The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for authorizing the sale of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of Hoxton, in the cathedral church of Saint Paul's, London, and now vested in us.

"Whereas it is by the said Act (amongst other things) enacted, that notwithstanding the charge by that Act created (being a charge created in favour of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne), all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tenements or other hereditaments whatsoever, by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements or other hereditaments vested in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property hereinafter described is vested in us), and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us by proper instruments in writing duly executed according to law, with a certain proviso respecting the application of every sum of money received as the consideration or purchase-money for the sale, transfer, and conveyance by us of any of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein, and with a further proviso that none of such lands, tithes, tenements or other hereditaments be sold, transferred or conveyed, except by the authority of a scheme, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying the same:

"And whereas all the lands, tenements, hereditaments and endowments (excepting any right of patronage) formerly belonging to the said prebend of Hoxton became vested in us (subject to any subsisting lease or leases thereof), by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twentieth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, which Order was duly gazetted on the fourth day of June following:

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments; and after due consideration, it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by deed or deeds duly executed under our common seal, from time to time to sell and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments (except as aforesaid), heretofore belonging to the said prebend, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 19th day of June 1850,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England;' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for substituting a money payment to the canon of Dunham, in the collegiate church of Southwell, for certain property belonging to him as such canon, and for authorizing the sale of such property:

"Whereas it is by the first herein recited Act (amongst other things) enacted, that, subject to the provisions therein contained, all the estate and interest which the holder of any canonry not suspended by or under the provisions of the same Act, and his successors had and would have in any lands, tithes, and other hereditaments or endowments whatsoever annexed or belonging to or usually held or enjoyed with such canonry (except any right of patronage), or whereof the rents and profits had been usually taken and enjoyed by the holder of such canonry, as such holder separately and in addition to his share of the corporate revenues of such chapter, should, without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than the provisions of the same Act, accrue to and be absolutely vested in us and our successors for the purposes of the same Act:

"And whereas the chief of such purposes is that of making better provision for the cure of souls in parishes where such assistance is most required:

"And whereas it is by the said Acts enacted, that by the authority therein provided, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions thereof any arrangement may from time to time be made with the consent, in writing, under the hand of any canon of any cathedral church for the sale, transfer or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to such canon, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting, in any case, any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments:

"And whereas it has been agreed between us and the Reverend Thomas Cozens Percival, the present canon of Dunham aforesaid, in the said collegiate church of Southwell, that with a view to the sooner carrying into effect the purpose of the said Acts hereinbefore particularly mentioned, the following arrangement should be recommended by us to your Majesty in Council:

"We, therefore, with the consent of the said Thomas Cozens Percival, testified by his having signed this scheme, humbly recommend and propose that, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and after the day of such gazetting, all the lands, tithes, and other hereditaments situate, lying and being, or arising and accruing within the parish of Morton, in the county of Nottingham (except any right of patronage), now belonging to or forming part of the endowment of the said canonry of Dunham, or to or in which he the said Thomas Cozens Percival, as such canon, has or ought to have any estate, right, title, or interest separately and in addition to his share in the corporate revenues of the chapter of the said collegiate church of Southwell, shall, together with all such estate, right, title and interest therein, be and be held to be for the consideration hereinafter mentioned, transferred and conveyed by and from the said Thomas Cozens Percival to us, and shall then and thereupon become and be absolutely vested in us for the purposes of the said Acts, subject only to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof, and that in consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance as aforesaid, there shall be paid by us to the said Thomas Cozens Percival, on the tenth day next after the day of the gazetting of such Order of your Majesty in Council, the sum of one hundred and seventy-one pounds sterling, provided that no renewal of any lease nor any new lease of any part of such lands, tithes, and other hereditaments as aforesaid shall, since the seventeenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three last, have been or shall be granted by the said Thomas Cozens Percival, or any of his predecessors:

"And whereas it is by the herein thirdly recited Act (amongst other things) enacted, that notwithstanding the charge by that Act created (being a charge created in favour of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne), all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tenements, or other hereditaments whatsoever by any absolute owner thereof shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or other hereditaments vested in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property hereinafter described is vested in us), and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts, and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us by proper instruments, in writing, duly executed according to law, with a certain proviso respecting the application of every sum of money received as the consideration or purchase-money for the sale, transfer, and conveyance by us of any of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein, and with a further proviso that none of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments be sold, transferred, or conveyed except by the authority of a scheme and an Order issued by your Majesty ratifying the same :

“And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, and after due consideration it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable :

“We, therefore, further recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by deed or deeds duly executed under our common seal, from time to time to sell and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments situate, lying and being or arising and accruing within the parish of Morton, as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable :

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 19th day of June 1850,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty, in the words following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled ‘An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,’ have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Selston, in the county of Nottingham, and diocese of Lincoln, and the parishes of Pentridge, Heanor, and Alfreton, and the extra-parochial liberty of Codnor-park, all in the county of Derby, and diocese of Lichfield.

“Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that any part or parts of any parish or parishes, chapelry or chapelries, district or districts, of great extent, and containing a large population, and wherein, or in parts whereof, the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, or any extra-parochial place or places, or any part or parts thereof, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, it shall be lawful, by the authority in the same Act provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying such scheme), with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, under his hand and seal, to set out by metes and bounds, and constitute a separate district accordingly, such district not then containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, and to fix and declare the name of such district; and it is by the same Act provided, that the draft of any scheme for constituting any such district shall be delivered or transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron or patrons of the church or chapel of any parish, chapelry or district out of which it is recommended that any such district, or any part thereof, should be taken, in order that such incumbent, patron or patrons, may have an opportunity of offering or making to us, or to such bishop, any observations or objections upon or to the constituting of such district; and that such scheme shall not be laid before your Majesty in Council until after the expiration of one calendar month next after such copy shall have been so delivered or transmitted, unless such incumbent and patron or patrons shall, in the mean time, consent to the same; and it is by the same Act also provided, that in every such scheme for constituting any such district we shall recommend to your Majesty in Council that the minister of such district, when duly licensed according to the same Act, shall be permanently endowed, under the provisions of the same Act, to an amount of not less than the annual value of one hundred pounds; and also, if such endowment be of less than the annual value of one hundred and fifty pounds, that the same shall be increased to such last-mentioned amount at the least, so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as thereafter provided:

“And whereas the said parishes and extra-parochial liberty are respectively of great extent, and contain a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof; and it has been made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular part of each of such parishes and of such extra-parochial liberty as is hereinafter mentioned and described, neither of which parts at present contains within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be together constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consents of the Right Reverend John Bishop of Lichfield, and John Bishop of Lincoln, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, that all that part of the said parish of Selston, and also all that part of the said parish of Pentridge, and also all that part of the township of Codnor in the said parish of Heanor, and also all that part of the district of Riddings in the said parish of Alfreton, and also all that part of the said extra-parochial liberty of Codnor-park, described in the schedule hereunto annexed,—all which parts, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed,—shall be together constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes accordingly, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Ironville,' and shall be wholly included in and form part of the deanery of Alfreton, the archdeaconry of Derby, and the diocese of Lichfield.

"And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the minister, for the time being, of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the said Act, the sum of one hundred pounds; and upon any building within such district being duly licensed by the bishop of the diocese for the performance of divine service, according to the same Act, there shall be paid by us, in like manner, to such minister, the further sum of thirty pounds, making in the whole the sum of one hundred and thirty pounds; and that so soon as any church or chapel within such district shall have been duly approved by us, and consecrated as the church or chapel of such district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that the said sum of one hundred pounds, one hundred and thirty pounds, or one hundred and fifty pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

"And whereas it is by the said Act further enacted, that it shall be lawful, by the authority aforesaid, at any time to assign the right of patronage of any such district or new parish as aforesaid, and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof respectively, either in perpetuity or for one or more nomination or nominations, to any ecclesiastical corporation aggregate or sole, or to either of the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge or Durham, or to any college therein respectively, or to any person or persons, or the nominee or nominees of such person or persons or body respectively, upon condition of such corporation, university, college, person or persons contributing to the permanent endowment of such minister or perpetual curate, or towards providing a church or chapel for the use of the inhabitants of such district or new parish, in such proportion and in such manner as shall be approved by the like authority:

"And whereas a sum of three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities sufficient to produce the annual sum of fifty pounds, has been contributed and transferred to our account and into our names, in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, by Francis Wright, of Osmaston Manor, in the said county of Derby, Esquire, towards such permanent endowment as aforesaid of the minister of the district so herein recommended to be constituted, and, so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid, of the perpetual curate thereof: and whereas it is the intention of the said Francis Wright to provide a church or chapel for the use of the inhabitants of such district or new parish, and a house of residence for the use of the minister thereof:

"We, therefore, further recommend and propose, that in consideration of the aforesaid benefactions, the right of patronage of, and the nomination of the minister to the said district, shall be assigned to, and shall and may be exercised by the said Francis Wright, his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

" SCHEDULE.

"The district of IRONVILLE, being

"All that part of the parish of Selston, in the county of Nottingham and the diocese of Lincoln, and also all that part of the township of Codnor, in the parish of Heanor, and also all that part of the district of Riddings, in the parish of Alfreton, and also all that part of the extra-parochial liberty of Codnor-park, and also all that part of the parish of Pentridge, all in the county of Derby, and in the diocese of Lichfield, comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing at a point (marked a on the map or plan hereunto annexed) in the middle of Nottingham-lane, and being one hundred yards distant from the north side of the Pinxtou branch of the Cromford Canal, and thence extending towards the south-east along the middle of such lane and of the Bridle-road to Nottingham, being a continuation thereof, as far as Westwood Brook, where it meets the boundary of the parish of Gresley, in the first-named county and diocese, and thence first westward along such boundary until it meets the boundary of the said extra-parochial liberty of Codnor-park, and thence first in the same direction along such boundary until it meets the boundary of the new parish of Codnor and Loscoe, in the secondly-named county and diocese, and thence extending first towards the north-west along such last-mentioned boundary as far as the boundary of the hamlet of Butterley-park, in the said parish of Pentridge, and thence extending first westward along such last-mentioned boundary as far as the boundary of the district of Riddings aforesaid, and thence towards the south-east along such last-mentioned boundary to a point (marked b as aforesaid) over the middle of the eastern end of the Cromford Canal tunnel, and thence extending eastward in a straight direction to a point (marked c as aforesaid) in the middle of Newlands-lane at a distance of 160 yards from the middle of the tunnel and bridge over the said canal, and thence continuing eastward parallel to the street or road called Goldenvalley-row, and to the northern bank of the dam called Codnor-park Reservoir, and also to the Pinxton branch of the said canal, at a distance of one hundred yards from the aforesaid Goldenvalley-row, Codnor-park Reservoir, and Pinxton Branch Canal, to the point in Nottingham-lane aforesaid, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been duly transmitted to the several incumbents and patrons as required by the said Act; and whereas one calendar month has expired since such draft was so transmitted, and certain objections to the said scheme, offered by the Vicar of Heanor, have been laid before Her Majesty in Council, together with the said scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has, notwithstanding such objections, been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the dioceses of Lincoln and Lichfield.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Bradford, and of the particular district of Saint Paul, Buttershaw, both in the West Riding of the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, such particular district of Saint Paul, Buttershaw, having been duly formed or assigned under the power or authority for that purpose contained in the tenth section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,"') it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate certain contiguous portions of the said parish of Bradford, and of the said particular district of Saint Paul, Buttershaw, and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, for the consecrated church of Saint Matthew, situate at Bankfoot, in the said parish of Bradford, under and by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose contained in the ninth section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts,' as enlarged by the first section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eleventh and twelfth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to amend the law relative to the assignment of ecclesiastical districts,' or under or by virtue of any and every other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed consolidated chapelry should be called 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Bankfoot,' and further, that the boundaries of such consolidated chapelry should be as follow:

"The boundaries of the consolidated chapelry of Bankfoot commence at the cross roads at the top of Odsall, in the township of North Bierley, thence by an imaginary line in an easterly direction to the south end of Oaks-lane, in the township of Bowling, then north-easterly along the middle of Oaks-lane to the farm-house at Parkside, thence by a direct line in a north-westerly direction to the middle of Smiddles-lane, opposite the Craven Heifer Inn, then up the middle of Smiddles-lane to the brook which separates the townships of Bowling and Horton, then south-westerly and westerly up that brook till it meets the footpath leading to Acre-lane, along that footpath to Acre-lane, then southerly along the middle of Acre-lane, and across Wibsey Town-street to the stile on the east side of the Black Dog Inn, thence south-westerly along the boundary of the said parish of Saint Paul, Buttershaw, to the Bradford and Halifax Turnpike-road, and along the middle of the Bradford and Halifax Turnpike-road easterly to the cross roads at the top of Odsall, where the boundaries of the said consolidated chapelry of Bankfoot commenced, and as the same are more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured blue and pink.

"To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

"We, the General Board of Health, appointed for the purposes of the Public Health Act, 1848, have, in pursuance of the provisions of that Act, upon the petition of not less than one-tenth of the inhabitants rated to the relief of the poor of and within the parish of Edmonton, in the county of Middlesex, having a known and defined boundary (the number of the said petitioners greatly exceeding thirty in the whole), directed William Ranger, Esq. a superintending inspector appointed for the purposes of the said Public Health Act, to visit the said parish, and to make public inquiry, and to examine witnesses as to the sewerage, drainage, and supply of water, the state of the burial grounds, the number and sanitary condition of the inhabitants, and as to any local Acts of Parliament in force within such parish for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with water, or improving the said parish, or having relation to the purposes of the said Public Health Act; also as to the natural drainage, areas, and the existing municipal, parochial, or other local boundaries, which might be most advantageously adopted for the purposes of that Act;

"And the said superintending inspector, having previously given the notices directed by the said Public Health Act, proceeded upon the said inquiry in the manner directed by that Act, and hath reported in writing to the said Board upon the said several matters in respect to which he was directed to inquire, and upon certain other matters with respect to which he deemed it expedient to report for the purposes of that Act;

"And copies of the said report, accompanied by a notice, stating that written statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any matter contained in or omitted from the said report, or any amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as directed by the said Public Health Act, and the time for forwarding such statements has now elapsed;

"And it appears by the said report, that there is no local Act of Parliament in force within the said parish for paving, lighting (otherwise than for the profit of proprietors or shareholders), cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with water, or improving such parish, or any part thereof, or in anywise relating to the purposes of the said Public Health Act;

"Now, therefore, We, the said General Board of Health, do hereby, in pursuance of the said Public Health Act, humbly report to your Majesty, that it appears to us to be expedient that the Public Health Act, 1848, and every part thereof, except the section numbered 50 in the copies of that Act, printed by your Majesty's printers, should be applied to, and be in force within and throughout the entire area, places, and parts of places comprised within the boundaries at present fixed as the boundaries of the said parish, and that such area, places, and parts of places should be and constitute a district for the purpose of the said Public Health Act accordingly.

"2. That the Local Board of Health to be elected under the said Public Health Act shall consist of twelve persons, and that the entire number shall be elected for the whole of the said district.

"3. That the first election of the said Local Board of Health shall take place on the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

"4. That one-third in number of the said Local Board shall go out of office on the twenty-fifth day of March in each year subsequently to that in which the said election takes place.

"5. That every person, at the time of his election as member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in office by virtue of such election, be resident, as in the said Public Health Act, 1848, is required, and be seized or possessed of real or personal estate, or both, to the value or amount of not less than one thousand pounds, or shall be so resident, and rated to the relief of the poor of some parish, township, or place, of which some part is within the said district, upon an annual value of not less than thirty pounds.

"6. That at the first election of the said Local Board, Henry Nash, Esq. shall have the powers and perform the duties vested in or imposed upon the Chairman of the Local Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, in relation to the election by owners of property and rate-payers, and shall perform all other duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting and completing the said first election; and in case the said Henry Nash, Esq. from illness or other sufficient cause, shall be unable to exercise or discharge such powers or duties, or shall be absent, or shall refuse to act, then George Ellis, Esq. shall exercise and perform such of the said powers and duties as then remain to be exercised or performed.

"7. That the fourteen days' notice of qualification required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by owners of property, in order to entitle them to vote at the said first election, shall be given to the said Henry Nash; or in case he shall refuse, or be unable to receive the same, then to the said George Ellis.

P. CAMPBELL, Witness.
JAMES SMITH, Yr. Witness.
Glasgow, June 14, 1850.

Vice-Chancellor

of England.—Wednesday the 12th day of June, in the 13th year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, 1850, between Mary Wright Henniker Wilson, the wife of John Wright Henniker Wilson, by Henry Beaumont Coles, Esq. her next friend, Plaintiff; Maria Whyte, John Wright Henniker Wilson, William Lawrence, and Donald Nicole, and by service of Copy Bill upon William Carr Foster, Nathan Wetherell, the Honourable Thomas Charles Bruce, Alexander Oswald, and Robert Carr Foster, Defendants.

FORASMUCH as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. Bethell and Mr. Giffard, of Counsel for the Plaintiff, that the Plaintiff, by her next friend, having exhibited her Bill in this Court against the Defendant, John Wright Henniker Wilson, and sued out process of subpoena on the 28th day of December last, to compel him to appear to and answer the same: It appears by the affidavit of Henry Seymour Westmacott that a copy of such subpoena was served at the office of Messrs. Emmett and Knight, in Bloomsbury-square, as the only means within his knowledge of bringing the same to the notice of the said Defendant, he having entirely left No. 3, Park-street, Grosvenor-square, in the county of Middlesex, some time previously thereto, as deponent learnt from inquiries made thereat, and not having any other residence or place of abode known to him; and that deponent verily believes that the said John Wright Henniker Wilson was within the jurisdiction of this Court on the 17th day of December last, and that the said Defendant, John Wright Henniker Wilson, hath absconded, and still absconds, to avoid being served with the process of this Court: it is thereupon ordered that the Defendant, John Wright Henniker Wilson, do appear to the Plaintiff's Bill on or before the 1st day July next; and it is ordered that the Plaintiff do cause copy of this Order, together with a notice thereof to the effect set forth at the foot of the general Order of this Court, in that behalf to be inserted in the London Gazette of the 21st day of June instant, and in two newspapers published in London, namely, the Times and the Morning Chronicle, on or before the 25th day of June instant.

John Wright Henniker Wilson.—Take notice, that if you do not appear, pursuant to the above Order, the Plaintiff may enter an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the Plaintiff such relief as she may appear to be entitled to on her own showing.

H. S. WESTMACOTT, No. 28, John-street, Bedford-row, Plaintiff's Solicitor.

Vice-Chancellor

Knight Bruce.—Wednesday the 12th day of June in the 13th year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, 1850, between William Smith, Joseph Calrow Means, and Thomas Beveridge, Plaintiffs; Charles Boucher, Defendant.

FORASMUCH as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. Shapter, of Counsel for the Plaintiffs, that the Plaintiffs having exhibited their Bill in this Court against the Defendant, and sued out process of subpoena on the 25th day of March last, to compel him to appear to and answer the same, it appears by the affidavit of Henry Philip Mann, and an affidavit of John Tuff, that the said Defendant has been within the jurisdiction of the Court within two years before the subpoena was issued, and that the said Defendant is beyond the seas, and that there is just ground to believe that the said Defendant is gone out of the realm, or otherwise absconded to avoid being served with process: It is thereupon ordered that the Defendant, Charles Boucher, do appear to the Plaintiffs' Bill, on or before the 29th day of June instant; and it is ordered that the Plaintiffs do cause a copy of this Order, together with a notice thereof to the effect set forth at the foot of the general Order of this Court in that behalf, to be inserted in the London Gazette of Friday the 21st day of June instant, and in two newspapers published in the county of Kent, namely—the Maidstone Gazette and the Kentish Observer, on or before the 26th day of June instant.

Charles Boucher.—Take notice, that if you do not appear, pursuant to the above Order, the Plaintiffs may enter an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the Plaintiffs such relief as they may appear to be entitled to on their own showing.

JONES and CLARKE, 30, Bury-street, St. James's, Agents for CHARLES ETHERINGTON, Chatham, Kent, Solicitor for the Plaintiffs.

In Chancery.—Between George Godby Vincent, Plaintiff; and Mary Watt, George John Amsden, Edward Woodgate, and Rosina, his Wife, George Downing, Herbert Harris Cannan, Helen Watt, Alfred Watt, Thomas Burdon, and Charles James Houghton, and Catherine Mary, his Wife (when within the jurisdiction of the Court), and Elizabeth Hendrie, William Dobrie, Thomas Scurr Womersley, and Henry Mathews Burt, Defendants.

TAKE notice, that this Honourable Court will be moved before his Honour the Vice-Chancellor of England, on the 17th day of July next, or so soon after as Counsel can be heard by Mr. George Lake Russell, of Counsel for the Plaintiff; that the Bill filed in this cause on the 17th day of July 1849, and subsequently amended by Orders, dated respectively the 17th day of September 1849, and the 4th day of March 1850, may be ordered to be taken pro confesso against the above-named Defendant, William Dobrie, pursuant to the Orders of this Honourable Court, bearing date the 8th day of May 1845.—Dated this 20th day of June 1850.

Yours, &c. THOMAS RANDALL, Plaintiff's Solicitor, No. 8, Castle-street, Holborn.
