Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, January 24, 1851.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 27th February next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the supply of a quantity of

SALT MEAT,

Of the Cure of the United Kingdom, or of any Foreign Country whatsoever, equal to 2,000 tierces of Navy Beef, and to 6,000 tierces of Navy Pork

(in separate tenders), all of the cure of the present season; their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or of not contracting for any part; and also an unlimited power of selection, according to quality.

Every tender, both for beef and pork, to specify where the meat is intended to be cured, and a separate price for each denomination of cure comprised therein.

The beef to be delivered four-tenths in tierces and six-tenths in barrels, and a quantity of pork equal to 100 tierces (and for which separate tenders are to be made), to be delivered in casks, containing 100lbs. each, and of the remaining quantity of pork, nine-tenths to be delivered in tierces, and the remaining one-tenth in barrels, into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Haulbowline, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed, and within the following periods; viz.:

One-half of each on or before the 31st March 1851, and the remainder of each on or before the 31st May 1851;

and to be paid for by bills payable at sight, but not during the first period of delivery, for any quantity beyond that specified.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork, or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or to the Resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender will be admitted for a less quantity than 300 tierces, except for the quantity to be delivered in casks containing 100lbs. each.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or some person on his behalf, duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner of the envelope the words "Tender for Salt Meat," and "Comptroller for Victualling," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and be accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in a sum equal to £25 per cent. on the amount of the contract for the due performance of the same.
