Admiralty, 14th November 1850.

The Naval Medals, including those for service in Egypt, for which claims have been preferred prior to the 1st ult. are now ready, and will be delivered either on personal application at the Admiralty between the hours of twelve and two o'clock, or through the Staff Officers of Pensioners in the districts in which the applicants reside, the Staff Officers having been requested to forward such written applications.

As many parties, who have at various times since the 1st of June 1847, made their first applications for the Naval Medal, have since changed their place of residence, thereby rendering it impossible to deliver their Medals; all persons who have at any time made application for the Medals granted for the actions set forth in the Gazette Notices of 1st June 1847 and 7th June 1848, and who have not yet received them, are hereby required to forward their present address, and the particulars of the service for which the said Medals were claimed, to the Secretary of the Medal Committee, Admiralty.

By command of their Lordships,

J. PARKER.
