AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December 1850,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for fixing the number and emoluments of the minor canons in the cathedral church of Carlisle.

"Whereas it was by the said recited Act enacted, that so soon as conveniently might be, and by the authority therein provided, regulations should be made for fixing the number and emoluments of the minor canons in each cathedral and collegiate church, provided that there should not in any case be more than six nor less than two, and that the stipend of each such minor canon thereafter appointed should not be less than one hundred and fifty pounds per annum.

"And whereas application has been made to us by the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Carlisle, to fix the number and emoluments of the minor canons in the said church, in manner hereinafter mentioned, and it has been represented to us by the said dean and chapter, that the number of minor canons in the said church has, until recently, been five, but it is now reduced to three, and that it is expedient that the same should be further reduced to two.

"Now therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the said dean and chapter, testified by their having hereunto affixed their chapter seal, that the number of minor canonries in the said cathedral church shall be reduced to two, in manner hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: that such one of the minor canonries, held by the Reverend William Rees, Master of Arts, and the Reverend Thomas Charles Vaughan, Bachelor of Arts, respectively, as shall firstly become vacant shall be filled up, and that the other of such minor canonries shall, on the vacancy thereof not be filled up, and that there shall be paid by the said dean and chapter out of their corporate revenues to each minor canon hereafter to be appointed in the said church, a fixed annual stipend, as such minor canon, of one hundred and fifty pounds.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measure relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Carlisle.
