John Ireland Blackburne, junr. Esq. to be Deputy Lieutenant. Dated 25th October 1850.

In the Matter of certain Letters Patent granted to Edward Austin, of No. 3, Warwick-place, Bedford-row, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, bearing date and sealed at Westminster, the 12th day of May 1837, for an invention "for raising Sunken Vessels and other bodies."

NOTICE is hereby given, that under and by virtue and in pursuance of an Act made and passed in the session of Parliament held in the 5th and 6th years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the IVth, intituled "An Act to amend the law touching Letters Patent for Inventions;" and of another Act made and passed in the session of Parliament held in the 2nd and 3rd years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to amend an Act of the 5th and 6th years of the reign of King William the IVth, intituled 'An Act to amend the law touching Letters Patent for Inventions;'" and of another Act made and passed in the session of Parliament held in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of Her said Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for amending an Act passed in the 4th year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act for the better administration of justice in His Majesty's Privy Council, and to extend its jurisdictions and powers.'" A petition will be presented to Her Majesty in Council, by and on behalf of the aforesaid Edward Austin, of No. 163, Albany-road, in the parish of St. Giles, Camberwell, in the county of Surrey, praying Her Majesty to grant a prolongation of the term of the said Letters Patent; and notice is hereby further given, that an application will be made to the Right Honourable the Lords of the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council, on the 30th day of November next, or on the then next day of sitting of the said Committee, to fix an early day for the hearing of the matters contained in the said petition; and any person desirous of being heard in opposition to the prayer of the said petition, must enter a caveat to that effect, in the Privy Council Office, on or before the said 30th day of November next.—Dated this 31st day of October 1850.

Francis Paxon, 16, Bloomsbury-square, London, Agent for the said Petition.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in pursuance of an Act made and passed in the session of Parliament, held in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the law touching Letters Patent for inventions;" and of another Act made and passed in the session of Parliament, held in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to amend an Act of the fifth and sixth years of the reign of King William the Fourth, intituled 'An Act to amend the law touching Letters Patent for inventions;'" and of another Act made and passed in the session of Parliament, held in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for amending an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act for the better administration of justice in His Majesty's Privy Council, and to extend its jurisdiction and powers,'" the Electric Telegraph Company intend to apply by petition, to Her Majesty in Council, for a prolongation of the term of sole using and vending the invention of William Fothergill Cooke, formerly of Breed's-place, Hastings, in the county of Sussex, Esquire, and Charles Wheatstone, formerly of Conduit-street, Hanover-square, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, of "Improvements in giving signals and sounding alarms in distant places by means of electric currents transmitted through metallic circuits," granted to the said William Fothergill Cooke and Charles Wheatstone, for England, Wales, and the town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, by letters patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, bearing date at Westminster, on the twelfth day of June, (one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven,) in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, of which letters patent the said Electric Telegraph Company are assignees. And notice is hereby given, that the said Electric Telegraph Company intend to apply by Counsel to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, on the 7th day of December next; or if the said Judicial Committee shall not sit on that day, at the then next sitting of the said Judicial Committee, for a time to be fixed for hearing the matter of their said Petition; and that on or before the said 7th day of December next caveats must be entered; and that all persons intending to enter caveats against such application as aforesaid must enter the same at the Council Office, on or before the said 7th day of December next.

Dated this 1st day of November 1850.

Manchester and Ashton-under-Lyne, New Road (Turnpike).—Extension of Term, and Repeal or Amendment of Act.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session thereof, for leave to bring in a Bill to repeal and alter, and to limit and restrict, and to amend, extend, and enlarge certain of the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a road from Great Ancoats-street, in the town of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, to join a diversion of the Manchester and Salter's Brook-road, in Andershaw, in the parish of Ashton-under-Lyne, in the said county, and two branches of road communicating therewith," and to continue and extend the term of years mentioned in the same Act, with reference to all or some part or parts of the road or branches of road described, and originally comprised in the same Act, and to continue any further term which may have been granted by any subsequent Act or Acts of Parliament in extension of the original term created by the said first-mentioned Act, or wholly to repeal the said first-mentioned Act, and re-enact all or some of the provisions thereof, with amendments and alterations, and to enable the trustees under the said first-mentioned Act, or the trustees under the Act intended to be applied for, to levy new or other tolls, rates, or duties on the said road and branches of road, some or one of them, or some part or parts thereof respectively, and to alter the existing tolls, rates, or duties on the said road and branches of road, or some or one of them, or some part or parts thereof respectively, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment of such tolls, rates, or duties, or some of them, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges, and to confer any further powers which may be thought requisite for the effectual maintenance, repair, and improvement of the said road and branches of road, some or one of them, or some part or parts thereof respectively, and also to enable such trustees to raise further moneys on the credit of the said road and branches of road, some or one of them, or some part or parts thereof respectively, or of such tolls, rates, or duties, or some of them, and to pay off, compound, or make other arrangements with respect to the existing mortgages, charges, and debts, on the said road, or branches of road, some or one of them, or some part or parts thereof respectively, and the tolls thereon respectively, and the interest and arrears of interest in respect of the same mortgages, charges, and debts. And it is intended by such Bill to alter, amend, enlarge, or repeal the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the seventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing and improving the roads from Manchester, in the county palatine of Lancaster, to Salter's-brook, in the county palatine of Chester; and for making and maintaining several extensions or diversions of road, and a new branch road to communicate therewith," so far as such provisions relate to or affect a quarter of a mile in length of the most eastwardly part of the road in Audenshaw, in the said county of Lancaster, authorized to be made under or by virtue of the first-mentioned Act, and the tolls, rates, or duties, mortgages, charges, debts, interest, exemptions, rights and privileges, on or affecting such quarter of a mile of road.—Dated this twenty-fifth day of October 1850.

Reading Water Works Company.

(Amendment of Acts and Extension of Works and Powers.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of the Acts relating to the Reading Water Works Company, passed respectively in the seventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, and in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth. And that it is proposed by the said intended Act to authorize and empower the said Company to make and maintain an aqueduct or conduit, or aqueducts and conduits, from the river Kennet, and from a certain cut or canal communicating with the said river, and belonging to the Company of Proprietors of the Kennet and Avon Canal Navigation, at or near a mill called Southcot Mill, in the tything of Southcot, in the parish of Saint Mary, Reading, and county of Berks, to a certain reservoir, or reservoirs, proposed to be made in the said last-named parish, at or near the Toll-house upon the High Bath turnpike-road, and adjoining or near to a certain messuage and lands, called Brunswick House, and thence to a certain other reservoir, or reservoirs, proposed to be made in or near a certain close of land in the hamlet of Whitley, in the parish of Saint Giles, Reading, in the county of Berks, belonging to William Stephens, Esq. and now in the occupation of Job Patey, abutting upon the highway leading from Reading to Shinfield, upon certain lands called the Crown Fields, and upon a close of land in the occupation of John Jackson Blandy, gentleman. And it is proposed by the said intended Act to empower the said Company to make and maintain the aforesaid reservoirs, and also all such necessary filtering beds, cuttings, embankments, wells, tanks, pipes, drains, engines, sluices, and other works and conveniences as may be necessary in connection with the before-mentioned proposed works, for the better supply of the districts to be comprised within the limits of the said Act as hereinafter mentioned with water. All of which proposed aqueducts, conduits, reservoirs, and other works hereinbefore referred to, will be situate within the tything of Southcot, the said parish of Saint Mary, Reading, and the said hamlet of Whitley and parish of Saint Giles, Reading, all in the county of Berks. And it is proposed by the said intended Act, and for the purposes thereof, to empower the said Company to take water from the said river Kennet and the said cut or canal, the waters supplying which flow into the Kennet and Avon canal and into the river Thames, and also to enable the said Company to exercise all necessary powers for the breaking up of streets, roads, lanes, highways, and other places, for laying pipes and for supplying water within the parishes, hamlets, townships, and extra-parochial places of Saint Mary, Saint Lawrence, and Saint Giles, Reading; Sonning, Early, Whitley, Southcot, and Tilehurst, or some of them, in the county of Berks, and Caversham, in the county of Oxford, and also to empower the said company to purchase, compulsorily or by agreement, and to hold all such lands, houses, tenements, hereditaments, and waters, as may be necessary for constructing, making, and maintaining or supplying with water the aqueducts, conduits, sluices, reservoirs, pipes, and other works before mentioned, and to vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with such lands, houses, tenements, hereditaments, and waters as would in any manner impede or interfere with the execution of the said intended works or the purposes of the said intended Act. And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to enable the said Company, if they think fit to abandon and dispose of their present Water Works and lands, situate in the several parishes of Saint Mary, Saint Lawrence, and Saint Giles, Reading, and to levy and collect rents, rates, and charges for the supply of water within the several parishes, hamlets, townships, and places hereinbefore mentioned, and to alter the rents, rates, and charges, authorized to be levied under the hereinbefore recited Acts relating to the said Company, and to grant total or partial exemptions from the payment of such rents, rates, and charges, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges, and also to enable the said Company to raise additional capital by the creation of new shares, and also to raise additional monies by mortgage. And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections describing the lines and levels or course and situation of the said intended aqueducts or conduits and reservoirs, and the streams to be directly diverted therein, and the lands and houses proposed to be taken for the purposes thereof, with the books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands and houses, together with a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the 30th day of November 1850, be deposited at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Berks, at Abingdon, in the same county, and at the office of the Clerk of the Peace of Oxford, at Oxford; and that copies of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relate to each parish from, in, through, or into which the works will pass or be situate, with a copy of the said notice, will, on or before the said 30th day of November, be deposited with the Parish Clerk of each such parish, at his residence.—Dated this 1st day of November 1850.

Inland Revenue, Somerset House, November 2, 1850.

P. DEANS, Registrar of Bank Returns.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of the Joint Stock Companies' Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849, and of the Northern and Southern Connecting Railway Company.

BY direction of John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. the Master of the High Court of Chancery charged with the winding up of this Company, notice is hereby given, that the said Master will proceed, on Thursday the 5th day of December next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, to settle the list of contributories of this Company; and that after such list shall have been settled, no party affected thereby will be allowed to dispute the same without leave of the High Court of Chancery first obtained.—Dated this 4th day of November 1850.

J. E. Dowdeswell.

In the Matter of the Joint Stock Companies' Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849, and of the Barbados General Railway Company.

I JOHN ELIJAH BLUNT, Esq. the Master of the High Court of Chancery charged with the winding up of this Company, hereby give notice, that I shall, at my chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, on Friday the 15th day of November, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, or at such other adjournment, time, or place as I may then or afterwards fix, appoint an Official Manager of this Company; and I give notice, that all parties interested are entitled to attend at such time and place, and to offer proposals or objections as to any such appointment. And I direct that all proposals and evidence in support thereof be left in my office, on or before Tuesday the 12th day of November.

CONTRACT FOR FORAGING CAPS FOR THE ROYAL MARINES.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, October 26, 1850.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday, the 7th November next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, all such as shall from time to time be demanded for the use of the Royal Marines, under a contract for twelve calendar months certain, and afterwards until the expiration of three months' warning.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at the said Office, and a pattern cap at the Marine Office, New-street, Spring-gardens.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Foraging Caps," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £100 for the due performance of the contract.

Freehold Land, in the Counties of Kent and Sussex.

To be Sold by Tender.

Office of Ordnance, October 21, 1850.

NOTICE is hereby given, that tenders will be received at the Ordnance Office, Pall-mall, London, on or before Thursday the 14th day of November 1850, for the purchase of the following pieces of freehold land, the property of the Honourable the Board of Ordnance:

Lot 1.

A piece of Freehold Arable Land containing 20 acres, more or less, in the parish of Aylesford, in the county of Kent, situate in rear of the Lower Blue Bell Inn, on the turnpike-road from Maidstone to Rochester, now in the occupation of Mr. George Roots, a yearly Tenant.

Further particulars of this lot may be obtained on application at the Royal Engineer Office, Chatham Lines.

The property contained in Lot 1 was purchased by the Ordnance in 1844, and conveyed to the Principal Officers by Charles Milner, Esq. Alfred Bell, and Samuel Steward, Esqs. by deed dated 9th March 1844. The purchaser will be entitled to a conveyance from the Principal Officers of H. M. Ordnance, under 5th and 6th Victoria, chap. 94, and the abstract delivered to the Ordnance at the time of the purchase, which commences in 1738, a covenant for production of deeds from A. Bell and C. Milner, and also several attested copies.

The vendors will not vouch any of the statements in the abstract, or furnish any further information, than the delivery of such abstract, conveyance and covenant, and attested copies now in their possession.

Lot 2.

A piece of freehold Pasture Land, containing 2A. OR. 18P., more or less, situate in the marshes a short distance north-west of Tilbury Fort, in the parish of Chadwell, in the county of Essex, now in the occupation of Mr. Daniel Jackson, a yearly tenant, hitherto used as a private road across a marsh to obtain access to the Chadwell Road.

Further particulars of this lot may be obtained on application at the Royal Engineer Office, Gravesend. There are no deeds relating to this property. It is understood to have been purchased by the Ordnance 70 years since, with whom possession has continued. The purchaser will have a conveyance from the Principal Officers of the Ordnance under 5th and 6th Victoria, chap. 94.

The purchase of each lot to be completed within one month after notice of acceptance of tender.

The tenders to be addressed to "The Secretary to the Board of Ordnance, Pall-mall, London," and endorsed "Tender for purchase of Land."

By order of the Board,

G. Butler, Secretary.

November 5, 1850.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the account sales of the bounties arising from the capture and destruction of pirates in the China seas by Her Majesty's ship Pilot, E. M. Lyons, Esq.
