Treaty of Peace, Amity, Commerce, and Navigation between Her Britannic Majesty and the Dominican Republic; with an Additional Article thereunto annexed.

Signed at Santo Domingo, March 6, 1850.

[Ratifications exchanged at Santo Domingo, September 10, 1850.]

In the Name of the Most Holy Trinity.

HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the President of the Dominican Republic, being desirous to consecrate the formal recognition of the independence of the same, and to conclude a Treaty of Peace and Friendship, and to regulate thereby the commercial intercourse between the dominions and subjects of Her Majesty and the territories and citizens of the Republic, they have for this purpose named as their respective Plenipotentiaries, that is to say:

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Sir Robert Hermann Schomburgk, Knight, Doctor of Philosophy, Knight of the Royal Prussian Order of the Red Eagle; of the Royal Saxon Order of Merit; of the Legion of Honour of the French Republic; Her Consul to the Dominican Republic.

And the President of the Dominican Republic, Señor José María Medrano, Minister Secretary of State for the Departments of Police and the Interior, and charged with those of Justice, Public Instruction, and Foreign Affairs;

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles:—

ARTICLE I.

There shall be perpetual peace and friendship between Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, her heirs and successors, and the Dominican Republic, and between their respective subjects and citizens.

ARTICLE II.

There shall be reciprocal freedom of commerce between the British dominions and the Dominican Republic. The subjects of Her Britannic Majesty may reside in and trade to any part of the territories of the Republic, to which any other foreigners are or shall be admitted. They shall enjoy full protection for their persons and pro-

En el Nombre de la Santísima Trinidad.

DESEANDO el Presidente de la República Dominicana, y Su Majestad la Reyna del Reyno Unido de la Gran Bretaña é Irlanda, consagrar el reconocimiento formal de la independencia de aquella, y concluir un Tratado de Paz y Amistad, en el que se regulen las relaciones comerciales entre los territorios y ciudadanos de la República, y los dominios y subditos de Su Majestad, han nombrado con este objeto sus respectivos Plenipotenciarios, á saber:

El Presidente de la República Dominicana, al Señor José María Medrano, Ministro Secretario de Estado y de los Despachos del Interior y Policía, encargado de las Carteras de Justicia, Instrucción Pública, y Relaciones Exteriores;

Y Su Majestad la Reyna del Reyno Unido de la Gran Bretaña é Irlanda, á Sir Robert Hermann Schomburgk, Caballero, Doctor de Filosofía, Caballero de la Real Orden Prusiana del Aguila Roja; de la Real Orden Sajona del Merito; de la Orden de la Lejion de Honor de la Republica Francesa; Consul suyo cerca de la República Dominicana;

Quienes, habiendose comunicado mutuamente sus respectivos plenos poderes, y hallados en buena y debida forma, han acordado y concluido los Artículos siguientes:—

ARTICULO I.

Habrá perpetua paz y amistad entre la República Dominicana y Su Majestad la Reyna del Reyno Unido de la Gran Bretaña é Irlanda, sus herederos y sucesores, y entre sus respectivos ciudadanos y subditos.

ARTICULO II.

Habrá reciproca libertad de comercio entre la República Dominicana y los dominios Británicos. Los ciudadanos de la República Dominicana podrán residir y comerciar en cualquier punto de los dominios de Su Majestad Británica, en que los demas extranjeros son ó serán admitidos. Ellos gozarán de entera proteccion en sus personas y privileges. They shall be allowed to buy from and to sell to whom they like, without being restrained or affected by any monopoly, contract, or exclusive privilege of sale or purchase whatever; and they shall moreover enjoy all other rights and privileges which are or may be granted to any other foreigners, subjects or citizens of the most favoured nation.

The citizens of the Dominican Republic shall, in return, enjoy similar protection and privileges in the dominions of Her Britannic Majesty.

ARTICLE III.

No tonnage, import, or other duties or charges, shall be levied in the Dominican Republic on British vessels, or on goods imported or exported in British vessels, beyond what are or may be levied on national vessels, or on the like goods imported or exported in national vessels, to and from the open ports; and in like manner, no tonnage, import, or other duties or charges shall be levied in the British dominions on vessels of the Republic, or on goods imported or exported in those vessels, beyond what are or may be levied on national vessels, or on the like goods imported or exported in national vessels to or from the ports open to commerce; without prejudice whatever to the coasting trade, which remains exclusively reserved to national vessels of each of the two Contracting Parties.

ARTICLE IV.

Merchandise or goods coming from the British dominions in any vessel, or imported in British vessels from any country, shall not be prohibited by the Dominican Republic, nor be subject to higher duties than are levied on the same kinds of merchandise or goods coming from any other foreign country, or imported in any other vessels.

All articles the produce of the Republic may be exported therefrom by British subjects and British vessels, on as favourable terms as by the subjects or citizens and vessels of any other foreign country.

ARTICLE V.

The protection of the Government of the Republic shall be afforded to all British vessels, their officers and crews. If any such vessels should be wrecked on the coast of the Republic, the local authorities shall succour them, and shall secure them from plunder, and shall cause all articles saved from the wreck to be restored to their lawful owners. The amount of salvage dues in such cases shall be regulated, in case of dispute, by arbitrators chosen by both parties.

ARTICLE VI.

It being the intention of the two Contracting Parties to bind themselves by the present Treaty to treat each other on the footing of the most favoured nation, it is hereby agreed between them, that any favour, privilege, or immunity whatever, in matters of commerce and navigation, which either Contracting Party has actually granted, or may hereafter grant, to the subjects or citizens of any other State, shall be extended to the subjects or citizens of the other Contracting Party, gratuitously, if the concession in favour of that other propiedades. Podrán comprar y vender de quien y á quien gustaren, sin ser restringidos ó afectados por ningun monopolio, contrato, ó exclusivo privilegio de compra ó venta alguna; y disfrutarán además de todos los otros derechos y privilegios que hayan sido ó sean concedidos á cualesquier otros extranjeros, subditos ó ciudadanos de la nación mas favorecida.

Los subditos de Su Majestad Británica gozarán, en retorno, de una proteccion y privilegios semejantes en los territorios de la República.

ARTICULO III.

No se impondrán en los dominios Británicos á los buques de la República, ni á los generos importados ó esportados en buques Dominicanos, derechos de tonelada, importacion, ú otros derechos ó cargas, mayores que los que se imponen ó se impusieren á los buques nacionales, ó á iguales generos importados ó esportados en buques nacionales en y de los puertos habilitados. Y del mismo modo no se impondrán en la República Dominicana á los buques Británicos, ni á los generos importados ó esportados en dichos buques, derechos de tonelada, importacion, ú otros derechos ó cargas, mayores que los que se imponen ó se impusieren á los buques nacionales, ó á generos iguales importados ó esportados en buques nacionales en y de los puertos habilitados; sin perjudicar de ningun modo el cabotage, que se conserva esclusivamente á los buques nacionales de cada una de las dos Partes Contratantes.

ARTICULO IV.

Las mercancías ó generos procedentes del territorio de la República Dominicana, en cualquier buque, ó importados en buques Dominicanos de cualquier país, no serán prohibidos por la Gran Bretaña, ni estarán sujetos á mayores derechos que los que se cobran en igual clase de mercancías ó generos procedentes de cualquier otro país extranjero, ó importados en cualquier otro buque.

Todos los artículos productos de la Gran Bretaña podrán ser esportados de ella por ciudadanos y buques Dominicanos en terminos tan favorables como por subditos ó ciudadanos y buques de cualquier otro país extranjero.

ARTICULO V.

El Gobierno de la Gran Bretaña protegerá á todos los buques Dominicanos, á sus oficiales y tripulaciones. Si cualquiera de los tales buques naufragare en la costa de la Gran Bretaña, las autoridades locales les prestarán socorro, y los pondrán al abrigo del pillaje, y harán que todos los artículos que se salvaren del naufragio sean devueltos á sus dueños legitimos. El importe de los derechos de salvamento en semejantes casos será determinado, caso de disputa, por arbitros nombrados por ambas partes.

ARTICULO VI.

Siendo la intencion de ambas Partes Contratantes la de sujetarse por el presente Tratado á tratarse una á otra sobre las bases de la nación mas favorecida, se conviene por este entre ambas, en que todo favor, privilegio, ó inmunidad cualquiera, en materia de comercio y navegacion, que cualquiera de ambas Partes Contratantes tiene concedido actualmente, ó concediere en adelante, á subditos ó ciudadanos de otro estado, se estienda y aplique á los subditos ó á los ciudadanos de la otra Parte Contratante, gratuitamente, si la con-

State shall have been gratuitous, or in return for a compensation as nearly as possible of proportionate value and effect, to be adjusted by mutual agreement, if the concession shall have been conditional.

ARTICLE VII.

Each Contracting Party may appoint Consuls for the protection of trade, to reside in the dominions or territories of the other; but no such Consul shall enter upon the exercise of his functions until he shall have been approved and admitted, in the usual form, by the Government of the country to which he is sent.

The Diplomatic Agents and Consuls of each of the two Contracting Parties, residing within the dominions or territories of the other, shall enjoy the same rights, immunities, privileges, and exemptions which are or may be granted to the Diplomatic Agents or Consuls, of equal rank, of the most favoured nation.

ARTICLE VIII.

The subjects of Her Britannic Majesty, residing in the Dominican Republic, shall not be disturbed, persecuted, or annoyed on account of their religion, but they shall have perfect liberty of conscience therein, and exercise their creed either within their own private houses or in their own particular chapels. Liberty shall also be granted to them to bury in burial-places, which in the same manner they may freely establish and maintain, such subjects of Her Britannic Majesty who may die in the territories of the said Republic. In like manner the citizens of the Dominican Republic shall enjoy, within all the dominions of Her Britannic Majesty, a perfect and unrestrained liberty of conscience, and shall be allowed to exercise their religion, publicly or privately, within their own dwelling-houses, or in the chapels and places of worship appointed for that purpose.

ARTICLE IX.

Slavery being perpetually abolished in the Dominican Republic, and having been already declared by her an act of piracy punishable with the pain of death, the Dominican Republic engages to permit any British vessel of war which may be furnished with special Instructions under the Treaties between Great Britain and Foreign Powers, and with the formalities as are provided for in such cases by the said Treaties, relative to the prevention of the infamous Slave Trade, to visit any vessels sailing under the Dominican flag which may, on reasonable grounds, be suspected of being engaged in this vile trade in slaves; it being understood that the distances and places between which the right of visit shall be exercised, as moreover expressed in the Treaties with other Powers for Cuba and Porto Rico, shall likewise refer to the same distance of twenty leagues from the coasts of the Dominican Republic; and if by the result of the visit it should appear to the officer in command of such British vessel of war, that the suspicions which led thereto are well grounded, the vessel shall be sent without delay to the port of Santo Domingo in the Dominican Republic, and shall be delivered up to the local authorities to be proceeded against according to the laws of the Republic.

It is understood that the present Article shall not be extended to other cases which might occasion detentions and inconveniences to the Dominican vessels in their voyages and commercial enterprises, during which, on the contrary, they cesion hecha en favor de aquel otro Estado fuere gratuita, ó para corresponder á una compensacion aproximativa del valor proporcional y efecto que mutuamente se convenga, si la concesion hubiere sido condicional.

ARTICULO VII.

Cada una de las Partes Contratantes podrá nombrar Consules para la proteccion del comercio, y residir en los territorios ó dominios de la otra; pero ningun Consul empezará á desempeñar sus funciones hasta haber sido aprobado y admitido, en las formas acostumbradas, por el Gobierno del pais al que es enviado.

Los Agentes Diplomaticos y Consules de cada una de las dos Partes Contratantes residentes en los territorios ó dominios de la otra, gozarán de los mismos derechos, inmunidades, privilegios, y exenciones que son concedidos ó que se concedieren á los Agentes Diplomaticos ó Consules de igual rango de la nacion mas favorecida.

ARTICULO VIII.

Los subditos de Su Majestad Británica residentes en la República Dominicana, no serán inquietados, perseguidos, ni molestados por razon de su religion; mas gozarán de una perfecta libertad de conciencia en ella y en el ejercicio de su creencia, en sus propias casas ó capillas particulares. Tambien será permitido enterrar á los subditos de Su Majestad Británica que murieren en los territorios de dicha República, en sus propios cementerios, que podrán del mismo modo libremente establecer y entretener. Asi mismo, los ciudadanos de la República Dominicana gozarán en todos los dominios de Su Majestad Británica, de una perfecta é ilimitada libertad de conciencia, y del ejercicio de su religion, publica ó privadamente, en las casas de su morada, ó en las capillas y sitios de culto destinados para el dicho fin.

ARTICULO IX.

Siendo perpetuamente abolida la esclavitud en la República Dominicana, y estando yá el trafico de esclavos declarado por ella como acto de pirateria, que se castiga con el ultimo suplicio; la República Dominicana se obliga á permitir á aquellos buques de guerra Británicos que estuvieren provistos de las Instrucciones especiales, segun los Tratados entre la Gran Bretaña y las Potencias extranjeras, y con las formalidades y en los casos previstos por dichos Tratados relativos á impedir el infame Trafico de Esclavos, visitar los buques que naveguen bajo el Pabellon Dominicano que puedan, con fundado motivo, ser sospechados de ocuparse en tan infame trafico; entendiendose que el derecho de visita se ejercerá ademas de las distancias y lugares espresados en los Tratados con otras Potencias para las Islas de Cuba y Puerto Rico, tambien á la misma distancia de veinte leguas de las costas de la República Dominicana; y si el resultado de la visita presentáre al oficial comandante del buque de guerra Británico, que las sospechas que dieron lugar á ella estan bien fundadas, el buque sin dilacion será enviado al puerto de Santo Domingo, en la República Dominicana, y entregado á las autoridades locales para que se proceda contra él conforme á las leyes de la República.

Está entendido que el presente Artículo no será estensivo á otros casos que puedan ocasionar tardanzas y gravámenes á los buques Dominicanos en sus viajes y empresas comerciales, cuando por el contrario deben esperar toda asistencia y pro-are authorized to expect protection and assistance; hence, if the case should arise, which however is not to be supposed, that the Dominican Republic should consider to receive by this concession any vexatious molestations, it rests with her to withdraw it, after having given a year previous due notice thereof.

ARTICLE X.

In order that the two Contracting Parties may have the opportunity of hereafter treating and agreeing upon such other arrangements as may tend still further to the improvement of their mutual intercourse, and to the advancement of the interests of their respective subjects and citizens, it is agreed that the present Treaty shall remain in force and vigour for the term of ten years from the date of the exchange of the ratifications; and either of the Contracting Parties shall have the right of giving to the other Party notice of its intention to terminate, at the expiration of the said ten years, the stipulations relating to commerce and navigation, which shall cease to be binding after ten years; and all those that relate to peace and amity shall remain obligatory to both nations.

ARTICLE XI.

The present Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Santo Domingo within the space of eight months, to be accounted from the date of this Treaty, or sooner, if such be possible.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seals of their arms.

Done at Santo Domingo, the sixth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

JOSE MARIA MEDRANO.

ADDITIONAL ARTICLE.

As the circumstances of the existing war with the Haytian nation might oblige the Dominican Republic to recur to extraordinary measures, it is specially understood and agreed between the two Contracting Parties, that the Dominican Republic shall have perfect liberty of making, during the same, such laws as may place her in a state to secure her defence, notwithstanding the stipulation contained in Article II that the subjects of Her Britannic Majesty shall not be restrained or affected by any monopoly, contract, or exclusive privilege of purchase or sale; and as her disposition is constant to attract and protect commerce, it does not enter into her views to adopt any measures of limiting it, except in the case that the existing war should continue.

The present Additional Article shall have the same force and validity as if it were inserted, word for word, in the Treaty signed this day, and shall be ratified at the same time. And in consequence of the exception it contains, it is equally understood that the sanction or disapprobation of the Treaty is specially reserved to Her Britannic Majesty.

In testimony whereof the Undersigned have, in virtue of their full powers, signed and sealed the present Article.

feccion; pero, si como no es de suponer, llegare el caso de que la República Dominicana creyere recibir por esta concesion alguna molestia vejatoria, quedará por el mismo hecho hábil para retirarla, haciendo con antelacion de un año la debida notificacion.

ARTICULO X.

A fin de que ambas Partes Contratantes pueden tener ocasion en adelante de tratar y convenir cualquier otro punto que pueda tender á mejorar todavia mas sus mutuas relaciones y adelantamiento de los intereses de los ciudadanos y subditos respectivos, se ha convenido que el presente Tratado permanecerá en su fuerza y vigor por el termino de diez años, contados desde la fecha del canje de las ratificaciones; teniendo cualquiera de las Partes Contratantes el derecho de hacer á la otra la notificacion de su intencion de terminar, al vencimiento de dichos diez años, las estipulaciones relativas á comercio y navegación, que quedarán sin efecto, trascurridos los diez años; y en todo lo relativo á paz y amistad, permanecerá obligatorio á ambas naciones.

ARTICULO XI.

El presente Tratado será ratificado y las ratificaciones canjeadas en Santo Domingo dentro del termino de ocho meses, ó antes si fuere posible, contados desde la fecha de este Tratado.

En fé de lo cual los respectivos Plenipotenciarios lo han firmado, y sellado con los sellos de sus armas.

Hecho en Santo Domingo, el sexto dia de Marzo, en el año de Gracia de mil ochocientos y cincuenta.

ARTICULO ADICIONAL.

Las circunstancias de la guerra actual con la nation Haytiana pudiendo obligar á la República Dominicana á recurrir á medidas extraordinarias, esta especialmente entendido y establecido entre las Partes Contratantes, que la Republica Dominicana tendrá entera libertad de hacer durante ella tales leyes que la pongan en estado de defensa, no obstante la estipulacion contenida en el Artículo II con respectó á no poder los subditos de Su Majestad Británica ser restringidos ó afectados por ningun monopolio, contrata, ó exclusivo privilegio de compra ó venta alguna; y que siendo constante su disposicion á atraer y proteger el comercio, no entra en sus miras la adopcion de ninguna medida para coartarlo, sino en caso de la continuacion de la guerra actual.

El presente Artículo Adicional tendrá la misma fuerza y efecto como si hubiese sido inserto, palabra por palabra, en el Tratado firmado hoy, y será ratificado al mismo tiempo. En consecuencia de la escepcion que contiene, esta igualmente entendido que la sancion ó desaprobacion del Tratado queda especialmente reservada á Su Majestad Británica.

En testimonio de lo cual los abajo firmados, en virtud de sus plenos poderes, han firmado y sellado el presente Artículo.

In the Matter of certain Letters Patent granted to Edward Austin, of No. 3, Warwick-place, Bedford-row, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, bearing date and sealed at Westminster, the 12th day of May 1837, for an invention "for raising Sunken Vessels and other bodies."

NOTICE is hereby given, that under and by virtue and in pursuance of an Act made and passed in the session of Parliament held in the 5th and 6th years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the IVth, intituled "An Act to amend the law touching Letters Patent for Inventions;" and of another Act made and passed in the session of Parliament held in the 2nd and 3rd years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to amend an Act of the 5th and 6th years of the reign of King William the IVth, intituled 'An Act to amend the law touching Letters Patent for Inventions;'" and of another Act made and passed in the session of Parliament held in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of Her said Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for amending an Act passed in the 4th year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act for the better administration of justice in His Majesty's Privy Council, and to extend its jurisdictions and powers.'" A petition will be presented to Her Majesty in Council, by and on behalf of the aforesaid Edward Austin, of No. 163, Albany-road, in the parish of St. Giles, Camberwell, in the county of Surrey, praying Her Majesty to grant a prolongation of the term of the said Letters Patent; and notice is hereby further given, that an application will be made to the Right Honourable the Lords of the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council, on the 30th day of December next, or on the then next day of sitting of the said Committee, to fix an early day for the hearing of the matters contained in the said petition; and any person desirous of being heard in opposition to the prayer of the said petition, must enter a caveat to that effect, in the Privy Council Office, on or before the said 30th day of December next.—Dated this 31st day of October 1850.

Francis Paxon, 16, Bloomsbury-square, London, Agent for the said Petition.

In the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.

In the Matter of the Petition of John Gibson and Charles Campbell, for a prolongation of the term of certain Letters Patent, granted to the said John Gibson and one John Gordon Campbell, on the 19th November 1836 for England, on the 20th of May 1837 for Scotland, and 21st January 1837 for Ireland, for a new or improved process or manufacture of Silk, and Silk in combination with certain other fibrous substances.

WE hereby give notice, that their Lordships the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council have appointed Monday the 2nd day of December next, at ten o'clock A.M. for hearing the matter of the said petition.—Dated this 7th day of November 1850.

Evans and Clode, No. 2, Gray's-inn-square, London, Petitioners' Agents.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in pursuance of an Act made and passed in the session of Parliament, held in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the law touching Letters Patent for inventions;" and of another Act made and passed in the session of Parliament, held in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to amend an Act of the fifth and sixth years of the reign of King William the Fourth, intituled 'An Act to amend the law touching Letters Patent for inventions;'" and of another Act made and passed in the session of Parliament, held in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for amending an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act for the better administration of justice in His Majesty's Privy Council, and to extend its jurisdiction and powers,'" the Electric Telegraph Company intend to apply by petition, to Her Majesty in Council, for a prolongation of the term of sole using and vending the invention of William Fothergill Cooke, formerly of Breed's-place, Hastings, in the county of Sussex, Esquire, and Charles Wheatstone, formerly of Conduit-street, Hanover-square, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, of "Improvements in giving signals and sounding alarms in distant places by means of electric currents transmitted through metallic circuits," granted to the said William Fothergill Cooke and Charles Wheatstone, for England, Wales, and the town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, by letters patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, bearing date at Westminster, on the twelfth day of June, (one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven,) in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, of which letters patent the said Electric Telegraph Company are assignees. And notice is hereby given, that the said Electric Telegraph Company intend to apply by Counsel to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, on the 7th day of December next; or if the said Judicial Committee shall not sit on that day, at the then next sitting of the said Judicial Committee, for a time to be fixed for hearing the matter of their said Petition; and that on or before the said 7th day of December next caveats must be entered; and that all persons intending to enter caveats against such application as aforesaid must enter the same at the Council Office, on or before the said 7th day of December next.

Dated this 1st day of November 1850.

Freehold Land, in the Counties of Kent and Sussex.

To be Sold by Tender.

Office of Ordnance, October 21, 1850.

NOTICE is hereby given, that tenders will be received at the Ordnance Office, Pall-mall, London, on or before Thursday the 14th day of November 1850, for the purchase of the following pieces of freehold land, the property of the Honourable the Board of Ordnance:

Lot 1.

A piece of Freehold Arable Land containing 20 acres, more or less, in the parish of Aylesford, in the county of Kent, situate in rear of the Lower Blue Bell Inn, on the turnpike-road from Maidstone to Rochester, now in the occupation of Mr. George Roots, a yearly Tenant.

Further particulars of this lot may be obtained on application at the Royal Engineer Office, Chatham Lines.

The property contained in Lot 1 was purchased by the Ordnance in 1844, and conveyed to the Principal Officers by Charles Milner, Esq. Alfred Bell, and Samuel Steward, Esqs. by deed dated 9th March 1844. The purchaser will be entitled to a conveyance from the Principal Officers of H. M. Ordnance, under 5th and 6th Victoria, chap. 94, and the abstract delivered to the Ordnance at the time of the purchase, which commences in 1738, a covenant for production of deeds from A. Bell and C. Milner, and also several attested copies.

The vendors will not vouch any of the statements in the abstract, or furnish any further information, than the delivery of such abstract, conveyance and covenant, and attested copies now in their possession.

Lot 2.

A piece of freehold Pasture Land, containing 2A. Or. 18F., more or less, situate in the marshes a short distance north-west of Tilbury Fort, in the parish of Chadwell, in the county of Essex, now in the occupation of Mr. Daniel Jackson, a yearly tenant, hitherto used as a private road across a marsh to obtain access to the Chadwell Road.

Further particulars of this lot may be obtained on application at the Royal Engineer Office, Gravesend. There are no deeds relating to this property. It is understood to have been purchased by the Ordnance 70 years since, with whom possession has continued. The purchaser will have a conveyance from the Principal Officers of the Ordnance under 5th and 6th Victoria, chap. 94.

The purchase of each lot to be completed within one month after notice of acceptance of tender.

The tenders to be addressed to "The Secretary to the Board of Ordnance, Pall-mall, London," and endorsed "Tender for purchase of Land."

By order of the Board,

G. Butler, Secretary.

Leeds and Liverpool Canal and Douglas Navigation.

Bradford, Yorkshire, August 16, 1850.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Special General Assembly of the Company of Proprietors of the Canal Navigation from Leeds to Liverpool and Douglas Navigation, will be held at the house of Mr. William Wood, the Talbot Inn, in Bradford, in the county of York, at twelve o'clock at noon, on Wednesday the 18th day of December next, when it will be proposed and taken into consideration that an alteration shall be made in the tolls, rates, and duties, on all goods, wares, and merchandize of every description which shall be carried and navigated upon the whole or any part of the said canal and navigation, by raising the said tolls, rates, and duties, upon such goods, wares, and merchandize, or upon such part or parts thereof as the said Proprietors shall then think proper and determine.

By order,
