Admiralty, 25th January 1851.

Three years and seven months have now elapsed since notice was first issued by command of Her Majesty, in the Gazette of 1st June 1847, requiring all persons to make application who should consider themselves qualified to receive a Medal for their services during the late wars, as therein specified.

Although above 17,000 Officers, seamen, and marines, and soldiers serving as marines, have, after investigation, been declared qualified, it is supposed that some claims may be still outstanding:

My Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty therefore direct, that all remaining claims, under the Gazette notices of 1st June 1847, 1st June 1848, and 11th February 1850, be brought forward without loss of time; and notice is hereby given, that no claim will be taken into consideration unless it is submitted before the 1st May next ensuing.

By command of their Lordships,
