Liverpool Building.

(Amendment of Local and Personal Act, 5th Victoria, chapter 44, as to Powers of Committees and Surveyors of Buildings, and as to provisions relating to Buildings.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for an Act to repeal, alter, extend, and amend all or any of the provisions of an Act passed in the fifth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the promotion of the health of the inhabitants of the borough of Liverpool, and the better regulation of the buildings in the said borough." And in the said intended Act it is proposed to obtain powers to enable the Council of the said borough to appoint Committees, and to carry out by themselves, or by any Committee appointed by them, the provisions of the said recited and intended Acts; and also to extend, amend, and enlarge the powers of the Surveyors of Buildings appointed by virtue of the said recited Act. And it is further proposed by the said intended Act to explain, alter, extend, amend, and enlarge, the provisions now in force for the regulation of buildings, within the said borough, especially as regards the height and dimension of buildings and apartments, the nature and sufficiency of the foundations, the thickness of description of the materials to be used in the construction thereof, as well as all other matters incidental to the regulation of buildings.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to repeal, alter, extend, or amend certain of the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the 9th and 10th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the improvement of the sewerage and drainage of the borough of Liverpool, and for making further provisions for the sanitary regulation of the said borough," relating to the regulation and construction of buildings.

And it is further proposed to vary and extinguish all or any existing rights and privileges which would in any manner impede or interfere with the objects of the said intended Act, or any of them, and also to confer other rights and privileges.—Dated this 9th day of November 1850.

> Wm. Shuttleworth, Town Clerk of Liverpool, Solicitor for the intended Act.

OTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next session, for an Act to renew and continue the term and powers of an Act passed in the first year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing and improving several districts of Malmsbury turnpike-roads, and other roads connected therewith, in the counties of Wilts, Berks, and Gloucester" (which said Act was renewed and Gloucester" (which said Act was renewed and continued by the Annual Turnpike Acts Continuance Act, 1850, until November 1851), so far as the said Act relates to the road leading from Tetbury, in the county of Gloucester, to and through the borough of Malmsbury to the churchway in Lower Stanton Field, in the county of Wilts; and the road leading from the High Cross, in the borough of Malmsbury, to the turnpikeroad leading from Circnester, in the county of Gloucester to Tetbury aforesaid, at or near a place called Jackament's Bottom, in the said county of Wilts, commonly called the first district of Malmsbury Turnpike Roads, and which said district lies in and passes through the parishes, tythings, or places of Newnton, Westport Saint Mary, Brokenborough, The Abbey Malmsbury, Saint Paul Malmsbury, Burtonhill, Corston, Hullavington Stanton Saint Quinton, Milborne, Charlton, Crudwell, Hankerton, and Kemble, in the said county of Wilts.

> Jno. Heath, Clerk to the Trustees of the said First District of Malmsbury Turnpike Roads.

Llynvi Valley and Duffryn Llynvi and Porth Cawl Railways.

(Amendment of Acts, and Junction with South Wales Railway, and Power to Lease or Sell the same to the South Wales Railway Company.)

OTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to "The Duffryn Llynvi and Porth Cawl Railway Company," passed respectively in the 6th and 10th years of the reign of His Majesty King George the 4th, cap. 104 and 38, and in the 3rd and 10th and 11th years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, cap. 70 and 295, and the following Acts relating to "The Llynvi Valley Railway Company," passed respectively in the 9th and 10th, and 10th and 11th years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, cap. 353 and 79.

And it is also intended to alter the number and amount of some of the shares created under and by virtue of the before-mentioned Acts, or some of them, and to consolidate such shares, or some of them, into stock; also to raise an additional sum of money, by shares or otherwise, and upon such terms as may be agreed upon, for the purpose of paying off the debts of the Company, and for other purposes connected with the execution of the said Acts, and of the said intended Bill.

And it is proposed by the said Bill to enable the Llynvi Valley Railway Company to construct a Junction Railway, commencing at a point in the parish of Tythegston, on the Llynvi Valley Railway, otherwise the Duffryn Llynvi and Porth Cawl Railway, at about four chains east of the point at which the said railway crosses the boundary between the said parish of Tythegston and the parish of Pyle, and terminating at a point in the South Wales Railway, about twenty-three chains east of the point at which the said Duffryn Llynvi and Porth Cawl Railway crosses under the South Wales Railway, the whole of such Junction Railway being within the said parish of Tythegston.

And in such Bill power will also be applied for to deviate from the line or lines laid down on the plans hereinafter mentioned, to the extent thereon defined, and to divert, stop up, or alter, whether temporarily or permanently, all such turnpikeroads, highways, paths, passages, streams, rivers, and watercourses, as it may be necessary or expedient so to divert, stop up, or alter, for the purposes of the said Railway.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for power to levy tolls, rates, and duties in respect of the said railway so to be constructed, and to grant certain exemptions from such tolls, rates, and duties; and also to apply for the powers usually conferred for the compulsory purchase of the lands, houses, and hereditaments to be described upon the plans hereinafter mentioned; and for power to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges touching such lands, houses, and hereditaments, which may in any manner interfere with the objects aforesaid, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 30th day of November instant, plans and sections, describing the line and levels of the said railway, and of the lands, houses, and hereditaments which may be required for the purposes thereof, with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, houses, and hereditaments, together with a published map showing the general direction of the said railway, and also a copy of this notice, will be deposited for public inspection at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Glamorgan, at Cardiff; and that on or before the said 30th day of November, a copy of the plans, sections, and books of reference, and also a copy of this notice, will be deposited for public inspection, with the parish clerk of the said parish of Tythegston, at his residence.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended to apply for power to enable the said Llynvi Valley Railway Company to sell, let, or lease the said Llynvi Valley Railways, or any part thereof, and with all or any powers and privileges of such Company in connexion therewith, or in relation thereto, to the South Wales Railway Company, or to amalgamate their said railway, or any part thereof, with the railway belonging to such Company; and to enable such last-mentioned Company to purchase, rent, or lease the said Llynvi Valley Railways, or any part thereof, or to amalgamate their said railway, or any part thereof, with the same, and generally to enter into, and carry into effect, such arrangements in reference thereto as may be mutually agreed on between the said Llynvi Valley Railway Company and the South Wales Railway Company; and also to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts following, relating to the South Wales Railway Company; that is to say: the South Wales Railway Act, 1845; the South Wales Railway (Amendment) Act, 1846; the South Wales Railway (Amendment) Act, 1847; South Wales Railway (Capital) Act, 1850; and the South Wales Railway Extension of Time Act, 1850.

other places of Brimspill, Awre, Etloe, otherwise Etloe Duchy, Hagloe, Blakeney, Newland, Nibley, Forest of Dean, East Dean, and West Dean, all in the said county of Gloucester. branch railway, diverging from the said intended railway, in the said parish of Awre, at or near a point situate two furlongs, or thereabouts, to the west of the point where the said intended railway will cross the South Wales Railway, and terminating by a junction with the South Wales Railway, in the said parish of Awre, at or near a point situate two furlongs, or thereabouts, to the north of the point where the said intended railway will cross the South Wales Railway. And also a branch railway, diverging from the said intended railway, in the said parish of Awre, at the distance of three furlongs, or thereabouts, from the terminus of the said intended railway, at Brimspill aforesaid, and terminating at another point on the River Severn, at Brimspill aforesaid, situate in the said parish of Awre, or within the jurisdiction of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty. And also a branch railway to connect the termini of the said intended railway and the said last-mentioned branch railway, and commencing and terminating at Brimspill aforesaid. And it is intended by such Act to take power to make lateral deviations from the line of the said railway, branches, and works, to the extent or within the limits defined upon the plans hereinafter mentioned. And also to cross, divert, alter, or stop up, whether temporarily or permanently, all such turnpike-roads, parish-roads, and other highways, streets, paths, passages, sewers, waters, and watercourses, streams, canals, navigations, aqueducts, rivers, railways, and tramroads, within the said parishes, bailiwicks, townships, and other places aforesaid, as it may be necessary to cross, alter, divert, or stop up, for the purpose of the said rail-way, branches, wharfs, and works. And it is intended by the said Act to enable Her Majesty's Commissioners of Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, to grant a lease or leases to the Company or Companies thereby to be incorporated, of such part or parts of the said Forest of Dean as may be required for making and maintaining the said intended railway, branches, and works, or to grant a licence or licences to such company or companies to make and maintain the said intended railway, branches, and works; and it is intended by the said Act to incorporate a company, with all the necessary powers for carrying into effect the proposed works, or some part thereof, and to enable the said Company to create a capital stock or fund, divisible into shares, with all usual and requisite provisions incident thereto; and to take powers for the purchase of lands, houses, tenements, and hereditaments, either by compulsion or agreement, and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges in any manner connected with the lands, houses, tenements, and hereditaments proposed to be taken, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, or use of the said intended railway, branches, and works, and to confer other rights and privileges, and also to levy tolls, rates, or duties upon or in respect of the said railway, branches, and works, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and other rights and privileges, and to authorise the said Company to raise money on the credit of the said tolls, rates, and duties, and on the credit of the said railway, branches, and works, for the purposes of the undertaking. And also powers enabling the said Company, the South Wales Railway Company, and the Gloucester and Dean Forest Railway Company, and any other company, public body, or person, to enter into mutual contracts and arrangements for the construction and maintenance or working of the said Railway, branches, and works, or any of them. And also powers enabling the said company to use the South Wales Railway and the Gloucester and Dean Forest Railway.

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 30th day of November instant, duplicate plans and sections of the said railway, branches, and works, together with books of reference to such plans containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands so proposed to be taken, with a published map shewing the line or situation of the proposed railway, branches, and works, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Gloucester, at his office, in Gloucester; and that on or before the said 30th day of November instant, a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, map, and books of reference as relates to each of the several parishes in or through which the said railway, branches, and works are intended to be made, together with a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each parish, at his residence; and that, on or before the said 30th day of November instant, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as may relate to the lands of Her Majesty, or of any other person, in the said townships of East Dean and West Dean, in the said Forest of Dean, through which the said works are proposed to be made, together with a book of reference thereto and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited in the Speech House, in the said Forest of Dean.

JOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next session, for an Act or Acts to repeal and reenact, subject to various alterations, additions, and amendments, or otherwise to alter, repeal, extend, enlarge, or amend, all or some of the provisions of the existing Cheltenham Improvement Act, being an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the first and second years of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for better paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, and improving the town of Cheltenham, in the county of Gloucester, and for regulating the police thereof, and for removing and preventing nuisances and annoyances therein."

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to make the limits thereof commensurate with the parish of Cheltenham and such parts of the parishes of Charlton Kings, Leckhampton, Prestbury, and Swindon respectively, in the county of Gloucester, as are situate within one mile from any part of the said parish of Cheltenham, so far as regards such of the provisions of the said Act as relate to the removal or abatement of nuisances, trades, or practices injurious to health or otherwise in any manner relate to nuisances, and to make such limits commensurate with the said parish of Cheltenham, only so far as regards the other objects and purposes of the said Act; and to appoint and provide for the election of Commissioners to carry the provisions thereof into effect, or otherwise to alter and amend the present constitution and mode of electing Commissioners provided by the said existing Improvement Act.

. And it is proposed by the said intended Act to prohibit the interment of corpses in or under any church, chapel, churchyard, or other place situate within the said parish, except Trinity Church and churchyard, and such other place or places as may for the time being be approved of by the said Commissioners, and by the General Board of Health; and to provide for the future discontinuance, as places of interment, of the said Trinity Church and churchyard, and all other places of interment within the said parish, as and when it shall become dangerous or otherwise inexpedient, regard being had to public health or decency, that corpses should be buried in any such church, churchyard, or place, and to provide for the substitution of other places of interment from time to time, and for the settlement of all claims for burial grounds and other matters of dispute arising out of or in consequence of the discontinuance as aforesaid of any church, chapel, churchyard, or other place within the said limits as a place of interment, and to make provisions and regulations touching the interment of the dead in every authorized place of interment for the time being within the said parish.

No. 21157.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to authorize the said Commissioners to construct cisterns, pumps, wells, and works, as well for the gratuitous supply of water to the inhabitants and others as for public baths and the other purposes referred to in the 78th section of the Public Health Act, 1848.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to make provisions touching the construction of buildings already erected and hereafter to be erected, and the materials wherewith the same may be erected, altered, or repaired, with a view to the prevention of fire and the spread thereof; and also to make provisions with respect to naming streets and numbering houses, improving the line of the streets, and removing obstructions, ruinous or dangerous buildings, precautions during building or repairs, and ventilation of public buildings, and the prevention of nuisance by smoke, and to enforce the use in manufactories and other places of engines, chimneys, or other erections constructed on the principal of consuming smoke; and to incorporate and make applicable within the said parish, subject to certain alterations and modifications, all or some of the provisions of "The Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847," especially such as relate to the several matters hereinbefore mentioned.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to make provisions touching the sewers, both public and private, and sewerage, within the said parish, and the lighting, paving, flagging, repairing, watering, cleansing, scavengering, levelling, channelling, and otherwise improving streets, lanes, and other highways and places, public or private, and the dedication of streets as highways, the felling of trees or shrubs in certain places, and the removal of certain piers, gates, and other erections within the said parish, and to confer upon the said Commissioners all the powers and authorities conferred upon Local Boards of Health by the 69th section of the Public Health Act, 1848, for, or for requiring and enforcing the sewering, levelling, paving, flagging, and channelling streets, lanes, courts, alleys, passages, and other places, not being highways, referred to and comprised in the word "street," as used in the said Act; and to authorize the application to such purpose of all or certain portions of the rent-charges, or other sums payable by the owners or occupiers of the premises, fronting adjoining or abutting upon the street, lane, court, alley, passage, or place, or the part thereof respectively, to be sewered, levelled, paved, flagged, or channelled for the use or repair, or use and repair of such street, lane, court, alley, passage, or place; and to confer upon the said Commissioners the powers conferred upon Local Boards of Health, by the 70th section of the said Public Health Act, for making any street, lane, court, alley, passage, or place as aforesaid, a highway; and to provide for the extinguishment of parts, and perpetual continuance of parts, or otherwise for the perpetual continuance of the whole, as the case may require, of the rent charges or other sums payable as aforesaid, for the use or repair, or use and repair of the street, lane, court, alley, passage, or place, so made a highway; and to confer and impose upon the said Commissioners, or upon owners and occupiers of certain houses, lands, and premises within the said parish, or of rights or easements in respect of such houses, lands, and premises, or rent charges issuing thereout, various powers, duties, rights, privileges, immunities, obligations, and restrictions in relation to the several matters aforesaid, and to the rates, rent charges, or other sums to be levied or payable on account thereof, in addition to, and in many respects at variance with the powers, duties, rights, privileges immunities, obligations, and restrictions conferred or imposed by the said existing Improvement Act, or otherwise possessed or enjoyed by the said Commissioners, owners, or occupiers respectively, or to, or to the performance of which they respectively may be otherwise liable.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to confer powers upon the said Commissioners for making a reservoir or tank at or near the river Chelt, on the north side thereof, in a field near the Moors Farm, in the parish of Cheltenham, in the occupation of Mr. John Yearsley, for the purpose of receiving the sewage or drainage of the town of Cheltenham; and also a road leading from a public road, in the parish of Cheltenham, called the Arle Road, to the said reservoir or tank; and also a main sewer, commencing at or near a point situate near the river Chelt, adjoining the old Bath-road, in the parish of Cheltenham, and terminating in the said intended reservoir or tank; and also a main sewer, commencing at or near a point situate on the Evesham-road, near the Pittville Bridge, in the parish of Cheltenham, and terminating in a junction with the main sewer before described, at or near a point situate in a field, also in the said parish, on the north side of the river Chelt, near the Lower Alstone Mill, and in the occupation of Mr. John Davis; and also a reservoir or tank, at or near the Hatherley Brook, on the south side thereof, in a field adjoining the Bristol and Birmingham Railway, in the said parish of Cheltenham, and in the occupation of William Hawkins, for the purpose of receiving the sewage or drainage of the said Hatherley Brook; and also a road leading from a public road, in the parish of Cheltenham, called the Hatherley Road, to the said reservoir or tank; and also a main sewer, commencing at or near a point situate in a field on the south side of Hatherley Court, in the said parish of Cheltenham, and in the occupation of James Webster, Esq. and terminating in the said last described reservoir or tank; and also divers drains or sewers communicating with such main sewers and tanks, or some or one of them, which said reservoirs or tanks and main sewers and roads, will be situate in the parish, townships, and places following, or some of them; that is to say: Cheltenham, Westal, Naunton, and Sandford, Alstone, and Arle, in the county of Gloucester.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to take power to stop up all main and other sewers within the said parish which at present open or discharge their contents into the brook or river Chelt, Wyeman's Brook, and Hatherley Brook, and to divert the course thereof respectively, so that the same shall open or discharge their contents into one or other of the said intended main sewers or tanks, and to authorize the said Commissioners to cause sewers to open into and to communicate with any sewer or sewers within the said parish, constructed under the authority of the Cheltenham Sewers Act (being local and personal Act, 3 Geo. 4, cap. 26), or vested in the company thereby incorporated, or made by or belonging to any other company or any person, for their or his profit, all of which said diversions and alterations will be situate in the parish and townships hereinbeforementioned, or some of them; and to confer upon all or any such companies or persons as aforesaid. power to sell or lease the whole or any part of their undertakings or sewers to the Commissioners; and upon the Commissioners power to purchase or take and hold the same on lease, in the manner

Act, 1848; and to alter the said Cheltenham Sewers Act so far as may be necessary for this and the other purposes before mentioned in this paragraph; and to vest in the Commissioners, in manner provided by the 43rd section of the said Public Health Act, all other sewers within the said parish not belonging to any such Company or person as aforesaid.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to incorporate therewith and make applicable, subject to certain alterations and modifications within the said parish, all or some of the provisions of the Police Clauses Act, 1847, especially the sections numbered respectively from 6 to 33 inclusive, or otherwise to make provisions with respect to the police within the said parish; and to obstructions and nuisances in the streets, and to fires; and also to make provisions touching the competency of Justices of the Peace to act as such in reference to matters arising out of or connected with the said Act, and for the prevention of the practice of using dogs as beasts of draught.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to authorize the said Commissioners, under certain circumstances, to keep in repair turnpike-roads within the said limits, and to provide in such cases for the extinguishment or alteration of tolls to be subsequently taken thereon; and to alter, so far as may be necessary for such purposes, local and personal Acts, 9 Geo. 4, cap. 9; 1 and 2 Wm. 4, cap. 16, and all other turnpike Acts in force within the said parish.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to make provisions for the speedy and effectual removal or abatement of nuisances, and prevention or regulation of trades, employments, or practices, detrimental to the public health, especially upon the occurrence or probability of occurrence within the United Kingdom of any epidemic, endemic, or contagious disease.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to provide for the removal of all fairs, markets, mops, and hirings, from and out of all streets within the said limits, and to prevent the holding thereof, or the placing of any stall, standing, booth, or erection in any of such streets other than and except in the present public market-place, and to authorize the said Commissioners to purchase all or any of such fairs, markets, mops, or hirings, and to purchase or provide a proper place or proper places for the holding thereof respectively; and, in case they shall purchase the said fairs, markets, mops, and hirings, it is further proposed by the said intended Act to regulate the tolls, stallages, rates, and duties to be payable in respect thereof, and to make provisions for enforcing the recovery thereof, and to alter the existing tolls, stallages, rates, and duties, and to grant exemptions from the payment of tolls, stallages, rates, and duties; and also to authorize the said Commissioners to make bye-laws for regulating the said fairs, markets, mops, and hirings, and the times of holding the same respectively, and all matters connected therewith respectively.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to grant powers to the said Commissioners to make, levy, and receive all such rates, rents, tolls, and duties, and raise all such sums of money on the credit thereof as may be requisite or proper for providing funds to enable them to carry into full and complete effect the objects and purposes of the said intended Act, and to alter existing tolls, rates, rents, and duties, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, rents, and duties.

chase, by compulsion or agreement, all lands or buildings, or rights or easements therein, which it may be necessary to purchase for effecting any of the objects of the said Act, and to take down, divert, alter, or stop up, temporarily or permanently, all buildings, streets, roads, highways, railways, tramways, rivers, brooks, streams, canals, sewers, waters, water-courses, mains, pipes, gas pipes, water pipes, and aqueducts, which it may be may be necessary so to take down, divert, alter, or stop up for effecting any of the said objects, and to alter, vary, or extinguish all rights, powers, privileges, easements, and immunities in any manner connected with the lands and buildings to be purchased as aforesaid, or which would or might in any manner prevent or interfere with the carrying into full and complete effect any of the objects and purposes of the said intended Act, and to confer other rights, powers, privileges, easements, and immunities.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to incorporate therewith or otherwise make applicable, but subject to certain alterations and modifications, certain of the provisions of the Public Health Act, 1848, and of the Public Health Supplemental Act, 1849, as well with respect to all or some of the matters aforesaid, as to slaughterhouses, lodging-houses, cellars used for places of human habitation, the management of streets, water-closets, and privies, nuisances, laying out streets, places of public recreation, and supply of water, and to authorize the said Commissioners to make bye-laws, rules, and regulations touching all or any of the said matters; and to authorize the Cheltenham Water-works Company to sell or lease the whole or any part of their undertaking to the said Commissioners, and the said Commissioners to purchase or take and hold the same on lease, in manner provided by the 75th section of the said Public Health Act, and to alter, so far as may be necessary for the purpose of such sale or lease, the provisions of the Cheltenham Waterworks Acts (being local and personal Acts, 5 George 4, cap. 132; 2 Vict., cap. 25; and 10 Vict., cap. 8).

And notice is hereby further given, that a plan and section, shewing the situation, or line and levels, of the said proposed reservoirs or tanks and main sewers and roads, together with a book of reference to such plan, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the 30th November 1850, with the Clerk of the Peace of the county of Gloucester, at his office, in the city of Gloucester, and with the parish clerk of the parish of Cheltenham, at his residence.

Dated the 8th day of November 1850.

North British Railway.

(Alteration and enlargement of Station at Edinburgh; Branch in connexion therewith; Alterations in line and levels of Leith branch, and abandonment of part thereof; Purchase of additional Lands; Branch at Dalkeith Town Branch; Increase and Regulation of Capital, and amendment of Acts.)

OTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next session, for an Act to amend, alter, extend, and enlarge, or to repeal some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts of Parliament hereinafter mentioned, or some of them; that is to say: an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the 7th year of the reign of His late Majesty

King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a Railway from Edinburgh to the south side of the river North Esk, near Dalkeith and Newbattle, with branches therefrom, all in the county of Edinburgh;" an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the 10th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to enable the Edinburgh and Dalkeith Railway Company to raise a further sum of money to make a Branch from the said Railway to Leith, and for other purposes relating thereto;" an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the 4th and 5th years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to enable the Edinburgh and Dalkeith Railway Company to make a Branch from the said Railway to the Town of Dalkeith, to extend the Leith Branch of the said Railway, and for other purposes relating thereto;" an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making a Railway from the City of Edinburgh to the town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, with a Branch to the Town of Haddington;" an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the 8th and 9th years of the reign of her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to empower the North British Railway Company to purchase the Edinburgh and Dalkeith Railway, and to alter part of the line of the said Railway, and of the North British Railway, and to construct certain Branch Railways in connection therewith; an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the 8th and 9th years of the reign of her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making a Railway from the Edinburgh and Dalkeith Railway to the Town of Hawick, in the County of Roxburgh;" an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the 9th and 10th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to empower the North British Railway Company to construct certain Branch Railways in connection with the Hawick Branch of the North British Railway;" another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the 9th and 10th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to authorise the construction of several Branch Railways, and other Works in connection with the North British Railway;" an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the 10th and 11th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to empower the North British Railway Company to construct a certain Railway in connection with the Haddington Branch of the North British Railway, and to make certain alterations in the Hawick and Kelso Branches of the same Railway, and for other purposes;" and an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the 11th and 12th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to empower the North British Railway Company to raise additional capital for certain purposes.

And it is proposed, by the said intended Act, to enable the North British Railway Company to alter and enlarge their existing station in the city of Edinburgh, and to construct and maintain such works and conveniences in connection therewith, as may be necessary for the purpose of such alteration and enlargement, and for making better approaches to the said station, all which intended new works will be situate within the several parishes, royal burghs, and other places following, or some of them; that is to say: the parishes of Trinity College and St. Andrews, in the county of the city of Edinburgh, or county of Edinburgh, and Canongate, in the county of Edinburgh, and the burghs of Edinburgh and Canongate; and to authorize the construction and maintenance by the North British Railway Company of a short line of railway in connection with the said station, diverging from the line of the said North British Railway at a point at or near where the said North British Railway crosses Gilmore-street, in the said parish of Canongate and county of Edinburgh, passing in, into, or through the said parishes of Canongate, Trinity College, and St. Andrews, and terminating at a point at or near to the road leading from Canal-street to the Goods station of the Edinburgh, Perth, and Dundee Railway Company, in the said parish of St. Andrews, and county of the city of Edinburgh, or county of Edinburgh.

And it is proposed, by the said intended Act, to repeal so much of the said Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the 9th and 10th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "an Act to authorise the construction of several Branch Railways and other Works in connection with the North British Railway," as prohibits the said Company from taking, using, or interfering with certain public stairs, numbered 1 on the plans in the said last-mentioned Act mentioned, in the parish of Trinity College.

And it is further proposed by the said intended Act to enable the North British Railway Company to make certain alterations in the levels of the branch railway, commonly known as the Leith Branch of the Edinburgh and Dalkeith Railway, one of such alterations commencing at a point at or near where the said Leith Branch crosses the Niddrie and Leith turnpike road, in the parish of Duddingston, and county of Edinburgh, passing in, into, or through the said parish of Duddingston, and terminating at a point at or near to where the public road to Duddingston by Duddingston Cottage passes over the said Leith Branch, in the same parish. Another of such alterations, commencing at a point at or near Southfield Tollbar, in the said parish of Duddingston, passing in, into, or through the said parish of Duddingston, and terminating at a point at or near where the main line of the said North British Railway crosses the said Leith Branch, in the said parish of Duddingston. Another of such alterations, commencing at a point at or near where the said Leith Branch crosses the road known as the Fishwives' Causeway, in the said parish of Duddingston, passing in, into, or through the said parish of Duddingston, and the parish of South Leith, in the county of Edinburgh, and terminating at a point at or near where the said Leith Branch crosses the turnpike road from Edinburgh to Portobello, in the said parish of South Leith. Another of such alterations, commencing at a point at or near Dawson's Chemical Works, in the said parish of South Leith, passing in, into or through the said parish of South Leith, and terminating at a point at or near the present Leith Station of the said Leith Branch, in the same parish, all in the county of Edinburgh.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to authorise the construction and maintenance by the North British Railway Company of a new line of railway, in deviation of part of the said Leith Branch, such railway commencing at a point, on the said Leith Branch, at or near where the same crosses the turnpike road from Leith to Portobello, in the said parish of South Leith, passing in, into, or through the said parish of South Leith, and terminating at a point on the said Leith Branch, at or near to Seafield Tollbar, in the said parish of South Leith. And it is proposed by the said intended Act to take power to abandon such portion of the said Leith Branch as shall be rendered useless in consequence of the construction of the said deviation line of Railway.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to repeal so much of the before-mentioned Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the 10th year of the reign of King George the Fourth, and of all or any other of the before-mentioned Acts as. prohibits the said Company from using any locomotive or self-moving engine upon any part of the said branch railway adjoining to or across any turnpike-road, without the consent of the trustees of such road, and upon such parts of the said branch railway as pass through the lands, grounds, and premises of James Marquess of Abercorn, and the lands formerly possessed by the now deceased William Henry Miller, of Craigentinny, without their respective consents in writing, or the consents of their respective heirs and successors, and to empower the said Company to adapt the said branch railway to the passage of locomotive engines, and to use locomotive engines upon and along the same.

And powers will be taken by the said intended Act to purchase lands or houses, by compulsion or otherwise, for all or any of the purposes of the said intended Act, and to confirm all such purchases of land and the execution of such works as may already have been made or executed by the said Company in relation to such objects; and also the purchase of certain lands and houses from His Grace the Duke of Buccleuch and Queensberry, in the parish of Dalkeith, in the said county of Edinburgh, adjacent to a branch railway now called the Dalkeith Town Branch, and to vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges in any manner connected with any of the lands and houses so proposed to be purchased or taken, or which may already have been purchased or taken as aforesaid, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the objects aforesaid, or any of them, or with the use and enjoyment of the said lands and houses by the said Company, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to authorise the construction and maintenance by the North British Railway Company of a railway, or branch railway, commencing at a point at or near the Grain Sheds at the Dalkeith Station of the said Dalkeith Town Branch, in the parish of Dalkeith and county of Edinburgh, passing in, into, or through the said parish of Dalkeith, and terminating at a point at or near the station house of the said Dalkeith Town Branch, in the said parish.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to enable the said Company to levy tolls, rates, and duties, in respect of the said intended new or altered railways, and other works, and to alter existing rates, tolls, and duties, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and other rights and privileges.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to take powers for regulating and increasing the capital of the said Company, and to enable the said Company to raise a further sum of money for the purposes of the said Act, and for the general purposes of their undertaking, by the creation of new shares, and by borrowing on mortgage, and to attach (if it shall be found necessary or expedient so to do) to the shares so to be created, privilege of preference or priority in the payment of interest or dividend.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to take power to stop up, alter, vary, or divert, whether temporarily or permanently, all such roads, highways, streets, tramroads, railways, rivers, streams, ponds, canals, watercourses, piers, landing-places, and other works, situated within the parishes, burghs, and places aforesaid, as it may be necessary to stop up, alter, vary, or divert, for the purposes, or during the construction of the said proposed works, or any of them.

And notice is hereby lastly given, that, on or before the 30th day of November instant, maps, plans, and sections, shewing the situation and levels of the said intended enlargement of the said station at Edinburgh, and the lines, situations, and levels of the said intended railways, branch railways, and other works, and the lands and houses proposed to be taken for the purposes thereof, and also the lands and houses adjacent to the said Dalkeith Town Branch, and sections, describing the alterations in the levels of the said Leith branch, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands and property proposed to be taken for the purposes aforesaid, and a copy of this notice, as published in the Edinburgh Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection with the principal sheriff-clerk for the county of the city of Edinburgh, at his office, in Edinburgh, and with the principal sheriff-clerk for the county of Edinburgh, at his office in Edinburgh; and that on or before the same day a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the parishes and royal burghs in or through which the said intended works will pass, or be made, together with a copy of this notice, will be deposited with the schoolmaster, if any, and if there be no schoolmaster, with the session-clerk of each such parish, and the townclerk of each such royal burgh, at the respective residences of such schoolmasters or session-clerks, and the respective offices of such town-clerks; and as relates to so much of such works as will be situate within the city of Edinburgh, with the city-clerk of such city, at his office in Edinburgh.

King's College Hospital.

(For enabling the Corporation of King's College, London, to hold lands for King's College Hospital, or for the Incorporation of the Hospital.

—Providing site for the Hospital, and Approach thereto.—Vesting the Estates and Property of the Hospital in one of such Corporations.—Power to such Corporation to sell, exchange, and grant Building Leases of their Estates; to pull down the present Buildings, and to erect new Buildings, and a Chapel or Church.—Power to such Corporation to purchase and acquire Land.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next session, for an Act to enable "The Governors and Proprietors of King's College, London," to hold the lands and property of King's College Hospital, in the parish of St. Clement Danes, in the county of Middlesex, in trust for the purposes of the said Hospital, or to incorporate the several persons for the time being constituting the Council of King's College, London, and the President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Governors, for the time being, of King's College Hospital, in the county of Middlesex, or to incorporate the President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Governors, for the time being, of King's College Hospital aforesaid, for the purpose of more permanently establishing the said Hospital and the charitable uses thereof, and to provide a site for building the said Hospital, and a Chapel or Church adjoining thereto, and for making an approach to the said. Hospital, commencing from Clement's Inn Passage, near the east end of Houghton-street, into St. Clement's-lane, in the county of Middlesex, and for the purposes aforesaid to take lands, houses, and buildings in the parish of St. Clement Danes, in the county of Middlesex.

And it is intended by the said Act to vest in one of such corporations all the estates and property belonging to King's College Hospital, or held in trust for the purposes of the Hospital, and to enable such corporation to purchase, take, acquire, hold, and enjoy lands, houses, and buildings, and to sell parts of the estates of the said Hospital, and to grant building and other leases of other parts of the estate, to make exchanges of parts of the estate for other lands to be annexed to the estate, to pull down the present buildings, and to erect new and enlarged buildings for the purposes of the said Hospital.

And it is intended by the said Act to take, power to enable such corporation to sue and be sued, and all other necessary powers to enable such corporation fully to carry into effect the purposes of the said Hospital.

And it is intended by the said Act to take power for the purchase or taking by compulsion or agreement, of lands, houses, and buildings, and also of the burial-ground of the parish of St. Clement Danes, in the county of Middlesex, situate in Portugal-street, near Lincoln's-innfields, and to vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with such lands, houses, buildings, and burial-ground, or any of them, as may be purchased or taken for the purposes aforesaid, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the objects aforesaid, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said site and approach, together with a book of reference thereto, and also a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Middle ex, at his office, at the Sessions House, Clerkenwell-green, in the said county, on or before the 30th day of November 1850, and that on or before the said 30th day of November a copy of the said plans and sections, together with a copy of the book of reference, and also a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the parish clerk of the parish of St. Clement Danes, in the county of Middlesex, at the residence of such parish clerk.

Dated the 15th day of November 1850.

Clerkenwell Improvement.

(Transfer of powers of the Clerkenwell Improvement Commissioners to the Corporation of London.—Extension and completion of Improvements.—Amendment of Acts.—Levying of Rates.)

OTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act for enabling the Mayor and Commonalty and citizens of the city of London to complete the new street at Clerkenwell, and the several other streets and works in connection therewith, authorized to be made by the Clerkenwell Improvement Commissioners by the following Acts: 3rd and 4th Victoria, cap. 112, 5th and 6th Victoria, cap. 47, 8th and 9th Victoria, cap. 17, and 11th and 12th Victoria, cap. 162; and to alter and improve the line of the said new street, and which new street commences at West-street, Saffron-hill, in the county of Middlesex, and is intended to terminate at or near the south-east corner of the workhouse of the parish of Saint James, Clerkenwell, in Coppice-row, Clerkenwell, in the said county; also to widen and improve the eastern end of Charles-street, Great Saffron-hill, and to widen and improve the eastern end of Cross-street, Great Saffron-hill, and to form a new street, commencing at Great Saffronhill, through Lockwood-court, and terminating in the said first-mentioned new street; and which said improvements will be made from, through, or into the several parishes and extra parochial places following; that is to say: the parishes of Saint Andrew Holborn, Saint Sepulchre and Saint James Clerkenwell, including both districts of Saint James and Saint John, in the county of Middlesex, and the liberty of Saffron-hill, Hattongarden, and Ely-rents, in the said county, or some or one of such parishes and liberty.

And it is intended by the said Act? to vest in the said Mayor and Commonalty and citizens, the houses and land and personal estate belonging to the said Clerkenwell Improvement Commissioners, and also the powers now vested in or given to the said Commissioners by the said Acts, so far as the same may be applicable.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended by the said Act (so far as may be necessary for the purposes thereof), to amend the several Acts hereinbefore mentioned, or some or one of them, and to incorporate with the said Act the provisions of "The London (City) Improvement Act, 1847," or certain parts thereof.

And it is intended by the said Act to enable the said Mayor and Commonalty and citizens to purchase by agreement land for the purpose of providing lodging-houses for the poor and working classes.

And it is intended by the said Act to take power for the purposes aforesaid for the purchase or taking, by compulsion or agreement, of lands, houses, tenements, and hereditaments, and also of one of the burial-grounds of the said parish of Saint James, Clerkenwell, situate in Ray-street, in the said parish; and to vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with such lands, houses, tenements, and hereditaments, and burial-ground, or any of them, as may be purchased or taken for the purposes aforesaid, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the objects aforesaid; and to confer other rights and privileges.

And it is intended by the said Act to authorize the levying of rates, duties, and assessments, and to alter existing rates, duties, and assessments, and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from payment of rates, duties, and assessments.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said improvement and works, together with a book of reference thereto, and also a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Middlesex, at his office, at the Sessions-house, Clerkenwell-green, in the said county, on or before the 30th day of November 1850; and that on or before the said 30th day of November a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each parish, liberty or extra-parochial place in or through which the said improvement and works are intended to be made, together with a copy of so much of the book of reference as relates to such parish, liberty or extra-parochial place, and also a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at the residence of such parish clerk, and so far as relates to the said liberty of Saffron-hill, Hatton-garden, and Ely-rents, with the parish clerk of the said parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, adjoining to the said liberty, at his place of residence. - Dated the 14th day of November 1850.

Edward Tyrrell, City Remembrancer.

The Town and Parish of Woolwich Amendment Act, with power to establish a Ferry across the River Thames.

And it is intended by such Act to take powers to purchase, by compulsion or otherwise, such lands, tenements, and hereditaments as may be necessary for all or any of the purposes aforesaid, and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges connected with the lands, tenements, and hereditaments so to be purchased or taken, which would in any manner impede or interfere with any or either of the purposes aforesaid, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And it is also intended by such Act to take powers to levy and recover rates or tolls for the making, establishing, maintaining, supporting, working, and using the said Ferry, and to grant certain exemptions from the payment of such rates or tolls, and to mortgage such rates or tolls and the works so to be constructed as aforesaid, from time to time, as occasion may require, and to enable the said Commissioners to raise money for the purposes aforesaid, upon the credit of the rates and assessments, property, and effects granted to and vested in the said Commissioners by virtue of And notice is hereby furthe said recited Act. ther given, that duplicate plans describing the line or situation of the said intended ferry, and the works connected therewith, and the lands, tenements, and hereditaments proposed to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners and lessees, or reputed owners and lessees, and of the occupiers of such lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and also a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Essex, at his office, at Chelmsford, in the said county of Essex, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Kent, at his office, at Maidstone, in the said county of Kent, and that a copy of the said plans and books of reference, and also a copy of the said notice, will also be deposited on or before the said thirtieth day of November instant, with the parish clerks of the said parishes of Eastham and Woolwich respectively, at their respective residences.

Dated this thirteenth day of November one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

John Widdecombe, 7, New Palace Yard, Westminster, Parliamentary Agent.

Newark-upon-Trent Improvement and Market.

(And Contribution of Money by the Commissioners of the Newark Branch of the River Trent Navigation.)

OTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the thirty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the better paving, lighting and cleansing of the streets, lanes, and other public passages and places in the town of Newark-upon-Trent, in the county of Nottingham, and for removing the market for butcher's meat in the said town, and for regulating the said market, and for repealing an Act made in the twenty-seventh year of the reign of Her late Majesty Queen Elizabeth, intituled 'An Acte for the pavinge of Newarke upon Trent, in the countie of Nottingham," or to repeal the said Act and grant further, better, and more effectual powers for effecting the purposes thereby intended, not only within the district comprised in the said Act, but also within the whole or some part of that portion of the parish of East Stoke which lies within the borough of Newark-upon-Trent; and in which Bill provision is also intended to be made for altering, or fixing the times of holding the fairs within the said

And notice is hereby also given, that in such Bill, provision is intended to be made to alter some of the provisions of an Act passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for improving and completing the navigation of that branch of the river Trent which runs by the town of Newark-upon-Trent, from a place called the Upper Weir, in the parish of Averham, in the county of Nottingham, to a place called the Crankleys, in the parish of South Muskham, in the said county;" and to enable the Commissioners for executing such Act to contribute out of the funds collected and raised under the provisions of such Act, a sum of money absolutely, and also a sum of money by way of loan, for and towards the expenses of amending, repairing, draining, lighting, and otherwise improving the streets within the said borough; and provision is also intended to be made for altering the rents authorized to be collected by such first-mentioned Act, and to authorize the collection of other rents, and also of certain tolls, rates, and duties for the purposes contemplated by the said Bill, and to exempt the occupiers of property within any proportion of the said parish of East Stoke which may be included within the powers and provisions of the said Bill, from the payment of any highway rate which they are now liable to pay; and also to confer vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates and duties.

And it is intended in the said Bill, to incorporate therewith all or some of the provisions in the following Acts of Parliament: "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845;" "The Markets and Fairs Clauses Consolidation Act, 1847;" "The Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847;" "The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847;" "The Towns Improvement Clauses Consolidation Act, 1847;" "The Towns Police Clauses Consolidation Act, 1847;" "The Public Health Act, 1848;" and "The Public Health Supplemental Act, 1849."

Dated this 12th day of November, 1850.

OTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for an Act to authorize the construction of a railway, to be called the North Gravesend Railway, together with all proper stations, wharfs, works, and conveniences con-nected therewith, which said intended railway will commence by a junction with the line of the Eastern Counties Railway, at or near the Forest Gate Station of the said railway, and in the parish of West Ham, in the county of Essex, and terminate in the parishes of Little Thurrock, West Tilbury, Chadwell Saint Mary, and East Tilbury, in the county of Essex, or some or one of them, at or near Tilbury Fort, in the said county of Essex, and also to authorize the erection, construction, completion, and maintenance of a pier or jetty in the said River Thames, at the termination of the said intended railway, and the establishment and maintenance of a steam-ferry at the said termination of the said intended railway, and between the said intended terminus and the town of Gravesend, in the county of Kent, also a branch line of railway, with all proper stations, wharfs, works, and conveniences connected therewith, from and out of the said intended line of railway, commencing at and by a junction with the same railway in or near the town of Barking, in the parish of Barking, in the said county of Essex, and terminating at and by a junction with the Eastern Counties and Thames Junction Railway, in the parish of Westham, in the said county of Essex, which said intended railway and branch railway, pier, or jetty, and the stations, wharfs, ferry, works, and conveniences connected therewith will be situated in, or pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and places hereinafter mentioned, some or all of them: that is to say: Westham, Little Ilford, Eastham, Barking, Dagenham Hornchurch, Rainham Wennington, Aveley, South Ockendon, Purfleet, or Poorflett, West Thurrock, Stifford Gray's Thurrock, Little Thurrock, West Tilbury, Chadwell St. Mary, and East Tilbury, or some of them, all in the county of Essex. And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections, describing the line or situation and levels of the said intended railway and branch railway, pier, or jetty, and works, and describing also the lands proposed to be taken for he purposes aforesaid, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the said lands, and copies of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, and a published map, with the lines of the said intended railway and branch railway delineated thereupon, will be deposited, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Essex, at his office at Chelmsford, in the said county, and also with the Clerk of the Peace for the Liberty of Havering atte Bower, in the said county of Essex, at his office, at Romford, in the said liberty and county, and that a copy of so much of the said plans and sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the parishes in or through which the said railway and branch railway, pier, or jetty, and works are intended to pass, or to be made, together with a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette as aforesaid, will be deposited, on or before the said thirtieth day of November instant, with the parish clerks of those lastmentioned parishes respectively, at their respective residences. And it is also intended to take powers in the said Act to deviate in the construction of the said intended railway and branch railway, pier, or jetty, stations, wharfs, works, and conveniences, to such extent as will be defined on the said plans, and to alter or divert such turnpike-roads, and other highways, streams, rivers, watercourses, navigations, canals, and railways within the several parishes, townships, and places before mentioned, or some of them, as it may be necessary to alter or divert, and to the extent which will be shewn on the said plans. And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to incorporate a Company for constructing and carrying into effect the said railway and branch railway, pier, or jetty, stations, wharfs, ferry, works, and conveniences, with powers to purchase lands and houses, by compulsion or agreement, for the purposes thereof, and with powers to levy tolls, rates, and duties in respect of the said railway and branch railway, pier, or jetty, stations, ferry, wharfs, works, and conveniences, and to grant such exemption from such tolls, rates, and duties as to such Company shall seem meet. And it is also intended to vary or extinguish all existing rights or privileges connected with the lands and houses so to be purchased, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, or use of the said intended railway and branch railway, pier, or jetty, stations, ferry, wharfs, works, and conveniences, and to confer other rights and privileges.

lation, and Amendment of Acts. TOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for a Bill for improving and regulating the drainage, sewering, paving, sanitary condition, cleansing, and lighting of the city and county of Bristol, as the said city and county are described and defined by metes and bounds set out referred to and confirmed in and by a certain Act of Parliament passed in a session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "an Act to settle and describe the divisions of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of members to serve in Parliament," and in and by a certain other Act of Parliament made and passed in a session of Parliament holden in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His said late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "an Act to provide for the regula-tion of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales," and in and by a certain other Act of Parliament made and passed in the session of Parliament holden in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His said late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "an Act to make temporary provision for the boundaries of certain boroughs, and in and by a certain other Act of Parliament made and passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "an Act for removing and preventing encroachments within the city and county of Bristol, and for better regulating the shipping, rivers, wharfs, backs, and quays, and the markets within the same, and for other purposes," and which metes and bounds comprise within the same the following parishes, parts of parishes, and precincts; that is to say: the several parishes of All Saints, Saint Augustine the Less, Christ Church, Saint Ewen, Saint James, Saint John Baptist, Saint Leonard, Saint Mary-le-port, Saint Mary Redcliff, Saint Michael, Saint Nicholas, Saint Paul, Saint Peter, Saint Philip and Jacob, Saint Stephen, Temple otherwise Holy Cross, Saint Thomas, Saint Werburgh, and the Ward of the castle precincts, all situate in and forming the boundaries of the ancient city of Bristol; also the parish of Clifton, part of the parish of Westbury-upon-Trym, the district of the united parishes of Saint James and Saint Paul, and the out parish of Saint Philip and Jacob, which said last-mentioned parishes and part of a parish were formerly situate in the county of Gloucester, but are now added to and form part of the said metes and bounds now constituting and forming part of the city and county of Bristol; and also part of the parish of Bedminster, formerly situate in the county of Somerset, but which is now added to and forms part of the said city and county of Bristol, in which Bill it is intended to insert powers for widening, altering, paving, pitching, steining, cleansing, draining, sewering, amending and lighting the streets, lanes, and places within the said city and county, and for regulating the buildings and the laying out of new streets therein. And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to obtain powers in the said Bill for the purchase by agreement, and for the compulsory purchase, if necessary, of lands, houses, and other hereditaments, and of all and any interests in lands, houses, and other hereditaments which may be required for the purposes of the said Act. And notice is hereby also given, that by the said Bill it is proposed to enact that an Act made and passed in a session of Par-reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, and intituled "an Act for amending, altering, and enlarging the powers of several Acts passed for paving, pitching, cleansing, and lighting the streets and other places, within the city of Bristol and liberties thereof," and an Act made and passed in the eleventh and twelfth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Third, intituled "an Act for the better preserving the navigation of the Rivers Avon and Froome, and for cleansing, paving, and inlightning the streets of the city of Bristol," and an Act made and passed in the twenty-second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "an Act for making more effectual an Act passed in the eleventh and twelfth years of the reign of King William the Third, for the better preserving the navigation of the Rivers Avon and Froome, and for cleansing, paving, and enlightening the streets of the city of Bristol, so far as the same Act relates to the paving and enlightening the said streets, and for the regulating hackney coachmen, halliers, draymen and carters, and the markets and sellers of hay and straw, within the said city and liberties thereof," and an Act made and passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "an Act for establishing, maintaining, and well governing a nightly watch within the city of Bristol," and an Act made and passed in the sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "an Act for widening several streets, lanes, ways, and passages within the city of Bristol, and for opening several new streets and passages within the same, and for explaining, amending, and enlarging the powers of the several Acts passed for paving, cleansing, lighting, watching, and regulating the streets and other places within the said city and liberties thereof," and an Act made and passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "an Act for lighting with gas the city of Bristol and certain parishes adjacent thereto," and an Act made and passed in the fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "an Act for lighting with oil gas the city of Bristol, and the parish of Clifton, in the county of Gloucester, and certain parishes adjacent thereto," and an Act made and passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "an Act for the employment, maintenance, and regulation of the poor of the city of Bristol, and for altering the mode of assessing the rates for the relief of the poor, and certain rates authorized to be raised and levied within the said city, by certain Acts for improving the Harbour there, and for paving, pitching, cleansing, and lighting the same city, and for the relief of the churchwardens and overseers from the collecting of such rates, and for amending the Act for paving, pitching, cleansing, and lighting the said city," and an Act made and passed in the fifth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "an Act for lighting and watching the parish of Clifton, in the county of Gloucester," and an Act made and passed in the second year of the reign of His said late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "an Act for repairing, lighting, and watching the district of the united parishes of Saint James and Saint Paul, in the county of Gloucester, and for the care of the poor thereof," shall so far as the same or any of them relate to the objects and purposes of the said intended Bill, be amended, altered, and the powers and provisions thereof enlarged, or liament holden in the forty-sixth year of the wholly, or in part repealed, and other powers and provisions granted in lieu thereof. And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to obtain powers in the said Bill, to levy rates, and to alter certain of the existing rates authorized to be levied within the said city and county, and the parts thereof respectively, and to vary or extinguish the present exemptions from the payments of rates, and to confer others, as well as other rights and privileges. And in the said Bill powers are intended to be contained for raising and borrowing on the credit of such rates, or any or either of them, or otherwise, such sums of money as may be requisite for carrying into effect the powers, directions, and purposes of the said several Acts, and of the said intended Bill.

Dated this fourth day of November, 1850.

James Harris, Solicitor, Bristol. Sewers' Office, 44, Queen-square, Bristol.

Leicester Waterworks.

(Extension of Time; Alteration of Works; Arrangement with Local Board of Health; and Amendment of Act.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, enlarge, and extend the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the 10th and 11th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, called "The Leicester Waterworks Act, 1847," and of the several Acts incorporated therewith.

And in the said Bill it is intended to apply for power to make the following alterations in the works by the said Leicester Waterworks Act authorized to be made, and to construct certain new works in lieu of a portion of the works authorized by such Act; that is to say:

A new reservoir, or reservoirs, with filtering beds, tanks, works, approaches, and conveniences, at or near a certain place called Lockey Bridge, in the parish of Thornton, in the county of Leicester.

A new line of aqueduct, commencing from and out of the line of aqueduct by the said Act authorized to be made at or near the point shown on the deposited plans referred to in the said Act, where the Leicester and Swannington Railway crosses or passes over the last-mentioned line of aqueduct, in the parish of Ratby, in the said county of Leicester, passing from, in, through, and into the several parishes, townships, and extraparochial places of Ratby, Glenfield, Kirby Muxloe, Kirby Frith, Glenfield Frith, Braunstone Frith, and New Parks, or some of them, in the said county of Leicester, and terminating at the proposed new reservoir next hereinafter mentioned.

A reservoir, or reservoirs, with proper works, approaches, and conveniences connected therewith, at or near certain fields, near to Braunstone Frith aforesaid, called the Fallow Meadow and Fallow Close, in the extra-parochial place of New Parks, in the said county of Leicester.

A new line of aqueduct from such last-mentioned reservoir, passing from, in, through and into, the said extra-parochial place of New Parks, in the county Leicester, and the parish of Saint Mary, in the borough of Leicester, and terminating at or near a certain road or place, called the Fosse-road, in the said parish of Saint Mary, where it will join the line of aqueduct shown on the said deposited plans referred to in the said Act, and be continued in the line shown on the said plans to or near to a certain street or place, called the Haymarket, in the parishes of Saint Martin and Saint Margaret, or one of them, in the borough of Leicester.

And it is intended to enable the Company incorporated by the said Act to relinquish the construction of so much of the line of aqueduct by the said Act authorized to be made, as lies between the commencement thereout of the intended new line of aqueduct, in the said parish of Ratby, and the said road, in the said parish of Saint Mary called the Fosse-road; and also to relinquish the construction of the reservoir or reservoirs, shown on the deposited plans referred to in the said Act, at or near Lockey Bridge, in the said parish of Thornton; and also the reservoir or reservoirs also shown on the said plans, at, or upon, and near the race-course, in the said parish of Saint Mary, and the line of aqueduct therefrom to the turnpike-road leading from Leicester aforesaid, to Market Harborough, in the said county of Leicester, and thence to the said place called the Haymarket, in the said parishes of Saint Martin and Saint Margaret, or one of them: and to enable the Company to proceed in the execution of the remainder of the undertaking, by the said Act authorized to be made, and to substitute the intended new works for the works so to be relinquished.

And in the said Bill powers will be contained to enable the said Company to take by compulsion such lands, houses and other property, as may be necessary for the purposes aforesaid, and which are described upon the plans hereinafter mentioned, and also to vary or extinguish any existing rights or privileges connected with such lands, houses, and other property, which would in any way impede or interfere with the construction of the said works, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And it is intended to enable the said Company to divert, stop up, or alter, whether temporarily or permanently, any turnpike-roads, highways, railways, or canals, within the parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places aforesaid.

And it intended in such Bill to revive and extend the time limited by the said Act, or the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act incorporated therewith, for the compulsory purchase of the lands and houses by such Act authorized to be taken by the said Company, except in respect of the lands and houses upon the part of the line of works which by the said Bill will be authorized to be relinquished, and also to extend the time limited by the said Act for the completion of the works thereby authorized to be made, except in respect of such works so to be relinquished as aforesaid.

And it is also intended to enable the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, of the borough of Leicester, as the Local Board of Health of such borough, to guarantee for a limited period, a certain rate of interest or dividend upon the capital to be expended by the Company in the execution of the works, and to subscribe to, and hold shares in the undertaking, and to participate in the profits and advantages of such Company, in manner to be provided in the said Bill, and to authorize the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, or Local Board of Health, to levy certain rates or assessments upon the owners or occupiers of property within the said borough for the purposes of the said Act, and to raise money for the purposes aforesaid by mortgage of any lands or property of the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, or on the credit of any rates and assessments, and to charge any rates or assessments to be levied by virtue of the Bill or now authorized to be levied and collected by the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, or Local Board of Health, with payment of such guarantee, or otherwise to authorize the carrying into effect an arrangement between the said Company and the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, or Local Board of Health.

And it is intended to amend "The Public Health Act, 1848," and "The Public Health Supplemental Act, 1849," so far as relates to the said Local Board, and is necessary for the purposes aforesaid.

And it is intended to repeal the powers conferred in the said Leicester Waterworks Act upon the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, for the purchase of the said undertaking, and to make further provisions with reference to the profits and regulation and management of the Company.

And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate plans and sections of the several alterations and new works to be constructed as aforesaid, together with a book of reference thereto, and a duplicate thereof, and a copy of this notice as inserted in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection, at the Office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Leicester, at his office, in Newstreet, in the borough of Leicester aforesaid, on or before the 30th day of November instant, and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference, as relates to each of the said parishes and extra-parochial places, from, in, through, or into which the said several alterations and new works are intended to be constructed, and a copy of this notice will, on or before the said 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the parish clerk of each such parish, and in the case of the extra-parochial places of Kirby Frith, Glenfield Frith, and Braunstone Frith, with the parish clerk of the adjoining parish of Glenfield, in the county of Leicester, and in the case of the extra-parochial place of New Parks, with the parish clerk of the adjoining parish of Saint Mary, in the borough of Leicester, at their respective residences.—Dated this 12th day of November, 1850.

John Loseby, Samuel Stone, Solicitors for the Bill.

Warkworth Harbour Dock Company.

OTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to incorporate a Company for making, establishing, and maintaining a floating dock in connection with Warkworth Harbour, in the county of Northumberland, with proper approaches thereto, by land as well as by sea, and also to make and maintain wharfs, staitles, shipping and landing places, and other proper works and conveniences connected with such proposed dock. And to give such Company power to levy rates, tolls, and duties, for the use of the said dock and works, and from time to time to alter and vary such rates, tolls, and duties, and also for purchasing compulsorily or otherwise, lands and houses for the purposes of the said dock and works. And likewise to authorise such intended Company to assist the Commissioners of Warkworth Harbour aforesaid, by loan, in extending and improving the piers and works, already made under the authority of the Wark-worth Harbour Acts, or otherwise to contract with the said Commissioners for the performance of the proposed extension and improvement of the said existing piers and works. And upon the performance of such proposed extension and improvement of the existing piers and works, to alter the existing tolls, rates, and duties now authorized to be levied by the Commissioners under the Warkworth Harbour Act, 1847, and otherwise amend and repeal, so far as necessary, the provisions of the said Warkworth Harbour Act, 1847. And also to authorise the said proposed Company to purchase up, and take transfers of the debentures already or hereafter to be issued by the Warkworth Harbour Commissioners, or otherwise to join in an amalgamation, whether by purchase, sale, or otherwise, of the said proposed dock and works with the said Warkworth Harbour. And all which proposed works will be situate in the township of Amble, and parish of Warkworth, in the county of Northumberland.

And notice is also given, that, on or before the 30th day of November instant, duplicate plans and sections of the said proposed works, together with a book of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands and houses intended to be taken for the purposes of the undertaking, and copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Northumberland, at his office in Newcastle-on-Tyne, and that further copies of such plans, sections, and book of reference, and Gazette notice, will be deposited with the parish clerk of Warkworth, and at the office of the said Commissioners of Warkworth Harbour, situate at Amble, in Warkworth aforesaid, on or before the said thirtieth day of November instant.-Dated this fifth day of November 1850.

Manchester Water Works.—(Arrangement with Company of Proprietors of the Manchester and Salford Water Works, and Amendment of Acts.)

TOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next session, for an Act to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of "The Manchester Corporation Water Works Act, 1847," and "The Manchester Corporation Water Works Act, 1848," and to make further provision and grant further powers for carrying the said Acts into execution; and to enable the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Manchester, and the several holders of shares in the Company of Proprietors of the Manchester and Salford Water Works, to enter into and carry into effect such arrangements as they may mutually agree upon for commuting into annual perpetual rents or annuities the annual sums now payable by the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses to such holders of shares respectively, and to secure such rents or annuities upon the rates and property leviable by or belonging to the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses; and to empower the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses to raise a further sum of money for the purposes of the said recited and the said intended Acts; or some of them: by granting annuities secured as aforesaid, and by mortgage or bond, or by all or any of such means.—Dated the 13th day of November 1850.

Joseph Heron, Town Clerk.

Cambridge Waterworks Company.

Incorporation of Company — Construction of Works—Supply of Water.

OTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to incorporate a Company for better supplying with water the inhabitants of the university and borough of Cambridge, and of the parishes, hamlets, townships, extra-parochial, and other places following; (that is to say): All Saints, Saint Andrew the Great, Saint Andrew the Less, otherwise called Barnwell,

Saint Benedict, Saint Botolph, Saint Clement, Saint Edward, Saint Giles, Saint Mary the Great, Saint Mary the Less, Saint Michael, Saint Peter, Saint Sepulchre, The Holy Trinity, Barnwell, New Town, in the borough of Cambridge, in the county of Cambridge, Trumpington, Grantchester, otherwise Granchester, Coton, Madingley, Cherryhinton, Fen Ditton, Chesterton, Milton, or some of them, in the county of Cambridge; and for such purposes to enable the said Company to make and maintain an aqueduct, pipe, or conduit, or aqueducts, pipes, or conduits, or otherwise, to convey the water, or some part or portion thereof, from a certain spring or springs called the Nine Wells, in the parish of Great Shelford, in the county of Cambridge, and thence along a certain cut, canal, or drain, called Hobson's Conduit, and belonging to certain feoffees or trustees, called Hobson's Feoffees, or Hobson's Trustees; or to the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the university of Cambridge; or to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the said borough of Cambridge; or to some or one of such bodies; and which said cut, canal, or drain, commences at the said Nine Wells, in the parish of Great Shelford, in the aforesaid county of Cambridge, and is situate in the several parishes of Great Shelford aforesaid, and Trumpington, in the said county of Cambridge, and in Saint Andrew the Less, in the borough of Cambridge, in the said county, or some or one of them, and terminates at or near a certain place called Hobson's Conduit-head, in the parish of Saint Andrew the Less, in the borough of Cambridge, in the county of Cambridge; and also the water, or some part thereof, from a certain river or stream of water called the River Stour, at or near a certain place called the Paper Mills, in the parishes of Fen Ditton and Cherryhinton, or one of them, in the said county of Cambridge; and in the parish of Saint Andrew the Less, otherwise called Barnwell, in the said borough of Cambridge; to a certain reservoir or reservoirs proposed to be made in or near Coe Fen, in the parish of Saint Mary the Less, in the said borough of Cambridge, in the said county of Cambridge; and thence to a certain other reservoir or reservoirs proposed to be made in or near a certain close of land in the parishes of Madingley and Coton, or one of them, in the said county of Cambridge, and now abutting on the Saint Neots Turnpike-road. And it is proposed by the said intended Act to empower the said Company to deepen, bore, tunnel, or otherwise improve, the said Nine Wells Spring or Springs, and to cleanse, scour out, and deepen the same, and the said cut or canal leading therefrom, and to execute such other works at and about the said Nine Wells Cut or Canal as may improve the same; with all necessary powers for laying down and maintaining pipes in or under, or at the side of the said cut or canal called Hobson's Conduit. And it is proposed by the said intended Act to empower the said Company to make and maintain the aforesaid reservoirs, and also all such necessary filtering beds, sumps, cuttings, embankments, wells, tanks, pipes, drains, engines, sluices, and other works and conveniences, as may be necessary in connection with the before-mentioned proposed works for the better supply of the districts to be comprised within the limits of the said Act as hereinafter mentioned with water; all of which proposed aqueducts, pipes, conduits, reservoirs, and other works hereinbefore referred to will be situate within the said parishes of Saint Andrew the Less and Saint Mary the Less, in the said borough of Cambridge, and in the parishes of Madingley, Coton, Great Shelford, Fen Ditton, and Cherry-

hinton, or one of them, all in the county of Cam-And it is proposed by the said intended Act, and for the purposes thereof, to empower the said Company to take water from the said Nine Wells, and the said stream called the Hobson's Conduit or watercourse, and also from the river Stour. And it is proposed by the said intended Act to enable the said Company to exercise all necessary powers for the breaking up of streets, roads, lanes, highways, and other places for laying pipes, and for supplying water within the parishes, hamlets, townships, and extra-parochial places of All Saints, Saint Andrew the Great, Saint Andrew the Less, Saint Benedict, Saint Botolph, Saint Clement, Saint Edward, Saint Giles, Saint Mary the Great, Saint Mary the Less, Saint Michael, Saint Peter, Saint Sepulchre, and the Holy Trinity, all in the said borough of Cambridge, and Madingley, Coton, Grantchester, otherwise Granchester, Trumpington, Great Shelford, Cherryhinton, Fen Ditton, Chesterton, and Milton, or some of them, in the county of Cambridge. And it is proposed by the said intended Act to empower the said Company to purchase compulsorily, or by agreement, and to hold lands houses, waters, springs, streams, tenements, and hereditaments, for the purposes aforesaid, and all such hereditaments as would in any manner impede or interfere with the execution of the said intended works, and the supply of water as aforesaid; and it is also proposed by the said intended Act to enable the said Company to levy and collect rents, rates, and charges, for the supply of water within the several parishes, hamlets, townships, and places hereinbefore mentioned, and to grant total or partial exemptions from the payment of such rents, rates, and charges. And it is intended by the said Act to alter, vary, and extinguish all rights and privileges connected with the lands, tenements, waters, streams, and hereditaments proposed to be taken for the said intended Act, and all other rights and privileges which would in any manner interfere with the power sought to be obtained by the said intended Act, and to confer, vary, and extinguish other rights and privileges; and in the said Act will be inserted all such powers and provisions as may be requisite or proper for carrying out the objects and purposes of the said intended Act, or which are usually inserted in Acts of a similar nature. And notice is hereby given, that duplicate plans and sections describing the lines and levels, course and situation of the said intended aqueducts or conduits, pipes, and reservoirs, and the streams to be diverted for the purposes aforesaid, and the lands and houses proposed to be taken for the purposes thereof, and other works, matters, and things as required by the standing orders of the two Houses of Parliament, together with the books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers, of such lands and houses, together with a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the thirtieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, be deposited at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Cambridge, at No. 7, Freeschool-lane, Cambridge, in the said county, and at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the borough of Cambridge, at Mews-yard, Sidneystreet, in the said borough of Cambridge. And that copies of so much of the said plan, section, and books of reference as relate to each parish, from, in, through, or into which the works will pass, or be situate, with the copy of the said notice, will, on or before the said thirtieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his residence.

Dated this fourteenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

South Wales Railway.

(Repeal and Alteration of Powers as to Forest of Dean Railway and Works, and as to Tolls thereon; Construction of New Railways in the Forest of Dean, and at Newport, at Cardiff, and at Britton Ferry; Deviations of Line; Crossings of Public Roads; Abandonment of Britton Ferry Branch; Arrangements with Vale of Neath Railway Company as to use of Station, &c.; Arrangements as to use of Docks at Britton Ferry, and at Cardiff; and Amendment of Acts.)

OTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for an Act to repeal the clauses and provisions of the South Wales Railway Amendment Act, 1847, which relate to the alteration, diversion, widening, and improving of the Forest of Dean Railway therein mentioned, and to the construction of the lines of railway in the said Act authorized and described, in lieu of certain portions of the said Forest of Dean Railway; and which relate to the maximum rate of charge to be made by the South Wales Railway Company, or by the Forest of Dean Railway Company, in respect of the conveyance upon the said Forest of Dean Railway, and the branches thereof, or upon the railways by the said Act authorized to be constructed in lieu of portions of the said Forest of Dean Railway, of the several articles, matters and things therein mentioned; and which relate to the providing of locomotive power upon the last-mentioned railways.

And that it is proposed by such intended Act to enable the South Wales Railway Company to make and maintain the line or lines of railway next hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: a railway to commence at the commencement of the said Forest of Dean Railway, at the summit of the hill above Churchway Engine, in the township of East Dean, in the Forest of Dean, in the county or near the south-eastern corner of the reservoir known as the Dam Pool, in the said township of East Dean and Forest of Dean; and also to commence at the extremity of a branch of the said Forest of Dean Railway, at or near Whimsey Pit, in the said township of East Dean and Forest of Dean, and to proceed thence to the point at or near the south-eastern corner of Dam Pool aforesaid, where the said two lines will unite, and thence proceed to; and terminate by a junction with, the line of railway authorized to be made by the Gloucester and Dean Forest Railway Act, 1846, at or near a point in a field, numbered on the plans of the Gloucester and Dean Forest Railway referred to in the said Act, 71, in the parish of Newnham, in the county of Gloucester; and also a line of railway to commence at or near such last-mentioned point of junction, and to terminate at a point in the parish of Awre, in the county of Gloucester, situate at or near the southern extremity of the Bullo Pill Wharves of the Forest of Dean Railway Company; and which said intended line or lines of railway will pass from, in, through, or into, or be situate within the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places following, or some of them; that is to say: Her Majesty's Forest of Dean, East Dean, Ayleford, Cinderford, Bilsom, Holy Trinity, St. John's Worcester Walk, Little Dean Walk, Ruardean Walk, Blakeney Walk, St. Briavels, Newnham, and Awre, in the county of Gloucester; and it is intended to adapt to the purposes of the said intended new line or lines of railway so much and such parts of the existing Forest of Dean Railway as may be found applicable to the purposes thereof, and to abandon such portions of the said Forest of Dean Railway, and of the lines of railway authorized by the South Wales Railway Amendment Act, 1847, to be constructed in lieu of certain portions of the said Forest of Dean Railway, as may become unnecessary in consequence of the construction of the said intended new line or lines of railway, or any part thereof:

And also to enable the South Wales Railway Company to make and maintain a railway to commence in the parish of St. Woollos, Newport, in the county of Monmouth, by a junction with the line of the South Wales Railway, in a certain field, numbered on the plans referred to in the South Wales Railway Act, 1845, 137, in the parish of St. Woollos, and to terminate in the same parish by a junction with the railway now or heretofore known as the Sirhowy Tramroad, at or near a point thereon about four hundred and fifty yards to the west of the point where the line of the last-mentioned railway intersects the line of the South Wales Railway, and being situate wholly within the said parish of St. Woollos:

And also to enable the South Wales Railway Company to make and maintain a railway, with all proper and convenient wharves, shipping places, slips, berths, and other works and accommodations, such railway to commence in the parish of St. Mary Cardiff, in the county of Glamorgan, by a junction with the South Wales Railway, at or near the east end of the bridge of the last-mentioned railway over the river Taff (as now diverted), and to terminate at the Glamorganshire Canal, on the western side thereof, at or near a point about two hundred yards to the north of the sea-lock of the said canal, and being situate within the parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places of Llandaff, St. Mary Cardiff, Cardiff, The Dumballs, and certain land originally forming part of the bed of the river Taff, or some of them, in the county of Glamorgan; and another railway of Gloucester, and to proceed thence to a point at | to commence in the said parish of St. Mary, Cardiff, by a junction with the South Wales Railway, at or near a point thereon about two hundred and fifty yards to the east of the easternmost of the two bridges of the Taff Vale Railway over the South Wales Railway, and to terminate in the said parish of St. Mary, Cardiff, at the southwest corner of the Bute Dock, and being situate wholly within the said parish of St. Mary, Cardiff; and another railway to commence by a junction with the South Wales Railway, at or near the point where the same crosses Bute-street, Cardiff, and to terminate by a junction with the Taff Vale Railway, at or near a point about two hundred and fifty yards to the north of the crossings of the Taff Vale Railway over the South Wales Railway, and being situate within the parishes of St. Mary, Cardiff, and St. John, Cardiff, in the county of Glamorgan, or one of them:

And also to enable the South Wales Railway Company to make and maintain a railway or railways, commencing by a junction with the South Wales Railway, at or near a point about two hundred and fifty yards to the north of the Britton Ferry Station of the said South Wales Railway, and terminating at or near a point about two hundred yards south of the mouth of the Baglan Brook or Pill, and being situate within the parishes, townships, hamlets, and extra-parochial or other places following, or some of them; that is to say: Baglan, Baglan Lower, and Britton Ferry, all in the county of Glamorgan.

And that it is proposed by such intended Act to authorize the construction and maintenance of a deviation in the line of the South Wales Railway, as shown upon the plans and sections thereof referred to in the South Wales Railway Amendment Act, 1846, and as authorized by such Act to be constructed; such deviation commencing at a certain point in a field, numbered on the lastmentioned plans 122, in the parish of Lydney, in the county of Gloucester, and terminating at a certain point in a field, numbered on the same plans 71, in the said parish of Lydney, and being situate wholly within the same parish, and to authorize the abandonment of so much of the South Wales Railway as now authorized to be constructed, as will be rendered unnecessary by reason of the construction of such intended deviation.

And that it is also proposed by such intended Act to authorize the construction and maintenance of certain portions of the line of the South Wales Railway, according to the levels thereof as shown upon the sections to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned; one of such portions extending from the road numbered on the plans of the South Wales Railway, referred to in the South Wales Railway Amendment Act, 1947, 24, in the parish of Magor, in the county of Monmouth, to the road numbered 9 on the plans of the South Wales Railway, referred to in the South Wales Railway Act, 1845, in the parish of Undy, in the county of Monmouth, and being situate wholly within the two last-mentioned parishes: another of such portions extending from a point in a certain field, numbered on the plans lastly-mentioned 37, in the parish of Caldicott, in the county of Monmouth, to a point in a certain other field, numbered on the last-mentioned plans 60, in the parish of Portskewit, in the county of Monmouth, and being situate wholly within the two last-mentioned parishes: another of such portions extending from a point in a certain field, numbered on the lastmentioned plans 82, in the parish of Margam, in the county of Glamorgan, to a point in a certain other field, numbered on the last-mentioned plans 17, in the parish of Aberafon, and being situate wholly within the two last-mentioned parishes: another of such portions extending from a point in a certain field, numbered on the last-mentioned plans 15, in the parish of Neath, in the county of Glamorgan, to a point in a certain other field, numbered on the same plans 44, in the same parish, and being situate wholly within such parish: another of such portions extending from a point in a certain field, numbered on the lastmentioned plans 73, in the parish of Llanelly, in the county of Carmarthen, to a point in a certain other field, numbered on the same plans 97, in the same parish, and being situate within the parishes, townships, or hamlets of Llanelly and Berwick, in the county of Carmarthen, or one of them.

And that it is also proposed by such intended Act to authorize the construction and maintenance of the line of the South Wales Railway across the several turnpike or public carriage roads next hereinafter specified, in the manner which will be shown on the plans and sections to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: a certain road, numbered on the plans referred to in the South Wales Railway Amendment Act, 1847, 13, in the parish of Bishton, in the county of Monmouth; a certain other road, numbered on the plans referred to in the South Wales Railway Act, 1845, 14, in the parish of Roath, in the county of Glamorgan; a certain other road passing over the common or waste, numbered on the plans referred to in the South Wales Railway Act, 1845, 27, in the parish of Llandaff, in the county of Glamorgan; a certain other road, numbered on the plans referred to in the South Wales Railway Act, 1845, 58, in the parish of Peterstone-super-Ely, in the county of Glamorgan; a certain other road, numbered on the plans referred to in the South Wales Railway Act, 1845, 11, in the parish of Llanharran, in the county of Glamorgan; a certain other road, numbered on the plans referred to in the South Wales Railway Amendment Act, 1847, 277A, in the parish of Coychurch, in the county of Glamorgan; a certain other road, numbered on the plans referred to in the South Wales Railway Amendment Act, 1846, 4A, in the parish of St. Ishmael, in the county of Carmarthen; a certain other road, numbered on the plans referred to in the South Wales Railway Act, 1845, 40, in the parish of Llanelly, in the said county of Carmarthen; a certain other road, numbered on the plans referred to in the South Wales Railway Act, 1845, 19, in the parish of St. Peters, in the county of the borough of Carmarthen; a certain other road, numbered on the plans referred to in the South Wales Railway Act, 1845, 1, in the parish of Mydrim, in the said county of Carmarthen; and to alter, amend, or repeal such of the provisions of the several Acts of Parliament relating to the South Wales Railway as may be necessary for the purposes last aforesaid.

And notice is hereby given, that maps, plans, and sections of the said intended railways and works, together with books of reference to such plans, and also a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited, on or before the thirtieth day of November in the present year, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Carmarthen, at his office in Carmarthen; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of the borough of Carmarthen, at his office in Carmarthen; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Glamorgan, at his office in Cardiff; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Monmouth, at his office in Newport; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Gloucester, at his office in Gloucester; and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the parishes in or through which the said intended railways and works are proposed to be made, and also a copy of the said Gazette Notice, will be deposited, on or before the thirtieth day of November in the present year, with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his residence; and in the case of the Forest of Dean, or such part thereof as may be extra-parochial, at the Speech House, in the said Forest, and with the parish clerk of the adjoining parish of Newnham.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is proposed by such intended Act to enable the South Wales Railway Company to purchase lauds and houses by compulsion or agreement, for the purposes of the railways and works so intended to be authorized as aforesaid; and also to enable the South Wales Railway Company to levy tolls, rates, and duties for and in respect of the use of the said intended railways and works, and to grant exemptions from such tolls, rates, and duties.

And that it is also proposed by such intended Act to vary, repeal, or extinguish all existing rights or privileges in any manner connected with the lands and houses proposed to be purchased or taken, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, or use of the said intended railways and works, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And that it is also proposed by such intended Act to take power to alter, divert, or stop up all turnpike and other roads, railways, tramways, aqueducts, canals, streams, and rivers, within or adjoining to the aforesaid parishes, townships and extra parochial or other places, or any of them, with which it may be necessary to interfere in the construction of the said intended railways and works.

And that it is also proposed by such intended Act to authorize the abandonment of the line or lines of railway authorized by the South Wales Railway Amendment Act, 1847, to be constructed and therein described as diverging from the line of the South Wales Railway in the parishes of Neath and Lantwit-juxta-Neath, or one of them, and terminating by two forks or branches near Britton Ferry, in the parish of Britton Ferry, in the county of Glamorgan.

And that it is also proposed by such intended Act to enable the South Wales Railway Company, or their lessees, and the Vale of Neath Railway Company, to enter into such arrangements and agreements, with respect to the use of the station or stations of the said railways at Neath, and the works connected therewith, and with respect to apportioning and defraying the cost of such station or stations, by the payment of an annual or other sum, for or in respect of such station or stations, or part thereof, or for the use thereof by the said two Companies, or either of them, as may be mutually agreed on between them; and for that purpose to enable the South Wales Railway Company to convey or assign to the Vale of Neath Railway Company such portion or portions of the said station or stations, and the land and works connected therewith, as may be agreed upon, and to enable the Vale of Neath Railway Company to accept and take a conveyance or assignment thereof; and also to enable the said two companies, or their lessees, to make such other arrangements for the use and working of their respective lines, or portions thereof, and on such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed on between them.

And that it is also proposed by such intended Act to enable the South Wales Railway Company, and any company that may be incorporated for the purpose of constructing docks at Britton Ferry, in the county of Glamorgan, or other the owners of such docks, to enter into such arrangements and agreements with respect to the use of such docks, and the wharves, staiths, landing-places, warehouses, and other works connected therewith, and upon such payments, terms, and conditions as may be mutually agreed on between the parties to any such arrangement or agreement.

And that it is also proposed by such intended Act to enable the South Wales Railway Company and the owners of the Bute Dock at Cardiff to make and enter into arrangements and agreements, with respect to the use by the company of a portion or portions of the said dock and the shipping-places and other works and conveniences connected therewith, and the construction or formation of additional shipping-places, staiths, slips, wharves, works and conveniences connected with the said docks and the said intended railway from the South Wales Railway to the Bute Dock, upon the payment of such sum or sums of money, and upon such other terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed on between them.

And that it is also proposed by such intended Act to alter, amend, enlarge, and in part repeal the South Wales Railway Act, 1845; the South Wales Railway (Amendment) Act, 1846; the South Wales Railway (Amendment) Act, 1847; the South Wales Railway Extension of Time Act, 1850; the South Wales Railway (Capital) Act, 1850; the Vale of Neath Railway Act, 1846; the Vale of Neath Railway (Amendment) Act, 1847; the Vale of Neath Railway (Amendment) Act, 1848; and also some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts following, relating to the Forest of Dean Railway, otherwise called the Bullo Pill Railway, or some of them (that is to say): the 49 Geo. III. cap. 158, and 7 Geo. IV. cap. 47. Dated this 14th day of November, 1850.

Hayling Bridge and Causeway.

(Construction of additional Works and Railway from Langstone-Quay to Havant, Power to take Tolis, and Amendment of Act.)

And it is proposed in the said Act to apply for power to take and levy rates, tolls, and duties for the use of such docks, wharfs, railway, and works, and of any other docks and works by the said Act authorized to be made; and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, and other rights and privileges. And also to enable the said Company to increase their capital by the creation of new shares, and by mortgage of their undertaking, or by either of such means.

And it is further intended to apply for the powers usually conferred for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses which may be required for the construction of the said railway, docks, and works before mentioned; and to stop up, divert, and alter, either temporarily or permanently, all such turnpike or other roads, footways, canals, and streams as it may be desirable to stop up, divert, or alter within the parishes aforesaid, and to deviate from the lines shown in the plans to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned.

And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate plans and sections, describing the line and levels of the intended works aforesaid and the lands to be taken for the purposes thereof; books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands; a published map, showing the course of such railway; and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Southampton, at his office at Winchester, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the parishes before mentioned, in or through which the said intended works will pass or be situate, together with a copy of this notice, will on or before the said thirtieth day of November be deposited for public inspection with the respective parish clerks of such parishes, at their respective places of abode.

Hartlepool Pier and Port.

Consolidation of Acts.—Alteration of Constitution of Conservancy Commission, and Improvement of the Port of Hartlepool.

OTICE is hereby given, that Application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for an Act to alter, amend, and consolidate the several Acts of Parliament relating to the Commissioners of the Pier and Port of Hartlepool, in the County of Durham, which Acts are intended to be next hereinafter enumerated; that is to say: An Act passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for improving the Pier and Port of Hartlepool, in the County of Durham;" an Act passed in the second year of the reign of King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for amending and rendering more effectual an Act of King George the Third, for improving the Pier and Port of Hartlepool, in the County of Durham;" an Act passed in the first year of the reign of her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for amending an Act of the second year of the reign of his late Majesty King William the Fourth, and for granting further rates and powers for improving the Port of Hartle-pool, in the County of Durham;" and an Act passed in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for amending the Acts relative to the improving of the Pier and Port of Hartlepool, in the County of Durham," or to repeal the said several before-mentioned Acts, and to re-enact the same or parts thereof in an altered, amended, and consolidated shape, and to enact other provisions.

And it is also intended by the said intended Act to provide that the Commissioners acting under the provisions of the said recited Acts (hereinafter called the "present Commissioners") shall cease to act, and shall go out of office.

And it is also intended to alter the qualification for Commissioners, and to provide for the election and appointment of a new Board of Commissioners, hereinafter called the "New Commissioners," for the conservancy, management, and regulation of the Port of Hartlepool and its appurtenances, which Port is defined in the said hereinbefore mentioned Acts, or some or one of them, or to alter the limits within which the new Commissioners shall exercise their powers and jurisdictions, and to vest in such new Commissioners the several rights, privileges, powers, jurisdictions, and authorities, or some of them, and also the several lands, tenements, hereditaments, and works, goods, chattels, and property now vested in or lawfully claimed by the present Commissioners, and to impose on and give to the New Commissioners the debts, liabilities, duties, and obligations, or some of them, to which the present Commissioners are subject or liable, or for which they may be responsible.

† And it is intended by such Act to apply for powers to make bye-laws for the regulation, management, and improvement of the said Port of Hartlepool, and the works within the same, either already constructed or hereafter to be constructed.

And it is also intended in the said intended Act to provide for the care and preservation of the present Light-house on the Heugh or Headland, constructed by the present Commissioners, and to take powers to hire vessels, keep life-boats, and to set up from time to time all proper lights, and to make all necessary and proper provisions for the preserva-tion and protection of life and of ships resorting to the said Port, and to maintain the Pier. Jetty, Harbour, and other Works of the present Commissioners, or such part or parts thereof as the New Commissioners shall from time to time deem proper, and to alter and improve the same, and to set out boundaries and lay down, make, maintain, and grant licences for all necessary embankments, cuts, channels, sluices, reservoirs, piers, buoys, beacons, lights, light-houses, and other works, and to deepen, dredge, protect, and otherwise improve the bed, channels, and shores of the said Port to such extent as shall be expedient or necessary for the due conservancy of the said Port of Hartlepool and its appurtenances, and to prevent and remove all obstructions to the free navigation of the said Port and all encroachments therein, and to prevent the erection of Piers, Jetties, Quays. Wharfs, and other Works in the said Port, and within the limits of the said intended Act, which shall not be duly authorized, and which would interfere with or prejudice the free navigation of the said Port, and to prevent the throwing of ballast, mud, or other materials into the said Port or into the Sea, within certain limits to be defined by the said intended Act, and to impose penalties on all parties placing or continuing obstructions in the said Port, and to remove the same.

And it is also intended by the said intended Act to authorize the said New Commissioners to appoint and remove Port and Harbour Masters and other officers, and to place and remove buoys, beacons, and mooring chains in the said Port and in the Sea adjacent thereto, and to remove or compel the removal of wrecks which would impede or interfere with the navigation of the said Port.

And it is intended by the said intended Act to obtain powers for the purchase of lands, houses, tenements, and hereditaments, by agreement, for the purposes of the said intended Act

And it is also intended by the said intended Act to alter or repeal the tolls, rates, and duties, now payable to the present Commissioners, and to alter the tolls payable to, or claimed by, the Corporation of Hartlepool, in respect of vessels using the said Port, and to repeal the same, or some part or parts thereof, and provide for the application of such tolls, or any present or future accumulation or surplus thereof, and to limit and define the purposes for which any tolls payable to the Corpora-tion of Hartlepool shall be applied, and to alter and vary all existing rights and privileges, of and connected with the said Port of Hartlepool, and the Piers, Harbours, and Works of the present Commissioners, and the Corporation of Hartlepool, and all Harbours and Docks within or adjoining the said Port, and to levy other tolls, rates, and duties, and confer other rights and privileges, and to alter, vary, and extinguish all other rights and privileges, which could in any manner interfere with the objects and purposes of the said intended Act, and to compound for tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, and-extinguish other rights and privileges.

And it is also intended by the said intended Act to empower and require the New Commissioners to keep separate accounts of the tolls, rates, and duties to be respectively collected by virtue of the said beforementioned Acts, or the said intended Act, in respect of vessels entering or using the several different harbours and docks, within and adjacent to the said port, and of the expenditure of such tolls, rates, and duties respectively, and to appropriate such tolls, rates, and duties respectively, to objects from which all such harbours and docks shall derive a fair or equal benefit, or to separate objects within the limits of the said intended Act, in such manner as to secure the application and distribution of the monies arising from such respective tolls, rates, and duties respectively, to and among objects from which the vessels respectively using the different portions of the said port, where such tolls, rates, and duties shall respectively arise, shall respectively derive advantage. And it is intended by the said intended Act to make special provisions for securing and promoting such application and distribution of the said tolls, rates, and duties and otherwise, for the application of the said several tolls, rates, and duties, and the accumulation and investment thereof, or of parts thereof. And it is also intended to enable the said New Commissioners from time to time to alter and vary, decrease and increase, the several tolls, rates, and duties beforementioned, and to charge different tolls, rates, and duties in respect of vessels entering or using different por-tions of the said port, or different harbours in or adjacent thereto, so as to apportion the respective amounts to be collected as near as may be, to the benefit respectively to be derived by such vessels from the works or other objects made, maintained, or promoted by the present Commissioners and the new Commissioners.

And it is also intended by the said intended Act to provide that no monies, tolls, rates, or duties, to be received by the new Commissioners in respect of vessels entering or using the harbour and works of the Hartlepool West Harbour and Dock Company shall be expended on the works of the pier, jetty, harbour, and works appertaining thereto, now belonging to the present Commissioners, and leading to the Inner Harbour and Docks, now or late the property of the Hartlepool Dock and Railway Company, or their lessees or assigns, which pier, jetty, harbour, and works are now maintained by the present Commissioners, but are alleged to form the seaward works and entrance to the said last-named Company's works and docks, whereas Dock Company have, at their own expense, made, and do, at their own expense, maintain the sea works and entrance to their works and docks.

And by the said intended Act it is intended to empower the said new Commissioners to contract with, or make any arrangements with, any party or parties for the maintenance of the existing pier, jetty, harbour, and works appertaining thereto, belonging to the present Commissioners which they may deem advisable, and also to transfer and dispose of the same, either for a valuable consideration or otherwise, and either absolutely or for a term of years, and either with or without any rent charge or payment in respect of the same, to any party or parties who may be willing to take charge of the same, under such conditions and regulations as the said new Commissioners shall deem most advisable for the better future regulation and management of the affairs of the said port, or as shall be otherwise directed by the said intended Act. And it is also intended by the said intended Act, and for the purposes of the said intended Act, to amend and alter the following Acts, that is to say, an Act passed in the second year of the reign of King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining Wet Docks in the Port of Hartlepool, and a Railway from the said Docks into the Township of Moorsley, with certain Branches therefrom, all in the County of Durham;" an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to enable the Hartlepool Dock and Railway Company to make a new Branch of Railway to the City of Durham, and for amending an Act of the second year of His present Majesty, relative to the Hartlepool Railway;" an Act passed in the third and fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable the Hartlepool Dock and Railway Company to raise a further sum of Money for completing their Undertaking, and enlarging the time for completing the same, and for amending the Acts relating thereto;" an Act passed in the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for enabling the Hartlepool Dock and Railway Company, and the Great North of England, Clarence and Hartlepool Junction Railway Company to lease their respective railways and works to the York Newcastle and Berwick Railway Company;" an Act passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable the Hartlepool West Harbour and Dock Company to construct additional Docks, and for repealing an Act passed in the seventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, relating to the said Hartlepool West Harbour and Dock Company, and for granting new powers and provisions in lieu thereof;" and an Act passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable the Hartlepool West Harbour and Dock Company to alter and improve their Harbour and construct additional Works, and for amending an Act passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, called 'The Hartlepool West Harbour and Dock Act, 1847," and all other Acts, charters, grants, customs, rights, and privileges which may be inconsistent with, or would interfere with the exercise of the powers aforesaid, and the provisions of the said intended Act, and to alter and repeal the tolls, rates, and duties, or some of them, authorized by the said several Acts, or any of them, and to levy other tolls, rates, and duties.

And it is intended by the said intended Act to obtain powers to raise money on the credit of the tolls, rates, and duties, to be granted by the said intended Act, for carrying the several purposes and objects of the said intended Act into execution, and to make provisions as to the priority of payment of it is alleged that the Hartlepool West Harbour and | the debts due upon the security of the present tolls, rates, and duties, and to charge such debts on the tolls, rates, and duties, to be levied under the said intended Act, or otherwise to provide for the liquidation thereof.

And it is intended by the said intended Act to obtain such other powers and provisions as may be deemed necessary for carrying into effect the purposes and objects of the said intended Act, and such other powers and provisions as are usually inserted in Bills of a similar nature.

London and Blackwall Railway.

(Branch to Haydon-square, Whitechapel, and Powers to the London and North-Western Railway Company, and Amendment of Acts.)

OTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, enlarge, and extend some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the London and Blackwall Railway; that is to say: an Act passed in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a Railway from the Minories to Blackwall, with Branches, to be called 'The Commercial Railway;'" and the several other Acts following, distinguished in the Queen's Printer's copies of the Local and Personal Acts, as 1 Vict., cap. 133, 2 & 3 Vict. cap. 95, 4 Vict., cap. 12, 5 Vict., cap. 34, 8 & 9 Vic., cap.

203, 9 & 10 Vict., cap. 273; and also "The London and Blackwall Railway Improvement and Branches to Saint Katherine's and London Docks Act, 1848," "The London and Blackwall Railway Amendment Act, 1848," "The London and Blackwall Railway Amendment and Extension of Time Act, 1849," and "The London and Blackwall Railway Act, 1850."

And it is intended to apply for powers in such Bill to enable the London and Blackwall Railway Company to make and maintain a branch railway, with proper works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing by a junction with the line of the London and Blackwall Railway, at or near the west end of Chamber-street, in the parish of Saint Mary Matfelon otherwise Whitechapel, passing from, in, through, and into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places of Saint Mary Matfelon otherwise Whitechapel, and Holy Trinity, in the Minories, or one of them, in the county of Middlesex, and Saint Botolph without Aldgate, in the city of London, and terminating at or near certain warehouses on the north side of Haydon-square, in the said parish of Holy Trinity, in the Minories.

And it is intended to apply for power in the said Bill for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses for the construction of the said branch and the works connected therewith; and also for powers to levy tolls, rates, and duties for the use of the said branch railway and works, and to alter existing tolls, rates, and duties; and also for powers to deviate from the line laid down on the plans hereinafter mentioned to the extent defined on such plans, and to divert, alter, or stop up, either temporarily or permanently, all such streets, ways, courts, passages, and places as it may be desirable to divert, alter, or stop up in constructing the said branch and the works connected therewith. And it is also intended to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and other rights and privileges; and to enable the London and Blackwall Railway Company to apply any part of their capital or money by the said Acts, or any of them, authorized to be raised, for or towards the construction of the said branch, or to raise money for such purpose.

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, duplicate plans and sections, describing the line and levels of the said branch and works, and the lands to be taken for the purposes thereof; books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands; a published map, showing the general direction of such branch; and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited, for public in-spection, with the clerk of the peace for the county of Middlesex, at his office, at the Sessions House, Clerkenwell, in the said county, and with the clerk of the peace for the city of London, at his office, at the Sessions House, in the Old Bailey, in the said city; and on or before the said thirtieth day of November instant, a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the parishes from, in, through, or into which the said branch and works will pass or be situate, and also a copy of this notice, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish at his residence.

And notice is hereby also given, that provision is intended to be made in the said Bill, for enabling the London and North-Western Railway Company to enter into contracts with the London and Blackwall Railway Company in reference to the said intended branch railway and works; and to enable the London and North-Western Railway Company to purchase or take on lease for any term of years the said intended branch railway and works if they think fit, and to apply any money for such purpose and for the purposes aforesaid, but not further or otherwise, it is intended to amend and enlarge some of the powers of the several Acts relating to the London and North Western Railway Company, that is to say: an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to consolidate the London and Birmingham Grand Junction and Manchester and Birmingham Railways," and the several other Acts distinguished in the Queen's Printer's copies of the Local and Personal Acts, as 8th and 9th Vic. cap. 156; 9th and 10th Vic. caps. 67, 80, 82, 152, 182, 184, 193, 231, 232, 233, 244, 248, 261, 269, 309, 328, 331, 359, 368, 369, and 396; 10th and 11th Vic. caps. 73, 107, 114, 118, 121, 132, 139, 159, 178, 188, 228, 270, 271, 278, and 294; and 11th and 12th Vic. caps. 60 and 130; 12th and 13th Vic. cap. 74; and 13th and 14th Vic. cap. 36.

London and Blackwall Railway.

(Extension of Time for the Widening; the London and Saint Katherine's Docks Branches and Improvements; New Station at Rhodeswell, Limehouse; and Amendment of Acts.)

OTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, enlarge, and extend some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the London and Blackwall Railway, that is to say: an Act passed in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the 4th, intituled "An Act for making a Railway from the Minories to Blackwall, with Branches, to be called 'The Commercial Railway;'" and the several other Acts following. distinguished in the Queen's Printer's copies of the Local and Personal Acts, as 1st Vic. cap. 133; 2nd and 3rd Vic. cap. 95; 4th Vic. cap. 12; 5th Vic. cap. 34; "The London and Blackwall Extension Railway Act, 1845;" and an Act passed in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for widening the Line of the London and Blackwall Railway, and for amending the Acts relating to the said Railway;" also "The London and Blackwall Railway Improvement and Branches to Saint Katherine's and London Docks Act, 1848; "The London and Blackwall Railway Amendment Act, 1848;" "The London and Blackwall Railway Amendment and Extension of Time Act, 1849;" and "The London and Blackwall Railway Act, 1850."

And it is intended to apply in the said Bill for a further extension of the time limited, by the said Act of the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her said present Majesty (and extended and enlarged by "The London and Blackwall Railway Amendment and Extension of Time Act, 1849"), for the compulsory purchase of the lands and houses authorized to be taken by such Acts, or either of them, for widening the said London and Blackwall Railway, and for the other works thereby authorized to be made; and also to extend the time limited by the said last-mentioned Acts, or either of them, for the completion of such widening and of the other works aforesaid.

And it is also intended in the said Bill to extend the time limited for the compulsory purchase of the land and houses authorized to be taken by "The London and Blackwall Railway Improvement and Branches to Saint Katherine's and London Docks Act, 1848," for the construction of such branches and the improvements and other works authorized by such Act. and also to extend the time limited for the completion of such branches, improvements, and other works, or some of them.

And it is also intended to enable the London and Blackwall Railway Company to construct a station with proper works, conveniences, and communications, at or near Rhodeswell Limehouse, in the parish of St. Anne, in the county of Middlesex, and to improve the line of railway constructed under or by virtue of "The London and Blackwall Extension Railway Act, 1845," at or near the proposed site of the said station in the parishes of St. Anne and St. Dunstan Stebonheath, or one of them, in the county of Middlesex. And it is intended to take powers of purchasing lands by compulsion for such purposes, and to vary or extinguish any rights or privileges which will interfere with the objects aforesaid, and to apply for such purposes any money raised or authorized to be raised, or to raise money for such purposes.

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the thirtieth day of November instant duplicate plans, showing the situation of the works last aforesaid and the property to be taken, sections describing the level of the said part of the railway proposed to be improved, a book of reference to such plans, a published map showing the situation of the works, and a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection, with the clerk of the peace for the county of Middlesex, at his office, at the Sessions House, Clerkenwell, in the said county; and on or before the said thirtieth of November instant, a copy of so much of the said plans, sections and books of reference as relates to the parish or parishes from, in, through, or into which the said works will pass or be situate; and also a copy of this notice, will be deposited with the parish clerk of such parish, or of each such parish, at his resi-

And it is also intended to make provision in the said Bill for the purchase of land which may have been used for the construction of the railway, and which, or any interest in which, may not have been purchased by the Company, and to authorize the Company to retain such land, and to make compensation in manner to be provided in the said Bill.

Birkenhead Docks.

(Further Powers to Birkenhead Dock Company, Alteration of Constitution of Birkenhead Dock Trustees, Arrangements between Birkenhead Dock Company and Birkenhead Dock Trustees, and Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to alter and amend, extend and enlarge, and to repeal some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts of Parliament following, or some of them (that is to say): local and personal Acts, 7 and 8 Vic., cap. 79; 8 and 9 Vic., cap. 4; 10 and 11 Vic., cap. 264 and cap. 265; 11 and 12 Vic., cap. 144; and 13 and 14 Vic., cap. 100; all relating to the Birkenhead Dock Commissioners and the Trustees of the Birkenhead Docks; and also the local and personal Acts 8 and 9 Vic., cap. 60, and 11 and 12 Vic., cap. 9, relating to the Birkenhead Dock Company.

And it is proposed by the intended Act to provide for the effectual completion, within a period to be prescribed by the said intended Act, of all the works authorized to be constructed by the said Acts relating to the Birkenhead Dock Commissioners and the trustees of the Birkenhead Docks, and to enable the said Company to advance monies for the execution and completion of the said works or some of them, on the security of the lands, soil, or shore at Birkenhead, known as the South Reserve, and other property now vested in the said trustees under the said last-mentioned Acts, or some of them, and on the rates and tolls to be levied and raised under the same Acts, or some of them, and to make provision for such security; and also to enable the said trustees to grant to the said Company, and the said Company to take preferential bonds or other securities to be charged upon and made payable out of the said lands, soil, and shore, and other property, rates, and tolls, for securing any monies to be advanced by the said Company for the purposes aforesaid, and also for securing any sums already advanced or expended by the said Company, for the purpose or in the construction of the works authorized to be constructed by such trustees, or any of them, and to enable the said Company to become the purchasers of the said lands, soil, and shore at Birkenhead, known as the South Reserve, and to enable the trustees for the time being of the Birkenhead Docks to sell the same to the said Company, or otherwise to provide for the same being vested in the said Company, in manner to be provided in the said Act; and also to enable the said Company to raise money for the purposes aforesaid by the creation of new shares in their undertaking, and by borrowing on loan and upon the security as well of their existing property as of the aforesaid lands, property, tolls, and dues of the said trustees, and upon any property or security they may receive or become entitled to under the authority of the said intended Act from the said trustees.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to alter the constitution of the said trustees of the Birkenhead Docks and the mode of appointment of such trustees, and if necessary to dissolve the corporation of the said trustees, and to provide for the appointment of a board of trustees to hold office until the completion of the authorized works of the trust, or until such other period as shall be fixed by the said intended Act, and to constitute the Directors of the said Company, or some of them, members of such board; and also to provide for a further alteration in the constitution of such board of trustees, from and after the completion of the authorized works of the trust, or from and after such other period as shall be fixed by the said intended Act, and to enable the said Company to nominate or appoint a certain number of trustees, who are to constitute such last-mentioned or permanent Board of Trustees.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to take powers enabling the said Company to enter into, and carry into effect, such arrangements with the persons holding securities upon the property of the said trust, for the conversion of their securities into fixed or other interests in the capital of the said Company, as may be mutually agreed

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to take powers to alter the application of the tolls, rates, and duties authorized to be taken and received under the said several Acts hereinbefore referred to, or any or either of them, and to take powers to make any sums to be advanced under the authority of the said intended Act by the said Company, for the purposes of the completion of the authorized works of the said trust or any of them, a charge upon the property and future income of such trust prior to all sums already advanced and expended under the authority of the six first recited Acts or any of them.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to amend, so far as may be requisite for the purposes aforesaid, the several Acts following, relating to the Birkenhead Improvement Commissioners and the Wallasey Improvement Commissioners, that is to say, local and personal Acts, 3 and 4 William 4, cap. 68; 1 and 2 Victoria, cap. 33; 5 and 6 Victoria, cap. 5; 6 and 7 Victoria, cap. 13 and cap. 24; 7 and 8 Victoria, cap. 32; 9 and 10 Victoria, cap. 28; 13 Victoria, cap. 3; and 8 and 9 Victoria, cap. 6.

Dated the 12th day of November, 1850.

Birkenhead Dock Trustees and Birkenhead Dock Company.

(Transfer of Trust Property, Rights, and Powers, Increase of Capital, and Alteration of Constitution of Board of Directors of Dock Company, and amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to alter, amend, extend,

and enlarge, and to repeal some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts following, or some of them; that is to say: the Acts relating to the Trustees of the Birkenhead Docks, local and personal Acts 7 and 8 Vic. cap. 79; 8 and 9 Vic. cap. 4; 10 and 11 Vic. caps. 264 and 265; 11 and 12 Vic. cap. 144; and 13 and 14 Vic. cap. 100; the Acts relating to the Birkenhead Dock Company; local and personal Acts 8 and 9 Vic. cap. 60; 11 and 12 Vic. cap. 9; and to authorize, at such period and upon such terms, and in such manner as may be fixed and determined under the provisions of the said intended Act, the dissolution or alteration of the constitution of the corporation of the said trustees, and to vest in the said Company all the property, rights, powers, and privileges of the said trustees, and to enable the said Company to take and hold such property and to exercise such rights, powers, and privileges, subject to the existing liabilities and obligations of the said trustees, so far as the same may not be altered by the said intended Act, and effectually to provide for the completion within a period to be prescribed by the said Act, of all the works authorized to be constructed by the said trustees. And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to empower the Commissioners for the Improvement of Birkenhead, acting under the authority of the following Acts, local and personal; that is to say, 3 Wm. 4, cap. 68; 1 Vic. cap. 33; 5 Vic. sess. 2, cap. 5; 6 Vic. caps. 13 and 24; 7 Vic. cap. 32; 9 Vic. cap. 28; and 13 and 14 Vic. cap. 3; and the Commissioners for the Improvement of Wallasey, acting under the following Act, local and personal; that is to say, 8 and 9 Vic. cap. 6, if the corporation of the said trustees shall be dissolved before the completion of all the works authorized by the several Acts relating to such trustees, to nominate and appoint such members of their respective bodies as shall be prescribed by the said intended Act to be Directors of the said Company, so far as regards the management of the trust property intended to be transferred to and vested in the said Company, and to amend such several Acts so far as may be necessary for the purposes aforesaid; and also to empower the said trustees, or the trustees to be appointed by virtue of the said intended Act and the said Company during the execution of such works, to enter into such arrangement as may be mutually agreed upon with reference to the superintendence, management, and execution of the said works, and to appoint joint or separate committees for any purpose relating thereto, or otherwise to provide for the superintendence, management, and execution of the said works, and to constitute a Board or Boards for that purpose, in manner to be prescribed by the said intended Act, and to alter the constitution of the present Board of Directors of the said Company, and to authorize the constitution of two Boards of Directors of the said Company, with separate jurisdictions; and it is also proposed by the said intended Act to increase the capital of the said Company, and to convert all mortgages or bonds granted by the said trustees under the authority of the said Acts or any of them, and all the arrears of interest due upon such mortgages or bonds respectively, into shares in the said Company, and either to allot such shares to and amongst the several holders of such mortgages or bonds in proportion to their respective interests in such mortgages and bonds, or to dispose of such shares in such other manner as shall be provided by the said intended Act, and to assign to such shares such priority or preference in the payment of interest or dividend over all or any other shares in the said Company as may be fixed by the said intended Act, or as may be mutually agreed upon between the said trustees, the said Company, and the said holders of mortgages and bonds respectively, or otherwise to authorize or require the said Company from and out of the money to be raised by them under the authority of the said intended Act and the said recited Acts, or any of them, to pay off and discharge all or any of the monies due upon mortgages or bonds granted by the said trustees.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to take powers to alter the mode of application of the tolls, rates, and duties authorized to be levied and received under the authority of the said recited Acts, or any of them.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to authorize and empower the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, to give and grant to the said Company all such lands, soil, and shore, and all such estate, right, title, and interest of Her Majesty therein, as under any of the provisions now in force of the several Acts relating to the said trustees the said last-mentioned Commissioners are authorized and required to give or grant to the said trustees upon such terms and subject to such conditions as any such grants are by the provisions aforesaid authorized and required to be made to such trustees. And to enable the said Company to raise, upon the security of such lands, soil, and shore, and of all or any other property now belonging to them, or to become vested in them by virtue of the said intended Act, and of the rates and tolls to be levied and received by them under the authority of the said intended Act and the said recited Acts, or any of them, all such sums of money as the said trustees are by the said Acts or any of them authorized to raise, and to assign to the mortgages or bonds to be given by them for securing such sums of money such pre-ference or priority in the payment of interest over any other mortgages or bonds granted by the said trustees or the said Company as shall be provided by the said intended Act, or as may be fixed and determined by the said Company and all or any of the holders of mortgages or bonds already granted under the authority of the said recited Acts, or any of them.

Whitby Waterworks.

(For supplying the Inhabitants of the town of Whitby and Adjacent Places with Water.)

OTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to incorporate a Company to supply with water the inhabitants of the town of Whitby, and of the townships, hamlets, or places adjoining, or near thereto, namely, Whitby, Ruswarp, and Hawsker-cum-Stainsacre, all in the parish of Whitby, in the North Riding of the county of York, and the shipping resorting to the harbour of Whitby aforesaid; and for that purpose power will be taken to make, construct, lay down, and maintain all necessary shafts, tunnels, weirs, cuts, aqueducts, pipes, conduits, engines, reservoirs, culverts, drains, and other works, for diverting and conveying water from the river Esk, the waters of which river proceed and flow in and through the said town and harbour of Whitby, and there join the sea; which works, or some of them, will commence at a point on the said river where the same flows through certain woods, called Limber Wood and Arncliff Wood, both in the occupation of Robert Cary Elwes, Esquire, situate in the township of Egton, in the parish of Lyth, in the said North Riding of the county of York, and will pass in or through the said township of Egton, and also in or through the several townships of Eskdaleside, Aislaby, and Ugglebarnby, all in the said parish of Whitby, and the township and parish of Sneaton, in the said North Riding of the county of York, or some of them, or some parts thereof, and will terminate in a certain field, called the Cliff Field, now in the occupation of Robert Harrison, situated in the township of Ruswarp aforesaid, and adjoining to a certain public highway there, called Upgang-lane, in which field power will be taken for making and maintaining a reservoir or reservoirs for impounding and storing the said water or some part thereof, and from thence and by other means to convey such water by means of main pipes or conduits, and other works to be made, constructed, laid down, and maintained in, through, and under the several highways, roads, streets, lanes, passages, and public places of and in the said townships of Whitby, Ruswarp, and Hawsker-cum-Stainsacre, all in the said parish of Whitby, for the purpose of supplying the inhabitants of such places and the shipping resorting to the harbour of Whitby aforesaid, with water as aforesaid.

And power will be taken in the said Act to cross, divert, or alter such parish roads, streets, highways, sewers, streams, rivers, and railways, within the parishes aforesaid, or some of them, as it may be necessary to cross, divert, or alter, for carrying into effect the purposes aforesaid, and in such manner and to such extent as shall be defined on the plans and sections hereinafter mentioned, and also if, and so far as it may be necessary to amend or enlarge the following Acts of Parliament, or some of them, namely, an Act of the eighth year of King George the Fourth, cap. 78, relating to the piers and harbour of Whitby aforesaid, and an Act of the seventh year of King William the Fourth, cap. 10, and an Act of the fourth year of Queen Victoria, cap. 3, for better paving, cleansing, lighting, watching, and improving the said town of Whitby, and such other Acts as it may be necessary to amend or enlarge in order to carry into execution the purposes aforesaid.

And power will also be taken to purchase by compulsion or by agreement, such lands, houses, and other property as are necessary for affording such supply of water as aforesaid, and for making. constructing, laying down, and maintaining the said intended works, and to vary or extinguish all such rights and privileges as will in any way impede or interfere with the execution of any of the purposes aforesaid.

And it is also intended to take power in the said Act to levy and collect rates, rents and remunerations from such persons as shall agree for or take and use the water to be supplied under the provisions thereof, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment of such rates, rents, or remunerations and other rights and privileges.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said intended works, describing their line or situation, and the lands in or through which the same are to be made, constructed, laid down, and maintained, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, with a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection, in the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the said North Riding of the said county of York, at Northallerton, in the said riding, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and on or before the said thirtieth day of November, a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, as relates to each parish in or through which the works will be made as aforesaid, and a copy of the said Gazette notice, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his place of abode.

Malton and Driffield Junction Railway.

(To authorize a Deviation of part of the Line, to confirm the Purchase of certain Lands, to alter the levels, gradients, and curves, and to amend the former Act.)

OTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session for an Act to authorize the Malton and Driffield Junction Railway Company to complete and maintain their railway from, at, or near a point or place thereon, situate in the township and parish of Norton, in the East Riding of the county of York, and marked with the letter A on the plan to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, to at or near a certain point or place on the said railway situate in the township and parish of Wharram-lestreet, in the said East Riding, and marked with the letter B on the said last-mentioned plan, according to an altered line of railway, differing from the line of railway sanctioned by the Act relating thereto, passed in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, and called "The Malton and Driffield Junction Railway Act, 1846," which altered line passes in or through or will be situate within the parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places following, or some of them, that is to say, Norton, Settrington, North Grimston otherwise North Grimstone, and Wharram-le-Street, and to authorize the abandonment of the line of railway as authorized by the said recited Act to be made between between the before-mentioned points.

And it is further proposed by the said intended Act to authorize the alteration of, or to enable the said Malton and Driffield Junction Railway Company to alter the levels, gradients, and curves of the whole or some portions of the railway authorized by the said Act which lie between a certain plantation in the township and parish of Wharram-le-Street, in the East Riding aforesaid, numbered 10 on the plan of the said railway referred to by the said Act, and a certain public highway leading from Malton to Wetwang, in the township of Fimber, in the parish of Wetwing, in the same riding, numbered 30 on the said last-mentioned plan, the whole of which alterations are or will be situate within the parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places following, or some or one of them, that is to say, Wharram-le-Street, Wharram Percy, Burdale otherwise Burdall, Fimber, and Wetwang, all in the said East Riding.

And it is proposed to apply for powers by the said intended Act to stop up, divert, or alter, whether temporarily or permanently, all such turnpike roads, parish roads, and other highways, streams, canals, navigations, railways, and tramways, within the said parishes, townships, and extra-parochial, or other places aforesaid, or some of them, as it may be necessary to stop up, divert, or alter for the purposes of the said altered line of railway, and the works thereof respectively.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to authorize the purchase, by compulsion or agreement, of the lands and houses requisite for the purposes of the said altered line of railway, and to confirm such purchases or agreements for purchase as may have been already made of the said lands and houses, or any of them; and also to authorize the levying of tolls, rates, and duties upon or in respect of the use of the said altered line of railway, and to vary or repeal all rights or privileges which could or might interfere with the objects aforesaid or any of them.

And it is further proposed by the said intended Act to alter, amend, and enlarge, some of the powers and provisions of the said Act passed in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present

Majesty

And notice is hereby lastly given, that duplicate plans of the said proposed altered line of railway, with a book of reference thereto, containing the names of the reputed owners and lessees, and of the occupiers of the lands required for the purposes thereof, and duplicate sections, showing the levels of the said altered line of railway, together also with a published map, describing the direction of the said altered line of railway, and also duplicate plans and sections showing the said alterations or intended alterations in the levels, gradients, and curves of the said line of railway, authorized to be made by the said Act; and a copy of the notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, with the clerk of the peace for the East Riding of the county of York, at his office at Beverley, in the same Riding; and that on or before the said thirtieth day of November, a copy of so much of the said plan, sections, and book of reference; and also of so much of the said plan and sections, showing the said alterations or intended alterations in the levels, gradients, and curves aforesaid, as relates to each of the parishes and extra-parochial places in or through which the said altered line of railway passes, and in which the said levels, gradients, and curves so altered or intended to be altered are situate, will be deposited, together with a copy of the notice aforesaid, at the residences of the respective parish clerks of each such parish, or in the case of an extra-parochial place, at the residence of the clerk of some parish immediately adjoining thereto.

Metropolitan Cattle Market.

(Establishment of Market, removal of Smithfield and Newgate Markets, and prohibition of Slaughter-houses.)

PPLICATION will be made to Parliament next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to establish a Metropolitan Market, for the sale of live and dead stock, and to construct all necessary lairs, stalls, sheds, pens, slaughter-houses, and other buildings, works, and conveniences in connexion with the said market; which said market will be situate on the following sites, or one of them, or some part or parts thereof, that is to say, in and upon the Tuffnell Park Estate, and the land adjoining thereto, in the parishes of Saint Mary Islington and Saint Pancras, or in one of those parishes, in the county of Middlesex; and also in and upon lands lying to the west of and adjoining to the Great Northern Railway, between that railway and the Stroud Green Road in the said parish of Saint Mary Islington and the parish of Hornsey, in the said county of Middlesex.

It is intended by the said Bill to prevent the selling of live stock in Smithfield Market, the sale of dead meat within Newgate Market, and the use of slaughter-houses within the Metropolis; and to extinguish all the rights and privileges which are now exercised or enjoyed by the Corporation of London, whether by charter, prescription, Act of Parliament, or otherwise, with respect to the sale of live stock in the said Smithfield Market, and also all other rights and privileges which may in any way interfere with the establishment of the said intended market.

And the said Bill will alter or repeal such of the provisions of the city of London Sewers Act, the 11th and 12th Victoria, c. 168, as relate to slaughter-houses in the city of London.

And it is intended by the said Bill to incorporate a Company, and to empower that Company to purchase, by compulsion, lands, houses, and other property for the purposes aforesaid, to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges connected with those lands, houses, and other property, and to levy stallages, rents, and tolls in respect of the said market and the works appertaining thereto.

Dated this 11th day of November, 1850.

South Staffordshire Railway.

Branches to join the Birmingham, Wolverhampton, and Stour Valley Railway at Tipton, and near Wolverhampton; arrangements with the Oxford, Worcester, and Wolverhampton Railway Company, with reference to Station Land and Station at Dudley; Arrangements with the Oxford, Worcester, and Wolverhampton, Birmingham, Wolverhampton, and Dudley, Bir-mingham, Wolverhampton, and Stour Valley, and London and North Western Railway Companies; and Amendment of Acts.

OTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for an Act to authorize the South Staffordshire Railway Company to make and maintain the branch railways hereinafter mentioned, together with all proper works, approaches, and conveniences connected therewith; that is to Firstly,—A railway, commencing by a junction with the main line of the South Staffordshire Railway, at or near the point where the same crosses Potter's-lane, in the township of Wednesbury, in the parish of Wednesbury, in the county of Staf-ford, and terminating at and by a junction with the main line of the Birmingham, Wolverhampton, and Stour Valley Railway, at or near the point where the last-mentioned railway crosses over the turnpike-road leading from Wolverhampton to Bilston, in the township and parish of Wolverhampton, in the county of Stafford, which said intended railway and other works connected therewith will pass from, in, through, or into, or be situate within the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial, or other places following, or some of them; that is to say: Wednesbury, Saint Bartholomew Wednesbury, Saint John Wednesbury, Saint James Wednesbury, Monway Field, Lea Brook, otherwise Leigh Brook, Potter's-lane, Portway-road, Tipton, otherwise Tibbington, Saint Paul Tipton, Saint Martin Tipton, Moxley, Saint Thomas Moxley, Sedgley, Willingsworth, Highfields, Capponfields, otherwise Caponfield, Brierley, Sedgley, Sedgley Upperside, Sedgeley Lowerside, Gospel End, Cotwall End, Upper Gornall, and Lower Gornall, Ettingshall, Coseley, Christchurch Coseley, Woodsetton, Wolverhampton, Saint Peter Wolverhampton, Saint Mary Wolverhampton, Saint James Wolverhampton, Saint John Wolverhampton, Saint George Wolverhampton, Saint Paul Wolverhampton, Bilston, Moorcroft, Bradley and Hall-fields, all in the county of Stafford.

Secondly, a branch railway, commencing by a junction with the main line of the South Staffordshire Railway, at or near the point where the last-mentioned railway crosses the Sedgeley turnpike-road in the township and parish of Tipton, and terminating at and by a junction with the main line of the Birmingham, Wolverhampton, and Stour Valley Railway, at or near the point where the last-mentioned railway crosses the main line of the South Staffordshire Railway, in the said township and parish of Tipton, in the county of Stafford, which said last-mentioned branch railway, and other works connected therewith, will be situate wholly within the said township and parish of Tipton, in the county of Stafford.

And it is also intended by such Act to take power to stop up, alter, or divert, whether temporarily or permanently, all turnpike and other roads and highways, tramroads, railways, streets, paths, passages, aqueducts, rivers, canals, brooks, streams, sewers, waters, and watercourses within the aforesaid parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places, or any of them, which it may be necessary or expedient to stop up, alter, or divert for the purpose of making and maintaining, or more conveniently making and maintaining or using the said intended works, or any of them.

And it is further intended by such Act to vary or extinguish all existing rights or privileges in any manner connected with the lands and buildings proposed to be purchased or taken for the purposes of the said works, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the objects aforesaid, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And it is also intended by such Act to take powers for the purchase of lands and buildings by compulsion or agreement, for the purposes of the said intended railways and the works connected therewith, and for levying tolls, rates, and duties on, for the use of the same, or any part thereof, and otherwise, and to grant certain exemptions from the payment of such tolls, rates, and duties, and to enable the South Staffordshire Railway Company to raise a further sum of money.

And further notice is hereby given that a map, plans and sections, describing the lines and levels of the said intended branch railways and works, and of the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with a book of reference to such plans, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited, on or before the 30th day of November, in the present year, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Stafford, at his office, in Stafford, and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference respectively, as relates to each of the several parishes and extra parochial places from, in, through, or into which the said intended branch railways and works, or any of them, are intended to be made, together with a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited on or before the said 30th day of November as follows, that is to say-In the case of parishes with the parish clerk of each such parish at his residence, and in the case of any extra parochial place, with the parish clerk of some parish adjoining thereto, at his residence.

And it is also intended by the said Act to confirm a certain arrangement or agreement entered into between the South Staffordshire and Oxford, Worcester, and Wolverhampton Railway Companies, dated in the month of February, 1850, in reference to the sale to the South Staffordshire Railway Company by the Oxford, Worcester, and Wolverhampton Railway Company of certain land near the town and in the parish of Dudley, in the county of Worcester, for the purpose of a station, and in reference to a joint station arrangement between the same two companies, and the temporary use by the South Staffordshire Railway Company of certain other lands of the Oxford, Worcester, and Wolverhampton Railway Company for certain erections and other station purposes.

And it is also proposed by the said Act to authorise the Birmingham, Wolverhampton, Dudley, and the South Staffordshire Railway Companies to enter into agreements, as well for making, as for maintaining and working and using the branch railway firstly hereinbefore mentioned, or any part thereof; and also as well for making as for maintaining and working and using all or any part of the railway already authorised to be constructed by the Birmingham, Wolverhampton, and Dudley Railway Company, between Wednesbury and Priestfields, severally in the same county of Stafford, and to authorise the South Staffordshire Railway Company, and the Birmingham, Wolverhampton, and Dudley Railway Company, to apply and contribute funds in or towards the construction or maintenance of the said first mentioned intended branch railway, and the said portion of railway authorised to be constructed by the Birmingham, Wolverhampton, and Dudley Railway Company, or either of them, or of any part thereof respectively, or for carrying out all or any of the objects aforesaid; and also to enter into agreements for the payment or division, or apportionment of tolls, rates, and duties, in respect of the said branch railway, and portion of railway, or either of them, or any part thereof respectively, and to grant exemptions from the payment of the said tolls, rates, or duties, and to alter or vary any such tolls, rates, or duties, and to confer, vary, and extinguish other rights and privileges in respect of such tolls, rates, and duties, and also in respect of the use of the said branch railway and portion of railway, or either of them, and of the several stations, works, and conveniences connected therewith respectively.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to authorise the South Staffordshire, and the Birmingham, Wolverhampton, and Stour Valley, or the London and North Western Railway Companies, to enter into arrangements for the use of that portion of the Birmingham, Wolverhampton, and Stour Valley Railway, which extends between the intended junction therewith of the said first mentioned intended branch railway and Wolverhampton, and for the use of the station, works, and conveniences, at Wolverhampton, lately constructed, or now in course of construction, for the use of the Shrewsbury and Birmingham, and Birmingham, Wolverhampton, and Stour Valley Railways, and for the payment and division or apportionment of the tolls, rates, duties, and charges to be taken in respect of the use of the said last-mentioned portion of railway, and in respect of the use of the said station, works, and conveniences at Wolverhampton aforesaid.

And it is also proposed by the said Act to authorise the South Staffordshire, and the Birmingham, Wolverhampton, and Stour Valley, or the London and North Western Railway Companies, to enter into arrangements for the use of the intended branch railway secondly hereinbefore described, and of that portion of the main line of the South Staffordshire Railway which extends between the point of junction of the said lastmentioned intended branch with the South Staffordshire Railway and the terminus of the said lastmentioned railway at Dudley, and for the use of the station, works, and conveniences of the South Staffordshire Railway Company at Dudley, and for the payment and division or apportionment of the tolls, rates, duties, and charges to be taken in respect of the use of the said last-mentioned branch railway and portion of railway, and in respect of the use of the said station, works, and conveniences at Dudley aforesaid.

And it is also proposed by the said Act to authorise the South Staffordshire and the Oxford Worcester, and Wolverhampton Railway Companies to enter into arrangements for the working or use of that portion of the Oxford, Worcester, and Wolverhampton Railway which extends between the point where the last-mentioned Railway, as now partly constructed, crosses the Birmingham canal, in the parish of Tipton, and county of Stafford, and the junction of the said Oxford, Worcester, and Wolverhampton Railway with the Birmingham and Gloucester line of the Midland Railways, at Abbots-wood, in the county of Worcester, and of the stations and other works and conveniences of the aforesaid portion of the Oxford, Worcester, and Wolverhampton Railway, and for the payment and division or apportionment of the tolls, rates, duties, and charges to be taken in respect of the working or use of the said portion of the Oxford, Worcester, and Wolverhampton Railway, and of the stations, works, and conveniences appertaining thereto.

And notice is hereby further given that for the above and other purposes it is intended by the said Act to alter and amend the several Acts relating to the South Staffordshire Railway Company; that is to say: "The Trent Valley, Midlands, and Grand Junction Railway Act, 1846," "The South Staffordshire Junction Railway Act, 1846," "The South Staffordshire Railway Act, 1847," and "The South Staffordshire Railway Leasing Act, 1850." And also so far as may be necessary for the purposes aforesaid, but not further or otherwise, the several Acts following relating to the Birmingham, Wolverhampton, and Dudley Railway; that is to say: "The Birmingham, Wolverhampton, and Dudley Railway Amendment Act, 1847," And also the several Acts relating to the Birmingham, Wolverhampton, and Stour Valley Railway Company; that is to say: "The Birmingham, Wolverhampton, and Stour Valley Railway Act, 1846, Birmingham, Wolverhampton, and Dudley Lines," "The Birmingham, Wolverhampton, and Stour Valley Railway Act, 1847, No. 1, Smethwick deviation;" and also the several Acts following, relating to the Oxford, Worcester, and Wolverhampton Railway Act, 1845," "The Oxford, Worcester, and Wolverhampton Railway Act, 1846," "The Oxford, Worcester, and Wolverhampton Railway Amendment Act, 1848," "The Oxford, Worcester, and Wolverhampton Railway Amendment Act, 1848," "The Oxford, Worcester, and Wolverhampton Railway Amendment Act, 1848," "The Oxford, Worcester, and Wolverhampton Railway Amendment Act, 1848," "The Oxford, Worcester, and Wolverhampton Railway Amendment Act, 1848," and "The Oxford, Worcester, and Wolverhampton Railway Amendment Act, 1848," and "The Oxford, Worcester, and Wolverhampton Railway Amendment Act, 1848," and "The Oxford, Worcester, and Wolverhampton Railway Amendment Act, 1850."

OTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for an Act to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge, some of the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the 5th and 6th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "an Act for establishing a general cemetery for the interment of the dead, in the Parish of Sonning, near the Town of Reading, in the County of Berks," and for confirming and legalizing the payment of preferential Dividends upon certain Shares issued by the Company incorporated by the said Act and the issue of such Shares; and to enable the said Company to raise additional monies, either by the creation of Shares with or without special advantages, privileges or preference attached thereto, or by mortgage, or bond, or by all or any of such means; and for cancelling all or any Shares now or at any time hereafter forfeited, or which have or may become liable to be forfeited, and for issuing new Shares in lieu thereof, with or without special advantages, privileges, or preference, attached thereto; and for other purposes relating to the said Company.-Dated this eleventh day of November one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

Thomas Rogers, Clerk to the said Company.

Rhyl Improvement Bill.

OTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for an Act for paving, watching, cleansing, draining, and otherwise regulating and improving the town of Rhyl, in the parish of Rhyddlan, in the county of Flint, and to establish a market therein, and to put in force therein the several powers and provisions of "The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847;" "The Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847;" "The Towns Police Clauses Act, 1847;" and "The Markets and Fairs Clauses Act, 1847;" and such other powers and provisions as are usually inserted in Acts of similar character.

And it is also intended by the said Act to take powers for the purchase, by compulsion, of lands and houses, and to levy tolls, rates, and duties, and to alter existing tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and other rights and privileges.

And it is also intended to take powers to enable the Commissioners, or other persons, acting in the execution of the proposed Act, to raise money for the several purposes thereof.—Dated this twelfth day of November 1850.

Arrangements between different Classes of Shareholders.--Creation of New Shares and Amendment of Acts.

OTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for an Act to make further provisions, with respect to the conversion or consolidation of the present or future shares in the South Devon Railway Company, or of any particular class of shares therein, into shares or stock of any other denomination, or with other conditions or privileges attached thereto respectively, and to enable the said Company and the several classes of Shareholders in the said Company, or any of them, to enter into such mutual arrangements as they shall think fit, for the redemption or commutation of all or any peculiar rights or privileges attached to any particular class of shares, and to provide that the consent of a majority of not less than three-fifths of any particular class of Shareholders shall bind the minority of such particular class of Shareholders in respect of any such arrangement as aforesaid. And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to enable the Company to make such arrangements with reference to the existing capital of the Company as may be expedient or be determined on by the Company. And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to authorize the cancelling or extinguishment of all or any shares in the Company which have not been issued; and also of all or any shares which have been, or may be forfeited or surrendered to, or for the benefit of, the Company; and to authorise the creation of new shares, in lieu of such cancelled shares, of such nominal value, and with such privileges attached of priority in payment of dividends, or otherwise, as may be determined on by the Company, or be authorised or enacted by Parliament. And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to transfer or ratify and confirm to the Midland Railway Company, the power of appointing Directors of the South Devon Railway Company, conferred by "The South Devon Railway Act, 1844," upon the then Bristol and Gloucester Railway Company, since incorporated with the Midland Railway Company.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to prohibit the digging or carrying or taking away any shingle, rock, or other material from the beach or shore adjoining to, or within a prescribed distance from any sea-wall, buttress, breakwater, or other work belonging to the South Devon Railway Company, and to impose a penalty or other punishment for every such offence.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to alter, amend, vary extend, enlarge, or repeal, all or some of the provisions of "The South Devon Railway Act, 1844;" "The South Devon Railway Act (Amendment and Branches), 1846;" and "The South Devon Railway Act (Extensions and Amendment), 1847."

Derby and Ashborne Road.
(Continuation and Amendment of Act, Alteration of Tolls, Power to Abandon a certain Branch Line of Road, and for other purposes.)

OTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to continue, alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the ninth year of the reign of his late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for diverting, widening, repairing, and improving the road from the town of Derby to the south end of Compton-street, next Ashborne, and from Ashborne to Hurdloe House, in the county of Derby, and that part of the said road called the Old Road, leading from Hardy's Hill Toll-Gate unto Compton;" and to alter the tolls, rates, and duties by the said Act authorized, and to levy other tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and all such other rights and privileges as shall be necessary for the purposes of the said Act.

And it is intended by the said Act to authorize the trustees acting in the execution of the same, to sell and convey a certain turnpike and toll-house, and land attached thereto, and used as gardenground, situate and being in the parish of Saint Werburgh, in the borough of Derby, and to apply the purchase-money to be received from the same to the purposes of the said trust; also to abandon and give up a certain branch line of road, called in the said Act the Old Road, leading from Hardy's Hill Toll-Gate unto Compton, commencing at the said Hardy's Hill Toll-Gate and terminating at the south end of the township of Compton aforesaid; and to relieve the said trustees from all liability to maintain and repair the same as a turnpike-road, and to authorize the said trustees to sell and convey the toll-house or turnpike on the said branch road, and to apply the money arising therefrom to the purposes of the said trust. And it is also intended by the said Act to sanction, carry out, and continue an arrangement for the division of the roads comprised in the said Act of the ninth year of King George the Fourth, into two districts, and for charging the debt due from the trustees of the said roads on the tolls arising upon that part of the said road as extends from Derby to Ashborne, heretofore called the South District or Division.

Dated this 12th day of November, 1850. Simpson, Frear, and Simpson, Derby, Solicitors for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for an Act to continue, alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for diverting, widening, repairing, and improving the road from the town of Derby to the south end of Compton-street next Ashborne, and from Ashborne to Hurdloe House, in the county of Derby, and that part of the said road called the Old Road, leading from Hardy's Hill Toll-Gate unto Compton;" and to alter the tolls, rates, and duties by the said Act authorized, and to levy other tolls, rates and duties; and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and all such other rights and privileges as shall be necessary for the purposes of the said Act.

And it is intended by the said Act to authorize the trustees acting in the execution of the same, to sell and convey a certain turnpike and tollhouse, and land attached thereto, and used as garden-ground, situate and being in the parish of Saint Werburgh, in the borough of Derby; and to apply the purchase-money to be received from the same to the purposes of the said trust; also to abandon and give up a certain branch line of road, called in the said Act the Old Road, leading from Hardy's Hill Toll-Gate unto Compton, commencing at the said Hardy's Hill Toll-Gate and terminating at the south end of the township of Compton afore said; and to relieve the said trustees from all liability to maintain and repair the same as a turnpike road; and to authorize the said trustees to sell and convey the toll-house or turnpike on the said branch road, and to apply the money arising therefrom to the purposes of the said trust. And it is also intended by the said Act to sanction, carry out, and continue an arrangement for the division of the roads comprised in the said Act of the ninth year of King George the Fourth into two districts, and for charging the debt due from the trustees of the said roads, on the tolls arising from that part of the said road as extends from Derby to Ashborne, heretofore called the South District or Division.

Hastings Improvement.

(For Improving, Watching, Lighting, and Providing with Water that Part of the Borough of Hastings which is not Comprised within the Respective Limits of the Local Acts for Regulating the Town and Port of Hastings, and the Town of St. Leonard.)

them, to such district.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to alter or amend the following Acts; that is to say: an Act passed in the 2nd year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the 4th, intituled, "An Act for paving, lighting, watching, cleansing, and improving the town and port of Hastings, in the county of Sussex, and for establishing and regulating markets therein, and supplying the inhabitants thereof with water, and for other purposes." And an Act, also passed in the 2nd year of the reign of His said late Majesty King William the 4th, intituled "An Act for better paving, lighting, watching, and otherwise improving the town of Saint Leonard, in the county of Sussex, and for other purposes." An Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the 8th and 9th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable the Brighton, Lewes, and Hastings Railway Company to make a railway from Bulverhithe, in the county of Sussex, to Ashford, in the county of Kent." And an Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the 10th and 11th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to authorise the South-Eastern Railway Company to make a Railway from Tunbridge Wells to join the Rye and Ashford Extension of the Brighton, Lewes, and Hastings Railway, near Hastings."

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to appoint Commissioners for carrying into effect the provisions thereof, and to vest in Commissioners all necessary powers for better paving, lighting, watching, cleansing, supplying with water, regulating and improving the said district of the said borough, and the several streets, roads, lanes, streams, drains, watercourses, and other public and private ways and places within the limits thereof, and for repairing the same, and for improving the sanitary condition of the said district, and powers to provide receptacles for sewage water, and places of deposit for dust, soil, and rubbish, and powers for preventing and removing all nuisances within the said district, and for regulating the width, level, mode of laying down, constructing, paving, repairing, and maintaining streets, roads, lanes, and other public and private ways and places within the said district, and for constructing, repairing and maintaining sea walls, groins, public drains, culverts, and cesspools within the same, and for regulating the carrying on of newly-established offensive trades, and for licensing and regulating hackney carriages, and bathing machines, and for enabling the said Commissioners to establish a market or markets in the said district, and to provide and regulate slaughter-houses and weighing machines, and to act as the surveyors of highways within the said district.

No. 21157.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to enable the said Commissioners to supply and light, or contract to supply and light with gas, or otherwise, the various streets, roads, lanes, and other public passages and places within the said district, and also to supply individuals with gas, and to erect any gasometers or other works for making and supplying gas, and to provide and lay down, under or through any public or private lands, streets, roads, lanes, ways, courts, and thoroughfares, all necessary mains, pipes, and other works and apparatus for the purposes of the supply of gas within the said district.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to enable the said Commissioners to supply or contract to supply water for the use of the inhabitants of the said district, and for any public wells, baths, and washhouses within the said district, and for cleansing the streets, roads, lanes, and other public places within the said district, and for extinguishing fires within the said district, and for such purposes to make and maintain water works, reservoirs, mains, and conduits, together with all steam engines, aqueducts, embankments, dams, sluices, cuts, channels, culverts, drains, pipes, and other works necessary for collecting and conveying water; which said water works, reservoirs, mains, conduits, cuts, channels, and other works will have termini in Newgates Wood, in the parish of Saint Mary Magdalen, Hastings, and Shornden Wood, in the parish of Saint Leonard, in the county of Sussex, and will be situate within the parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places of the Holy Trinity, otherwise Dissolved Priory, Hastings, St. Michael on the Rock, Hastings, St. Mary in the Castle, Hastings, St. Andrew, Hastings, St. Mary Magdalen, Hastings, All Saints, Hastings, St. Clement, Hastings, and St. Leonard, in the county of Sussex, some or one of them, or on the derelict lands of the crown, in or adjoining to the said parishes of the Holy Trinity, otherwise Dissolved Priory, St. Michael on the Rock, and St. Mary in the Castle, some or one of them.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to empower the said Commissioners to lay down mains, conduits, pipes, or other works in, under, over, across, or through, and to break open for that purpose the streets, lanes, and public passages, places, turnpike and other roads and highways, railways, bridges, viaducts, brooks, streams, waters and water courses within the parishes, townships, and places aforesaid, for the purpose of furnishing such supply of water, and of making the said works, and to alter, divert, stop, or construct such sewers, drains, water courses, and ways as may be necessary or convenient for the said intended works.

And it is also intended to apply for powers for the purchase, compulsorily or otherwise, or to take on lease, houses, messuages, lands, tenements, springs; streams, and hereditaments, for the purposes of the said works, or for any other of the purposes of the said intended Act. And to alter, vary, or extinguish all or any rights or privileges in any manner connected with or incident to any such messuages, lands, tenements, springs, streams, and hereditaments, respectively, which can in any manner impede or interfere with the execution of the said works, or with carrying into effect any of the other purposes of the said intended Act. And also power to make lateral deviations from the line of the said works to the extent and within the limits to be defined on the plans hereinafter mentioned.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to take powers to make bye laws for the purposes of the said intended Act, and powers for levying rates, assessments, or other payments, for the purposes of the said intended Act, or any of them, and for defraying the costs of the said Act, on property within the said district, and on coals, culm, coke, stone, timber, goods, and merchandize to be imported, landed, or brought into the said district, and powers for conferring, varying, or extinguishing exemptions from payments of rates, assessments, or other payments, and for charging the owners of property with rates, assessments, or payments instead of the occupiers thereof, and to provide for the recovery of the same, and powers for levying penalties for breaches of all or any of the provisions of the said intended Act, and for reimbursing any person or persons who may have expended money on streets, roads, sea-walls, drains, and water courses within the said district, for the benefit of the said district, or some part thereof, and also powers for borrowing money on the credit of any rates, assessments, or payments to be levied, or any property to be acquired, under the powers of the said intended Act, or otherwise, for all or any of the purposes of the said Act, and all such other powers and provisions as may be considered desirable or expedient for all or any of the purposes aforesaid.

And it is proposed to incorporate in the said intended Act the whole or some portion of the following Acts; that is to say: "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845." "The Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847." "The Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847." "The Markets and Fairs Clauses Act, 1847." "The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847." And "The Waterworks

Clauses Act, 1847."

And notice is hereby further given, that a plan of the said proposed waterworks, and also a duplicate thereof, with a section and a duplicate thereof, together with a book of reference thereto, and a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Sussex, at his office, at Lewes, in the same county; and also with the Clerk of the Peace for the borough of Hastings, at his office, at Hastings, in the same county, on or before the 30 h day of November 1850; and, on or before the said 30th day of the said month of November, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each parish in or through which the said works are intended to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, and a copy of this notice as aforesaid will be deposited with the clerks of each of the said parishes respectively, at their respective places of abode.

Dated the fifth day of November 1850.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to enable the Great Western Railway Company to make and maintain a railway, with proper works and conveniences connected therewith, diverging from the line of the Birmingham and Oxford Junction Railway, at or near the point where the said railway crosses Park-street, in the parish of Saint Martin, in the borough of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, and passing through and terminating in the same parish and borough, by a junction with the London and North-Western Railway, near where the said last-mentioned railway crosses Highstreet in the said parish and borough, in the said county of Warwick. And also a line of railway diverging from the Learnington line of the Great Western Railway, in the parish of Learnington Priors, in the county of Warwick, in a field, numbered on the plans referred to in the Great Western Railway (Leamington line) Act, 1848, 116, in the said parish of Leamington Priors, and terminating by a junction with the line of the Rugby and Leamington Railway at or near a point in the said parish of Learnington Priors about sixty yards eastward of a certain bridge carrying the said Rugby and Leamington Railway over the Warwick and Napton Canal, in the said last-mentioned parish, both which said intended railways are intended to be constructed upon the same gauge or gauges as the Birmingham and Oxford Junction Railway. And it is also intended by the said Act to enable the Great Western Railway Company to construct a station in connexion with the Birmingham and Oxford Junction Railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, in the parish of Aston-juxta Birmingham, in the said county of Warwick; and it is also intended by such Act to take power to stop up, alter, or divert, whether temporarily or permanently, all turnpike and other roads, highways, railways, tramways, aqueducts, canals, streams and rivers within or adjoining the aforesaid parishes, townships and extra-parochial or other places, or any of them, which it may be necessary to stop up, alter, or divert by reason of the construction of the said intended railways, station, and works, or any of them,

And it is also intended by such Act to take powers for the purchase of lands and houses, by compulsion or agreement, for the purposes of the said intended railways, station, and works, and to extend the time limited for the purchase by compulsion of such of the lands required for the said intended station as the said Company have now power to purchase.

And it is also intended by such Act to vary, repeal, or extinguish all existing rights or privileges in any manner connected with the lands and houses proposed or required to be purchased or taken, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, or use of the said intended railways, station, and works, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And it is also intended by such Act to take powers for levying tolls, rates, and duties in respect of the use of the said intended railways, station, and works, and to grant exemptions from the payment of such tolls, rates, and duties.

And notice is hereby further given, that maps, plans, and sections of the said intended works, together with a book of reference to such plans, and a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the 30th day of November in the present year, be deposited with the clerk of the peace for the county of Warwick, at his office at Stratford-upon-Avon, and that on or before the same day a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the parishes in or through the said intended railways and works are proposed to be made, and also a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his place of abode.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to enable the Great Western Railway Company to raise a sum of money for the purposes of the said intended works. And it is proposed to alter, extend, yary, amend, enlarge, or repeal all or some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts following, or some of them, directly or indirectly relating to or affecting the Great Western Railway Company (that is to say): Local and Personal Acts 5 & 6 Wm. 4, cap. 107; 6 Wm. 4, chapters 36, 38, 77, and 79; 1st Victoria, chapters 91, 92, 24, and 26; 2 Victoria, cap. 27; 3 Victoria, cap. 47; 3 and 4 Victoria, cap. 105; 4 and 5 Victoria, cap. 41; 5 Victoria, session 2, chapter 28; 6 Victoria, cap. 10; 7 Victoria, cap. 3; 7 and 8 Victoria, cap. 10; 7 Victoria, cap. 3; 7 and 8 Victoria, cap. 68; 8 and 9 Victoria, chapters 40, 53, 155, 156, 184, 188, 190, 191; 9 Victoria, cap 14; 9 and 10 Victoria, chapters 166, 181, 236, 239, 240, 278, 313, 315, 335, 337, 338, 369, and 402; 10 and 11 Victoria, chapters 60, 72, 76, 91, 101, 109, 149, 154, 226, and 243; 11 and 12 Victoria, chapters 28, 59, 77, 82, 135, 74, 158, 159, 133, 95, and 131; and also of "The Birmingham and Oxford Junction Railway Act, 1846;" and "The Birmingham and Oxford Junction (Birmingham Extension) Railway Act, 1846."

Liverpool Sanitary and other Local Acts.

(Amendment of Acts; Sewerage and Sewer Rates; Owners to be rated; Power to purchase Lands; Composition for and recovery of divers Rates; Protection of Footways; Levelling, Paving. &c. Streets, &c.: Laying out Streets and construction of Buildings; Nuisances and injurious practices; Giving facilities to owners to comply with Acts, and compensation for damage done by works authorized by Acts; Lodging-houses; Repeal of provisions in Sanitary Act requiring Council to give notice in certain cases, &c.; Power to borrow Money and make Bye-laws.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session for an Act to repeal, alter, or amend certain of the provisions of the several Local and Personal Acts following, or some of them; that is to say; 9 and 10 Vict., c. 127, commonly known in Liverpool and hereinafter referred to as the "Sanitary Act;" 21 George II., c. 24, commonly known in Liverpool and hereinafter referred to as the "Lighting Act;" 5 Vict., c. 44, commonly known in Liverpool and hereinafter referred to as the "Health Act;" and 5 and 6 Vict., c. 106, commonly known in Liverpool and hereinafter referred to as the "Improvement and Police Act."

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to authorize the Council of the borough of Liverpool to appoint Committees, and delegate to such Committees all or any of their powers for carrying the said Acts and the said proposed Act into execution.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to make various alterations in the Sanitary Act with respect to sewers, sewerage, drainage, scavenging and cleansing streets and other places, and to authorize the division and subdivision into districts and sections for sewerage and drainage purposes of such parts of the borough of Liverpool as are beyond the boundary of the parish of Liverpool, and to make provision for the proper and effectual sewerage and drainage of such districts and sections, and for making and levying rates upon the owners of property for such purposes, and in or towards payment of existing debts or charges upon the sewer rates heretofore made within such districts and sections, in lieu of the sewer rate, or the part thereof authorized to be made and levied under the Sanitary Act, in those parts of the said borough.

And to cause the Sewer Rates hereafter to be made within the parish of Liverpool to be rated and assessed upon the owners of property within the said parish, instead of the occupiers thereof, and to extend the period limited by the Sanitary Act, during which the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Liverpool are required to pay a certain annual sum of money for sewerage purposes within the parish of Liverpool, and to alter the application directed by the Sanitary Act of moneys arising from the sale of dirt, dust, night-soil, and filth, and to authorize the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses to purchase or acquire lands or buildings within or without the limits of the said borough, or easements or privileges over or upon lands or buildings for sewerage, drainage, scavenging, and other purposes.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to authorize the owners of small tenements within the said borough to compound for all or any of the rates chargeable thereon by virtue of the said Acts and the said intended Act, or any of them, and to make better provision for the recovery of rates and compositions for rates imposed or due under or by virtue of the provisions of such Acts respectively, and for preventing carriages or other vehicles being driven on or across footways or sidepaths within the said borough.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to alter or amend certain of the provisions of the Sanitary Act, with respect to levelling, paving, and flagging streets, and other places, whether highways or not, and to make further and better provisions with respect thereto; and to extend the provisions contained in the sections from 39 to 43 and from 102 to 104, of the Sanitary Act, all inclusive, to sewering and draining, as well as levelling, paving, and flagging.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to make further provision as to laying out and making streets and the construction of buildings, and to alter the provisions of the Sanitary Act with respect to fixing the levels of streets, and measuring the width of streets, and with respect to providing and constructing, cleansing and repairing house-drains, water-closets, urinals, and other works of the like nature, in houses, manufactories, and other erections already built or hereafter to be built, and to make new provisions and to give the Council further powers in respect to all or any of such matters.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to make further provision for preventing nuisances, whether from smoke or otherwise, and for enforcing the use of furnaces and fire-places within the borough, and on steam-vessels on the river Mersey, constructed on a principle for consuming or preventing smoke; and to give the Council further powers [with respect to ruinous buildings, vaults, arches, cellars, and other excavations or works connected therewith, and for enforcing the arching or covering over or filling up, repairing, fencing, or otherwise protecting the same; also to provide for better enforcing the provisions of the Health Act with respect to interments, and to repeal or alter the 150th section of the Improvement and Police Act, relating to the removal of night-soil or other offensive matter.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to give the owners of lands and buildings greater powers and facilities as against the occupiers thereof, for carrying into effect the provisions of such Act and of the Sanitary Act and Health Act, and to make provision for compensation in respect of damage done to houses, buildings, or other hereditaments, by works authorized or to be authorized by the Sanitary Act or the said intended Act.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to make provision with respect to lodging-houses, and other places used for human habitation, and to repeal or alter certain of the provisions of the

Sanitary Act relating thereto, and to render unnecessary a notice by that Act required to be given of the provisions thereof, prohibiting the occupation of cellars, previous to a conviction for offending against such provisions.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to repeal or alter the 80th and 81st sections of the Sanitary Act, requiring the Council to give notice, and hold a meeting prior to doing, making, or abandoning certain works, and empowering persons aggrieved thereby to appeal against the same, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof; also to authorize the Council to borrow money on the security of the rates, for the purposes of the said intended Act, and of the Sanitary Act, and to make bye-laws, touching all or any of the matters hereinbefore contained, or which might be desirable or proper for ensuring or securing the safety, health, comfort, or convenience of the inhabitants and others within the said borough.

Dated the 15th day of November 1850.

Regent's Canal Company.

(Enlargement of Brent Reservoir.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to empower the Company of Proprietors of the Regent's Canal to extend and enlarge the existing reservoir on the river Brent, commonly called the Brent Reservoir, situate in the several parishes of Kingsbury, Willesden, and Hendon, all in the county of Middlesex, which extension and enlargement is intended to be made in the said several parishes of Kingsbury, Willesden, and Hendon, in the said county of Middlesex, and to commence in an arm or stream of the river Brent, called the Silk Stream, where the same divides two pasture fields in the said parish of Hendon, both in the occupation of William Wendover and John Hall, on the south-eastern side of Colin Deep-lane, leading from the Edgware-road to Hendon, and numbered respectively 1068 and 1069 in the Tithe Commutation Map for the said parish of Hendon, and in another arm or stream of the River Brent, where the same divides a pasture field in the occupation of Francis Hatton, from another pasture field in the occupation of John Veal, which two last-mentioned pasture fields are in the said parish of Hendon, near Renter's Farm, and are situate to the northward of and abut on another lane leading from the said Edgware-road to Hendon, and are numbered respectively 1353 and 1468, in the said Tithe Commutation Map for the said parish of Henden, and is intended to terminate at the dam embankment and works, situate in the said parishes of Kingsbury and Willesden, now forming the southwestern extremity of the existing reservoir, and at certain extensions of and additions to the said dam embankment and works, which extensions and additions will be made upon the lands hereinafter mentioned and described, that is to say: a garden and the site of a cottage and buildings in the occupation of Hugh M'Kenna, land forming part of the existing reservoir in the occupation of the Regent's Canal Company, and a pasture field, site of barn, and roadway, in the occupation of William Warner, all which last-mentioned lands, site, garden, and buildings, are respectively in the said parish of Kingsbury, and adjoin or lie near to the dam embankment and works of the existing reservoir, on the north side thereof, and land forming part of the existing reservoir in the occupation of the Regent's Canal Company, and two pasture fields, both in the occupation of Augustus Lyne, all which last-mentioned lands are respectively in the said parish of Willesden, and adjoin or lie near to the dam embankment and works of the existing reservoir, on the south-eastern side thereof. And that it is indended in such Bill, to apply for powers for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses, for the purposes of such intended extension and enlargement of the said reservoir, and for power to stop up, alter the levels of, or divert, whether temporarily or permanently, all turnpike and other roads and highways, watercourses, drains, streams, and rivers within the aforesaid parishes, or any of them, which it may be necessary to stop up, alter the level of, or divert, by reason of such intended extension and enlargement, or of the works connected therewith; and for powers to vary or extinguish all existing rights or privileges to or over. the said reservoir, or the proposed extension and enlargement thereof, or in any way affecting the sole use or enjoyment by the said Company of Proprietors of the said reservoir, and of the proposed extension and enlargement thereof, and of the water therein respectively. And that it is intended to divert into the reservoir so to be extended and enlarged, the water from the river Brent, which now flows through the existing reservoir and the river Brent into the Grand Junction Canal, and to convey the water so diverted into the Grand Junction Canal by means of the feeder which now communicates between the said existing reservoir and the Grand Junction Canal, in the said parish of Willesden, and through the said Grand Junction Canal into the Regent's Canal; and that a plan and section in duplicate of the said intended extension and enlargement of the reservoir, and of the lands to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with a book of reference to such plan, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited, on or before the 30th day of November, 1850, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Middlesex, at his office at the Sessionhouse, Clerkenwell, in the said county; and that a copy of so much of the said plan, section, and book of reference as relates to each parish in which the said reservoir is intended to be extended or enlarged, and also a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his residence, on or before the said 30th day of November, 1850. And that it is intended by the said Bill to alter, amend, extend, enlarge, and repeal some of the powers and provisions contained in the several Acts of Parliament following, relating directly or indirectly to the Regent's Canal, which Acts are distinguished in the Queen's printers' copies thereof as 52 George 3rd, chapter 195, local and personal; 53 George 3rd, chapter 32, local and personal; 56 George 3rd, chapter 85, local; 59 George 3rd, chapter 66, local; and 1 and 2 George 4th, chapter 43, local, And in the Acts of Parliament following, relating to an exchange of water between the Grand Junction Canal Company, the Grand Junction Waterworks Company, and the Regent's Canal Company, which Acts (local) are distinguished in the Queen's printers' copies thereof as 59 George 3rd, chapter 111, and 7th George 4th, chapter 140; and also in the Acts of Parliament following, relating to the Grand Junction Canal, which Acts are distinguished in the Queen's printers' copies thereof as 33 George 3rd, chapter 80; and 35 George 3rd, chapter 43.—By order of the Regent's Canal Company.

North Shields Quays and Improvements.

OTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill and to obtain an Act to enable the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Tynemouth, in the county of Northumberland, or certain Commissioners to be appointed in manner directed by the said Bill, to construct, maintain, and manage one or more quay or quays, with all necessary and proper approaches, piers, wharfs, shipping, and landing-places, cranes, warehouses, embankments, sluices, works, and conveniences adjoining thereto and connected therewith, on the north side of the River Tyne, in or near to North Shields, in the county of Northumberland, with all necessary openings, bridges, and communications therein, and to open suitable and convenient streets, lanes, roads, and avenues, communicating therewith, and improve, widen, alter, or stop up existing streets, lanes, roads, avenues, and landing-places; which said quay or quays, approaches, and other works, are intended to be made, and maintained from, in, through, or into, the parishes, townships, townlands, and extra-parochial places following; namely: the townships of North Shields and Tynemouth, in the parish of Tynemouth and county of Northumberland; and the parish or parochial chapelry of Saint Nicholas, in the borough and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, or some or one of them, and will commence at a point in or near to a place called the New Quay, Northumberland Wharf, or North Shields Market Place, and the main line or portion whereof will terminate at a certain other point in or near to the bed of the said river, and opposite or nearly opposite to the west end of a certain quay, called the Union Quay, or Low Lights Quay, both in the said township of North Shields, in the said parish of Tynemouth, and in the said parish or parochial chapelry of Saint Nicholas, or one of them; and another portion whereof, consisting of a branch approach and works connected therewith, will commence on or near to the said intended quay, or in the bed of the river Tyne, adjoining thereto, at or near to a place called the Old Ferry Boat Landing, in the said township of North Shields, and in the said parish or parochial chapelry of Saint Nicholas, or one of them, and will terminate at a point in or near to the lower part of Bedford-street, in the townships of Tynemouth and North Shields, or one of them, in the said parish of Tynemouth. And it is also intended to obtain powers to make deviations from the line or lines of the said intended works, within the limits defined upon the plans hereinafter referred to, and which limits are within the several parishes, townships, townlands, and extra-parochial places before mentioned, or some or one of them.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended by the said Bill to apply for powers to deepen, straighten, dredge, protect, and otherwise improve the bed, channel, and north bank of the said River Tyne, and to remove all obstructions to the free navigation thereof in front of and along the said intended quay or quays and works; and to impose penalties upon all persons placing or continuing obstructions in the said river in front of and along the said intended quay or quays and works, and to purchase private moorings, and also to take chalk, gravel, sand, or other ballast, from the bed of the said river, and from ships and vessels lying or riding therein, for the purpose of constructing, extending, altering, or repairing, or otherwise in connection with the said quay or quays and other works; and to enclose and build upon part of the bed or soil of the said river, and for the compulsory purchase of houses, lands, and hereditaments, and to vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with such houses, lands, and hereditaments, or with the said River Tyne, or the bed or soil thereof, or the land immediately abutting thereon, within the aforesaid parishes, townships, townlands, or extra-parochial places, or any of them, or which would in any manner interfere with or impede the carrying of the said intended Bill into execution, and to levy tolls, rates, and duties, for and in respect of the use of the said quay or quays, approaches, wharfs, shipping and landing-places, and other conveniences and works, and in respect of goods, wares, and merchandize, ballast, or other commodities laden or unladen from ships or vessels; and to alter existing tolls, rates, or duties, and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, dues, rates, and duties; and also to confer, vary, and extinguish, other rights and privileges; and to raise money upon the security of the tolls, dues, rates, and duties, to be created by the said Bill for carrying the several purposes thereof into execution; and to enable the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, or Commissioners, to transfer their powers, and all such other powers and provisions as may be deemed necessary or expedient for carrying into effect all or any of the purposes aforesaid; or in any manner connected therewith. And it is further intended by the said Bill to amend, alter, or repeal, the Acts following; namely: An Act passed in the twenty-first year of the reign of His late Majesty King Henry the Eighth, intituled "An Act for the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, concerning the shipping of merchandize and unshipping thereof within the liberties of the said town. An Act passed in the forty-first year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for extending and enlarging the powers and increasing the rates and duties of the Corporation of the Trinity House of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and for better regulating the port of Newcastle;" An Act passed in the ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for paving, watching, cleansing, regulating, and improving the town of North Shields, in the county of Northumberland;" An Act passed in the first year of the reign of her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for regulating and improving the borough of Newcastle-upon-Tyne;" An Act passed in the fourth and fifth years of the reign of Her said Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to alter and extend an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for regulating and improving the borough of Newcastle-upon-Tyne;" An Act, passed in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her pre-sent Majesty, called "The Newcastle-upon-Tyne Port Act, 1845;" and an Act passed in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, called "The River Tyne Improvement Act, 1850;" and to confer, vary, and extinguish all other existing rights and privileges, whether the same be enjoyed by virtue of any charter, Act of Parliament, prescription, grant, custom, or otherwise, which would otherwise, in any manner, prevent or interfere with the carrying out of the objects and purposes to be effected by the said of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the houses, lands, and hereditaments to be taken for the purposes of the said intended Bill, and a copy of the published in the London Gazette of the intended application to Parliament, will be deposited at the office of the Clerk of the Peace of the said county of Northumberland, at Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the borough and county of Newcastleupon-Tyne, at Newcastle-upon-Tyne; and on or before the said 30th day of November instant, a copy of so much of the said plan and section as relates to each of the parishes in which such quay or quays, and other works will be situate, together with a book of reference thereto, and a copy of the notice published in the London Gazette, of the intended application to Parliament, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his respective place of abode.— Dated this first day of November 1850.

All which said several sewers and works will be situate in the several parishes of Birmingham, Edgbaston, and Aston, within the said borough; and for providing public waterclosets, privies, and urinals within the said borough, and for providing and regulating slaughter-houses and weighing-machines, and for examining meat hawked about or otherwise exposed for sale, and for licensing and regulating lodging-houses and hackney-carriages within the same, and for regulating the carrying on of newly-established offensive trades, and for the prevention of smoke within the said borough; and for providing public clocks and repairing existing clocks within the said borough, and for enabling the said mayor, aldermen, and burgesses, to act as the Surveyors of the Highways within the said borough. And it is proposed by the said intended Act to restrain the Trustees of Turnpike Roads from taking any toll, and from repairing the same roads within the said borough.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to regulate the purposes for which the Town Hall of the said borough may be used, and to empower the said mayor, aldermen, and burgesses to finish, furnish, and improve the said Town Hall and the approaches thereto. And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to enable the said mayor, aldermen, and burgesses, to supply and light, or to contract to supply and light, with gas or otherwise, the various streets, roads, lanes and other public passages, and places, and also to supply individuals with gas within the said borough; and to erect any gasometers or other works for making and supplying gas, and to purchase by agreement, or take on lease, the whole or any part of any existing gasometers or works for such purposes; and to provide and lay down, under, or through any public or private lands, streets, roads, ways, courts and thoroughfares within the said borough, all necessary mains, pipes, and other works and apparatus for the purposes of the supply of gas within the said borough, and to regulate the supply of gas within the said borough, and to enable any existing Gas Company or Companies to transfer, sell, or lease to the said mayor, aldermen, and burgesses their works and properties, and for that purpose to alter, amend, extend, or enlarge an Act passed in the fifty-ninth year of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for better supplying the town of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, with Gas," and an Act passed in the sixth year of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to establish an additional Company for more effectually lighting with Gas the town of Birmingham, and certain other parishes and places in the counties of Warwick and Stafford;" also an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighth and ninth years of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to enlarge the powers of the Birmingham and Staffordshire Gas-light Company." And it is proposed by the said intended Act to enable the said mayor, aldermen, and burgesses to supply, or contract to supply, water for the use of the inhabitants of the said borough, and for any public wells, baths, and washhouses within the said borough; and for cleansing the streets, roads, lanes, and other public places within the said borough; and for extinguishing fires within the said borough; and to purchase by agreement or take on lease, the whole or any part of the works and properties of the Birmingham Water Works Company, and to regulate the supply of water within the said borough, and to enable the said Water Works Company to transfer, sell or lease to the said mayor, aldermen, and burgesses, their works and properties, and for that purpose to alter, amend, extend, or enlarge an Act passed in the seventh year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for supplying with Water the town and neighbourhood of Birmingham in the county of Warwick." And also powers to maintain a fire police; and powers enabling the said council of the said borough to provide, regulate, and maintain markets and market-places within the said borough, and to take tolls and rents for the use of the said markets and market-places. And it is proposed by the said intended Act, to confer on the said mayor, aldermen, and burgesses, powers for the purchase, compulsorily or by agreement, of manors, lands, houses, buildings, hereditaments, and other property required for the purposes of the same Act, or any of them, and for altering, varying, or extinguishing all existing rights and privileges connected therewith, and powers to make bye laws for all or any of the purposes of the same Act. And powers for levying rates, assessments, or other payments within the said borough, or any district within the same, for the purposes of the said intended Act, or any of them, and for defraying the cost of obtaining and executing the said intended Act, and for conferring, varying, or extinguishing exemptions from payment of rates, assessments, and other payments, and for levying penalties for breaches of all or any of the provisions thereof, and powers for altering, regulating, and simplifying the mode of making and levying rates, assessments, or payments now existing in the said borough, and for charging owners of property not exceeding the value of £12 per annum, with the several rates, assessments, or payments, under the said Act, instead of the occupiers thereof, and to provide for the recovery of the same; and also powers to vary or extinguish any existing tolls, rates, or duties, and to confer, vary, or extinguish any exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, or duties; and also powers for borrowing money on the credit of the rates to be levied under the powers of the said intended Act, or by mortgage of the lands, property, rents, and revenues of the said mayor, aldermen, and burgesses, or on debenture, bond, or otherwise, for the purposes of the said intended Act, and all such other powers and provisions as may be considered desirable or expedient for all or any of the purposes aforesaid. And for all or any of the purposes aforesaid it is proposed to include in the said intended Act the whole or some portion of the following Acts, viz:—"The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845;" "The Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847;" "The Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847;" "The Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847;" "The Markets and Fairs Clauses Act, 1847;" and "The Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847."

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, plans, and sections of the works proposed to be constructed, in duplicate, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands proposed to be taken for such works, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the clerk of the peace for the said borough, at his office, in the said borough, and with the clerk of the peace of the county of Warwick, at his office, at Stratford-upon-Avon, in the said county. And that on or before the said thirtieth day of November instant, a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, as relates to each of the several parishes in or through which the said works are intended to be made, together with a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each of the said parishes, at his residence.
