NOTICE is hereby given, that the Association styled the United Service and General Life Assurance and Guarantee Association, has applied by petition to Her Majesty in Council for letters patent; and that such petition, together with a copy of the proposed letters patent, has been referred to the Committee of Privy Council for trade and plantations.—Dated this 14th day of November 1850.

Hertslet. and Scott, 31, Norfolk-street Solicitors to the said Association.

Gas Light and Coke Company, Equitable Gas Light Company, and London Gas Light Company. Amalgamation and Amendment of Acts.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for the union and consolidation into one undertaking of "The Gas Light and Coke Company. The Equitable Gas Light Company, and the London Gas Light Company," or some two of such Companies, and the respective capital, stock, shares, property, and effects of such respective Companies, or some two of them, and the vesting in, and transferring to one Company of all the capital stock, shares, property, and effects, powers and privileges, contracts, liabilities, and obligations, now vested in such Companies, or some of them, or to which the said Companies, or some of them, are now subject and liable, and to incorporate a new Company for the purposes aforesaid. And it is intended by such Bill to alter, amend, extend, enlarge, repeal, or consolidate the powers and provisions contained in the several Acts relating to the before-mentioned Companies (that is to say) the following local and personal Acts relating to the Gas Light and Coke Company, 50 Geo. III, c. 163; 54 Geo. III, c. 116; 56 Geo. III, c. 87; 59 Geo. III, c. 20; and 4 Geo. IV, c. 119; relating to the Equitable Gas Light Company, 5 Vict. sess. 2, c. 38, relating to the London Gas Light Company, 7 & 8 Vict. c. 95, 12 and 13, Vict. c. 37; and it is also intended by such Bill to authorize the levying of gas rents, and to confer, vary, and extinguish, certain rights and privileges conferred by such Acts, or some of them.

Dated this 26th day of November, 1850.

(Incorporating Company; Supplying the Towns and adjoining Places with Water; Enabling the Company to sell or lease their Undertaking to, or amalgamate the same with the Darlington Gas and Water Company, or to purchase or lease the Undertaking of that Company; to enable that Company to purchase, or sell, or lease, or amalgamate; and for other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to incorporate a Company, and to authorize such Company to supply with water the town of Stockton, and the adjoining township of Stockton, both in the parish of Stockton-upon-Tees, in the county of Durham; and also the adjoining or neighbouring township or chapelry of Thornaby, on the opposite side of the river Tees, in the parish of Stainton, in the North Riding of the county of York; the town of Middlesbrough and the adjoining parish of Middlesbrough, both in the said North Riding of the county of York; and the town of Yarm and the adjoining parish of Yarm, both in the said North Riding, and the adjoining or neighbouring township of Egglecliffe, on the opposite side of the river Tees, in the parish of Egglecliffe, in the county of Durham, or some or one of the said three several towns of Stockton, Middlesbrough, and Yarm, and adjoining townships and parishes, or some or one of them, or some part or parts thereof respectively.

And it is proposed by the said Bill to enable the Company so to be incorporated to construct the several works following, or some of them, or some part or parts thereof, respectively, that is to say:

First. An aqueduct or main pipe, to commence from and out of the river Tees, at or near the present filter beds and other works of the Darlington Gas and Water Company, near Tees Cottage, in the township and parish of Darlington, in the county of Durham, and to pass thence from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, hamlets, and extra-parochial or other places of Darlington and Darlington Bondgate, otherwise Bondgate in Darlington, all in the county of Durham, or some of them, and to terminate in the public highway, at the western end of a certain street in the town of Darlington aforesaid, called Bondgate, in the said county of Durham.

Second. An aqueduct or main pipe, to commence at, in, or near the proposed termination of the firstly-mentioned aqueduct, in the said last-mentioned public highway, and to pass thence, from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, hamlets, and extra-parochial or other places of Darlington, Darlington Bondgate, otherwise Bondgate in Darlington, Darlington Borough, Prebend-row, Priestgate, Haughton, Haughton-le-Skerne, Burdon, Great Burdon, Little Burdon, Morton, Morton Palms, Dinsdale, Low Dinsdale, Middleton, Middleton St. George, Middleton-One-Row, Sadberge, Long Newton, Elton, Egglecliffe, Aisleby, Preston, Preston-upon-Tees, Hartburn otherwise East Hartburn, Stockton, and Stockton-upon-Tees, all in the county of Durham; Thornaby, South Stockton, Stainton, Newport, Airsome, Linthorpe, Acklam, and Middlesbrough, in the North Riding of the county of York, or some of them, and to terminate in the township and parish of Middlesbrough aforesaid, in the public highway leading from Middlesbrough aforesaid to Acklam, at or near the point or place at the south-western side of the town of Middlesbrough, where the Stockton and Darlington Railway crosses the same public highway, such aqueduct or main pipe in its course passing over the river Tees, in the said township of Stockton, and the said township or chapelry of Thornaby, in the said respective parishes of Stockton-upon-Tees and Stainton, by the present stone bridge over the said river Tees, commonly called Stockton Bridge.

Third. An aqueduct or main pipe, to commence from and out of the secondly-mentioned aqueduct or main-pipe, at or near the Yarm Station of the Stockton and Darlington Railway, in the parish of Egglecliffe, in the county of Durham, and thence to pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes and townships, hamlets, and extra-parochial or other places of Egglecliffe aforesaid, and Yarm, in the said North Riding of the county of York, or some of them, and to terminate in the public highway, at, in, or near the north end of the High-street in the town and parish of Yarm, in the said North Riding of the county of York, such aqueduct in its course passing over the river Tees in the said parishes of Egglecliffe and Yarm, by the ancient stone bridge called Yarm Bridge.

Fourth. An aqueduct or main pipe, to commence from and out of the said secondly-mentioned aqueduct or main pipe, at or near the point or place in the township and parish of Stockton and Stockton-upon-Tees aforesaid, where the main line of the Stockton and Darlington Railway crosses the lane or highway leading from Stockton aforesaid into Cleveland, and thence to pass from, in, through, or into the parishes and townships of Stockton and Stockton-upon-Tees aforesaid, or one of them, and to terminate in the public highway at or near the gas works at the south end of the High-street, in the town of Stockton-upon-Tees, in the said county of Durham.

Fifth. The several reservoirs, filters, or filtering beds following, or some or one of them, that is to say, one or more reservoir or reservoirs, filter or filters, or filtering bed or filtering beds, to be situate near the said present filter beds and other works of the Darlington Gas and Water Company, near Tees Cottage, in the township and parish of Darlington aforesaid, the sites of which said intended reservoirs, filters, or filtering beds, are delineated upon the plans to be deposited as herein-after mentioned.

Sixth. One or more reservoir or reservoirs to be situate near the present reservoir of the said Darlington Gas and Water Company, at or near a certain place called "Short Bushell Hill," in the said township and parish of Darlington aforesaid, which said intended reservoir is also delineated on the said plans so to be deposited.

Seventh. All cuttings, embankments, water-courses, sluices, communications, mains, pipes, engines, machinery, buildings, erections, roads, ways, and other works which may be required in connexion with the proposed works, or any of them, or for the purpose of connecting the same, or any of them, with the aqueducts or mains of the Darlington Gas and Water Company, at or near Darlington aforesaid, all which said proposed works, mains, pipes, and conveniences are intended to be made and maintained from, in, through, or into the said several before-mentioned parishes, townships, hamlets, and extra-parochial or other places, or some of them, or some part or parts thereof.

And notice is hereby given, that in the said Bill so to be applied for, powers and provisions will be inserted for the following purposes, or some of them; that is to say: to authorize the Company so to be incorporated to take, collect, and use for the purposes aforesaid, water from the river Tees, the water of which said river Tees flows or proceeds to or into a certain other part of the said river, called or known as the River Tees Navigation. Also in the meantime, and until the said firstly-mentioned aqueduct, or main pipe, and the said reservoirs, filters, or filtering beds to be connected therewith, are made and constructed, to purchase, take, and use for the purposes aforesaid, water from the said Darlington Gas and Water Company, or the filters, reservoirs, and mains of the said Company, at or near Darlington, which water, so to be taken and used, flows, or proceeds into the mains and pipes of the said Darlington Gas and Water Company:—To enable the said Company to construct, lay down, keep and maintain, mains, pipes, syphons, ducts, watercourses, and other apparatus and works for effecting the purposes aforesaid, in, under, or along any of the streets, lanes, ways, roads, thoroughfares, passages, railways, bridges, and other places, or any open or enclosed lands within the said several parishes, townships, hamlets, and extra-parochial or other places before mentioned, or any of them:—To enable the Company to purchase, by compulsion or otherwise, all such lands and houses, and streams of water, as may be necessary for constructing and maintaining the before-mentioned works, or any of them, and to purchase, by compulsion, vary, repeal, limit, or extinguish, all existing rights and privileges connected with such lands and houses, and with the said river Tees, or any of its tributary streams, or any other rights and privileges which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction or maintenance of the said works, or the objects of the said Bill, or any of them:—To enable the Company to levy and collect rents and charges for the supply of water within the several places so to be supplied by them, and to grant total or partial exemptions from the payment of such rents and charges, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights, privileges, and exemptions.

And notice is also hereby given, that duplicate plans describing the lines and situation of the said intended aqueducts, main-pipes, reservoirs, filters, and filtering beds, and the lands and houses to be taken for the purpose thereof; together with duplicate sections of the said aqueducts, reservoirs, filters, and filtering beds; and a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees and occupiers of the said lands and houses; and a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will, on before the thirtieth day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the clerk of the peace for the county of Durham, at his office in New-Elvet, in the city of Durham; and with the clerk of the peace for the North Riding of the county of York, at his office in Northallerton, in the said riding. And that on or before the said thirtieth day of November instant, a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to each of the parishes, or extra-parochial places, in or through which the said intended works are proposed to be made; and also a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the clerk of each such parish at his place of abode; and in case of any extra-parochial place, with the parish clerk of some parish immediately adjoining such extra-parochial place, at his dwelling-house.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is also proposed by the said Bill to enable the Company to be thereby incorporated, to purchase or take a lease of the undertaking of "The Darlington Gas and Water Company," or to sell or lease the undertaking to be established under the said Bill to the same Company, or to amalgamate the undertakings of the said Companies, and to confer upon each of the said Companies powers to raise additional capital, and all other necessary powers for carrying into effect any such sale, or purchase, or lease, or amalgamation, or incidental thereto, or any arrangement which may be entered into between the parties in relation thereto.

And notice is hereby given, that it is intended by the said Bill, in cases where it may be deemed necessary so to do—with reference to the objects and purposes of such Bill, or any of them, or otherwise—to alter, amend, repeal, enlarge, or extend the powers and provisions of all or some, or one of the several Acts of Parliament following, that is to say, "The Darlington Gas and Water Works Acts, 1849," "The Public Health Supplemental Act, 1850, No. 3," and "The Public Health Act, 1848," so far as the same are in force within the said township of Darlington, and the local and personal Acts, 2 & 3 Will. IV., cap. 22, relating to the turnpike road from Boroughbridge to Durham; the 5 & 6 Will. IV. cap. 25, relating to the turnpike road from Darlington to West Auckland, and the turnpike road from Cockerton Bridge to Staindrop; the 6 Geo. IV., cap. 13, relating to the turnpike road from Stockton to Barnard Castle; the 11 Geo. IV. and 1 Will. IV., cap. 26, relating to the turnpike road from Catterick Bridge to Durham. The 12 & 13 Vic., cap. 54, and other Acts therein recited and now in force with respect to the Stockton and Darlington Railway; the 8 & 9 Vic., cap. 127, relating to the Middlesbrough and Redcar Railway; the 8 & 9 Vic., cap. 104; 9 & 10 Vic., caps. 149, 153, and 154; 10 & 11 Vic., cap. 210; 11 & 12 Vic., caps. 56, 57, 68, and 71; and the 12 & 13 Vic., cap. 27, relating to the Leeds and Thirsk Railway; the 9 Geo. IV., cap. 61; 10 Geo. IV., cap. 106; 2 & 3 Will. IV., cap. 25; 3 & 4 Will. IV., cap. 4; 3 & 4 Will. IV., cap. 95; 7 Will. IV., and 1 Vic., cap. 103; and 6 & 7 Vic., cap. 46, relating to the Clarence Railway; the 48 Geo. III., cap. 48; the 9 Geo. IV., cap. 97, and other Acts in force relating to the Tees Navigation. The 1 Geo. IV., cap. 62, and other Acts now in force for lighting, paving, cleansing, and improving the town of Stockton-upon-Tees; the 9 & 10 Vic., cap. 216, relating to the Stockton New Gas Company; and the 4 & 5 Vic., cap. 68, relating to the paving, lighting, cleansing, and improving the town of Middlesbrough.

Newhaven Docks.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for leave to bring in a Bill to construct and maintain, at or near the eastern side of the river and town of Newhaven, between the line of the railway of the London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway Company and the river, and situate in the parish of Newhaven, in the County of Sussex, a floating dock or docks, and a basin or basins, together with all necessary and convenient bridges, piers, locks, feeders, engines, machinery, quays, walls, wharfs, landing-places, embankments, fences, buildings, depôts, gates, warehouses, viaducts, sluices, archways, approach-roads, and other works and conveniences connected therewith.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is also intended by such Bill to take powers to make lateral deviations from the line of the proposed works, to the extent, or within the limits defined upon the plans hereinafter mentioned; and also to cross, alter, divert, or stop up, whether temporarily or permanently, all turnpike roads, parish roads, and other highways, streets, rivers, brooks, streams of water, sewers, ditches, navigations, canals, railways, tramroads, or tramways, within the aforesaid parish, which it may be necessary to cross, alter, divert, or stop up, in the making, constructing, or maintaining of the works herein referred to.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended to take powers for deepening the bed of the river at Newhaven, and for supplying with water therefrom the dock or docks, and other works proposed to be constructed as aforesaid.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended by such Bill to incorporate a Company or Companies to carry into effect the purposes aforesaid, and also to take powers for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses, and to vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges in any manner connected with the lands and houses proposed to be taken for the purposes aforesaid; and also to levy tolls, rates, and duties, upon or in respect of all ships and vessels using or frequenting the said dock or docks, basin or basins, and works; and on all passengers, animals, goods, wares, minerals, merchandize, and other articles and things landed thereat, or embarked therefrom, or using the said wharfs, warehouses, and other conveniences; and also to alter existing tolls, rates, or duties, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and other rights and privileges.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said dock or docks, basin or basins, and other works, together with a book of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners, or reputed owners and lessees, or reputed lessees and occupiers of the houses, lands, tenements, hereditaments, and premises required for the purposes of the said works, will be deposited on or before the 30th day of November 1850, with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Sussex, at his office in Lewes, in the said County of Sussex, and that a copy of the said plans, sections, and book of reference, will also be deposited on or before the said 30th day of November 1850, with the parish clerk of the said parish of Newhaven, at the residence of the said parish clerk.

Dated this 26th day of November 1850.

Turnpike Road from Scole Bridge to Bury Saint Edmunds, in the County of Suffolk.

(Continuance of Act, and construction of New Roads.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session thereof, for leave to bring in a Bill to continue an Act passed in the ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for repairing the Road from Scole Bridge to Bury Saint Edmunds, in the county of Suffolk," and to alter, amend, and enlarge the provisions of the said Act, and the powers therein contained, or to repeal the said Act, and to re-enact the provisions and powers therein contained, with alterations and more effectual and extended powers.

And it is intended to apply for power by such Bill to make and maintain a branch turnpike road from the south side of the said road mentioned in the said Act, to commence at or near to a place opposite to the public house called or known by the name of the Crown Inn, in Botesdale, a hamlet of Redgrave, in the said county of Suffolk, and ending at or near the place where the road over Mellis Green crosses the Eastern Union Railway, near to and on the north-east side of the Mellis Station of the said railway, and such road is intended to be made in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, hamlets, districts, or places, called Botesdale, a hamlet of Redgrave, Burgate, and Mellis, all in the county of Suffolk, some, or one of them; and also another turnpike road in continuance of the said intended branch road, commencing at the last-mentioned terminus of such branch road, and ending at and leading into the Claydon, Blackenham, Brockford, and Stowmarket turnpike road, in the said county of Suffolk, near to the public house called the Bull, situate in such last-mentioned road, in the parish of Yaxley, in the said county of Suffolk, and such last-mentioned intended road is intended to be made, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, districts, or places, called Mellis, Little Thornham, Great Thornham, and Yaxley, all in the said county of Suffolk, some, or one of them.

And it is intended to extend the powers and provisions for demanding and taking tolls, and the other powers and provisions of the said Act, and the said alterations, amendments, and enlargements of such powers and provisions, or such new enactments as aforesaid, to the said intended roads respectively; but so that there shall not be any power to erect or set up any turnpike, toll gate, side gate, bar, or chain, in, upon, or across any part or parts of the said intended roads, or upon the side or sides thereof respectively, within one statute mile of the said railway, such mile to be measured along the respective lines of the said intended roads from the respective ends thereof, next to the said railway.

And it is intended to apply for the powers usually conferred by Act of Parliament for the compulsory purchase of the lands and hereditaments which will be described or referred to upon the plans and book of reference hereinafter mentioned, and for raising money for the purposes aforesaid on the tolls authorized to be demanded and taken by the said Act, and to be authorized by the said proposed Bill.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections, describing the line and levels of the intended roads and works, and the lands, houses, and hereditaments, in or through which they are respectively intended to be made, and which may be required for the same, and defining the limits of deviation for power to make which application will be made, with a book reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of all lands, houses, and hereditaments in the line of the proposed works, and within the limits of deviation as defined upon the plans, together with a copy of the notice published in the Gazette of the intended application to Parliament, will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection at the office of the clerk of the peace for the said county of Suffolk, at Bury Saint Edmunds in the said county, and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to each of the parishes from, in, through, or into which the said intended roads respectively are intended to be made, together with a copy of the said notice published in the Gazette, will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish at his residence.

And notice is hereby further given, that provisions will be applied for by the said Bill to stop and discontinue as public roads or paths, the following roads or paths, some or one of them; that is to say: first, a footpath or way commencing at the end of an occupation way leading from and out of the road from Botesdale Lodge to Gislingham, both in the said county of Suffolk, at a point near to the windmill of Samuel Robinson there, and crossing over the lane called the Wash Lane, being the boundary between the parishes of Botesdale, a hamlet of Redgrave and Burgate aforesaid, and leading into and terminating at or near the Little Green, in the said parish of Burgate. Second, a bridle way leading from and out of the east end of the way called the Furze Way, in the parish of Burgate aforesaid, in a southern direction into and upon Mellis Green, near the farm in the occupation of Mr. Benjamin Jermain, adjoining the said last-mentioned Green. Third, a road or lane in the parish of Great Thornham, in the said county of Suffolk, leading from and out of the aforesaid Claydon, Blakenham, Brockford, and Stowmarket turnpike road, in the said county of Suffolk, nearly opposite to the house in the occupation of Thomas Mulliner, and towards the south thereof, to and into the road from Great Thornham aforesaid, to Little Thornham, in the said county of Suffolk. Fourth, a road or lane leading from off the last-mentioned turnpike road, near the Bull Inn, in Yaxley aforesaid, and terminating at the south-west corner of the stackyard of the Grange Farm, in the occupation of Richard Annis, in Little Thornham aforesaid, and also leading into the road from Little Thornham aforesaid to Mellis aforesaid. Fifth, a lane called the Hough Lane, in Little Thornham aforesaid, leading off the road from Great Thornham aforesaid to Mellis aforesaid, at a point near the lane called the Church Lane, in Little Thornham aforesaid, to and into an occupation way or lane called the Chapel Farm Lane, in Little Thornham aforesaid. Sixth, the last-named occupation-way or lane called the Chapel Farm Lane, commencing at the south-east end of a lane called the Cow Pasture Lane, running past the before-mentioned Hough Lane, and terminating at the boundary of the said parish of Great Thornham aforesaid. And seventh, the said lane called the Cow Pasture Lane, commencing at the north-west end of the said lane called the Chapel Farm Lane, and leading over and across the Eastern Union Railway to Mellis Green aforesaid (except and reserving unto the owners and occupiers for the time being of the lands and hereditaments adjoining or near to the aforesaid level crossing over the said railway, or any other persons having a right to use the said crossing, such rights and privileges with regard thereto as they have heretofore enjoyed). And for the better describing the said roads and paths intended to be so stopped and discontinued, the same will be delineated and shown on the said plans to be deposited as aforesaid, or such parts thereof as relate to the parishes respectively in which the same are situate.

River Lee Trust.

Amendment of Acts; Extension of Powers; Enlargement of existing Works; and Construction of new Works.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing Session, for leave to bring in a Bill to enable "the Trustees of the River Lee" to effect all or any of the objects hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, to make, maintain, vary, extend, or enlarge the following works, viz:—First,—A reservoir on the River Lee, commencing near Hatfield Park, at or near Cecil Mill, in the parish of Bishop's Hatfield, and terminating by an embankment to be constructed across the Valley of the Lee, near Roxford Farm House, in the parish of Hertingfordbury; and which reservoir and embankment will be situate in the parishes, townships, or extra-parochial places of Bishop's Hatfield, Essendon, Little Berkhamstead, Bayford, Hertingfordbury, and Brickendon, some or one of them.

Second,—A reservoir adjoining the River Lee, commencing and terminating at or near Ware Mill Lock, in the parishes, townships, or extra-parochial places of Saint John's Hertford, Ware, Little Amwell, and Great Amwell, some or one of them. Third,—A reservoir on the River Rib, commencing near Stondon Lordship House, otherwise Standon Lordship House, in the parish of Stondon, otherwise Standon, and terminating by an embankment to be constructed across the Valley of the Rib, at or near Swaugles, in the parish of Thundridge, which embankment and reservoir will be situate in the parishes, townships, or extra-parochial places of Stondon, otherwise Standon, Thundridge, Ware, and Ware-side, some or one of them. Fourth,—A reservoir on the River Ash, commencing at or near Widford Mill, in the parishes of Widford and Ware, or one of them, and terminating by an embankment across the Valley of the Ash, at or near Easney Park Wood, in the parishes, townships, or extra-parochial places of Widford, Ware-side, Ware, and Stanstead Abbott's, some or one of them. Fifth,—A tunnel, pipe-track, aqueduct, cut, or channel of communication, from the first-named reservoir near Roxford Farm House to the secondly above-named reservoir near the Ware Mill Lock; and which said tunnel, pipe-track, aqueduct, cut, or channel of communication, will pass in, through, or into the parishes, townships, or extra-parochial places of Bayford, Hertingfordbury, Brickendon, Saint Andrew's Hertford, All Saint's Hertford, Saint John's Hertford, Ware, Little Amwell, and Great Amwell, some or one of them. Sixth,—A tunnel and conduit, cut, or channel of communication, from the thirdly above-named reservoir, commencing at or near Timber Hall, in the parish of Thundridge, and terminating at the fourthly above-named reservoir, near Hole Farm, in the parish of Ware; and which last-mentioned tunnel, conduit, cut, or channel of communication, will pass in, through, or into the parishes, townships, or extra-parochial places of Thundridge and Ware, or one of them. Seventh,—A tunnel, pipe-track, aqueduct, cut, or channel of communication, from the fourthly above-named reservoir, at or near Easney Park Wood, to extend across the Valley of the River Lee, and terminating in the bed of the New River near the village of Amwell; and which said last mentioned tunnel, pipe-track, aqueduct, cut, or channel of communication, will pass in, through, or into the parishes, townships, or extra-parochial places of Ware, Stanstead Abbott's, Great Amwell, and Saint Margaret's, some or one of them; together with all the necessary cuts, sluices, pipe-tracks, channels of communication, aqueducts, embankments, tunnels, and other works for connecting the said reservoirs, tunnels, cuts, channels, and aqueducts with the River Lee and New River, both or either of them; all which said reservoirs, cuts, pipe-tracks, channels, aqueducts, embankments, tunnels, and works will be made and maintained, and pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, or extra-parochial places of Bishop's Hatfield, Essendon, Little Berkhamstead, Bayford, Hertingfordbury, Brickendon, Saint Andrew's Hertford, All Saint's Hertford, Saint John's Hertford, Little Amwell, Stondon otherwise Standon, Thundridge, Ware, Widford, Ware-side, Stanstead Abbott's, Saint Margaret's, Little Amwell, and Great Amwell, some or one of them. Also to make and maintain all proper and necessary balance-engines, gauges, tumbling-bays, and other devices and works, on and near the New River and River Lee, at and below Feilde's Weir, for correctly ascertaining the flow of water, and to remove all existing balance-engines, gauges, tumbling-bays, and other devices and works.

And it is also intended by the said Bill to take powers to alter and improve certain parts of the course of the New River, and for that purpose to make and maintain the several works hereinafter mentioned, in the lines, and according to the levels, defined upon the plans and sections hereinafter referred to, that is to say:—The first of such works, consisting of cuts or channels of communication, pipe-tracks, and widenings of the said New River, and commencing at a point about 214 yards above the bridge over the New River (numbered 4), in the parish of Saint John Hertford, and terminating at the bridge over the New River, in Theobald's Lane, in the parish of Cheshunt. The second of such works, consisting of cuts or channels of communication, pipe-tracks, tunnels, and widenings of the said New River, and commencing at a point about 290 yards above the foot-bridge over the New River, in Theobald's Park (numbered 51 a.), in the parish of Cheshunt, and terminating at the north-east end of the reservoirs of the Governor and Company of the New River brought from Chadwell and Amwell to London, in the parish of Stoke Newington, otherwise Newnton; with a branch pipe-track, conduit, or channel of communication, commencing at a point about 213 yards above the bridge over the said New River (numbered 82), and terminating at a point about 100 yards below the bridge over the said New River (numbered 105), in the parish of Edmonton; and also with a branch pipe-track, cut, conduit, or channel of communication, commencing at a point about 30 yards above the bridge in the Seven Sisters' Road, over the New River, and terminating at the eastern end of the Stoke Newington Reservoirs of the said Governor and Company, in the parish of Stoke Newington, otherwise Newnton. The third of such works, consisting of cuts or channels of communication, pipe-tracks, and widenings of the river, and commencing at the south-west end of the reservoirs of the said Governor and Company, in the parish of Stoke Newington, otherwise Newnton, and terminating at the aqueduct of the said river, over the East and West India Dock and Birmingham Junction Railway, in the parish of Saint Mary Islington. Fourth,—A reservoir on the New River, commencing at or near Clay Hill Farm House, in the parish of Tottenham, and terminating near to the bridge over the said New River, in White Hart Lane, in the said parish of Tottenham. Fifth,—A reservoir on the New River, commencing at the bridge in the Green Lane, on the said river, near to the Stoke Newington Reservoirs of the said Governor and Company, and terminating at or near to the Eel Pie House Tavern, Highbury Vale, in the parish of Hornsey. All which works will be made in, or pass through, from, or into the parishes, townships, or extra-parochial places following, or some of them (that is to say), Saint John's Hertford, Little Amwell, Great Amwell, Saint Margaret's, Hoddesdon, Broxbourne, Wormley, Cheshunt, Enfield, Edmonton, Tottenham, Hornsey, Stoke Newington, otherwise Newnton, and Saint Mary's Islington. And also to make and maintain all necessary tunnels, pipe-tracks, sluices, embankments, aqueducts, cuts, or channels of communication, for the convenient use and maintenance of such several works, and to remove all such existing works as may interfere therewith. And also for the purpose of improving the drainage, to alter and shorten the course of a certain common sewer on Chase Side, in the parish of Enfield, in the manner and direction shown upon the plans hereinafter referred to, such alteration being intended to commence at a point in the highway from Chase Side to Enfield Church, near the bridge over the New River, marked (number 69), and to terminate by a junction with the common sewer in Enfield Street, where such sewer crosses the highway aforesaid. The whole of such alteration being in the said parish of Enfield.

And it is also intended to apply for powers more effectually to prevent the contamination of the River Lee and New River, or either of them, or any stream, reservoir, aqueduct, or other works connected therewith respectively.

Also to form a roadway, with all necessary bridges, approaches, and works, from the bridge across the navigable Cut of the River Lee near the Hertford Gas Works, to the public road leading from Bengoe to Ware Park, and which roadway will pass through or into the parishes, townships, or extra-parochial places of Saint John's Hertford and Bengoe, or one of them.

Also to vary, divert, or stop up, and relinquish the Ordnance Corn Mill Stream, otherwise Waltham Abbey Mill Stream, and the tail and waste channels leading therefrom, by constructing an embankment across the said Corn Mill Stream, at or near the point where it diverges from the Old River Lee at Edmondsey Meads in the parish of Waltham Holy Cross; also to vary, divert, or stop up and relinquish that branch from the river Lee forming Sewardstone Mill Head, and the tail waters and waste channels leading therefrom (which last-mentioned branch diverges from the main channel of the river Lee, at or near the sluice at Enfield Lock, in the parish of Enfield); and that branch from the river Lee, and tail waters and waste channels leading therefrom, forming Chingford Mill Head and Tail (part of which said branch diverges from the River Lee, at or near Ponder's End Lock), and also forming that branch of the River Lee called Walthamstow Copper Mill Head and Tail and the waste channels leading therefrom; all which streams now terminate in the River Lee at the Copper Mill Stream near High Bridge, in the parish of Walthamstow, and run from, in, through, or into the parishes, townships, or extra-parochial places of Cheshunt, Waltham, Waltham Holy Cross, Sewardstone, Enfield, Edmonton, Chingford, Walthamstow and Tottenham, or some or one of them; and also to form a tumbling bay and cut from the River Lee immediately above the Stone Bridge Lock, to a point in the same river immediately below such lock. And to make and maintain all such embankments, sluices, and other works, as may be necessary for varying, diverting, or stopping up the said streams, channels, and tumbling bay. And also to construct all such new works as may be necessary for the convenient use and maintenance of such new reservoirs, cuts, aqueducts and tunnels, and such diverted or improved streams, channels, tumbling bays and other works, and to remove all such existing works as may interfere therewith. And also to abandon and discontinue using, as the channels of such streams and branches, any portions of the existing courses or lines of the River Lee, which may be rendered unnecessary by reason of the execution of the proposed new reservoirs, cuts, channels and works; and generally to take powers to construct all such new works, and remove all such existing works, or other obstructions, as may be necessary for effecting the objects of the proposed Bill. And it is also intended by the said Bill, to take powers to divert into, or cause to flow, or proceed through or into the proposed works, the waters which flow in or supply the streams, cuts, canals, reservoirs, aqueducts, or navigations hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, the River Lee and the several streams, cuts, canals, reservoirs, aqueducts and navigations connected therewith, viz. the Hertford Cut, Parker's Cut, Hadsley's Cut, Stanstead Cut, the cut next below Stanstead Bridge, Feilde's Weir Cut, Dobb's Weir Cut, Hoddesdon or Lin's Mill Tail, Broxbourne Mill Head and Tail, Carthagea Cut, Waltham Cut, Cheshunt Mill Stream, Powder Mill Stream, Waltham Abbey Mill Stream, Waltham Common Cut, Enfield Cut, Enfield Mill Stream, Edmonton Cut, Chingford Mill Stream, Tottenham Mill Stream, and Tottenham New Cut, Walthamstow Mill Stream, the Hackney Cut, Temple Mill Stream, Abbey Mill Stream, West Ham Waterworks Stream, City Mill Stream, Stratford Mill Streams, Pudding Mill Stream, otherwise Hunter's Mill Stream, the Three Mill Stream, the Bow Creek, and the Limehouse Cut; the River Mimram, and the several streams, cuts, canals, reservoirs and aqueducts connected therewith; the River Beane, and the several streams, cuts, canals, reservoirs and aqueducts connected therewith; the River Rib, and the several streams, cuts, canals, reservoirs and aqueducts connected therewith; the New River, and the several streams, cuts, canals, reservoirs and aqueducts connected therewith; the River Ash, and the several streams, cuts, canals, reservoirs and aqueducts connected therewith; the East London Waterworks Company's cuts, canals, reservoirs and aqueducts; Sir George Duckett's Canal, otherwise the Lee Union Canal, and the streams, cuts, canals, reservoirs, aqueducts and navigations connected therewith; the Regent's Canal, and the several streams, cuts, canals, reservoirs, aqueducts and navigations connected therewith; and the River Thames.

And it is also intended by the said Bill, to take powers to make and maintain a sewer or drain, or sewers or drains, and culverts, sluices, and other works connected therewith, for intercepting and diverting the sewage of all sewers and drains from emptying into the Rivers Lee, Beane, Mimram, Rib, Ash, and Stort, or any of them; which sewer or drain, or sewers or drains, will commence on the north side of Cowbridge, in the parish of Saint Andrew Hertford, and will be made and maintained, or will pass from, in, through, or into the parishes, townships, or extra-parochial places following, or some of them (that is to say), Saint Andrew's Hertford, All Saint's Hertford, Saint John's Hertford, Little Amwell, Ware, and Great Amwell, some, or one of them, and will terminate at or near Amwell Marsh Bridge, in the parish of Great Amwell. And also to take power to prohibit and prevent any drain or sewer from flowing into the River Beane below Sele Mill in the parish of Saint Andrew Hertford, or into the River Lee between the Horns Mill, in the Liberty of Brickendon, and Amwell Marsh Lock, or into any part of the New River.

All which parishes, townships, or extra-parochial places hereinbefore mentioned, are situate within the counties of Hertford, Essex, or Middlesex, some or one of them.

And it is also intended by the said Bill to take powers to make lateral deviations from the lines of the said intended works, to the extent, and within the limits, defined on the plans to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, and to purchase, lease, and otherwise acquire compulsorily or by agreement, lands, houses, mills, and other hereditaments corporeal or incorporeal; and to stop up, alter, or divert roads, railways, rivers, canals, cuts, aqueducts, tunnels, drains, sewers, reservoirs, and streams, for the purposes of the said Bill, and to extinguish any existing rights and privileges which may interfere therewith; to provide compensation to the owners and tenants of mills, in such manner as may be deemed expedient; and also, to take power to raise money for carrying out the objects and provisions of the said Bill; to levy tolls, rates, duties and water rents, for or in respect of, the several purposes of the said Bill; to alter existing tolls, rates, duties, and water rents; and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from tolls, rates, duties and water rents; and also to authorise the Trustees to appoint committees of their number, with such powers as may be deemed expedient; and to confer, vary, or extinguish all such powers, rights and privileges, as may be necessary for carrying into execution the purposes and provisions of the existing Acts hereinafter mentioned, and of the said Bill.

And notice is also hereby given, that duplicate plans and sections, describing the lines or situations and levels, of the several intended works before mentioned, and the lands in or through which the same are to be made, maintained, varied, extended, or enlarged, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of all lands and houses in the line of the proposed works, or within the limits of deviation as defined upon the said plans, and describing such lands and houses respectively, with a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the thirtieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, be deposited at each of the following places, (that is to say), with the clerk of the peace for the county of Hertford, at his office at St. Alban's; with the clerk of the peace for the county of Essex, at his office at Chelmsford; and with the clerk of the peace for the county of Middlesex, at his office in Clerkenwell Sessions House; and a copy of so much of the plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to each of the several parishes before mentioned, with a copy of this notice, will, on or before the said thirtieth day of November, be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his place of abode, or in the case of any extra-parochial place, with the parish clerk of some parish immediately adjoining thereto, at his place of abode.

And notice is further given, that it is intended by the said Bill, to alter or amend, or in whole or in part to repeal, the following Acts; and any Acts therein mentioned or referred to, (that is to say)—13th Elizabeth, chapter 18; 3rd James I, chapter 18; 4th James I, chapter 12; 11th George II, chapter 14; 12th George II, chapter 32; 7th George III, chapter 51; 19th George III, chapter 58; and the local and personal Acts—45th George III, chapter 69; 47th George III, chapter 72; 48th George III, chapter 8; 3rd George IV, chapter 109; 10th George IV, chapter 117; and 13th and 14th Victoria, chapter 109.

Dated this eleventh day of November, 1850.

Clerk to the Trustees, Ware.

Durham Markets.

(Establishment of a New Butchers' Market and other New Markets; Abolition of Corn and other Tolls; and other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for leave to bring in a Bill to authorise the establishment, maintenance, and regulation of a new butchers' market, and also other markets in or near the city of Durham, and also the erection within the said city, or the suburbs thereof, of a market-house and market-place, or market-houses and market-places, for the sale of butchers' meat, poultry, fish, butter, cheese, vegetables, fruit, corn and hay, and other provisions, with all proper approaches thereto and conveniences connected therewith, and also the removal or improvement of the existing markets and fairs, and the making of bye-laws and other provisions for the good government and regulation of the intended and existing markets and fairs and market-houses and market-places within the said city and suburbs thereof; and of the persons frequenting or using the same.

And notice is also hereby given, that in the said Bill provisions will be inserted to authorise the purchase and abolition, or the abolition and extinguishment of the tolls now payable to the Bishop of Durham, or any other person or corporation, his or their grantees or lessees, or to the Mayor, or to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the city of Durham and Framwellgate, his or their trustees or successors, in respect of corn and grain brought into the said city or the suburbs thereof, to be sold or delivered on sale.

And notice is also hereby given, that in the said Bill so to be applied for, powers or provisions will be inserted for all or some of the following purposes; that is to say: to make regulations as to the placing and removing of carts, stalls, standings, and other causes of obstruction, in the streets and public passages or roads within the said city and suburbs, caused by the exposure of goods, wares, and merchandize, butchers' meat, poultry, fish, butter, cheese, vegetables, fruit, and other provisions offered for sale within the said city and suburbs. To authorise the purchase of lands and houses by compulsion or agreement for all or any of the purposes mentioned in this notice. To authorise the levying and receiving of tolls, rates, and duties, for the use of the said intended, and of the existing or improved markets, and of the conveniences connected therewith respectively, and for standage or stallage in all or any of such markets and market-places respectively, or in or on the approaches thereto, and also to increase, alter, or decrease, all or any of the tolls, rates, or duties now payable or demandable at any of the markets and market-places, and fairs, held within the said city or the suburbs thereof, and to levy new tolls, rates, and duties in respect thereof. To confer certain exemptions from all or any of the several before-mentioned tolls, rates, or duties; and to extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, or duties, and other rights, privileges, and exemptions. To prevent the hawking and vending of goods, wares, and merchandize, butchers' meat, poultry, fish, butter, cheese, vegetables, fruit, and other provisions, in the streets, public passages or roads, within the said city and suburbs, or other places than the market-houses and market-places within the said city or suburbs.

And notice is also hereby given, that in the said Bill powers will be inserted enabling the Bishop of Durham, and all other persons and corporations, and the Trustees of Henry Smith's Charities, and all other trustees and other persons entitled to, or interested in, any Church property, or property, tolls, rights, or interests, held in trust for church, charitable, or public purposes, to lease, or sell, release, and convey the same or their interests therein, for all or any of the purposes mentioned in this notice, or to be authorized by the said Bill.

And notice is also hereby given, that it is intended by the said Bill to take powers to stop up, alter, or divert, whether temporarily or permanently, all streets and thoroughfares which may interfere with the construction of, or impede the use of, any of the said markets or market places.

And notice is also hereby given, that it is intended by the said Bill to empower either the Mayor, Aldermen, and citizens of the said city, by the Council of the said city, or any Company, to be thereby incorporated, to carry all the powers and provisions of the said Bill into execution; and in case the same powers and provisions are carried into execution by the Council of the said city, to authorise the said Council to raise money for the purposes thereof, wholly or in part upon the security of the existing tolls, rates, rents and duties, and of the tolls, rates, rents, and duties to be imposed, altered, or regulated under the said Bill or some of them, and to authorise the said Council to use for the purposes of such markets or fairs, market-houses and market-places, or any of them, any lands or houses belonging to or held by the said Mayor, Aldermen, and citizens; and it is also intended, in case the powers and provisions of the said Bill are carried into execution by any Company to be thereby incorporated, to take powers by the said Bill for such Company to raise money for the purposes of the said Bill by the creation of shares or by mortgage, bond, and otherwise, or by all or any of those means.

And notice is also hereby given, that it is intended to incorporate in the said Bill all or some of the powers of "The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847," "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," and "The Market and Fairs Clauses Act, 1847," and also to insert all such other powers as may be deemed necessary for fully carrying into effect the several purposes mentioned in this notice; also to vary or extinguish all existing rights, privileges, and exemptions, which would in any way impede or interfere with any of the objects mentioned in this notice, or to be authorised by the said Bill, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights, privileges, or exemptions.

And notice is also hereby given, that it is intended by the said Bill, in all cases where it may be deemed necessary so to do with reference to all or any of the objects and purposes mentioned in this notice, or to be provided for in, or authorized by, the said Bill, to alter, amend, and extend or repeal wholly or in part some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts of Parliament and Charters following relating to the said city and the suburbs thereof, or lands in or near the same; that is to say: the Private Acts, 41 George 3, cap. 12, and 3 George 4, cap. 26; the Local and Personal Acts 30 George 3, cap. 67, and 3 George 4, cap. 26; the Public General Act 5 and 6 William 4, cap. 76; the Charter granted to the said city by Bishop Pudsey, and confirmed by Pope Alexander the Third, the Charter granted to the said city by Bishop Pilkington, in the year one thousand five hundred and sixty-five; the Charter granted to the said city by Bishop Matthews, in the year one thousand six hundred and two; and the Charter granted to the said city on the second day of October, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, by John Egerton, Bishop of Durham; and any other Act of Parliament or Charter relating to the said city or the suburbs thereof.

Dated this fourteenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

John Tiplady, Solicitor, Durham.

Ouseburn Bridge and Approaches, in Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament, in the next session, for an Act to authorize the building and maintaining of a bridge over the rivulet called Ouseburn, in the borough and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, with suitable works and conveniences, which bridge will extend from the mill race of the flint mill of Messrs. Thompson and Harrison, on the west, to ground adjoining and lying on the east side of a cottage belonging to Mr. Thomas Crawford, on the east, with proper and convenient roads, avenues, and approaches to the said bridge, one of the said roads, avenues, or approaches, extending from the west end of the said intended bridge to and terminating at the street or public highway at Red Barns, at or near to the point where the lane called Union Mill Lane joins the said street or highway, and the other of the said roads, avenues, or approaches extending from the east end of the said intended bridge, to and terminating at the public highway which was formerly part of the Newcastle and North Shields turnpike road, at the point where a street or place called Lawson-street joins the last-mentioned highway.

And it is intended by the said Act to obtain powers to purchase, take down, and remove the bridge called Pandon Dean Bridge, in the said borough and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and to use and employ the materials of the said bridge in constructing the proposed bridge over the Ouseburn. And also powers to form an embankment or mound of earth, or of other material, in substitution for the said bridge called Pandon Dean Bridge, and to construct such culverts, sewers, drains, watercourses, and works, as may be requisite or convenient for the purposes of the intended Act. The said bridge, roads, avenues, approaches, and works will pass through or into, or be made within the townships of Byker and All Saints, in the parochial chapelry of All Saints, and the township or parochial chapelry of Saint Andrew, all in the parish of Saint Nicholas, in the borough and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

And it is also intended to take powers to cross, divert, or alter all such streets, highways, and roads within the townships aforesaid, or any or either of them, as may be necessary or convenient to cross, divert, or alter, for the purposes of the said works; and to stop up entirely such streets, highways, and roads as may be rendered useless by the works to be authorized by the said intended Act; and powers to purchase, by compulsion or otherwise, lands, houses, and buildings, for the purposes aforesaid; and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges in any manner connected with such lands, houses, and buildings, and all other rights and privileges which would, in any manner impede or interfere with the construction and maintenance of the said bridge, roads, avenues, approaches, and works, or any of them. Also powers to levy and receive tolls, rates, and duties, for passage along the said bridge, roads, and approaches.

It is also intended by the said Act to incorporate a Company to carry into execution the proposed bridge, roads, avenues, approaches, and works.

And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate maps, or plans and sections describing the lines or situations and levels of the said intended bridge, roads, avenues, approaches, and works, and the lands to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands respectively, with a copy of the Gazette notice will be deposited for public inspection on or before the 30th day of November instant, with the clerk of the peace for the borough and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, at his office, in the Guildhall, in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, as relates to each parish in or through which the said bridge, roads, and works will be made or pass, with a copy of the Gazette notice, will be deposited on or before the 30th day of November instant, with the respective parish clerks of the said parishes respectively, at their respective residences.

Dated the thirteenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

Price's Patent Candle Company.

(Conferring further powers on the Company, transferring Letters Patent, and Amendment of Act.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act for authorizing the transfer to Price's Patent Candle Company of the several Letters Patent hereinafter mentioned, and the privileges thereby respectively granted for the terms for which the said Letters Patent are subsisting, or any shares or interests in such Letters Patent respectively; that is to say: Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, bearing date at Westminster on or about the twenty-fifth day of January, in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, granting unto George Fergusson Wilson and his executors, administrators, and assigns, the exclusive right and privilege of making, using, exercising, and vending his invention of "Improvements in treating and manufacturing certain fatty or oily matters, and in the manufacture of Candles and Night Lights," in England and Wales, Berwick-upon-Tweed, and in Her said Majesty's Colonies and Channel Islands, during the term of fourteen years from the date of the said Letters Patent. Also certain other Letters Patent under the said Great Seal, bearing date at Westminster on or about the twenty-eighth day of February, in the twelfth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, granting unto the said George Fergusson Wilson, and his executors, administrators, and assigns, the exclusive right and privilege of making, using, exercising, and vending his invention of "Improvements in separating the more liquid parts from the more solid parts of fatty and oily matters, and in separating fatty and oily matters from foreign matters," in England, Wales, and Berwick-upon-Tweed, and in Her said Majesty's Colonies and Channel Islands, during the term of fourteen years from the date of the same Letters Patent. Also certain other Letters Patent under the said Great Seal, bearing date at Westminster on or about the fourteenth day of March, in the twelfth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, granting unto the said George Fergusson Wilson, and his executors, administrators, and assigns, the exclusive right and privilege of making, using, exercising, and vending his invention of "Improvements in the manufacture of Candles and Night Lights," in England, Wales, and Berwick-upon-Tweed, and in Her said Majesty's Colonies and Channel Islands, during the term of fourteen years from the date of the same Letters Patent. Also certain Letters Patent under the Seal ordained by the Treaty of the Union to be used in Scotland instead of the Great Seal thereof, sealed at Edinburgh on or about the third day of February, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, granting unto the said George Fergusson Wilson, and his executors, administrators, and assigns, the exclusive right and privilege of making, using, exercising, and vending his invention of "Improvements in treating and manufacturing certain fatty or oily matters, and in the manufacture of Candles and Night Lights," within Scotland aforesaid, during the term of fourteen years from the date of the same Letters Patent. Also certain other Letters Patent under the said last-mentioned seal, and sealed at Edinburgh on or about the thirteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, granting unto the said George Fergusson Wilson, and his executors, administrators, and assigns, the exclusive right and privilege of making, using, exercising, and vending his invention of "Improvements in separating the more liquid parts from the more solid parts of fatty and oily matters, and in separating fatty and oily matters from foreign matters, and in the manufacture of Candles and Night Lights," within Scotland aforesaid, during the term of fourteen years from the date of the same Letters Patent. Also certain Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Ireland, bearing date at Dublin on or about the eleventh day of May, in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, granting unto the said George Fergusson Wilson, and his executors, administrators, and assigns, the exclusive right and privilege of making, using, exercising, and vending his invention of "Improvements in treating and manufacturing certain fatty or oily matters, and in the manufacture of Candles and Night Lights," within Ireland aforesaid, during the term of fourteen years from the date of the same Letters Patent. Also certain other Letters Patent under the said last-mentioned seal, bearing date at Dublin on or about the twelfth day of September, in the thirteenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, granting unto the said George Fergusson Wilson, and his executors, administrators, and assigns, the exclusive right and privilege of making, using, exercising, and vending his invention of "Improvements in separating the more liquid parts from the more solid parts of fatty and oily matters, and in separating fatty and oily matters from foreign matters, and in the manufacture of Candles and Night Lights," within Ireland aforesaid, during the term of fourteen years from the date of the same Letters Patent. And also any other Letters Patent already or hereafter to be granted, conferring any exclusive privilege of making, using, exercising, or vending any invention, or inventions, wholly, or in part, applicable to the undertaking of the Company, or any branch thereof. And also for enabling and authorizing the said Company to make use, exercise, practise, and vend the inventions in the said several Letters Patent mentioned, and for conferring other powers on the Company, and for amending "Price's Patent Candle Company's Act, 1848."

Dated this twenty-second day of November one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

The Patent Marble Company.

(Purchase and use of Patents, Incorporation of Company, and other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for leave to bring in a Bill to authorize the purchase, hiring, or leasing by a Company or partnership called or intended to be called "The Patent Marble Company," of the following letters patent and the privileges thereby respectively granted and incident thereto, that is to say: letters patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, bearing date at Westminster, the 26th day of April, 1849, granting unto Charles Iles, of Bordesley Works, Birmingham, machinist, his executors, administrators, and assigns, the sole use of his invention "for Improvement in manufacturing Picture Frames, Inkstands, and other Articles in dies or moulds, also in producing Ornamental Surfaces" in England and Wales, and the town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, and also any other letters patent at any time heretofore or hereafter to be made, granting any right or privilege of working, using, exercising, or vending of the said invention, or of any invention, all or any part of which shall be any manner of improvement in, or upon, or addition to, or shall in any way relate to, or be founded on the inventions mentioned in the before-mentioned letters patent or any of them, or any part of such inventions respectively, and the privileges thereby granted or any part thereof, and the rights, profits, and advantages granted or to be granted in or by such existing or future letters patent, or any part thereof, and to enable the patentees or grantees named in such letters patent, their executors, administrators, and assigns, and every person in whom such letters patent, or any or either of them, or the privileges thereby granted or any part thereof, now are, or is, or shall at any time hereafter be vested, to sell, transfer, assign, and dispose of, or otherwise assure and to grant licenses to work the same, and all their part, share, right, title, and interest of, in, or to the same letters patent, or any or either of them, or the said privileges, rights, profits, and advantages comprised, given, granted, or conferred as aforesaid, unto or in trust for the said Company, and to enable or permit the Company to which such letters patent shall be transferred, to make, use, and exercise the inventions, rights, and privileges granted by such letters patent, and also to grant licenses to any party or parties to use or exercise such inventions as aforesaid, or any of them.

And it is also intended by the said Bill to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which the patentees or grantees named in such letters patent, their executors, administrators, and assigns, or any other person or persons now hath, or have, or may hereafter have, in, under, or in reference to the said letters patent or any of them, and to confer the same or similar rights and privileges upon the said Company, and also to confer, vary, and extinguish other rights and privileges, and exemptions, interfering with or necessary for the purpose of the said Company.

And it is also intended to insert in the said Bill clauses and provisions for incorporating the said Company, and for granting to the said Company power to purchase by agreement, and to hold lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and to sue and be sued in the name or names of the said Company, or one or more of the directors or officers thereof, and for the general constitution and regulation of the said Company. And also such powers and provisions as are usually inserted in Bills of a similar nature, and such other powers and provisions as may be deemed necessary or expedient.

Dated this twenty-sixth day of November, 1850.

Charing Cross Bridge.

(Powers to raise Additional Capital by creation of Preference Shares or Stock, to confer Preferences on other Shares or Stock. Amendment of Acts and other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to repeal, alter, amend, extend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of all, or some, or one of the several local and personal Acts 6 & 7 Will. 4, cap. 133—6 Vic., cap. 19—8 & 9 Vic., cap. 62, and 12 & 13 Vic., cap. 51, relating to The Charing Cross Bridge, and to repeal some of the powers and provisions of the said Acts or any of them, and to enable the Charing Cross Bridge Company to raise a further sum of money for the general purposes of the Company by the creation of new shares or stock, and to guarantee interest or dividend on such new shares or stock, and on any new shares or stock which may be created by the Company, in lieu of borrowing money on mortgage or bond, or for the purpose of paying off any money borrowed or to be borrowed by the Company on mortgage or bond, and to confer upon the holders of all or any of such new shares or stock, any preference or priority in the payment of the dividend or interest to be payable therein, and any other rights, privileges, or advantages which may be authorized by a general meeting of the Company; and also to enable the Company to consolidate shares into stock, and to accept the surrender of and to merge shares on which arrears of calls are due, and to issue other shares in lieu thereof and of forfeited shares, and to confer a preference or priority in the payment of dividends or interest, and other advantages on any shares which may be created for such purposes or any of them, and to authorize the Company to make regulations with respect to the several matters aforesaid:

And it is intended by the said Bill to vary or extinguish all rights, privileges, and exemptions which would in any manner interfere with the carrying out of all or any of the objects, powers, or provisions thereof, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights, privileges, and exemptions.

Dated the 28th day of November 1850.

Solicitor for the Bill.

Mayfield Railway.

(From Mayfield to join the intended Hastings Branch of the South Eastern Railway near the intended Station at Withernden Bridge.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for an Act for making and maintaining a railway, with all proper works, approaches, and conveniences connected therewith, commencing at or near a certain field in the parish of Mayfield, in the county of Sussex, in the occupation of Benjamin Austen, Esquire, passing thence through or into the several parishes, townships, townlands, extra-parochial, or other places following; that is to say: Mayfield, Burwash, and Wadhurst, in the said county of Sussex, and terminating by a junction with the intended line of the South Eastern Railway from Tunbridge Wells to join the Rye and Ashford Extension of the Brighton, Lewes, and Hastings Railway near Hastings, at or near a point thereon, in the said parish of Wadhurst, situate at or about forty chains westward of the intended Withernden Bridge Station, on the said intended line.

And it is also intended by such Act to incorporate a Company for the purpose of carrying the said undertaking into effect, and to take powers for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses, and to levy tolls, rates, and duties, and to alter existing tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, add, and extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer new, and to vary and extinguish existing rights and privileges. And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended by the said Bill to amend or repeal the following Acts of Parliament, namely, an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty, King William the 4th, cap. 75, intituled "An Act for making a railway from the London and Croydon Railway to Dover, to be called the South Eastern Railway;" an Act passed in the 8th and 9th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, Queen Victoria, cap. 167, intituled "An Act to enable the South Eastern Railway Company to make or complete a branch railway from the South Eastern Railway at Tunbridge to Tunbridge Wells;" and another Act passed in the 9th year of the reign of Her said Majesty, Queen Victoria, cap. 64, intituled "An Act to authorize the South Eastern Railway Company to make a railway from Tunbridge Wells to join the Rye and Ashford extension of the Brighton, Lewes, and Hastings Railway, near Hastings."

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections, describing the lines, levels, and situation of the intended works, together with books of reference thereto, and a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited on or before the 30th day of November instant, with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Sussex, at his office at Lewes; and that on or before the said 30th day of November, so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relate to each of the said parishes of Mayfield, Burwash, and Wadhurst, and a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the parish clerks of such parishes respectively, at their respective residences.

Dated this eleventh day of November one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

George H. Drew, 28 Parliament Street,
Westminster, Solicitor.

Buckhurst Railway.

From Buckhurst, to join the Tunbridge Branch of the South-Eastern Railway at Tunbridge Wells:

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for an Act to authorize the making and maintaining a railway, with all proper works, approaches, and conveniences connected therewith, commencing at or near the cross roads at a place called Crowboro' Cross, in the parish of Rotherfield, in the county of Sussex, passing thence through or into the several parishes, townships, townlands, extra-parochial or other places following; that is to say: Rotherfield and Withyham, both in the said county of Sussex, and Frant, which is situate partly in the said county of Sussex and partly in the county of Kent, and terminating by a junction with the intended line of the South-Eastern Railway from Tunbridge Wells to join the Rye and Ashford Extension of the Brighton, Lewes, and Hastings Railway, near Hastings, in a certain field belonging to the Right Honourable the Earl of Abergavenny, now in the occupation of William Delves, which said field is situate near the Tunbridge Wells station on the Tunbridge branch of the said South-Eastern Railway, and is in that part of the said parish of Frant, which is situate in the said county of Kent. And it is also intended by such Act to incorporate a Company for the purpose of carrying the said undertaking into effect, and to take powers for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses, and to levy tolls, rates, and duties, and to alter existing tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer new, and to vary or extinguish existing rights and privileges. And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended by the said Bill to amend or repeal the following Acts of Parliament, namely, an Act passed in the 6th year of the reign of His late Majesty King William IV., cap. 75, intituled "An Act for making a Railway from the London and Croydon Railway to Dover, to be called the South-Eastern Railway;" and an Act passed in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, cap. 167, intituled "An Act to enable the South-Eastern Railway Company to make or complete a Branch Railway from the South-Eastern Railway at Tunbridge to Tunbridge Wells." And another Act passed in the 9th year of the reign of Her said Majesty Queen Victoria, cap. 64, intituled "An Act to authorize the South-Eastern Railway Company to make a railway from Tunbridge Wells to join the Rye and Ashford Extension of the Brighton, Lewes, and Hastings Railway, near Hastings." And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections, describing the direction, lines, levels, and situation of the said intended works, together with books of reference thereto, and a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited, on or before the 30th day of November instant, with the clerk of the peace for the said county of Sussex, at his office in Lewes, and also with the clerk of the peace for the said county of Kent, at his office at Maidstone, and that on or before the said 30th day of November copies of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relate to each of the said parishes of Rotherfield, Withyham, and Frant; and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the parish clerks of such parishes respectively, at their respective residences.

Dated this eleventh day of November 1850.

Cambridge and Shepreth Junction Railway and Branch, to join the Eastern Counties Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, to incorporate a Company, and to empower the company so to be incorporated to make and maintain a line of railway, together with all necessary stations, erections, bridges, wharfs, warehouses, communications, and other works connected therewith, to commence by a junction with the authorized line of the Royston and Hitchin Railway, in a certain field in the parish of Shepreth, in the county of Cambridge, called or known by the name of the Lucern Ground, the property of William Nash Woodham, Esq., and in the occupation of Samuel Clear, and which said field is numbered 33, as regards lands in the said parish of Shepreth, on the plans referred to in the Royston and Hitchin Railway Amendment (Shepreth Extension) Act 1848, and to terminate in a certain field in the parish of St. Andrew the Less, otherwise Barnwell, in the town and county of Cambridge, belonging to the Master, Fellows, and Scholars of Trinity Hall, Cambridge, and in the occupation of Robert Pilsworth, which said last-mentioned field is numbered 29, as regards lands in the said parish of St. Andrew the Less, otherwise Barnwell, on the plans of the proposed Royston and Hitchin Railway Extension from Royston to Cambridge, deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Cambridge, in the month of November 1847. Also to form a junction with the main line of the Eastern Counties Railway, in the said parish of Saint Andrew the Less, otherwise Barnwell, by means of a branch issuing from the main line of the said hereinbefore-mentioned intended line of railway, in a certain field in the parish of Trumpington, in the said county of Cambridge, in the occupation of William Bennett, and which said field is numbered 71, as regards lands in the said parish of Trumpington, on the plans of the proposed Royston and Hitchin Railway Extension from Royston to Cambridge, deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Cambridge, in the month of November 1847, and which said branch will join the main line of the said Eastern Counties Railway in the said parish of Saint Andrew the Less, otherwise Barnwell, at a distance of one hundred and ten yards, or thereabouts, on the south of the Hill's-road Bridge, in the said parish of Saint Andrew the Less, which said main line of railway, branch railway, and works, will pass or be made from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places following, or some of them; that is to say: Shepreth, Foxton, Newton, Barrington, Hauxton, otherwise Hawkston, and certain other extra-parochial lands adjoining; Harston, otherwise Harlston, Great Shelford, Little Shelford, Haslingfield, Grantchester, otherwise Granchester, Trumpington, and Hinton, otherwise Cherry Hinton, in the said county of Cambridge; Saint Andrew the Less, otherwise Barnwell, Saint Andrew the Great, and Saint Mary, the Less, in the town and county of Cambridge.

And it is also intended to apply for powers to make lateral deviations from the line of the said railway, branch railway, and works, to the extent, or within the limits defined upon the plans herein-after mentioned; and also to cross, divert, alter, or stop up, whether temporarily or permanently, all such turnpike roads, parish roads, and other highways, streets, bridges, creeks, rivers, streams, sewers, pipes, canals, navigations, railways, and tramroads, within the said parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places aforesaid, or some of them, as it may be necessary to cross, divert, alter, or stop up, for the purposes of the said railway, branch railway, and works.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said railway, branch railway, and works, together with books of reference thereto, and also a published map, with the lines of the said railway and branch railway delineated thereon, together with a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Cambridge, at his office at Cambridge, in the said county, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and that on or before the said thirtieth day of November instant a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each parish, in or through which any part of the said intended railway, branch railway, and works, are proposed to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his dwelling-house; and in case of any extra-parochial place, with the parish clerk of some parish immediately adjoining thereto at his dwelling-house.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended by the said Bill to apply for powers for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses, and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges in any manner connected with the lands and houses proposed to be taken for the purposes aforesaid; and also to levy tolls, rates, or duties upon, or in respect of, the said railway, branch railway, and works, and to alter existing tolls, rates, or duties; and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, or duties, and other rights and privileges.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended to apply for powers for facilitating the transit of trains from the said intended railway and branch railway over the Eastern Counties Railway, to join or come upon the Newmarket Railway; and powers will be applied for, for the amendment, so far as may be necessary or desirable for the purpose last aforesaid, of the several local and personal Acts hereinafter referred to; that is to say: 6 and 7 Wm. 4, cap. 106; 1 and 2 Vict., cap. 81; 4 Vict., cap. 14; 7 Vict., cap. 20; 7 and 8 Vict., cap. 19, and cap. 62 respectively; 8 and 9 Vict., cap. 110 and cap. 201 respectively; 9 and 10 Vict., cap. 76, cap. 97, cap. 205, cap. 258, cap. 345, and cap. 367 respectively; 10 and 11 Vict., cap. 92, cap. 156, cap. 157, cap. 158, and cap. 235 respectively; and 6 and 7 Wm. 4, cap. 103; 2 and 3 Vict., cap. 77 and cap. 78 respectively; 3 and 4 Vict., cap. 52; 4 and 5 Vict., cap. 24 and cap. 42 respectively; 6 and 7 Vict., cap. 28; 7 and 8 Vict., cap. 20 and cap. 35 respectively; 12 and 13 Vict., cap. 92, and 13 and 14 Vict., cap. 30.

Dated the 9th day of November, 1850.

In the last-mentioned parish, at or near to the east side of the bridge over the Wandle, in High-street, Wandsworth. Also a main sewer or drain commencing in the last-mentioned parish, at or near to the west side of the last described bridge, and terminating at or near to and about 50 yards to the east of a certain cut or creek known as "Frying Pan Creek," in the occupation of Joseph Langton, Esquire, with a branch therefrom, terminating near the north end of Bell-lane, and another branch terminating at or near to the cottages or buildings situate about two hundred yards to the west of Wandsworth Upper Mill, all in the parish of Wandsworth, and such other sewers and drains as may be necessary for more effectually carrying out the objects of the said intended undertaking; all which several main sewers or drains, and branch sewers or drains, and the said several works in connection therewith, are intended to be made and maintained, or will pass from, in, through, or into the parishes and extra-parochial and other places following, or some of them, in the said county of Surrey (that is to say)—Croydon, otherwise Saint John the Baptist Croydon, Saint James, Saint John, Saint Peter, and All Saints, Croydon, Waddon, Beddington, otherwise Saint Mary Beddington, Wallington, otherwise Whaleton, Carshalton, otherwise Saint Peter, Carshalton, Mordon, Morden, otherwise Saint Lawrance Mordon, Mitcham, Saint Peter and Saint Paul Mitcham, Merton, otherwise Saint Mary Merton, Tooting, otherwise Lower Tooting, Tooting Graveney otherwise Saint Nicholas Tooting Graveney, Streatham, otherwise Saint Leonard Streatham, Wimbledon otherwise Wimbledon or Saint Mary Wimbledon, and Wandsworth, otherwise All Saints Wandsworth.

Also within any of the parishes and extra-parochial and other places last mentioned, or any of them within which the said sewers or drains, and branch sewers or drains, are intended to be made, to alter and divert, or remove or replace all or some of the existing drains, sewers, and water-courses, and privies flowing or emptying themselves into the said river Wandle or tributaries thereof, and to cleanse the river Wandle and its feeders or tributaries, or parts thereof, from weeds and other matters from time to time, and to prohibit the making and erection therein of any future sewers, drains, water-closets and privies which might flow or empty themselves into the said river or tributaries, and also to remove the several fords and wash-places on the said river and tributaries, in the parishes and extra-parochial or other places lastly described, and to erect and construct other works and conveniences in lieu thereof, within such parishes, and extra-parochial or other places, or some of them, and also to prevent the further washing of sheep, horses, and other animals in the said river Wandle and its tributaries throughout their entire course in the said county.

Also to construct and maintain within the parishes and extra-parochial and other places last described, such works as may be considered necessary for intercepting and conducting into the said several intended sewers, and drains, and works connected therewith, all such matters as now flow into any existing sewers or drains, or into the said river Wandle, or tributaries thereof, which are calculated to render impure or offensive the waters thereof, and such other sewers, drains, and works within the same parishes and places as may be necessary for collecting and using the sewerage water and other matters now flowing into the said river Wandle and tributaries thereof, or which may hereafter flow into such intended sewers or drains, and works connected therewith, and for that purpose to break and open up, and again to restore the roads, streets, highways, lanes, courts, ways and passages, and other places within the several parishes and extra-parochial and other places last described.

And it is further intended by the said Act to authorize such Company to break and open up, and again to restore the roads, streets, highways, lanes, courts, ways, and passages and other places within the several parishes and extra-parochial and other places and boroughs aforesaid, to be supplied with water as before mentioned, for the purpose of distributing such supply, and to lay pipes and mains in and upon or over or under such roads, streets, highways, lanes, courts, ways, passages, and places, for the purpose of such distribution, and to break and open up, or otherwise interfere with such other roads, streets, and highways, railways, rivers, steams, and canals, within any of the parishes and extra-parochial and other places hereinbefore mentioned, and therein or thereupon, and under or over the same to lay such pipes and mains, and do such other works, whether permanent or temporary, as may be necessary for bringing in such supply, or constructing the intended works aforesaid, or any of them.

Also to authorize such Company to construct and agree with any other Water Company, or any body of Commissioners, or other public body, Company, or persons, requiring large quantities of water for the supply of such Companies, Commissioners, bodies, or persons, with water in bulk for domestic use, manufacturing, sanitary, or other purposes, and to take rents, rates, or duties, for water supplied by the said intended Company, and to sell and dispose of and distribute the sewerage water and sewerage manure, and other matters collected by the said Company, and to take rents or rates therefor; to confer exemptions from the payments of rents, rates, or duties; and other rights and privileges.

And it is also intended, by the said Act, to authorize the said Company to take by compulsion or otherwise the lands, houses, waters, streams, and other property required for the purposes of the Company, and the works to be authorized as aforesaid, or any of them, and to vary or extinguish such existing rights, or rights reserved, and privileges connected with the said lands, houses, waters, streams, or other property, or with any other lands, houses, waters, streams, or other property, or water companies, or other bodies or persons, which might in any manner or way interfere with or impede the objects and purposes aforesaid, or any of them, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections, describing the lines, situations, and levels of the said intended works, and the lands, houses, streams, waters, and other property required for the purposes thereof, with books of reference to such plans, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection at the office of the clerk of the peace for the county of Surrey, at his office in North-street, Lambeth, within the said county; and that, on or before the same thirtieth day of November, copies of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, as relates to each parish or extra-parochial place, in or through which the said intended works are proposed to be made, and maintained, with a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his place of residence; and as regards any such extra-parochial place, with the parish clerk of some parish immediately adjoining to such extra-parochial place, at his place of residence.

Dated this first day of November 1850.

East Stonehouse Waterworks.

For supplying with Water the Parish or Township of East Stonehouse, in the County of Devon, and for Amendment of Act.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for an Act to provide a continuous supply of water, delivered at high pressure, for the use of the inhabitants of the parish or township of East Stonehouse, in the county of Devon, and for the supply of shipping, and for other purposes, within the limits of the said parish or township, and the liberties and precincts thereof.

And notice is hereby further given, that power will be applied for to enable the Commissioners under such intended Act to make, construct, erect, lay, repair, and maintain, waterworks, reservoirs, feeders, aqueducts, conduits, pipes, cuts, channels, drains, dams, goits, engines, buildings, and other erections, works, and conveniences connected therewith, and approaches thereunto, in the said parish or township of East Stonehouse, and the liberties and precincts thereof, and in the parish or tything of Pennycross, the parish of Stoke Damerell, the parish or tything of Compton Gifford, and the parish of Saint Andrew, the said works to commence at, or near to Tor, in the said parish or tything of Pennycross, and to terminate at, or near to, the public quay, in the said parish or township of East Stonehouse, all in the said county of Devon.

And notice is hereby further given, that powers will be applied for, enabling the said Commissioners to take, collect, and impound from certain lands, springs, brooks, and streams, situate within the said parish or township of East Stonehouse, and the liberties and precincts thereof, and in the said parish or tything of Pennycross, the said parish of Stoke Damerell, the said parish or tything of Compton Gifford, and the said parish of Saint Andrew, in the said county of Devon.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended by the said Act to enable the said Commissioners for the purposes aforesaid to take and use the water of a certain stream, rivulet, or brook, called Millbrook Lake, and also certain streams, rivulets, or brooks near to pounds, and other streams, rivulets, or brooks near to Burleigh, and other streams, rivulets, or brooks near to Venn, and other streams, rivulets, or brooks near to Mutley, and other streams, rivulets, or brooks near to Huntiscombe, and other streams, rivulets, or brooks near to the bridge at Huntiscombe aforesaid, all in the said parish or township of East Stonehouse, and the liberties and precincts thereof, and in the said parish or tything of Pennycross, parish of Stoke Damerell, parish or tything of Compton Gifford, and parish of Saint Andrew, all in the said county of Devon.

And notice is hereby further given, that powers will be taken in the said Act to enable the Commissioners to purchase by compulsion, or otherwise, or take on lease, all such lands, and houses, reservoirs, streams, and other hereditaments, as may be necessary for constructing and maintaining the said intended waterworks, and to vary, repeal, and extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with such lands, houses, springs, brooks, and streams, which will in any manner impede, or interfere with the construction or maintenance of the said intended works.

And powers will also be applied for in the said Bill to enable the said Commissioners to make lateral deviations from the lines of the said works, to the extent, and within the limits, defined on the plans hereinafter mentioned; and to borrow money, and to raise, levy, and collect tolls, rates, duties, and rents for the supply of water, and all such other powers and privileges as may be requisite or necessary for carrying into effect the objects aforesaid; and also power to extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, duties, and rents, and to confer, vary, and extinguish other rights and privileges.

And for the purposes aforesaid, power will be taken to amend and extend, vary or repeal, as may be found expedient, all and singular the powers contained in the Act of Parliament now in force, relating to the supply of water to the inhabitants of the said parish or township of East Stonehouse, passed in the 35th year of the reign of her Majesty Queen Elizabeth, intituled "an Act for bringing of fresh water into the town of Stonehouse."

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans, describing the line or course of the said intended aqueduct or aqueducts, feeders, and conduit pipes, and also the situation or situations of the said reservoir or reservoirs, and other works, and of the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes thereof, and describing the springs, brooks, streams, and rivers, to be diverted, taken, or used, for supplying the said reservoirs and aqueducts with water, together with duplicate sections of the said aqueducts, reservoirs, and other works, with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees; and occupiers of such lands, together with a copy of the Gazette notice, and extracts of the Lords' standing orders, will, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Devon, at his office at Exeter, in the said county, and that on or before the said thirtieth day of November instant a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relate to the said parish or township of East Stonehouse, the parish or tything of Pennycross, the parish of Stoke Damerell, the parish or tything of Compton Gifford, and the parish of Saint Andrew, respectively, in or through which the said works are proposed to be made, together with a copy of the Gazette notice, and extract of the Lords' standing orders, will be deposited with the parish clerks of the said parish or township of East Stonehouse, the parish or tything of Pennycross, the parish of Stoke Damerell, the parish or tything of Compton Gifford, and the parish of Saint Andrew respectively, at their respective places of abode.

Mr. Thomas Allan's Patents.

(Incorporation of Company, and purchase and use of Patents in Great Britain and Ireland, and elsewhere.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for an Act to authorize the assignment to, and the purchase, hiring, or leasing by a Company, to be thereby incorporated, of the following letters patent, and the privileges thereby granted and incident thereto; that is to say: letters patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, bearing date at Westminster, the 16th day of November, 1850, granting unto Thomas Allan, of No. 20, Saint Andrew's Square, Edinburgh, printer and publisher of the Caledonian Mercury, his executors, administrators, and assigns, the sole use of his invention of "certain improvements in electric telegraphs, and in the application of electric currents for deflecting magnets, or producing electro magnets," in England, Wales, and the town of Berwick-upon-Tweed; letters patent under the seal appointed by the Treaty of Union to be used in place of the Great Seal of Scotland, and also letters patent under the Great Seal of Ireland, now respectively in course of being obtained by the said Thomas Allan, for securing to him, his executors, administrators, and assigns, the sole use of the said invention of "certain improvements in electric telegraphs, and in the application of electric currents for deflecting magnets, or producing electro magnets," in Scotland and Ireland respectively, of whatever date the said several last-mentioned letters patent may be. Also to enable the said Company to purchase, accept, and take assignments of any letters patent which may have been heretofore, or which may hereafter be granted for the invention and improvement in electric telegraphs, and to work and use the powers and privileges granted by such letters patent, or to purchase, hire, or lease any partial or other interest or interests in or under any present or future letters patent, and all patent rights and interests belonging to any Company, society, or individuals, with reference to telegraphic communications or any partial interest therein, and to accept and work any licence or licences for the use of the same.

Also to enable the said Company to sell and grant licences to any party or parties for the use of, and in respect of, any such inventions, or any of them, as may become vested in them. And also to provide for the maintenance and protection of such electric or other telegraphs from injury or destruction, and when such telegraphs may be laid down under or across any part of the high seas, to lay down and place buoys and other things for the better protection of the same, and to cut channels, either above or below high-water mark, for the purpose of laying down such submarine telegraphs. Also to enable the said Company to enter upon, dig, and break up any public roads, streets, highways, railways, canals, towing paths, and public thoroughfares, for the purpose of constructing, laying down, and maintaining, and repairing, replacing, and removing pipes, wires, machinery, and other apparatus connected with, and necessary for the use of, the said inventions, and generally to exercise and enjoy all rights and privileges necessary to carry out such inventions; also to purchase, hire, take, and use houses, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and to erect stations, offices, machinery, works, and apparatus thereon. Also to enable the said Company to levy tolls, rates, and duties for the use and in respect of the said inventions, electric telegraphs, and other works, matters, and things relating thereto, and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, or duties, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges in any way interfering with or necessary for the purposes of the Company, and to enable such Company to sue and be sued in the name of one or more Directors thereof, or in the name of one of the officers of the said Company, to limit the responsibility of the shareholders in the said Company, and to enable the said Company to purchase, hold, and transfer property, real and personal, and to confer on the said Company any other powers and authorities with reference to the objects for which such Company may be constituted. And in the said Bill will be inserted all other usual necessary and proper powers, provisions, and enactments for carrying out the objects and purposes of the said intended Company, with power for the said Company to raise a capital, and to borrow money on mortgage or bond for those purposes.
