AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of November 1850,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Thursday the fourteenth day of November instant, be further prorogued to Tuesday the seventeenth day of December next.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of November 1850,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable Sir Robert Monsey Rolfe, Knight, Vice-Chancellor of England, was, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of November 1850,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty in Council was this day pleased, upon a representation of the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education, to appoint the Reverend George Robinson Moncreiff, M.A. of Balliol College, Oxford, Rector of Tattenhall, and William Parsons Warburton, Esq. B.A. Fellow of All Souls' College, Oxford, to be Her Majesty's Assistant Inspectors of Schools.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of November 1850,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to

"amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," or under or by virtue of any and every other power vested in them by the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of October one thousand eight hundred and fifty, in the words following; that is to say:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Stillingfleet, in the East Riding of the county of York, and in the diocese of York, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate at Acaster Selby, in the said parish of Stillingfleet, under and by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, and that such district should be called 'The District Chapelry of Acaster Selby,' with boundaries, as hereinafter mentioned:

"The district chapelry of Acaster Selby is bounded on or towards the north by the parish of Acaster Malbis; on or towards the east by the River Ouse; on or towards the south partly by the River Ouse and partly by the River Wharfe; and on or towards the west partly by the said River Wharfe and partly by the parish of Bolton Percy, as such district chapelry of Acaster Selby is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon colored pink:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said church of Saint John, at Acaster Selby aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the minister or incumbent of such church for the time being:
