FRIDAY, JULY 19, 1850.

Whitehall, July 19, 1850.

THE following Address of congratulation to the Queen, on the occasion of the Birth of another Prince, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation, was presented accordingly to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, the Bailiff, the Jurats of the Royal Court, the Clergy, the Queen's Procureur Delegate, and the Deputies of the several parishes and cantons of your Majesty's Island of Guernsey, in the States assembled, most humbly crave leave, on the auspicious occasion of the Birth of another Prince, to express to your Majesty our feelings of joy and satisfaction.

As Islanders apart from the United Kingdom, cherishing ever the remembrance of your Majesty's most gracious visit to our shores, we feel peculiarly impelled to express our sentiments of devoted and affectionate attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family at a moment so deeply interesting to all your Majesty's subjects.

That the blessings of Divine Providence may be bountifully continued to your Majesty and to the illustrious Prince Consort will ever be our humble and fervent prayer.

Guernsey, 5th July 1850.

Here follow the signatures.
