TUESDAY, MAY 13, 1851.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, April 4, 1851.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold Drawing-Rooms, at St. James's-Palace, on the following days, at two o'clock :

Thursday, 15th May next.

Saturday, 31st May next, { to celebrate Her Majesty's Birth-day.

N.B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars, at the Drawing-Room, on the 31st of May next.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOMS.

The Ladies, who purpose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names legibly written thereon; one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

And those Ladies who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the names of the Ladies who are to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office on the second day previous to the Drawing-Rooms (for that announced for the 15th of May, on Tuesday the 13th of May), before twelve o'clock, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall take place unless the name of the Lady presenting, together with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, which names shall correspond with those previously sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

It is particularly requested, that in every case written cards only be delivered.

Board of Green Cloth, Buckingham-Palace, May 9, 1851.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the carriages proceeding to Her Majesty's Drawing-Room, at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 15th of May, are to fall into line and go down the left-hand side of St. James's-street, enter at the iron gate nearest the Palace, set down at the Arcade, turn round, and go out by the iron gate nearest Marlborough-house, to wait in St. James's-square. When called, they are to pass from the square through Charles-street, into Regent-street and Jeramyn-street, go down St. James's-street as before, take up, and go away through Pall-mall.

No hackney carriages will be admitted within the gates.

For all persons having the privilege of the entrée, tickets will be delivered at the Board of Green Cloth, on Tuesday next, from eleven till three o'clock; their carriages are to pass through Constitution-hill-gate, into St. James's-park: those belonging to the Ambassadors and Foreign Ministers are to set down at the Ambassadors'-entrance in Marlborough-court, at the east end of St. James's-palace, and wait there till called: those belonging to the Cabinet Ministers and Great Officers of State are to set down in the Middle-court, and wait there: the carriages of all other persons having the entrée are likewise to set down in the Middle-court, and wait in Stable-yard, or St. James's-park, till called: they are then to take up in the same order as they had set down, and pass away up St. James's-street.

No carriage will be admitted with company a second time with the same ticket; to prevent which, it must be produced at Constitution-hill-gate, and Stable-yard-gate also, where a corner of it will be torn off by the Marshalmen in attendance; and no person can be allowed the privilege of the entrée by any other approach to the Palace than as above directed.

WESTMINSTER, Lord Steward.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, April 11, 1851.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 28th of May next, at two o'clock.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 5th day of May 1851,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of Wilsford and Woodford, in the cathedral church of Salisbury, and now vested in us.

"Whereas it is by the said Act (amongst other things) enacted, that notwithstanding the charge by that Act created (being a charge created in favour of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne), all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tenements, or other hereditaments whatsoever, by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or other hereditaments vested in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property hereinafter described is vested in us), and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts, and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us, by proper instruments in writing duly executed according to law, with a certain proviso respecting the application of every sum of money received as the consideration or purchase-money for the sale, transfer, and conveyance by us of any of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein, and with a further proviso that none of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments be sold, transferred or conveyed, except by the authority of a Scheme, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying the same:

"And whereas all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments (excepting any right of patronage) formerly belonging to the said prebend of Wilsford and Woodford, became vested in us on the vacancy of the said prebend, subject to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof:

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments; and after due consideration it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered, by deed or deeds executed under our common seal, from time to time to sell and convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said prebend of Wilsford and Woodford, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable:

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Salisbury.

WE, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby, under the authority of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Customs," appoint Greenock to be a port in that part of the United Kingdom called Scotland, and we do hereby declare that the limits of the said port shall commence at the point of the hill of Ardmore on the north of the Clyde, and shall extend from thence to the Greenock Whale Fishing Buildings on the south side of the said River Clyde, being about one mile and two-thirds of a mile east of Cathcart-square, Greenock, thence westerly and southerly to the point of land called Porting-cross, or Port Crawford, in the county of Ayr, including the villages of Largs and Fairlie, thence to the north-east point of the island of Arran, (but exclusive of any part of the coast of the said island,) thence in a straight course to the point of Barmore in Knapdale, thence along the west side of Loch Tyne, and through the Crinan Canal, and from thence along the coast of Loch Crinan and Loch Craignish, on the one side thereof to a supposed point on the mainland of Knapdale opposite to and directly south from the point of Craignish, from thence north-westerly to the north-easternmost point of the island of Jura, from thence west to the most northern point of the island of Colonsay, from thence southerly along the west side of the said last mentioned island to Tonvere Point, being the north-westernmost point of the island of Islay, from thence north-west to the isle or rock in the sea called Dubheartach, from thence north-west to the rock called Skerryvore, from thence to the isle or rock called Dusker, lying near the west side of the island of Tiree, from thence northward to the southernmost point of the island of Cana, (including the island of Hysker,) from thence along the west and north coast of the said isle of Cana to the easternmost point thereof, from thence on a supposed line eastward to Dunan Point, in the isle of Skye, from thence upon a supposed line south-eastward to the point of Sleat, in the said island of Skye, from thence upon a supposed line south-eastward to the point Arisaig on the mainland, from thence southward along the coast of the mainland to Loch Moydart, and so along the coast of that loch to Kinlock Moydart, at the head of the said loch, from thence farther along the coast westward to the point of Ardnamurchan, from thence along the western and southern coast of Ardnamurchan to Strontian, in Loch Suart, from thence along the southern coast of Loch Suart to the point of Arliston in Morven, on the north-east side of the sound of Mull to the point of Ardenriden, from thence to the north-eastmost point of the island of Lismore, thence to Portnacrosch, opposite the castle of Ellen Stalker, thence southerly to the town of Oban, and from thence along the coasts of the sea and intervening lochs to a supposed point in the mainland of Knapdale, lying opposite to and directly south from the point of Craignish, and from thence along the coast of Craignish and Loch Crinan (and through the Crinnan canal), including the islands of Lismore, Kerrara, Suil, Lunga, Scarba, Shuna, the islands called the Easdale or Slates, and all other islands adjacent; the islands of Mull, Tiree, Coll, Muck, Egg, Rum, and Cana, and all other islands lying within the limits aforesaid; in the Clyde, the islands of Bute, Great and Little Cambra, and shall include the whole of Loch Tyne, and all bays, rivers, harbours, and creeks within the said limits, and shall extend seawards a distance of three miles from low water mark along the coast, within the limits of this port. And we, the said Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do hereby appoint the following places within the said port of Greenock to be legal quays for the lading and unloading of goods, and do hereby declare the bounds and limits of the said quays to be as follow, that is to say:—all that open place, quay, or wharf at Greenock, being that part of the West Breast, commencing near the foot of the West Quay-lane, extending north-east, in length four hundred and eighty-one feet and in breadth from forty-five to sixty-four feet: also all that open place called the West India Quay, commencing at the north-east extremity of the above part of the West Breast, extending south-east, in length four hundred and thirty-eight feet, and in breadth from fifty-two to seventy-two feet: also the West Breast from West Quay-lane, in a south-east direction, to the north-west side of the dry dock, in length 226 feet, and in breadth 48 feet: also the exterior or north-west side only of the jetty, forming the north-west side of the dry dock, in length 212 feet, and in breadth 27 feet: also the exterior or south-east side only of the jetty, forming the south-east side of the said dry dock, in length 204 feet, and 27 feet in breadth: also the West Breast from dry dock to Mid Quay, in length 242 feet, and 50 feet in breadth: also the Mid Quay projecting into the harbour, in length 303 feet, and in breadth from 43 feet to 58 feet.

Also the East Breast from the Mid Quay in an easterly direction to the East Quay, 555 feet in length, and from 46 to 52 feet in breadth. Also the north-west side of the East or Custom House Quay, projecting from the said East Breast, in a northerly direction, in length 200 feet, and in breadth 52 feet, and a continuation of the same quay, in an easterly direction, in length 450 feet, and in breadth 33 feet. Also the breast called the East India Breast, commencing about 500 feet to the east of the said East Breast, and extending in a north-westerly direction 97 feet in length, and 50 feet in breadth, and continuing in a north-east direction, 490 feet in length, and 60 feet in breadth. Also the East India Quay, from the eastern extremity of the said East India Breast in a north-east direction, in length 439 feet, and from 74 to 80 feet in breadth. Also the East India Quay in a north-west direction, 520 feet in length, and 60 feet in breadth. Also all those quays or wharfs which surround the new harbour at Greenock, called Victoria Harbour, extending in a north-east direction, parallel to the East India Quay, in length 563 feet, and in breadth 99 feet, (which breadth includes the space already legalized for the East India Quay). In an easterly direction 386 feet in length (including the entrance to the said harbour), and 70 feet in breadth. In a southerly direction, 563 feet in length, and 75 feet in breadth, and in a westerly direction, 530 feet in length, and 35 in breadth.

Also all those open places at Rothesay, within the said port of Greenock, namely the South-East Quay of the harbour of Rothesay, in length 636 feet, and from 20 to 58 feet in breadth. Also the breast work extending from the last-mentioned quay, in a north-west direction, in length 179 feet, and in breadth from 28 feet to 40 feet.

Also all those places at Lochgilphead, within the said port of Greenock, namely Oakfield Wharf, within the banks of the Crinan Canal, one quarter of a mile west of Lochgilphead, lying south-west and north-north-east, in length 125 feet, and in breadth 27 feet. Also Ardrishaig Pier and Quay, south-south-west two miles from Lochgilphead, at the eastern termination of the Crinan Canal Quay, running out east-south-east 523 feet in length, and in breadth from 17 to 25 feet. Also Ardrishaig Steam-boat Quay, about 300 yards north of the pier, running out east-south-east, in length 215 feet, and in breadth from 27 to 57 feet.

Also all that place at Oban, within the said port of Greenock, called the Pier or Quay, on the north side of the town of Oban, extending from the beach, in length 200 feet, and in breadth 28½ feet.

Also all those places at Tobermorey, within the said port of Greenock, namely, the two piers or quays projecting from the breast work which runs in part from east to west, and in part from north to south, along the beach at the town of Tobermorey, namely, the quay or pier called the New Pier, projecting from the eastern extremity of the said breast work, and extending therefrom 300 feet in length, and 18 feet in breadth; also the pier or quay, called Sinclair's Quay, projecting from the said breast work, near the further extremity thereof, and extending therefrom, being 160 feet in length, and 33 feet in breadth.

Also the pier or quay at Largs, within the said port of Greenock, being the pier or quay running due west from the main street at Largs, being 300 feet in length, and from 36 to 40 feet in breadth; also a continuation of the said quay, running due north, being 143 feet in length, and about 31 feet in breadth.

And we, the said Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do hereby annul all former limits of the said port of Greenock, and all former legal quays set out and appointed within the said port.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the 7th day of May 1851.
