PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," or under or by virtue of any and every other power or authority vested in them by the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, in the words following; viz:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Chester-le-Street, in the county and diocese of Durham, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate at Birtley, in the said parish of Chester-le-Street, under and by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King

George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,' or under or by virtue of any and every other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed district should be called 'The Chapelry District of Birtley,' with boundaries as hereinafter mentioned:

"The chapelry district of Birtley is bounded on the north and north-east by the chapelry of Usworth, in the parish of Washington; on the east by the said parish of Washington; on the south-east by the parish of Painshaw and the river Wear; on the south by the townships of Lambton and Chester-le-Street; on the south-west and west by the townships of Ouston and Urpeth, in the chapelry of Pelton; and on the north-west by the chapelry of Lamesley, as such proposed district is more particularly delineated on the map or plan thereof hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured blue:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that it also appears to them to be expedient that bans of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in the said church at Birtley aforesaid; and that the fees to arise therefrom should belong and be paid to the minister for the time being:

"That the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Lord Bishop of Durham (as the Bishop of the said diocese) has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section hereinafore mentioned; in testimony whereof, the said Edward Lord Bishop of Durham has signed and sealed this representation:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of bans, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty by and with the like advice, is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith enrolled, pursuant to the said Acts, and registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.
