The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Thursday, January 31, 1850.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

WE are commanded by Her Majesty to assure you, that Her Majesty has great satisfaction in again having recourse to the advice and assistance of Her Parliament.

The decease of Her Majesty Queen Adelaide has caused Her Majesty deep affliction. The extensive charity and exemplary virtues of Her late Majesty will always render her memory dear to the nation.

Her Majesty happily continues in peace and amity with foreign powers.

In the course of the Autumn differences of a serious character arose between the Governments of Austria and Russia on the one hand, and the Sublime Porte on the other, in regard to the treatment of a considerable number of persons who, after the termination of the civil war in Hungary, had taken refuge in the Turkish territory.

Explanations which took place between the Turkish and Imperial Governments have fortunately removed any danger to the peace of Europe which might have arisen out of these differences.

Her Majesty, having been appealed to on this occasion by the Sultan, united Her efforts with those of the Government of France, to which a similar appeal had been made, in order to assist, by the employment of Her good offices, in effecting an amicable settlement of those differences in a manner consistent with the dignity and independence of the Porte.

Her Majesty has been engaged in communications with Foreign States upon the measures which might be rendered necessary by the relaxation of the restrictions formerly imposed by the Navigation Laws of this Country.

The Governments of the United States of America and of Sweden have promptly taken steps to secure to British ships in the ports of their respective countries advantages similar to those which their own ships now enjoy in British ports.

With regard to those Foreign States whose Navigation Laws have hitherto been of a restrictive character, Her Majesty has received from nearly all of them assurances which induce Her to hope that our example will speedily lead to a great and general diminution of those obstacles which previously existed to a free intercourse by sea between the nations of the world.

In the Summer and Autumn of the past year the United Kingdom was again visited by the ravages of the Cholera; but Almighty God, in His mercy, was pleased to arrest the progress of mortality, and to stay this fearful pestilence. Her Majesty is persuaded that we shall best evince our gratitude by vigilant precautions against the more obvious causes of sickness, and an enlightened consideration for those who are most exposed to its attacks.

Her Majesty, in Her late visit to Ireland, derived the highest gratification from the loyalty and attachment manifested by all classes of Her subjects. Although the effects of former years of scarcity are painfully felt in that part of the United Kingdom, they are mitigated by the present abundance of food, and the tranquillity which prevails.

Her Majesty has great satisfaction in congratulating you on the improved condition of commerce and manufactures. It is with regret that Her Majesty has observed the complaints which in many parts of the kingdom have proceeded from the owners and occupiers of land. Her Majesty greatly laments that any portion of Her subjects should be suffering distress; but it is a source of sincere gratification to Her Majesty to witness the increased enjoyment of the necessaries and comforts of life which cheapness and plenty have bestowed upon the great body of Her People.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

Her Majesty has directed the estimates for the year to be laid before you. They have been framed with a strict regard to economy, while the efficiency of the various branches of the public service has not been neglected.

Her Majesty has seen with satisfaction the present state of the revenue.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Some of the measures which were postponed at the end of the last session for want of time for their consideration will be again laid before you. Among the most important of these is one for the better Government of the Australian Colonies.

Her Majesty has directed various measures to be prepared for the improvement of the condition of Ireland. The mischiefs arising from party processions, the defects of the laws regulating the relations of landlord and tenant, the imperfect state of the grand jury Acts, and the diminished number of electors for members to serve in Parliament, will, together with other matters of serious consequence, form the subjects of measures to be submitted for your consideration.

Her Majesty has learnt with satisfaction that the measures which have been already passed for the promotion of the public health are in a course of gradual adoption; and Her Majesty trusts, that, both in the metropolis and in various parts of the United Kingdom, you will be enabled to make further progress in the removal of evils which affect the health and well-being of Her subjects.

The favour of Divine Providence has hitherto preserved this kingdom from the wars and convulsions which during the last two years have shaken so many of the States of the Continent of Europe.

It is Her Majesty's hope and belief that by combining liberty with order, by preserving what is valuable, and amending what is defective, you will sustain the fabric of our Institutions as the abode and the shelter of a free and happy people.

By the QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION.

In order to the Electing Two Peers of Scotland.

WHEREAS David Earl of Airlie and John Lord Colville of Culross were duly elected and returned to be two of the sixteen Peers of Scotland to sit in the House of Peers in the present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and are since deceased: In order to the electing two other Peers of Scotland to sit in their room, We do, by the advice of our Privy Council, issue forth this our Royal Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood House at Edinburgh, on Wednesday the thirteenth day of March next ensuing, between the hours of twelve and two in the afternoon, to nominate and choose two other Peers of Scotland to sit and vote in the House of Peers in this present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the room of the said David Earl of Airlie and John Lord Colville of Culross, deceased, by open election and plurality of voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the proxies of such as shall be absent (such proxies being Peers, and producing mandates in writing duly signed before witnesses, and both the constituents and proxies being qualified according to law): and the Lord Clerk Register, or such two of the Principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his name, are hereby respectively required to attend such meeting, and to administer the oaths required by law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their votes; and immediately after such elections made and duly examined, to certify the names of the Peers so elected, and to sign and attest the same in the presence of the said Peers the electors, and return such certificates into our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain: and we strictly charge and command that this our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the county towns of Scotland, twenty-five days at least before the time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the said Peers to proceed on such elections.

Given at our Court at Windsor, this thirtieth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and in the thirteenth year of our reign.

NOTICE.

IN terms of the Act of Parliament 6th and 7th William IV., chapter 42, intituled 'An Act to grant certain powers to Heirs of Entail in Scotland, and to authorize the sale of Entailed Lands for the payment of certain debts affecting the same,' Notice is hereby given to all concerned, that William Henry Kennedy Erskine, Esquire, the heir of entail in possession of the entailed estate of Dun and others, in the county of Forfar, comprehending the whole lands and heritages embraced in a disposition and deed of entail dated the 22nd day of June 1801, and recorded in the Register of Entails the 19th day of November 1812, and in the Books of Council and Session the 15th day of December thereafter, executed by the deceased John Erskine, of Dun, Esquire (a part of which lands and heritages is also embraced in a later entail, or supplementary entail, executed by the late Miss Alice Erskine, daughter of the said John Erskine, bearing date the 10th day of April 1823, and recorded in the Register of Entails the 6th day of December 1825, and in the Books of Council and Session the 31st day of March 1826), intends to present an application to the Court of Session, praying the Court that so much of the said estate may be sold as will produce a sum adequate to discharge certain debts and obligations affecting, or which may be made to affect the same.—All in terms of the said Act of Parliament.

MACKAY & HOWE, W.S. Agents.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery made in a cause of Bromley v. Wright, with the approbation of Richard Richards, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Gray's-inn Coffeehouse, Holborn, some time in the month of February, of which due notice will be given;

An improved ground-rent of £10 4s. per annum, secured upon two houses and premises situate and being No. 2, Hampstead-street (formerly Southampton-street), Fitzroy-square, and No. 1, Bromley-place, Fitzroy-square, in the county of Middlesex, held on lease (together with other premises) for a term of 99 years, from the 29th day of September 1775, at a ground-rent of £3 per annum, and underlet on two leases for the whole term of the original lease, less one day, at ground-rents amounting together to £10 4s. per annum.

Particulars whereof may, in a short time, be had (gratis) at the said Master's chambers, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London; of Messrs. Westmacott and Pinniger, 28, John-street, Bedford-row; of Messrs. Forbes and Walton, 8, Warnford-court, Throgmorton-street; of Mr. C. Burrows, 20, Lawrence-lane, Cheapside; of Mr. Hodgson, 32, Broad-street-buildings; and of Mr. Edward Hodgkinson, 10, Godliman-street, Doctors'-commons, Plaintiff's Solicitor.

Vice-Chancellor Knight Bruce.—Friday the 25th day of January, in the 13th year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, 1850, between William Naughton Davies and David Davies, an infant, by the said William Naughton Davies, his next friend, plaintiffs; David Davies, John Male, and Henry Male, defendants.

FORASMUCH as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. James, of Counsel for the plaintiffs, that the plaintiffs having exhibited their Bill in this Court against the defendants, and sued out process of subpoena on the 18th day of October 1848, to compel the defendant, David Davies, to appear to and answer the same, it appears by the affidavits of George Male, George Hamilton Verity, the plaintiff David Davies and Robert Pyne, that the defendant, David Davies, has been within the jurisdiction of this Court within two years before the subpoena was issued, and that upon inquiry at his usual place of abode, he could not be found, so as to be served with process, and that there is a just ground to believe that such defendant is gone out of this realm; or otherwise absconded, to avoid being served with process: It is thereupon ordered that the defendant, David Davies, do appear to the plaintiffs' Bill, on or before the 25th day of April next; and it is ordered that the plaintiffs do cause a copy of this Order, together with a notice thereof, to the effect set forth at the foot of the general Order of this Court in that behalf, to be inserted in the London Gazette of the 1st day of February next, in the Times newspaper, and in a newspaper published in Somersetshire, on or before the 10th day of February next.

Notice.—David Davies.—Take notice, that if you do not appear, pursuant to the above Order, the plaintiffs may enter an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the plaintiffs such relief as they may appear to be entitled to on their own showing.

ISAAC WRENTMORE, Plaintiffs' Agent,
