December 1850.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the law of copyright," it is, among other things enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any person, not being the proprietor of the copyright, or some person authorized by him, to import into any port in the United Kingdom, or into any other part of the British dominions, for sale or hire any printed book first composed or written, or printed and published in any part of the United Kingdom wherein there shall be copyright, and reprinted in any country or place whatsoever out of the British dominions:

And whereas by an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British "possessions abroad," books, wherein the copyright is subsisting, first composed or written or printed in the United Kingdom, and printed or reprinted in any other country, are absolutely prohibited to be imported into the British possessions abroad:

And whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the law relating to "the protection in the colonies of works entitled "to copyright in the United Kingdom," it is enacted, that in case the legislature or proper legislative authorities in any British possession shall be disposed to make due provision for securing or protecting the rights of British authors in such possession, and shall pass an Act or make an Ordinance for that purpose, and shall transmit the same in the proper manner to the Secretary of State, in order that it may be submitted to Her Majesty; and in case Her Majesty shall be of opinion that such Act or Ordinance is sufficient for the purpose of securing to British authors reasonable protection within such possession, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she think fit so to do, to express Her royal approval of such Act or Ordinance, and thereupon to issue an Order in Council, declaring, that so long as the provisions of such Act or Ordinance continue in force within such colony, the prohibitions contained in the aforesaid Acts, and hereinbefore recited, and any prohibitions contained in the said Acts, or in any other Acts against the importing, selling, letting out to hire, exposing for sale or hire, or possessing foreign reprints of books first composed, written, printed, or published in the United Kingdom, and entitled to copyright therein, shall be suspended, so far as regards such colony: and thereupon such Act or Ordinance, shall come into operation, except so far as may be otherwise provided therein, or may be otherwise directed by such Order in Council:

And whereas an Act has been passed by the Legislature of the Province of Canada, No. 780, intituled "An Act to impose a duty on foreign "reprints of British copyright works," whereby it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council to impose an ad valorem duty not exceeding twenty per centum upon books imported into the said province wherein the copyright shall be subsisting, first composed or written or printed in the United Kingdom, and printed or reprinted in any other country with regard to which the notice to the Commissioners of Customs required by any Act of the Imperial Parliament in force in that behalf shall have been given, and from time to time to alter the said duty (not exceeding in any case the rate aforesaid), and from time to time to establish such regulations and conditions as may be consistent with any Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom then in force and as he may deem requisite and equitable with regard to the admission of such books and to the distribution of the proceeds of such duty to or among the party or parties beneficially interested in the copyright:

And it is thereby further enacted that the provisions of that Act (except in so far as may be otherwise directed in such Order of Her Majesty in Council, shall come into operation from and after the day to be appointed for that purpose in any proclamation of the Governor of the said province signifying Her Majesty's approval of that Act, and the issuing of such Order in Council and not before:

And whereas Her Majesty hath expressed Her royal approval of the said Act of the Canadian Legislature:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, and by the authority of the same, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the proclamation hereinafter mentioned of Her Majesty's approval of the duty to be imposed and the regulations to be made by the said Governor in Council, pursuant to the said last-mentioned Act, and thenceforth so long as such Act shall remain and continue in force within the said province, all prohibitions in either of the said hereinbefore recited Acts of the Imperial Parliament or in any other Acts thereof contained against the importing into the said province or against the selling, letting out to hire, exposing for sale or hire, or possessing therein foreign reprints of books first composed, written, printed or published in the United Kingdom, and entitled to copyright therein shall be suspended so far as regards the said province. Provided always, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Act shall not come into operation except for the purpose of enabling the said Governor in Council, to impose such duties and to make such regulations as therein mentioned until Her Majesty's approval of the rate of duty so to be imposed, and the regulations so to be made shall have been signified to the said Governor by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and until the approval so signified shall have been proclaimed in the said province and thereupon the said Act shall come wholly into operation.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Earl Grey, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December 1850,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for fixing the number and emoluments of the minor canons in the cathedral church of Carlisle.

"Whereas it was by the said recited Act enacted, that so soon as conveniently might be, and by the authority therein provided, regulations should be made for fixing the number and emoluments of the minor canons in each cathedral and collegiate church, provided that there should not in any case be more than six nor less than two, and that the stipend of each such minor canon thereafter appointed should not be less than one hundred and fifty pounds per annum.

"And whereas application has been made to us by the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Carlisle, to fix the number and emoluments of the minor canons in the said church, in manner hereinafter mentioned, and it has been represented to us by the said dean and chapter, that the number of minor canons in the said church has, until recently, been five, but it is now reduced to three, and that it is expedient that the same should be further reduced to two.

"Now therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the said dean and chapter, testified by their having hereunto affixed their chapter seal, that the number of minor canonries in the said cathedral church shall be reduced to two, in manner hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: that such one of the minor canonries, held by the Reverend William Rees, Master of Arts, and the Reverend Thomas Charles Vaughan, Bachelor of Arts, respectively, as shall firstly become vacant shall be filled up, and that the other of such minor canonries shall, on the vacancy thereof not be filled up, and that there shall be paid by the said dean and chapter out of their corporate revenues to each minor canon hereafter to be appointed in the said church, a fixed annual stipend, as such minor canon, of one hundred and fifty pounds.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measure relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Carlisle.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December 1850,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," as enlarged by the twelfth section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the first and second years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual the Church Building Acts," or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority in this behalf vested in them by the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the tenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and fifty, in the words following; that is to say:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the district parish of the Holy Trinity, Brompton, in the county of Middlesex, and within the diocese of London, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at West Brompton, in the said district parish of the Holy Trinity, Brompton, under and by virtue of the power and authority for this purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' as enlarged by the twelfth section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the first and second years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual the Church Building Acts,' or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed district should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, West Brompton,' with boundaries, as hereinafter mentioned :

"The district chapelry of Saint Mary, West Brompton, is bounded on the west by the Kensington Canal; on the north the boundary line of the said district chapelry proceeds in an easterly direction from the bridge across the said canal, near the north-western corner of the West London Cemetery, to the eastern corner of Rich-terrace, then turns northerly up the Kensington-road to the corner of Earl's Court Lodge, then north-easterly in a straight line to the north corner of Gloucester Lodge, then easterly to the most northern point of the line drawn upon the map or plan hereinafter referred to, and marked (A) to the north of Cromwell-lane; on the east the said district chapelry is bounded by the line proceeding from the said point, marked (A), in a south-easterly direction down Cromwell-lane to the old Alms Houses, and from thence in a straight line south-westerly across certain gardens to the Swan Inn, and from the Swan Inn southerly down the middle of Swan-lane as far as Queen Elms, at the point marked B on the said map or plan where it meets the boundary of the parish of Chelsea; the said district chapelry is then bounded on the south by the said parish of Chelsea, from the point so marked B on the said map or plan, at the south-easterly corner of the said district chapelry, to Stanford-bridge over the Kensington Canal, at the south-western corner of such district chapelry, and which is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured yellow :

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed in the said church of Saint Mary, at West Brompton aforesaid; and that all the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the incumbent thereof for the time being :

"That the consents of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James, Bishop of the said diocese of London has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned; and also the consent of the Reverend William Josiah Irons, Bachelor of Divinity, incumbent of the said district parish of the Holy Trinity, Brompton, as required by the Act and section secondly hereinbefore mentioned, in order that the subdivision of such district parish, by forming thereout a district chapelry as aforesaid, shall take effect from the assignment of such district chapelry: in testimony whereof the said Charles James, Bishop of London and William Josiah Irons have signed and sealed this representation :

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, and churchings, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith enrolled, pursuant to the said Acts, and registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

C. C. Greville.

And also to command that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and made chargeable and payable upon for or in respect of letters, newspapers, parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post :

And whereas by an Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post-office," the proviso concerning the maximum weight of letters to be sent by the post as fixed in and by the said first-mentioned Act is repealed, and in order to prevent packets of an unwieldy bulk or an inconvenient size being transmitted by the post, power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, at any time or times thereafter, by warrant under their hands, to fix a maximum weight of letters to be sent by the post, and from time to time to repeal or revoke such maximum weight, wholly or in part, and declare any other maximum of weight in lieu thereof ; and all letters are to be forwarded, conveyed, and delivered by the post in conformity with any such warrant, and also in conformity with, and under and subject to all such orders, conditions, limitations, regulations and restrictions as to the form, size, or dimensions thereof, whether in proportion to the weight or otherwise, as the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, shall from time to time direct ; and by the said Act power is also given to the Postmaster-General to collect and receive the foreign and colonial postage charged or chargeable on any letters sent by the post, and also with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to require the postage, British, colonial, or foreign of any letters sent by the post to be prepaid, either in money or in stamps, as he may think fit, on the same being put into the Post-office, and also with such consent to abolish or restrict the prepayment, in money, of postage on letters sent by the post, either altogether or on certain letters, and to require the prepayment thereof to be in stamps, and to refuse to receive or send by the post any letters tendered contrary to any regulations thereby made ; and it is also declared and enacted that it shall be lawful for the Postmaster-General and any officer of the Post-office to detain any letters which shall be posted or sent by the post contrary to the regulations of that Act, or the first-mentioned Act, or contrary to the regulations of any Treasury Warrant to be issued under or by virtue of that Act, or which had been or should be issued under or by virtue of the said first-mentioned Act, and to open such letters and either to return them to the senders thereof, or to forward them to the places of their destination, charged in either case with such rates of postage as the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, shall from time to time direct :

Now we, the undersigned, being two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said before mentioned Acts, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, by this warrant under our hands, order and direct that printed books, printed magazines, printed reviews, printed pamphlets (whether British, colonial, or foreign), may be transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom and any part of the British West Indies, Newfoundland, Gibraltar, Malta, or Hong-Kong, subject to the several regulations and rates hereinafter contained (that is to say):

On every packet consisting of a single printed book, or printed magazine, or printed review, or printed pamphlet, the several sheets or parts of which, when more than one, shall be sewed or bound together, if not exceeding half a pound in weight, there shall be charged and taken one uniform rate of postage of sixpence.

And on every such packet, if exceeding half a pound and not exceeding one pound in weight, there shall be charged and taken one uniform rate of postage of one shilling.

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound and not exceeding two pounds in weight, three shall be charged and taken one uniform rate of postage of two shillings.

And on every such packet, if exceeding two pounds and not exceeding three pounds in weight, there shall be charged and taken one uniform rate of postage of three shillings.

And for every additional one pound in weight of any such packet, above the weight of three pounds, there shall be charged and taken an additional rate of postage of one shilling, and every fraction of such additional pound shall be charged as an additional pound.

And we further order and direct, that no such packet, if containing more than one printed book, or printed magazine, or printed review, or printed pamphlet, or containing any paper or thing besides a printed book, printed magazine, printed review, or printed pamphlet, or containing any printed book, printed magazine, printed review, or printed pamphlet, the several sheets or parts of which, when more than one, shall not be sewed or bound together, or which packet, in length, or breadth, or width, or depth, shall exceed the dimensions of two feet or twenty-four inches, shall be forwarded by the post under the provisions aforesaid.

And we further order and direct, that as to any packet hereinbefore authorized to be sent by the post under the provisions aforesaid, which shall be posted in the United Kingdom, the postage thereof shall in every case be prepaid at the time of the same being posted, not in money but by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet near the address, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon under or by virtue of this warrant ; and as to any such packet posted in the aforesaid colonies, the postage thereof shall in every case be prepaid in money at the time of the same being posted.

And we further order and direct, that every such packet shall be sent without a cover, or in a cover or envelope open at the ends or sides, and shall contain printed matter only with the binding thereof, and there shall be no writing or marks upon the cover or envelope thereof, or upon or within any part of the contents thereof, other than the name and address of the person to whom the packet shall be sent.

And in order to prevent any obstacles to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post, we further direct, that it shall be lawful for any officer of the Post-office in the United Kingdom to delay the transmission of any packet posted or forwarded by the post under the provisions of this warrant, either for the space of twenty-four hours from the time at which (or at his option until the despatch of the mail next after that by which) the same ought otherwise to have been forwarded by him; and it shall be lawful for any officer of the Post-office in the aforesaid colonies to delay the transmission of any packet posted or forwarded by the post under the provisions of this warrant for the space of seven days from the time at which (or at his option until the despatch of the mail next after that by which) the same ought otherwise to have been forwarded by him.

And we further direct that nothing hereinbefore contained shall be construed to interfere with or affect the transmission by the post of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, or of printed votes and proceedings of the Colonial Legislatures, nor of printed papers or other printed publications which are allowed to pass by the post under the newspaper privilege.

And we further order and direct, that if any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this present warrant, shall contain any paper or thing besides a printed book, printed magazine, printed review, or printed pamphlet, and the binding thereof, or shall have any writing or marks upon the same, or upon the cover or envelope thereof, except the name and address of the person to whom it is forwarded, or shall not be open at the ends or sides, or shall in length or breadth, or width or depth, exceed the dimensions of two feet, or twenty-four inches, or shall contain more than one printed book, or printed magazine, or printed review, or printed pamphlet, or shall contain any printed book, printed magazine, printed review, or printed pamphlet, the several sheets or parts of which, when more than one, shall not be sewed or bound together, or if the postage of any such packet posted in the United Kingdom, shall not be duly and properly prepaid by stamps when posted, or if the postage of any such packet posted in any of the aforesaid colonies shall not be duly and properly prepaid in money when posted, the same shall and may be detained and opened and at the option of the Postmaster-General shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination, and any such packet on being so returned, given up, or forwarded shall be chargeable with the like amount of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter.

And we further direct, that printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, and printed votes and proceedings of the Colonial Legislatures may be sent between the United Kingdom and the East Indies or Hong-Kong, by Her Majesty's Mediterranean packet-boats, via Southampton and Syria or Egypt, at the several rates of British postage fixed by the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty on printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament sent to Her Majesty's colonies by packet-boat, and on printed votes, and proceedings of the Colonial Legislatures sent to the United Kingdom from the colonies by packet-boat, but such respective votes and proceedings shall be subject to all the regulations, conditions, and penalties, prescribed by the said last-mentioned Act, in respect of printed papers sent by the Post.

And we further direct, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to any packets sent through France, or any other foreign country to which a transit rate of postage would be payable thereon, nor to any packets sent by private ships.

And we further order and direct, that the term

"British West Indies" used in this warrant shall include the Bermudas, the Bahamas, and other British Islands, commonly called the West Indies, as also the colonies of British Guiana and Honduras, and their respective dependencies; and that the term "by the post," used in this warrant, shall, as to the sea conveyance, include the conveyance by packet-boat; and that the several other terms and expressions used in this warrant, shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects, as they would have had if inserted in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

And we further direct, that this warrant shall come into operation on the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one.

Provided lastly, and we do hereby declare and direct, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two of them, by warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter, to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby fixed or altered, or the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.
