FRIDAY, AUGUST 23, 1850.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 14th day of August 1850,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for consolidating the two mediety of the parishes or districts of Sheepy Magna, Sheepy Parva, and Ratcliff Culey respectively, in the county of Leicester, and diocese of Peterborough.

"Whereas it is by the said recited Act enacted, that with respect to any parish in which both the profits and the spiritual charge are divided between two or more incumbents, each having a mediety or portion of the benefice, a plan or plans may be framed by the bishop of the diocese, with the consent of the patron or patrons, so as not to prejudice the interest of any existing incumbent, for constituting any of such portions separate benefices, or for consolidating two or more of such portions into one benefice, to be held by one incumbent, or for making such other arrangements as he may judge likely to promote the efficient discharge of pastoral duties in such parish; and any such plan may be carried into effect by the authority therein provided:

"And whereas the Right Reverend George Bishop of Peterborough has by virtue of the said recited provision duly framed and submitted to us a plan for consolidating the two mediety of the said parishes or districts of Sheepy Magna, Sheepy Parva, and Ratcliff Culey, which said plan bears date the fifteenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and is in the words following; that is to say:

"Whereas both the profits and the spiritual charge of the parishes or districts of Sheepy Magna, Sheepy Parva, and Ratcliff Culey, in the county of Leicester, and diocese of Peterborough, are divided into two mediety or half shares, the one called 'The Rectory of the North Mediety of Sheepy Magna, Sheepy Parva, and Ratcliff Culey,' the other called 'The Rectory of the South Mediety of Sheepy Magna, Sheepy Parva, and Ratcliff Culey;' and whereas for the last two centuries there are and have been therein only the mother church of Great Sheepy and the chapel of Ratcliff Culey, distant from it about one mile and a half, and there has never been any territorial division of the said parishes or districts between the said two mediety; and whereas the said parishes or districts are adjacent to each other, and their united population does not exceed seven hundred, and it is expedient that the said mediety or portions should be consolidated into one benefice and be held by one incumbent; and whereas the Reverend Thomas Cotton Fell is at the present time both the patron and incumbent of each of the said two mediety, and hath consented and agreed to a consolidation of the same into one benefice, upon the terms and conditions hereinafter mentioned: Now, therefore, I George Bishop of Peterborough, with the consent of the said Thomas Cotton Fell, in testimony whereof he hath hereunto set his hand and seal, do hereby recommend and propose that the said two mediety or portions, the one called 'The Rectory of the North Mediety of Sheepy Magna, Sheepy Parva, and Ratcliff Culey,' the other called 'The Rectory of the South Mediety of Sheepy Magna, Sheepy Parva, and Ratcliff Culey,' shall be consolidated into one benefice, and shall for ever be called and known by the name of 'The Rectory of Sheepy Magna, Sheepy Parva, and Ratcliff Culey,' in the county of Leicester, and shall be held by one incumbent as rector thereof, and that the patronage thereof shall be exercised by the said Thomas Cotton Fell, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns for ever:

"And whereas the arrangement proposed in the said plan appears to us likely to promote the efficient discharge of the pastoral duties of the said parishes or districts of Sheepy Magna, Sheepy Parva, and Ratcliff Culey:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose that the said plan be carried into effect accordingly:

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Peterborough.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 14th day of August 1850,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for authorizing the sale of certain lands and hereditaments respectively formerly belonging to the chapter of the collegiate church of Southwell, and to the dignities following; that is to say: the deanery of the cathedral church of Salisbury, the prebends of Islington and Osgate, in the cathedral church of London, and the prebend of Tytherington, in the collegiate church of Heytesbury, and now vested in us.

"Whereas it is by the said Act (amongst other things) enacted, that notwithstanding the charge by that Act created (being a charge created in favour of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne), all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tenements or other hereditaments whatsoever, by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements or other hereditaments vested in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property hereinafter described is vested in us), and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us by proper instruments in writing duly executed according to law, with a certain proviso respecting the application of every sum of money received as the consideration or purchase-money for the sale, transfer and conveyance by us of any of such lands, tithes, tenements or other hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein, and with a further proviso that none of such lands, tithes, tenements or other hereditaments be sold, transferred or conveyed, except by the authority of a scheme, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying the same:

"And whereas all the lands and hereditaments (excepting any right of patronage) formerly belonging to the said chapter of Southwell, and to the dignities aforesaid, have become vested in us, subject to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof, or of any part or parts thereof:

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands and hereditaments; and after due consideration, it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by deed or deeds duly executed under our common seal, from time to time to sell and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said chapter and dignities respectively, or either of them, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the several dioceses of London, Lincoln, and Salisbury.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 14th day of August 1850,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to ex-

"plain and amend two several Acts relating to the 'Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' and of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for regulating the Cathedral Churches of Wales,' duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' and of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for regulating the Cathedral Churches of Wales,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for making additional provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes where such assistance is most required.

"Whereas, under the authority of the said recited Acts, we have from time to time prepared and laid before your Majesty in Council certain schemes, in which we have recommended and proposed that certain grants should be made, in augmentation of the incomes of certain benefices and churches, in certain classes, and subject to certain limitations, therein mentioned, which schemes have been ratified by Orders of your Majesty in Council, and such Orders have been duly gazetted:

"And whereas on the sixth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, we found it necessary to suspend, until further notice, our recommendations of further grants, with certain specified exceptions, and the several benefices and churches described in the schedules hereunto annexed either fall within such exceptions, or the incumbents thereof have received specific promises from us that we would recommend the grants in the said schedules respectively proposed, in consequence of their coming within some or one of such classes as aforesaid:

"And whereas, after due inquiry and consideration, we have satisfied ourselves that the benefices and churches described in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked A, fall within the first of the before-mentioned classes, subject to the respective limitations in the said Orders mentioned, and are fit and proper to be forthwith augmented, by the respective annual amounts stated in the last column of the same schedule:

"And whereas, from the source set opposite to the name of the benefice described in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked B, in the sixth column of such schedule, the benefaction stated in the seventh column of the same schedule has been permanently secured to the incumbent of such benefice, as therein specified, and we have satisfied ourselves, that the said last-mentioned benefice falls within the second of such classes, as limited by the said Orders, and is fit and proper to be forthwith augmented by the annual amount stated in the last column of the same schedule:

"And whereas the benefices or churches described in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked C, fall within the third class in the said Orders

mentioned, and are situate within the places set opposite to the names thereof respectively in the fourth column of the same schedule, and we are in possession of certain tithes or lands arising or situate in such places respectively, or of the proceeds thereof; and after due inquiry and consideration, we have satisfied ourselves that the same benefices or churches are fit and proper to be forthwith augmented, by the respective annual amounts stated in the last column of the same schedule:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices or churches so described in the said schedules marked A, B, and C, the fixed annual sum set opposite to the name of such benefice or church in the last column of the same schedules respectively, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, provided nevertheless that the amount of the first payment in respect of each of such grants on the first day of November next shall be calculated from such date, as according to the special circumstances of the case shall appear to us to be just and reasonable:

"And we further recommend and propose, that in consideration of an equivalent benefaction which has been secured to us by the Right Honourable John Earl Brownlow, there shall, in like manner, and on like days and times, be paid by us to the incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of St. John the Evangelist, at Manthorpe with Londonthorpe annexed, in the parish of Grantham, and county of Lincoln, the fixed annual sum of seventy pounds:

"And whereas we have satisfied ourselves that the several benefices and churches contained in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked E, also fall within the second class aforesaid, except the church of Hope, which falls within the third class aforesaid: We, therefore, recommend and propose, that in order to provide fit houses of residence for the incumbents of all the benefices and churches contained in the last-mentioned schedule, we shall be at liberty to pay to such persons, and at such times as shall appear to us from time to time to be expedient, such a sum or sums of money in the case of each such benefice or church as shall be required for providing a fit house of residence for the incumbent thereof, provided that (except in the case of the last-named church) the total amount so paid by us, in addition to the amount of the benefaction, shall not exceed such amount where the benefice or church is in public patronage, nor two third parts of such amount where the benefice or church is in private patronage:

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the further augmentation of any of such benefices or churches, if it shall be deemed fit, when there shall be sufficient means for that purpose; and that if it shall appear to us to be expedient, at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the incumbent of any benefice, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe or other hereditament should be conveyed to such benefice in fee, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution:

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure for making better provision for the cure of souls, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the first day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for compensating certain spiritual persons whose emoluments have been diminished by reason of proceedings under the said Act.

"Whereas the said Act, together with the Acts therein recited, authorize the assigning at any time, and from time to time, to the incumbent of any church or chapel whose fees, dues or other emoluments shall be diminished, by or in consequence of any proceeding under the provisions of the first-mentioned Act, of such an annual sum as shall upon due inquiry appear to be a just and reasonable compensation for such diminution:

"And whereas by certain duly gazetted Orders of your Majesty in Council for confirming certain schemes prepared by us, pursuant to the same Act, certain new parishes have been duly constituted, and the perpetual curates thereof respectively have become entitled to receive certain fees, dues and other emoluments arising therein, and we deem it just and reasonable, that compensation should be made to the incumbents of the churches or chapels hereinafter mentioned whose fees, dues or other emoluments have been diminished by or

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Tidenham, in the county of Gloucester, and within the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate at Beachley, in the said parish of Tidenham, under and by virtue of the power and authority for this purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' or under or by virtue of any and every other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, and that such district should comprize the hamlet of Beachley, and be called 'The District Chapelry of Beachley,' with boundaries, as hereinafter mentioned:

"That the consent of the Right Reverend James Henry Bishop of the said diocese of Glou-

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty that it has been mutually agreed between the said Richard Bishop of Bath and Wells, and Charles Wicksted Ethelston, as such respective patrons of the said parish churches of Whitchurch Canonorum and Uplyme (testified as aforesaid), with the approval of your Majesty's said Commissioners, testified as hereinafter mentioned, and of the said

Edward Bishop of Salisbury and Henry Bishop of Exeter (testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church of Saint Andrew at, and consolidated chapelry of Monkton Wyld, should be vested in, belong to, and, whenever occasion may require, be exercised by, Elizabeth Hodson, of Monkton Wyld aforesaid, widow, her executors, administrators, and assigns, for the first three turns of such presentation and appointment which shall hereafter arise, and that all subsequent presentations and appointments, after such three first turns of presentation, should be vested in, belong to, and whenever occasion may require, be exercised by the bishop of the diocese for the time being within which the said church of Saint Andrew, at Monkton Wyld aforesaid, shall be locally situate:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed formation into a consolidated chapelry be accordingly made, and the agreement in respect of the right of presentation or appointment of an incumbent, or perpetual curate, to serve the said church of Saint Andrew, at Monkton Wyld be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith enrolled, pursuant to the said Acts, and registered by the Registrars of the dioceses of Salisbury and Exeter.

Downing-Street, August 23, 1850.

The Queen has been pleased to issue the following Additional Instructions, under the Royal Sign Manual and Signet, to the Governor-in-Chief of New Zealand, for the purpose of modifying the Royal Instructions to that Officer, so far as they relate to the disposal of lands in that colony:

Whereas by the 13th chapter of certain instructions under Our Signet and Sign Manual, approved by Our Privy Council, and accompanying certain Letters Patent under the Great Seal of

Our United Kingdom, bearing date the 23rd day of December 1846, provision was made respecting the settlement of the waste lands of the Crown in the two provinces of the colony of New Zealand, and therein respecting the sales of the said lands, and respecting the reservation thereon of certain rents and royalties; and whereas the 31st clause of the said chapter is in the words following; that is to say:

"A separate account shall be kept by the Treasurer of each of the said provinces of the gross proceeds of the said land sales, rents, and royalties, and of all the costs, charges, and expenses of and incident in any way to the sale, survey, administration, and management of the said demesne of Us, in right of Our Crown; and after deducting from such gross proceeds all such costs, charges, and expenses, the net balance shall be by Us held in trust for defraying the cost of introducing into the said respective provinces emigrants from the United Kingdom, or in trust for defraying the costs of such other public services therein as by Us shall from time to time be prescribed by Instructions to be issued in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, under Our Signet and Sign Manual, with the advice of Our Privy Council."

And whereas by the said letters patent, we did reserve to ourselves, our heirs, and successors, full power and authority to amend, and for that purpose to add to, or, if necessary, repeal the said instructions; and whereas it is expedient that the hereinbefore recited clause of the said instructions should be amended:

We do, therefore, declare by these our instructions, given under Our Signet and Sign Manual, and approved in Our Privy Council, that so much of the said recited clause as prescribes the mode of expending the net balance therein referred to, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed, and that the said net balance shall be by Us held in trust for defraying the cost of introducing into the said colony emigrants from the United Kingdom, or in trust for defraying the costs of such other public services, in respect of the said colony, as shall be from time to time prescribed by, or in pursuance of, any Instructions issued by Us under Our Signet and Sign Manual, and approved by Our Privy Council:

And whereas by virtue of certain proclamations issued, or to be issued, within the colony of New Zealand, certain parts of the said colony have been, or may hereafter be, divided into hundreds:

And whereas it may be expedient that part of the proceeds arising from the sale of Crown Lands, within the said hundreds, should be applied in such manner as may be specified by the wardens or other proper authorities thereof:

We do hereby further declare, that it shall be competent for the Governor, or officer administering the Government of the said colony, to authorize the application of any proportion, not exceeding one-third, of the gross proceeds of the sales of Crown Lands, effected within the limits of any such hundred, towards such purposes as shall be signified to him by the wardens of such hundred, or by such other authorities thereof as shall be designated for that purpose by any Ordinance to be passed by the Legislature of the said colony, subject nevertheless to such restrictions and regulations as shall be imposed by such Ordinance.

Whereas by our Instructions under Our Signet and Sign Manual, accompanying Our Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Our United Kingdom, bearing date the 23rd day of December, 1846, We did, among other things, make certain rules and regulations respecting the settlement of the waste lands of the Crown, which are comprized in the 13th chapter of the said Instructions:

And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the 11th year of Our reign, entitled "An Act to promote colonization in New Zealand, and to authorize a loan to the New Zealand Company," it was, amongst other things, enacted, "That the several provisions relating to the settlement of the waste lands of the Crown, contained in the 13th chapter of the said Instructions under Her Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet, except such as relate to the registration of titles to land, the means of ascertaining the demesne lands of the Crown, the claims of the aboriginal inhabitants to land, and the restrictions on the conveyance of lands belonging to any of the aboriginal natives, unless to Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, shall be suspended, and of no force and effect within the province of New Munster, in the said colony of New Zealand; until the 5th day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and during such further time as shall be directed by Parliament:"

And whereas Parliament has made no such further direction as aforesaid, and the said recited Instructions are therefore now in force in the province of New Munster:

And whereas it is by the said Act further provided "that if the Directors of the said Company shall give notice to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, within three calendar months next after the said 5th day of April one thousand eight hundred and fifty, by any instrument under the seal of the Company, that they are ready to surrender the charters of the said Company to Her Majesty, and all claim and title to the lands granted or awarded to them in the said colony, all the powers and privileges of the said Company, except such as shall be necessary for enabling the directors to receive the several sums of money hereinafter mentioned, and to distribute the same among the shareholders and other persons entitled thereunto, and for enabling the directors to adjust and close the affairs of the Company, shall cease and determine, and all the lands, tenements, and hereditaments of the said Company in the said colony shall thereupon revert to and become vested in Her Majesty as part of the demesne lands of the Crown in New Zealand, subject nevertheless to any contracts which shall be then subsisting in regard to any of the said lands:"

And whereas the Directors of the New Zealand Company did, on the 5th day of July last past, give to the Right Honourable Earl Grey, Our Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies, such notice as aforesaid, in pursuance of the above-recited provision; and whereas, on the giving of such notice as aforesaid, all the lands, tenements, and hereditaments of the said Company, in New Zealand, reverted to and became vested in Us, as part of the demesne lands of the Crown in New Zealand, subject nevertheless, as aforesaid, to any contracts which were then subsisting in regard to any of the said lands:

And whereas certain contracts have been entered into between the New Zealand Company and certain bodies of settlers and others, in regard to lands in New Munster aforesaid, namely, with the settlers at Wellington, Nelson, and New Plymouth, and the Associations of Otago and Canterbury:

And whereas it is apprehended that the provisions contained in the 13th Chapter of the said

Instructions are in certain respects inconsistent with the said contracts between the New Zealand Company and the said respective settlers and associations; and it is expedient that the said Instructions should be repealed, so far as regards the lands comprised in, or affected by, the said contracts, as far as the same may be inconsistent with the said contracts respectively, or any part thereof:

Now, therefore, know you, that We have revoked and determined, and do by these Our Instructions under Our Sign Manual and Signet, revoke and determine so much and such part only of the thirteenth chapter of the said Instructions as relates to the lands comprised in or affected by the aforesaid contracts between the New Zealand Company and the settlers at Wellington, Nelson, and New Plymouth, and the associations of Otago and Canterbury, and so far as the same may be inconsistent with the said contracts respectively, or any part thereof.

And We do hereby declare that the said contracts respectively, or any amendments in such contracts which may hereafter be made by and between Us, Our Heirs and Successors, or parties on Our or their behalf lawfully authorized, and the said bodies respectively, are and shall be in force as regards the lands comprised in or affected by the said contracts: provided always, that on the expiration or sooner determination of any such contract, the regulations comprised in the said thirteenth chapter of the said recited Instructions shall again become and remain in force as regards the lands comprised in or affected by such contract.
