Vice-Chancellor

Lord Cranworth—Thursday the 30th day of January, in the 14th year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, 1851, between Joseph Smith, Richard John Roberts, and Edmund Thomas, Plaintiffs; Thomas Corles and Caroline, his Wife, and George Dipple, Defendants.

FORASMUCH as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. Roberts, of Counsel for the Plaintiffs, that the plaintiffs having exhibited their Bill in this Court against the defendants, and taken out process of subpoena against the defendants Thomas Corles, and Caroline, his Wife, on the 16th day of January instant, to compel them to appear to and answer the same; it appears by the affidavit of Richard Willett Roberts, that both the said defendants have been within the jurisdiction of this Court within two years next before the subpoena was issued; and that the said defendants are beyond the seas, that there is just ground to believe that the said defendants are gone out of the realm or otherwise absconded, to avoid being served with process; that it also appears by the affidavit of John Fisher, that on enquiry at the last known place of abode of the said defendants they could not be found so as to be served with process; it is thereupon ordered, that the said defendants, Thomas Corles and Caroline, his Wife, do appear to the plaintiffs' Bill, on or before the 15th day of April next; and it is ordered, that the plaintiffs do cause a copy of this order together with a notice thereof to the effect set forth at the foot of the General Order of this Court in that behalf, to be inserted in the London Gazette of the 11th day of February instant, and in the Reading Mercury and Oxford Gazette Newspaper, published in the county of Berks, on or before the 15th day of February instant.

Notice.—Thomas Corles and Caroline, your Wife: take notice, that if you do not appear, pursuant to the above Order, the plaintiff may enter an appearance for you and the Court may afterwards grant to the plaintiff such relief as he may appear to be entitled to on his own shewing.
