JANE JENKINS, deceased.

IF the next of kin or legal representatives of Jane Jenkins (whose maiden name was Millington), the wife or widow of John Jenkins, who was a Tailor, and resided at different periods, but many years since in Gray's-inn-lane, London, and the New North-road, Islington, and in St. James'-street, Westminster, will apply to Messrs. W. and S. Cotton, of No. 7, Lothbury, London, Solicitors, they may hear of something to their advantage.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the buildings, works, and premises, at Church, Lancashire, called Church Print Works, belonging to Frederic Steiner, Esq. are occupied by Mr. Christopher Wood, as his tenant, in the business of a Calico Printer; and that all the engines, boilers, pans, furnaces, stoves, hearths, shafts, pedestals, wheels, drums, gearing, printing machines, mangles, presses, cylinders, vessels, cisterns, troughs, pits, pumps, pipes, racks, stages, stillages, tables, benches, lathes, vices, gas apparatus, and all other the plant, machinery, tools, implements, and utensils, whether fixed or moveable, in and about the said buildings and premises, are the sole property of the said Frederic Steiner, and the said Christopher Wood has no interest therein, further than the use of the same as tenant.
