Zolkiew, January 6.

THE Count de Schafgorz, who hath for some time resided at this Court as Envoy Extraordinary from the Emperor, parted from hence this Week for Moldavia and Valachia, having acquainted the King of Poland, that he had Orders from his Imperial Majesty, to sollicite those Princes to cast off the Subjection they are under to the Ottoman Port, and to join their Arms with those of the Emperor and his Allies. The Envoy from the Cham of Tartary, though the Proposals he made on the part of the Turks are absolutely rejected, is still here, and, it's believed, he will not be sent back, till we have an account of the arrival of the Polish Ambassadors at Moscow, and of the Success they are like to have in their Negotiation there, according to which, it's probable, some Overtures may be made to the Tartars, to separate them from the Turks. Several Persons who come from Persia, report, that that King having heard of the great Successes of the Christians against the Turks, had resolved likewise to make War upon them, and that his Forces began to march for that purpose towards Bagdet. The King continues in his Resolution to command his Army in Person the next Campaign, and has again assured the Pope's Nuncio, in an Audience he had of his Majesty this week, That he will be in the Field before the end of May.

Genoua, Jan. 19. The Devonshire, the Reserve, the Mary and Thomas, and the Samuel, are on their departure for Legborne, and the Euston for Palermo. By a Vessel arrived in this Port from Toulon, we have advice, that several light Frigats are fitting out there, to cruise against the Pyrats of Sally. The Prince of Monaco parted from hence the 15th Instant in one of this States Gallies, to return home.

Venice, Jan. 26. Captain General Morosini has sent hither a great many Vessels which are to transport the Soldiers that arrive daily at the Lido, as well as Provisions to Corfou. The Duke of Hanouer has let the Senate know, that 2600 Men of his Troops are marching towards the place where they are to embark for the Morea, part of which are to recruit those he has already in the Service of this Republick. The Troops of the Milaneze are expected the next Month at the Lido, the Difficulties that remained about the execution of the Treaty concluded with the Count de Melgar, being wholly removed. The Landgrave of Esse-Cassel has, we are told, likewise promised to assist the Republick with 2000 Men; And with these Succors, and the Troops now raising by this State, we are assured the Republick will have the next Campaign an Army of 30000 fighting Men. The Captain General Morosini has formed a Regiment of Maynotes, which is composed of 24 Companies, 100 Men in each, of which he has made Signior Paolo Maeri Colonel. They write from Cattaro, that the Heydukes and Morlaques continue their Incursions into the Ottoman Territories, from whence they return for the most part laden with Plunder. We have received Letters from Coron, which give a more particular Account than we had before of the Action that lately happened in their Neighborhood. They tell us, that the Turks having drawn together to the number of 4000 Men, posted themselves not far from Coron, with an intention to attack that place, of which the Governor Signior Griotti having given notice to Signior Molino, who was Cruising in those Seas with the Ships under his Command, he sailed towards Calamata, and took on Board his Ships 800 Men of that Garrison, and a considerable number of Grecians and Maynotes, who very readily offered their Service in this occasion, which he afterwards landed again near Coron, with 600 Men drawn out of his Ships, with these joined 1500 of the Garrison of Coron; The Turks in the mean time made several Retrenchments to secure their Camp, but were not able to defend them when attacked by the Christians who in a short time made themselves Masters of those Works, and then engaging the Enemies Horse, entirely routed them, above 500 of the Turks were killed upon the place, as many were taken Prisoners, and the rest fled in great confusion, leaving their Baggage, and a great quantity of Arms and Provisions in the hands of the Christians.

Vienna, Jan. 24. The Emperor has appointed Commissioners to treat with the Envoy from Transylvania, who, we are told, offer a Sum of Money to free that Countrey from Winter-quarters; but it is still believed, that this is not the only Business they are sent hither upon. General Caraffa has intercepted a Letter from Count Teckeley, written with his own hand, to his Wife the Princess Ragotzi, in which he acquaints her, that he was restored to his Liberty, and should return very suddenly, but this is lookt upon as a politick Contrivance of the Turks, who, it's believed, obliged Teckeley to write this Letter, and then ordered it so, that it should fall into the hands of the Imperialists, thereby to dispose this Court to accept of their Proposals of Peace. An Express arrived here this week from Berlin, with a List of the Troops his Electoral Highness intends to send to the Emperor's assistance, in pursuance of the late Treaty concluded between them, which will be commanded by General Schoning, and will begin their march the first of April; But we do not hear that the Treaty with the Elector of Saxony for 6000 Men is yet concluded. The Count de Herberstein, who is to command the Gallies of Malta the next Summer against the Turks, embarked the 6th Instant at Zeng; And the Count de Syroldo is made Governor of Carelstadt during his absence.

Vienna;

Vienna, Jan. 27. The 22^d Instant arrived here an Express from Caschau, with the News (which was brought thither by some Hungarian Gentlemen that came from Zolnocke) of the Defeat of 3000 Turks, who, it was said, were marching with a great Convoy towards Buda, by the Imperial and Hungarian Troops, commanded by Major General Heusser, of which we have already told you the Particulars, as they were related by the said Express; But the Letters we have since received from Zolnocke, discover the mistake of that Advice, and inform us, That General Heusser and Count Peterhafi had indeed been abroad with 4000 Horse, but that it was only to put some of the Turkish Territories under Contribution; And that having done it, they advanced to Segedin on the River Theis, and after having defeated part of the Garrison, who sallied out upon them, plunder'd and burnt the Suburbs, and then returned with a considerable Booty to Zolnocke. The Envoys from Transylvania have had their Publick Audience of the Emperor, with the Ceremonies that are observed towards the Ministers of Princes which hold of the Emperor. General Caprara has sent to his Imperial Majesty the stately Furniture for a Horse, beset with Pearls and precious Stones; and the Sable, and Staff or Scepter of Massive Gold, likewise enriched with Diamonds, which the Visier of Buda presented, by Order of the Grand Signior, to Count Teckelej, upon his entering into his Engagement with the Turks, and confirming the same by Oath at Buda in the Year 1682; These were found among other Riches belonging to Teckelej, and the principal Hungarians that joined with him in the Rebellion at a place called Regetz, which the Imperialists made themselves Masters of presently after the taking of Caschau.

Hamburg, Jan. 29. The Letters from Copenhagen of the 26 Instant tell us, that the King of Denmark intends to begin his Journey for Holslein towards the end of March; And that in the mean time the Troops that are to attend his Majesty there, are ordered to be in a readiness for their march. They write from Stockholme, that the King of Sueden would part from thence the 18th of this Month, to take a general review of his Forces. And that the Count de Nossitz Envoy Extraordinary from the Emperor, had frequent Conferences with the Ministers of that Court. The Letters from Berlin inform us, that the Elector of Brandenburgh is sending a Minister to Vienna, to adjust all matters concerning the march of the Troops he is to assist the Emperor with, which his Electoral Highness is to maintain for six Months at his own charge, in consideration whereof he is to receive from his Imperial Majesty 150000 Crowns before they begin their march.

Brussels, Febr. 5. On Saturday last our Governor General made his Publick Entry into this City, with all the Solemnity usual on the like occasions. His Excellency has, we are told, resolv'd to recruit all the Regiments of Foot in the Service of these Provinces, and to make them 800 Men each, so soon as he receives the Supplies he expects from Spain. The Prince de Savoy is preparing to return to his Command in Hungary; He will begin his Journey the next week, which he intends to take by the way of Moband. They write from Maeffricht of the 2^d Instant, that a French Party, composed of about 20 Men, had possessed themselves of the Castle of Walkerade, not far from Erkelsens, on pretence that it is a Fief of Luxembourg. The Letters from Madrid of the 10th past inform us, that the King hath declared Don Diego Espinosa, at present Governor of Gaunt, Maistre de Camp General of his Forces in these Countries.

Brussels, Febr. 8. The Letters from Vienna of the 24th past told us, They had Advice by an Express which arriv'd there the day before from Caschau, that the Imperialists had defeated a Turkish Convoy near Segedin, and had afterwards made themselves Masters of that place; but this News is contradicted by the Letters of the 27th, which give the following Account; That Lieutenant General de Mercy, and Major General Heusser, had made an Incurtion with 4000 Imperial and Hungarian Horse into the Enemies Country to raise Contributions, and that advancing under the Cannon of Segedin, part of the Garrison sallied out, and skirmish'd with them, but that several of the Turks being killed, and some Prisoners taken, the rest retreated into the Town; The Christians thereupon entered the Suburbs, which they plundered, and afterwards burnt, The Enemy had there a Magazine of Forage and Provisions, as well for the service of the Garrison, as the Troops that frequently pass'd and repass'd that way from Buda, Agria, Hatwan, and other Turkish places on that side, of which the Imperialists carried away what they could, and destroyed the rest, returning to Zolnocke with very little loss on their side.

Paris, Febr. 13. The Prince de Tingry, Son to the Duke of Luxembourg, was married on Monday last to Mademoiselle de Chevreuse. The Government of Tripoli have confirm'd the Peace which the Mareschal d'Esirée lately concluded with them. We have an account from Vienna, that the Count de la Vauguyon, Envoy Extraordinary from his most Christian Majesty, was arriv'd there, and had had Audience of the Emperor.

Whitehall, Febr. 4. On Tuesday last His Majesty, being in His Bed-Chamber, was Graciously pleas'd, as a Mark of His Royal Favour, to Confer the Honour of Knighthood upon Dr. Edmund King Physician in Ordinary to the Late King of Ever Blessed Memory.

Whitehall Febr. 5. His Majesty was this day Graciously pleas'd, upon the Humble Petition of Thomas Earl of Stamford, Prisoner in the Tower for High-Treason, to order, That Mr. Attorney General do allow of his being Bailed upon his Recognizance with sufficient Sureties for his Appearance at the Bar of the House of Lords the First day of the next Sitting of Parliament, and in the mean time at the Council-Board when he shall be thereunto required.
