THIS Address of Condolence, on the death of Her late Majesty The Queen Dowager, from the University of Cambridge, was presented to Her Majesty this day, at an audience given for that purpose; by His Royal Highness Prince Albert, Chancellor, and the Rev. James Cartmell, Master of Christ's College, Vice-Chancellor of the University.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty : the humble Address of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, humbly beg leave to approach the Throne with expressions of sincere condolence upon the melancholy occasion of the death of Her Majesty the Queen Dowager.

In common with all your Majesty's subjects, we have observed with admiration the virtues which adorned the character of that illustrious lady. Whether as the consort of a reigning monarch, or in her subsequent comparative retirement, her pure and exemplary life, her unceasing deeds of charity and munificence, her enlightened support of all that tended either to ameliorate the condition and to elevate the moral and religious character of the poor, or to improve society at large, combined to shed lustre over her exalted station.

And whilst we deplore the death of one so justly endeared to your Majesty and the nation, we cannot but point, with heartfelt consolation, to the Christian piety which directed the whole course of her life, and to the Christian hopes which, brightening to the last, soothed and cheered its close.

If virtues like these, which distinguished the late Queen Adelaide, and of which your Majesty affords to your people so bright an example, penetrate and bind together the different classes of society, we may humbly hope that, under the blessing of a gracious Providence, the peace and well-being of this country will rest upon an enduring foundation. Our duty is, and our earnest endeavour shall be, to train up the youth committed to our charge in sentiments of reverence for such virtues, and of devoted loyalty to the Throne.

May God bless and preserve your Majesty and your Royal House, and may He be pleased to grant you many happy years to reign over a free, contented, and religious people !

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for regulating the Police Courts in the Metropolis," it was amongst other things enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to alter the number of magistrates appointed to any of the said Courts; and whereas the number of police magistrates heretofore appointed within the Metropolitan Police District has been twenty-three, and it is deemed expedient that the number should be reduced to twenty as vacancies among the said magistrates shall occur;

and whereas there is now a vacancy at one of the said Courts (that is to say) at the Southwark Police Court, occasioned by the death of one of the two magistrates appointed thereto, and whereas, in furtherance of the said object, Her Majesty has been advised that such vacancy should not be filled up; Her Majesty therefore is pleased, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order and direct, and it is hereby ordered and directed, that the said vacancy at the said Southwark Police Court shall not be supplied:

At the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of January 1850,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, in the words following; that is to say;

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for substituting a money payment to the treasurer of the cathedral church of Wells, for the property belonging to him as such treasurer.

"Whereas, by and under the provisions of the said Acts, the whole of the separate estates and endowments belonging to the dignity or office of treasurer in any cathedral or collegiate church will (excepting any right of patronage), upon the first avoidance of such dignity or office, become absolutely vested in us, for the purposes of the said Acts, and the chief of such purposes is that of making better provision for the cure of souls in parishes where such assistance is most required:

"And whereas it was by the same Acts enacted, that by the authority therein provided, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions thereof, any arrangement might from time to time be made, with the consent in writing under the hand of any dignitary or officer of any cathedral church, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to such dignitary or officer, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting, in any case, any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments:

"And whereas it has been agreed between us and the Reverend Robert Vanbrugh Law, M.A., the present treasurer of the said cathedral church of Wells, that, with a view to sooner carrying into effect the purpose of the said recited Acts hereinbefore particularly mentioned, the following arrangement should be recommended by us to your Majesty in Council:

"We, therefore, with the consent of the said Robert Vanbrugh Law, testified by his having signed this scheme, humbly recommend and propose, that, without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of such gazetting, all lands, tithes and other hereditaments whatsoever (except any right of patronage) now belonging to the said Robert Vanbrugh Law as aforesaid, or to or in which he has or ought to have any estate, right, title or interest, shall, together with all such estate, right, title and interest therein (except as aforesaid) be and be held to be, for the consideration hereinafter mentioned, transferred and conveyed by and from the said Robert Vanbrugh Law to us, and shall then and thereupon become and be absolutely vested in us, for the purposes of the said Acts, subject only to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof, or of any part or parts thereof; and that, in consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance, there shall be paid by us to the said Robert Vanbrugh Law so long as he shall continue to be the treasurer of the said cathedral church, and no longer, the annual sum of one hundred and thirty pounds, by equal half-yearly payments on the seventeenth day of February and the seventeenth day of August, and that the first such half-yearly payment shall be made on the seventeenth day of February next; provided that no renewal of any lease, nor any new lease of the said lands, tithes or other hereditaments or of any part thereof shall, since the tenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty, have been or shall be granted or made by the said Robert Vanbrugh Law; and that if the next avoidance of the said treasurership shall happen on any other day than one of the said two half-yearly days of payment, then a proportionate sum only shall be paid to the said Robert Vanbrugh Law, or his representatives:

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Bath and Wells.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"Whereas it is by the said Act (amongst other things) enacted, that notwithstanding the charge by that Act created (being a charge created in favour of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne) all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tenements or other hereditaments whatsoever, by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements or other hereditaments vested in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property hereinafter described is vested in us), and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us by proper instruments in writing duly executed according to law, with a proviso that none of such lands, tithes, tenements or other hereditaments be sold, transferred or conveyed, except by the authority of a scheme, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying the same:

"And whereas all the lands, tenements, hereditaments and endowments (excepting any right of patronage) formerly belonging to the said prebend of Hurstborne and Burbage became vested in us on the vacancy of the said prebend, subject to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof:

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments; and after due consideration it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by deed or deeds duly executed under our common seal, from time to time to sell and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments (except as aforesaid), heretofore belonging to the said prebend, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the dioceses of Salisbury and Winchester respectively.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of January 1850,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the ninth section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts," or under or by virtue of any and every other power or authority vested in them by the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twentieth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Ipsley, in the county of Warwick, and of the parish of Tardebigge, in the counties of Warwick and Worcester, and of the parish of Feckenham, in the county of Worcester, all which parishes are within the diocese of Worcester, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate certain contiguous portions of the said three parishes and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, for the consecrated church of Saint Luke, situate at Headless Cross, in the said parish of Ipsley, under and by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose contained in the ninth section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of your Majesty, intituled, 'An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts,' or under or by virtue of any and every other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed consolidated chapelry should be called 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Headless Cross,' with boundaries as hereinafter mentioned;

"The boundary line of the proposed consolidated chapelry of Headless Cross commences near Redditch, at the Tanhouse, on the Back-hill, No. 23 on the Tithe Commutation Map of the said parish of Ipsley, and proceeds south-easterly along the eastern enclosures of fields Nos. 23 and 22, to the northern enclosure of No. 299, then easterly along such northern enclosure, then south-easterly, southerly, and westerly along the eastern and southern enclosures of that field to the northern corner of field No. 304, then proceeds southerly down the eastern enclosures of the said field No. 304, and fields Nos. 293 and 287, then continues along the eastern and south-eastern enclosures of woodland No. 271, and along the eastern enclosures of field No. 266, and the eastern and south-eastern enclosures of woodland No. 85 to the western enclosure of fields Nos. 83 and 74, and then southerly along such enclosure until it enters the road to Alcester at Crab's Cross, then turns north-westerly up the middle of that road as far as the footpath running from such road across the fields Nos. 1017 and 1018 on the Tithe Commutation Map of the said parish of Feckenham in a south-westerly direction into Warkwood-lane, along which footpath it proceeds into the said Warkwood-lane, up the middle of which lane it then proceeds north-westerly as far as the footpath near the windmill; it then proceeds in a northerly direction along such footpath through enclosures No. 1332, 1330, 1326, 1322, 1325, 1324, 1186, 1188, and 1205, on such last-mentioned map, and leaving such footpath, enters into Botter's-lane, up the middle of which lane it then proceeds northerly as far as Webheath-lane, along the middle of which lane it proceeds north-easterly and enters the Bromsgrove-road: it then proceeds south-easterly along the middle of that road as far as the north-western enclosure of field No. 512 on the Tithe

Commutation Map of the said parish of Tardebigge, along which enclosure, as also along the north-eastern enclosure thereof, and of the enclosures of fields Nos. 513, 514 and 515 on such last-mentioned map, it proceeds and enters into Blind-lane, and along the middle of that lane, and of the road leading to Redditch, in a north-easterly direction as far as the said Tanhouse, where the boundary line commenced; and which proposed consolidated chapelry of Headless Cross is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured blue, red, and yellow:

"That the consents of the Right Reverend Henry Lord Bishop of Worcester (as the Bishop of the diocese); of the Reverend Charles Dolben, of Ipsley aforesaid, clerk, patron of the parish church of Ipsley aforesaid; of the Honourable Robert Henry Clive, patron of the parish church of Tardebigge aforesaid; and of the Reverend Edward Neale, of Taplow, in the county of Buckingham, clerk, patron of the parish church of Feckenham aforesaid, have been severally obtained to the formation of the hereinbefore proposed consolidated chapelry of Headless Cross, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned; in testimony whereof the said Henry Lord Bishop of Worcester, Charles Dolben, Robert Henry Clive, and Edward Neale, have signed and sealed this representation:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty that it has been mutually agreed between the said Charles Dolben, Robert Henry Clive, and Edward Neale (as such respective patrons as aforesaid, testified as aforesaid, with the approbation of your Majesty's said Commissioners, testified as hereinafter mentioned, and of the said Henry Lord Bishop of Worcester, testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church of Saint Luke, at Headless Cross aforesaid, should be vested in, belong to, and, whenever occasion may require, be exercised by the rector of the parish church of Ipsley aforesaid, and by the vicars of the parish churches of Tardebigge and Feckenham respectively, in manner following; that is to say: that the first turn or right of presentation and appointment which shall arise, should belong to and be exercised by the rector for the time being of the parish church of Ipsley aforesaid; that the second turn should belong to and be exercised by the vicar for the time being of the parish church of Tardebigge aforesaid; that the third turn should belong to and be exercised by the rector for the time being of the parish church of Ipsley aforesaid; that the fourth turn should belong to and be exercised by the vicar for the time being of the parish church of Feckenham aforesaid; and that the first out of every two subsequent turns or rights of presentation and appointment as aforesaid should belong to and be exercised by the rector for the time being of the parish church of Ipsley aforesaid; and that the remaining one of every such two turns as last mentioned should belong to and be exercised by the vicars for the time being of the parish churches of Tardebigge and Feckenham alternately, and that the vicar of Tardebigge for the time being should in respect thereto have the prior turn:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty's having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed formation into a consolidated chapelry be accordingly made, and the agreement in respect of the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent, or perpetual curate, to serve the said Church, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith enrolled, pursuant to the said Acts, and registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Worcester.
