payable in respect of ships and vessels using the works of the said Company, except for the purpose of raising money to be expended on the works of the said Hartlepool West Harbour, or for the public benefit of ships and vessels using the said harbour, or paying off to the said Company any mortgages or redeemable shares, or other securities for money to be raised for the like purposes by the said Company, but it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to raise money for such purposes, and it is intended by the said Bill to require the said Commissioners, at the request of the said Company, to raise money by mortgage of the said tolls, rates, and duties for such purposes. And that after defraying the costs, charges, interest, and expenses as aforesaid, and paying off any mortgages or other sums of money raised for the purposes aforesaid, on the credit of such last-mentioned tolls, rates, and duties, the monies arising from the said tolls, rates, and duties, shall be reserved as a fund for improving, repairing, and maintaining the works of the said Hartlepool West Harbour, and shall from time to time be expended, as occasion shall require for such public purposes, for the benefit of ships and vessels using the harbour and works of the said Hartlepool West Harbour and Dock Company, or such other public improvements in the Port of Hartlepool, and in such manner as the Lord High Admiral, or Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, or such other party or tribunal as in the said intended Act shall be named in that behalf shall from time to time direct. And it is intended by the said intended Act to provide that the said Company shall not be liable to repay or refund any of the said tolls, rates, and duties, and sums of money, so to be received by, or raised, or paid to the said Company as aforesaid. And it is also intended by the said intended Act to alter or repeal the existing tolls, rates, and duties, granted by the four several Acts of Parliament first hereinbefore mentioned, and by the "Hartlepool West Harbour and Dock Act, 1847," and to take power to levy further or other tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, or extinguish certain exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, and extinguish other rights and privileges relating to the said Pier and Port of Hartlepool, or to the rights or duties of the said Commissioners, or otherwise, howsoever. And it is also intended by the said intended Act, so far as may be expedient or necessary for the purposes of the said intended Act, to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge, and partially repeal, an Act passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, called "The Hartlepool West Harbour and Dock Act, 1847." And it is intended by the said intended Act to take powers for the said Commissioners to raise a further sum of money by mortgage and bond, or by either of those means. And in the said Bill will be inserted all proper and necessary powers and provisions for fully carrying out the objects and purposes of the said intended Act, and also such as are usually inserted in Bills of the like or a similar description.—Dated the thirteenth day of November 1849.

The Hartlepool West Harbour and Docks.

Amendment of Act, Alteration and Extension of Works, and Appropriation of Tolls, Rates, and Duties heretofore payable to the Commissioners of the Pier and Port of Hartlepool, in respect of ships and vessels using the Works of the Hartlepool West Harbour and Dock Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session by the Hartlepool West Harbour and Dock Company, for leave to bring in a Bill in order to obtain an Act to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge or repeal and re-enact wholly, or in part, an Act passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, and called "The Hartlepool West Harbour and Dock Act, 1847."

And it is also intended by the said intended Act to authorize the said Company to alter and enlarge their present harbour and works, and to make, construct, and maintain, and do the following works and things; that is to say: a pier or jetty commencing on the sea-shore at or near to a place called West Hartlepool, at a point about six hundred and forty feet in a southerly direction from the south-western corner of the present harbour of the said Company, and terminating at a point about two hundred feet or thereabouts in a south-westerly direction from the sea-ward extremity or pier-head of the present northern pier or jetty of the said harbour of the said Company. Also to take down and remove the whole, or any part or parts of the present southern pier or jetty, or southern piers or jetties of or belonging to the said harbour of the said Company. Also to make, construct, and maintain all necessary and convenient piers, jetties, entrances, excavations, cuttings, communications, quays, and works whatsoever, and to divert, alter, and remove so much and such part or parts of the existing works of the said Company as may be necessary or convenient to be diverted, altered, or removed for any of the purposes aforesaid, and as hereinafter mentioned, to deviate in carrying into effect all or any of the purposes aforesaid from the line or lines to be laid down in the plans hereinafter mentioned.

And it is also intended by the said intended Act to provide that the tolls, rates, and duties now payable, or to become payable to the Commissioners for improving the pier and port of Hartlepool, in respect of ships and vessels entering the harbour and works of the said Company, shall be no longer payable to the said Commissioners, and it is intended by the said intended Act to entitle and enable the said Company to receive the said last-mentioned tolls, rates, and duties, and to entitle and enable the said Company to appropriate the said last-mentioned tolls, rates, and duties, and the monies arising therefrom, in paying to the said Company (together with interest thereon in the mean time not exceeding the rate of five per centum per annum) all monies, costs, charges, and expenses which the said Company shall expend, be put to, or become liable for, in making, constructing, maintaining, and doing all and every the pier or jetty, works, matters, and things hereinafter mentioned, or anywise in relation thereto respectively, and also in paying to the said Company (together with interest thereon as aforesaid in the mean time) all monies, costs, charges, and expenses which the said Company shall, at and up to the day of the date of the passing into a law of the said intended Act, have expended or have been put to, or become liable for, in making, constructing, and maintaining alterations, additions, and improvements to the said harbour of the said Company, as first constructed under the authority of the said Company's Act of Incorporation, and the said Hartlepool West Harbour and Dock Act, 1847, or either of them, or in anywise relating thereto.

And it is intended by the said intended Act to authorize and empower the said Company at any time or times, and from time to time to raise by mortgage of the said last-mentioned tolls, rates, and duties, any sum or sums of money (not exceeding in the whole the amount of the principal and interest of all the monies, costs, charges, and expenses, which it is intended to entitle and enable the said Company to be paid or receive as herein mentioned or contained), and to secure the repayment, out of the said last-mentioned tolls, rates, and duties, of the principal of the monies so to be raised, together with interest thereon, in the mean time after the rate aforesaid, and to appropriate the monies so to be raised by mortgage in the same manner in all respects as is hereinafter mentioned with reference to the said tolls, rates, and duties, when received by the said Company; or in case the said Commissioners shall continue to receive, and to be entitled to receive, the said last-mentioned tolls, rates, and duties, then it is intended by the said intended Act to provide that the said Commissioners shall from and after the date of the passing of the said intended Act, keep for ever thereafter separate and distinct accounts of all and singular the said tolls, rates, and duties, and that the said Commissioners shall pay over the said tolls, rates, and duties, to the said Company, until by means of such payment the said Company shall have been paid (together with interest as aforesaid) all the said several monies, costs, charges, and expenses which the said Company shall expend or be put to, or become liable for, or have or shall have expended, or been put to, or become liable for, as hereinbefore mentioned and contained, in making, constructing, maintaining, and doing the several hereinbefore mentioned works and things; and it is intended by the said intended Act to provide that the said Commissioners shall be empowered and bound to raise by mortgage of the said last-mentioned tolls, rates, and duties, at such time or times, and from time to time, as the said Company shall require, such sum or sums of money (not exceeding in the whole the amount of the principal and interest of all the monies, costs, charges, and expenses which the said Company shall as aforesaid expend or be put to, or become liable for, or have or shall have expended or been put to or become liable for), and to pay over on demand to the said Company the sum or sums of money so to be raised as last aforesaid; and to provide that whenever any such sum or sums shall have been so raised by mortgage still that the said Commissioners shall pay over to the said Company the surplus of the said tolls, rates, and duties arising in every year after paying the interest becoming due within such year upon the said sum or sums of money so raised by mortgage, until the said Company shall have been fully paid as aforesaid, all the said monies, costs, charges, and expenses and interest, as aforesaid.

And it is also intended by the said intended Act to provide, that from and after such time as the said Company shall have been fully paid as aforesaid, all the said monies, costs, charges, and expenses and interest as aforesaid, and all sums so to be raised by mortgage of the said last-mentioned tolls, rates, and duties, shall, together with interest as aforesaid, have been fully paid off and satisfied out of the said last-mentioned tolls, rates, and duties, then that thenceforth the said tolls, rates, and duties shall be carried to a separate account, and shall from time to time be expended for such public purposes, for the benefit of ships and vessels using the harbour and works of the said Hartlepool West Harbour and Dock Company, or such other public improvements in the port of Hartlepool, and in such manner as the Lord High Admiral or Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, or such other party or tribunal as in the said intended Act shall be named in that behalf shall from time to time direct.

And it is intended by the said intended Act to provide that the said Company shall not be liable to repay or refund any of the said tolls, rates, and duties and sums of money so to be received or raised by or paid to the said Company as aforesaid.

And it is intended by the said intended Act to authorize the said Company to make, construct, and maintain a certain other work or slipway, commencing at a point about three hundred feet in a northerly direction from the point where the said northern pier of the said Company's present harbour joins the sea-shore, and terminating in the said present harbour of the said Company at a distance in a southerly direction of 600 feet, or thereabouts, from the point where the said work or slipway is to commence as aforesaid, together with all necessary and convenient works and conveniences connected with and adjacent to the said other work or slipway. And it is intended by the said intended Act to authorize the said Company to divert the road leading from West Hartlepool to Hartlepool, and also to supply the said intended enlarged harbour and other works with water from the North Sea or Bay of Hartlepool; all which said works hereinbefore mentioned will be, and are intended to be made, maintained, varied, extended, and enlarged from, in, through, and into the township, parish, territories, town-lands, extra-parochial, and other places following; (that is to say):—The township of Stranton and parish of Stranton, both in the county of Durham; the North Sea, the Bay of Hartlepool, and the Port of Hartlepool, in the said county of Durham; and the sea-shore and sea grounds, and sea beach, as well lying between high and low-water marks as otherwise howsoever, which sea-shore, and sea grounds, and sea beach, are situate in, and lie near to, and adjacent upon, the said township of Stranton and parish of Stranton.

And it is also intended by such intended Act to take power to stop up, alter, and divert, whether temporarily or permanently, all turnpike and other roads and highways, tramways, railways, water-courses, and streams within the aforesaid township of Stranton and parish of Stranton, which it may be necessary to stop up, alter, or divert, for the purpose of making, constructing, and maintaining and doing, or using the said several intended works and things of every description respectively.

And it is also intended by the said intended Act to take powers to deviate in making and constructing the said intended works (including all alterations and diversions of roads, highways, tramways, railways, watercourses, and streams) from the line or lines laid down on the plans thereof, to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, to such extent as will be defined on the said plans.

And it is also intended by such intended Act to take powers for the compulsory purchase of lands, houses, buildings, and hereditaments, as well as for the purchase thereof respectively by agreement, and to extend the time limited or granted by "The Hartlepool West Harbour and Dock Act, 1847," for the compulsory purchase of lands, houses, buildings, and hereditaments.

And it is also intended by the said intended Act to alter or repeal all or some of the tolls, rates, and duties granted in and by "The Hartlepool West Harbour and Dock Act, 1847," and also to take power to levy further or other tolls, rates, and duties as well for the use and in respect of the harbour, docks, and works already made and constructed by the said Hartlepool West Harbour and Dock Company, as for the use and in respect of the said intended works and things of every description, and to confer, vary, and extinguish certain exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, and extinguish other rights and privileges.

And it is also intended to alter, amend, enlarge, and extend or repeal the following Acts of Parliament, or some parts thereof respectively; (that is to say): an Act passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for improving the Pier and Port of Hartlepool, in the County of Durham." An Act passed in the second year of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for amending and rendering more effectual an Act of King George the Third for improving the Pier and Port of Hartlepool, in the County of Durham." An Act passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for amending an Act of the second year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, and for granting further rates and powers for improving the Port of Hartlepool, in the County of Durham." And another Act passed in the ninth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for amending the Acts relative to the improving of the Pier and Port of Hartlepool, in the County of Durham." And to alter or repeal the existing tolls, rates, and duties granted by the said four several last-mentioned Acts of Parliament, and in lieu of or in addition to such last-mentioned tolls, rates, and duties, to take power to levy further or other tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, or extinguish certain exemptions from the payment of all or any of such tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, and extinguish other rights and privileges relating to the said Pier and Port of Hartlepool, or to the rights or duties of the said Commissioners, or otherwise howsoever.

And it is further intended by such intended Act to vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges in any manner connected with the lands, houses, buildings, and hereditaments proposed to be in any way affected, or to be purchased, or taken for the purposes of the said intended Act, which would in any manner impede or interfere with the objects and purposes of the said intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And it is intended by the said intended Act to take powers for the said Hartlepool West Harbour and Dock Company to raise money by the creation of new shares, and by mortgage, bond, and otherwise, or by all or any of those means.

And in the said Bill will be inserted all proper and necessary powers and provisions for fully carrying out the objects and purposes of the said intended Act, and also such as are usually inserted in Bills of the like or similar nature.

And notice is hereby further given, that a plan and section of the said intended works, and of the lands and houses in or through which the said works are respectively intended to be made, maintained, varied, extended, and enlarged, and within the limits of deviation, as defined upon the said plan, and which are proposed to be taken for the purposes of the said intended Act, and a duplicate of such plan, and a duplicate of such section, together with a book of reference to such plan, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands and houses respectively, and describing such lands and houses respectively, and a copy of this notice (published, or intended to be published, in the London Gazette), of the intended application to Parliament, will be deposited on or before the 30th day of November in the present year, with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Durham, at his office, in the city of Durham, and that a copy of the said plan, section, and book of reference, and a copy of this notice (published, or intended to be published, in the London Gazette), will be deposited on or before the said 30th day of November in this present year, with the parish clerk of the said parish of Stranton, at the place of abode of such parish clerk.—Dated this thirteenth day of November 1849.

Caledonian Railway

(Motherwell Branch Extension and Lesmahagow Branches Lease) Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in next session for leave to bring in a Bill to effect or to empower the Caledonian Railway Company to grant a lease of the railways, branch railways, and other works authorized by "The Caledonian Railway (Motherwell Branch Extension) Act, 1847," and "The Caledonian Railway (Lesmahagow Branches) Act, 1847," or some of the said railways, branch railways, and other works, or some part thereof, and a transference of the rights and powers conferred by the said Acts, or some of the said rights and powers, to Archibald Hastie, Esq., Member of Parliament; John Marr, Esq., residing in Lanark; James Dunlop, Esq., of Clyde Iron Works; and William Murray, Esq., of the Monkland Iron and Steel Company; or one or more of them, and such other person or persons, if any, as may be named in the said Bill, for such period, and on such terms as shall have been, or may be, agreed upon between the said Company and the said proposed lessees, or as may be fixed by the said Bill.

And it is intended by the said Bill to make provision for the execution by the said proposed lessees of the said railways, branch railways, and other works, or some of them, or some part thereof, or for the advance by the said proposed lessees to the Caledonian Railway Company of the funds necessary for the execution thereof.

And it is intended by the said Bill to make provision for the working, management, and maintenance of the said railways, branch railways, and other works, or some of them, or some part thereof, by the Caledonian Railway Company and the said proposed lessees, or one or other of the said parties, and for fixing the amount to be charged in respect of the expense of such working, management, and maintenance; and for empowering the said proposed lessees to fix, levy, and receive the tolls, rates, and duties authorized by the said Acts, on and for the use of the said railways, branch railways, and other works, or some of them, or some part thereof, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of such tolls, rates, and duties; and after payment of the expense of such working, management, and maintenance, or of the amount fixed to be charged in respect thereof as aforesaid, to retain from the amount of tolls, rates, and duties, which may be so levied and received by them, such proportion thereof, or such per-centage upon the expense incurred by them in executing, or upon the amount advanced by them for the execution of the said railways, branch railways, and other works, as may be agreed upon between them and the Caledonian Railway Company, or as may be fixed by the said Bill, in consideration of the expense incurred, or amount advanced by them as aforesaid.

And it is intended by the said Bill to make provision for vesting in the said proposed lessees, and for empowering them and their officers, agents, and servants to exercise and enjoy, during the continuance of the said lease, such of the powers and privileges which might otherwise be exercised and enjoyed by the Caledonian Railway Company or the directors thereof, or their officers, agents, or servants, with regard to the possession, enjoyment, and management of the said railways, branch railways, and other works, or of the part thereof comprised in such lease, and the tolls to be taken thereon, as may be agreed upon between the Caledonian Railway Company and the said proposed lessees, or as may be fixed by the said Bill.

And it is intended by the said Bill to empower the Caledonian Railway Company to terminate the said lease upon repayment to the said proposed lessees of the expense which may have been incurred by them in executing, or of the amount which they may have advanced for the execution of the said railways, branch railways, and other works, or upon payment of such number of years' purchase of the foresaid per-centage upon such expense or advance, or of such other consideration as may be agreed upon between the Caledonian Railway Company and the said proposed lessees, or as may be fixed by the said Bill.

And it is intended by the said Bill to empower the Caledonian Railway Company to enter into agreements with the said proposed lessees; and also to enable the said proposed lessees to enter into agreements with the Caledonian Railway Company and with such parties as may be agreed to be assumed as joint lessees with them in relation to the said lease, the construction, working, maintenance, and management of the railways, branch railways, and other works comprised therein, the expense to be incurred and funds to be advanced in relation thereto, the tolls, rates, and duties to be levied thereon, and on the lines of railway communicating therewith, which belong to the Caledonian Railway Company, the appropriation of the tolls, rates, and duties to be levied upon the railways, branch railways, and other works comprised in the said lease, and the mode in which, and the consideration upon which the said lease shall be terminated; as also to confirm any agreements which may have been entered into with reference to all or any of the purposes hereinbefore mentioned.

And it is intended by the said Bill to vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges which may, in any manner, interfere with the objects aforesaid, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And it is intended by the said Bill to amend, so far as necessary for the purposes aforesaid, or some of them, "The Caledonian Railway Act, 1845," "The Caledonian Railway (Motherwell Branch Extension) Act, 1847," "The Caledonian Railway (Lesmahagow Branches) Act, 1847," and the several other Acts relating to the Caledonian Railway Company, passed in the tenth, eleventh, twelfth, and thirteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty.

Caledonian and Dumbartonshire Junction Railway

(Relinquishment of Part of Works, Restriction of Capital, Power to the Edinburgh and Glasgow Railway Company to hold Shares in the Undertaking, and Amendment of Acts) Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in next session for leave to bring in a Bill for the purposes following, or some of them; that is to say: for powers to relinquish the following railways, and the works and conveniences connected therewith, and powers relating thereto, or some of them, or some part thereof; that is to say: (1.) Those portions of the main line of railway authorized by "The Caledonian and Dumbartonshire Junction Railway Act, 1846," to be made from the Glasgow, Garnkirk, and Coatbridge Railway, at a point near the Glasgow Terminus thereof, and from the Edinburgh and Glasgow Railway, at a point at or near Cowlares, near Glasgow, and terminating at Lochlomond, at a point on the lands of Drumkinnon, in the parish of Bonhill, which lie to the eastward of the dwelling-house and premises near Bowling Bay, or Bowling Village, marked number 142, in the parish of Wester or Old Kilpatrick, on the plans deposited with the Sheriff-clerk of the county of Dumbarton, in reference to the application for the said Act. (2.) The branch railway authorized by the said Act to be made from the main line above described, from a point near the town of Dumbarton, in the parish of Cardross, to the town of Helensburgh, in the parish of Row. (3.) The branch railway authorized by the said Act to be made from the main line above described, at a point near the lands of Kessington or Killermont, in the parish of Easter or New Kilpatrick, to a point near to the village of Milngavie, in the said parish, and to join the line of the intended Forth and Clyde Junction Railway near that village, in so far as the Caledonian and Dumbartonshire Junction Railway Company have not already been authorized and required to relinquish the said several railways and works by "The Caledonian and Dumbartonshire Junction Railway (Deviation and Branches) Act, 1847." (4.) The deviation of the main line of the Caledonian and Dumbartonshire Junction Railway authorized by the said last-mentioned Act to be made from a point on the said main line near to the Duntocher Lime Works to a point at or near to Bowling Bay, or Bowling Village, all in the parish of Wester or Old Kilpatrick, in so far as the said deviation lies to the eastward of the said dwelling-house and premises marked number 142 as aforesaid. (5.) The branch railway authorized by the said last-mentioned Act to be made from a point on the main line of the said railway, on or near the lands of Hamilton Hill, at or near the boundary of the ancient royalty of Glasgow, to the road leading from Glasgow to Port Dundas, at a point near to the junction of the said road with the road leading from Glasgow to Garscube; and (6.) The branch railway authorized by the said last-mentioned Act to be made from the main line of the said railway, at a point on the lands of Craighall, near the House of Craighall, in the burgh of Glasgow, to a point on the lands of Pinkston, near the Inchbelly-road in the said burgh, and there to form a junction with the branch railway from the Glasgow, Garnkirk, and Coatbridge Railway to the road leading from Glasgow to Port Dundas.

And it is intended by the said Bill to restrict the amount of capital authorized to be raised by the said Acts, and to reduce the number of the shares of the said Company, and the amount of each such share.

And it is intended by the said Bill to enable the Edinburgh and Glasgow Railway Company to purchase or acquire, and to hold shares and stock in the Caledonian and Dumbartonshire Junction Railway Company, or otherwise to contribute towards the said undertaking, and to raise a further sum of money for the said purposes; and to exercise all the powers, rights, and privileges belonging to proprietors of shares or stock in the said last-mentioned Company.

And it is intended by the said Bill to vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would in any manner interfere with any of the objects aforesaid, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And for the above and other purposes it is intended by the said Bill to amend, and partially or wholly to repeal, the said Acts or one of them; and also to amend the following Acts or some of them, or some of the provisions therein: viz.: "The Caledonian Railway (Glasgow, Garnkirk, and Coatbridge Railway Purchase) Act, 1846;" "The Caledonian Railway (Garnkirk Station) Act, 1847;" the Act passed in the 1st and 2nd years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intitled "An Act for making a Railway from Edinburgh to Glasgow, to be called the Edinburgh and Glasgow Railway, with a Branch to Falkirk;" and the several other Acts relating to the Edinburgh and Glasgow Railway Company, passed respectively in the 3rd and 4th, the 5th, the 7th and 8th, the 8th and 9th, the 9th, the 9th and 10th, the 10th and 11th, the 11th and 12th, and the 12th and 13th years of the reign of Her said Majesty.

Tyne River Conservancy.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session for an Act to constitute Commissioners or a Board or Commission of Conservancy for the management and regulation of the river Tyne, and the banks and shores thereof, from a point in the said river called Hedwin Streams, in the parishes of St. Nicholas, in the borough and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and Ryton, in the county of Durham, and Heddon-on-the-Wall, in the county of Northumberland, or some or one of them, down to a point or rock in the sea called the Spar Hawke, at or near to the mouth of the said river, and including all streams, havens, creeks, bays, and inlets, within the limits aforesaid, and to vest in such Commissioners, Board, or Commission, the bed and soil of the said river Tyne, and of the several rivers, streams, creeks, and watercourses within the flow and reflow thereof, and the moorings and works in the same, and all the rights, powers, and privileges, which the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne have heretofore possessed at common law, by prescription, grant, usage, custom, or charter, or under the Acts of Parliament hereinafter mentioned or referred to, or under any other Act or Acts, in and over the river Tyne, and the soil and bed thereof, and the several rivers, streams, creeks, and watercourses, within the flow and reflow of the tide of the said river Tyne, and connected therewith, and to impose on such Commissioners, Board, or Commission, the liabilities and obligations to which the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, as conservators of the said river are subject, or which may attach to them; and it is intended, by such Act to apply for powers to make bye-laws for the regulation, management, and improvement of the river Tyne, and such other rivers, streams, and watercourses, havens, creeks, and inlets, and to set out boundaries, and lay down, make, maintain, and grant and license all necessary embankments, cuts, channels, reservoirs, and other works, and to widen, deepen, straighten, dredge, protect, and otherwise improve the bed, channel, and banks of the said river, and of all parts of the waters connected therewith, to such extent as shall be necessary for the due conservancy of the said river, and to prevent and remove all obstructions to the free navigation of the said river, and all encroachments therein, and to prevent the erection of piers, jetties, quays, wharves, and other works in the said river, except upon such plan and in such situation as shall be approved of by the Commissioners, Board, or Commission, and to prevent the throwing of ballast, mud, or materials into the said river, or into the sea, within certain limits to be defined by the Bill, and to impose penalties upon all persons placing or continuing obstructions in the said river, and to remove the same; and to authorize the said Commissioners, Board, or Commission, to appoint and remove Harbour Masters and other officers, and to place buoys, beacons, and mooring-chains in the said river, and to regulate and manage the police thereof, and to compel the removal of wrecks therefrom, and to raise and take chalk, gravel, sand, or other ballast from the bed of the river Tyne, and from ships and vessels lying or riding therein, and to regulate the supply, receipt, delivery, and deposit of ballast, and to authorize the purchase of ballast-wharves or quays, and the appropriation of land for the deposit of the same, with all necessary powers for that purpose; and also from time to time to make, maintain, grant, and license such basins, docks, harbours, piers, jetties, and quays, with all proper conveniences, as the Commissioners, Board, or Commission, shall deem necessary for the navigation and improvement of the said river, and for the safety and convenience of ships, steam-vessels, and other craft navigating the same.

And it is intended by the said Act to obtain powers for the purchase of lands, houses, tenements, and hereditaments, waters and buildings, either by compulsion or agreement, for the purposes aforesaid, and to purchase private moorings; and it is intended by the said Act to repeal, alter, modify, or transfer, all or some of the tolls, rates, town, quay, coal, and ballast, and other rates and dues levied upon or in respect of ships, vessels, or other craft, or goods, wares, merchandize, ballast, and other commodities, laden or unladen, within the limits aforesaid, and all exclusive rights and privileges connected therewith, and also power for the said Commissioners, Board, or Commission, to levy the same, or other rents, tolls, rates, and duties, in respect of the conservancy and navigation of the said river, and for the said works, and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which may in any manner interfere with the improvement of the navigation of the said river, or with the powers sought to be conferred by the said intended Act, and to compound for tolls, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges. And it is further intended by the said intended Act to amend, alter, or repeal, so much of the Acts following, namely: an Act passed in the 21st year of the reign of his late Majesty King Henry the Eighth, intituled "An Act for the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, concerning the shipping of merchandize and unshipping thereof, within the liberties of the said town;" an Act passed in the 26th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for widening, enlarging, and cleansing the streets, lanes, and other public places, and for opening new streets, markets, and passages within the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne and the liberties thereof, and for removing and preventing annoyances therein, and for regulating the public markets and common stage waggons, drays, and carts carrying goods for hire;" an Act passed in the 41st year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for extending and enlarging the powers and increasing the rates and duties of the Corporation of the Trinity House of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and for better regulating the port of Newcastle-upon-Tyne;" an Act passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for regulating and improving the borough of Newcastle-upon-Tyne;" an Act passed in the fourth and fifth years of the reign of Her said present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to alter and extend an Act passed in the first year of Her present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for regulating and improving the borough of Newcastle-upon-Tyne;'" an Act passed in the ninth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, called "The Newcastle-upon-Tyne Port Act, 1845;" and all other acts, charters, grants, customs, rights, and privileges which may be inconsistent with or would interfere with the exercise of the powers aforesaid, and the provisions of the said intended Act.

And it is intended by the said Act to obtain powers to raise money on the credit of the tolls, rates, and duties to be granted or transferred by the said Act, and the other tolls and dues on the said river, and waters connected therewith and the banks thereof, for carrying the several purposes of the said intended Act into execution, and to apportion the debt now due by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and to charge some portion thereof on the said tolls, rates, and duties, and all such other powers and provisions as may be deemed necessary for carrying into effect the purposes aforesaid, or such other powers and provisions as are usually inserted in Bills of a similar nature.—

CONTRACTS FOR FRESH BEEF.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, November 14, 1849.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 29th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying (under separate contracts) all such quantities of as may be demanded for the use of Her Majesty's ships and vessels at the following places—from the 1st January to the 31st December 1850, both days included; viz.:

Chatham.
Cork and Kinsale.
Cowes.
Deptford to Erith (both inclusive).
Deal and Downs.
Falmouth.
Guernsey and Jersey.
Galway.
Kingstown and Dublin.
Leith, Leith Roads, and the Frith of Forth.
Limerick, Tarbert, and Kilrush.
Milford and Pembroke.
Portsmouth.
Plymouth.
Sheerness.
Waterford.

All parties about to tender are particularly desired to read attentively the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen either at this Office, or on application to the Superintendents of the Victualling Establishments at Deptford, Deal, Portsmouth, and Plymouth; the Superintendents of Her Majesty's Dockyards at Chatham, Sheerness, and Pembroke; the Agent for Victualling at Haulbowline; the Agent for Transports at Leith; the Secretary to the Postmaster-General at Dublin or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at each of the other places.

Every tender must specify the price in words at length, and no tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, and signed by two responsible persons engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £1500 for the due performance of the contracts for Sheerness, Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth; and in the sum of £500 for each of the other places.

CONTRACT FOR PUMPS AND WATER CLOSETS.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, November 5, 1849.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Tuesday the 18th December next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dockyards with

Downton's Pumps and Water Closets, and Lift Pumps.

Patterns of the articles may be seen, and a form of tender, schedule, and conditions of the contract obtained, at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Pumps, &c." and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £1000, for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS FOR SUGAR AND COCOA.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, November 20, 1849.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday, the 29th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford the undermentioned articles; viz.:

Sugar (the produce of the British Possessions), 100 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards.
Cocoa, 50 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards.

The articles to be exempted from the Customs' duties.

Samples of the cocoa (not less than 2lbs.) must be produced by the parties tendering, and a sample of the sugar, together with the conditions of the contracts, may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £25 per cent. on the value for the due performance of the contracts.
