

'passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, and that such district should be called 'The District Chapelry of Broadstairs,' with boundaries, as hereinafter mentioned :

"The district chapelry of Broadstairs is bounded on the east by the sea; on the south by a line proceeding from the sea and the north-eastern corner of the road to the Lime Kilns, along the boundary of fields respectively numbered 29, 27, and 26 on the Tithe Commutation Map of the said parish of Saint Peter, Thanet; on the west, the boundary of the said district chapelry is shown by a straight line commencing at the point marked No. 1 on the plan (hereinafter referred to), where the road from Broadstairs to Ramsgate meets the road to Bramstone and the footpath to Dumpton, and proceeding in a northerly direction across the land respectively numbered on the said map 56, 60, 82, 85, 84, 149, 163, 169, and 170, to the point where the road from Beard's-hill leaves the road from Kingsgate at the point marked No. 2 on the said plan; and on the north the boundary of the said district chapelry commences at the point marked No. 2 on the said plan where the road from Broadstairs to Kingsgate meets at Beard's-hill, and then proceeds in an easterly direction across lands respectively numbered on the said map 205, 204, 204 (*), 197, 198, 189, 188 and 186, to Stone Gateway, and thence along the middle of the Stone Gateway to the sea, at the point No. 3 on the said plan, as such district chapelry is more particularly delineated on the said plan, which is hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured green :

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings, should be solemnized and performed in the said church or chapel at Broadstairs aforesaid, and that all the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the minister or incumbent thereof for the time being :

"That the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend John Bird Archbishop of the said diocese of Canterbury has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section herein-before mentioned: in testimony whereof the said John Bird Archbishop of Canterbury has signed and sealed this representation :

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, and churchings, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

C. C. Greville.
