TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1850.

THE following Addresses were presented to the Queen in Person, on Her journey to Scotland, and were very graciously received by Her Majesty:

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, approach your Majesty with cordial and sincere sentiments of loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's Crown and Person.

We hail in your Majesty and your illustrious Consort the enlightened promoters of the arts of peace, and we feel that there can be no fitter occasion for the expression of our attachment to your Majesty, and our admiration of the virtues and qualities which adorn your Majesty, and the high station your Majesty worthily occupies, than is afforded by the dedication to the public of the magnificent works of your subjects, within the walls of which your Majesty is this day received.

We pray that your Majesty may long reign over a happy, prosperous, and united people.

Given under our common seal this 29th day of August 1850.

Joseph Crawhall, Mayor.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's devoted and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors, of the borough of Gateshead, avail ourselves, with pride and satisfaction, of the opportunity which your Majesty has been graciously pleased to afford us, of tendering to your Majesty our most fervent expressions of attachment to your Majesty's person and family, and our heartiest congratulations on this your Majesty's second visit to the banks of the Tyne.

We thank your Majesty, and your Majesty's Royal Consort, for the exalted patronage which is being so auspiciously manifested towards an undertaking, whose great and glorious design it is to facilitate the operations of trade, and to render easy and rapid that inter-communication between man and man, which is so conducive to the comfort and contentment, and so indispensable to the progress and prosperity of a nation.

And we earnestly and most devoutly pray that your Majesty, and your Majesty's Royal Consort and Family, may long enjoy the blessings of health; and that on every visit with which your Majesty may be pleased to honour any portion of your dominions, your Majesty may be permitted by the Great Author of every good to witness an undiminished energy and an augmented happiness among all classes of your people.

Given under the common seal of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Gateshead, in Special Council assembled, this 26th day of August 1850.

G. Hawks, Mayor.

To Her Most Excellent Majesty VICTORIA, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient borough and town of Alnmouth, in the chapelry of Alnmouth, in the parish of Lesbury, in the county of Northumberland, in public meeting assembled, on the 28th day of August 1850, and in the fourteenth year of your Majesty's happy reign, cannot omit the present opportunity, when your Majesty, His Royal Highness Prince Albert, and your Majesty's Royal Family are passing through this parish, for the first time, to your Majesty's palace of Holyrood, of declaring to your Majesty our most devoted attachment to your Majesty's person and Government, and of loyalty to your Majesty, His Royal Highness Prince Albert, Albert Prince of Wales, and all branches of your Majesty's Royal Family.

It is our earnest prayer that your Majesty may, by the mercy of Divine Providence, ever watching over us, be spared for a long and glorious reign, to preside as Queen over a truly pious and loyal people; that the policy hitherto pursued by your Majesty may be the foundation of that peace and concord among the nations of the world, that in all time to come the inhabitants not only of these realms, but of the world itself, may look back upon your Majesty's long and peaceful reign as glorious, chiefly in the development of arts and sciences, and in promoting the comfort and happiness of the people; that War, or even rumours of War, may never again be heard among us, but that your Majesty's reign may be truly designated as the days of good Queen Victoria.

For all these blessings, as in duty bound, we do most sincerely pray.

[Here follow the signatures.]

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and devoted subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, beg to tender to your Majesty our most joyous welcome on your arriving a second time within the bounds of this borough. We meet your Majesty on the ancient castle of Berwick—a spot not a little memorable in the history of these realms; where some of the greatest of your Majesty's Ancestors—the dread Plantagenets—the heroic Bruce—met their Parliaments or held high festival—or, at the head of the forces of their then hostile kingdoms, obtained undying renown—at the fatal price of blood.

We rejoice that these hostile dynasties and kingdoms are now united in your august Person, and under your benignant sway; and we deem it an instance of the happy sagacity which distinguishes your Majesty, as it did another of our Queens, that you have deigned in person to inaugurate this magnificent work of peaceful art, by which the once dividing river is made the point of union, and the kindly intercourse between the once opposed nations is facilitated.

We hail your Majesty's auspicious presence on this occasion, though it did not need this to win all our hearts. Long ere we had the delight of seeing your Majesty we had felt the genial influences of your wise and beneficent Government; and it is from a vivid sense of the growing felicities of your reign that we are led to utter our fervent prayer that your Majesty may be long preserved to us and the many millions of your matchless Empire; and that Heaven's best blessings may be showered upon your Royal Person, your illustrious Consort, and your beloved children.

Given under the common seal of the said borough, this 26th day of August, in the fourteenth year of your Majesty's reign, and in the year of our Lord 1850.

Wm. Smith, Mayor.
