BRITISH GUIANA.
County of Berbice.

PURSUANT to an Order of His Honour Jeffery Hart Bent, Chief Justice of British Guiana, bearing date January 29th, 1851, in the matter of Her Majesty's Assistant Receiver-General versus the Proprietor or Proprietors, Representative or Representatives, of Plantation Goldstone Hall;

I, the undersigned, Provost-Marshal of British Guiana, do advertise, for the first, second, and third time, that I, or my lawful deputy, will expose for sale, at public judicial auction, in the month of February 1852;

The lots of land more particularly described hereafter, and now worked together as a sugar estate, under the name of Plantation Goldstone Hall, situate, lying, and being on the east bank of the River Canje, in the county of Berbice, and colony of British Guiana, cum annexis, consisting of Lot Number Nine (No. 9), on the east bank of the River Canje, within the county, and containing seven hundred and sixteen and three-fourth acres of land, more or less, (save and except that piece or parcel of land, being part of said Lot No. 9, situated on the east bank of the River Canje, containing one thousand and fifty feet in depth, by sixty feet in breadth, with the buildings thereon, bounded on the north by the public road, on the south by the River Canje, and on the east and west by said Lot No. 9, the right of drainage to the western side being retained by the present as well as any future proprietor or proprietors of said Lot No. 9, as the said piece of land was transported to the Lord Bishop of the Diocese, by transport bearing date the 30th October 1839). Further, the upper two-third parts, or five hundred and ten and two-third acres of a piece of land, containing in the whole seven hundred and sixty-six acres, more or less, situated on the east side of the River Canje, and known as Lot No. Ten (No. 10), bounding on Plantation Goldstone Hall. Further, all that sugar plantation or estate, situated on the east bank of the River Canje, within this county, and commonly called or known by the name of Goldstone Hall, being Lot No. Eleven (No. 11), containing eight hundred and fifty-two acres of land, more or less, and such with all the cultivation, planting, erections, machinery, engines, buildings, tools, materials, punts, boats, live and dead stock, and further appurtenances thereto belonging. And, lastly, all that lot of land known on the general chart as Lot No. Twelve (No. 12), situate on the east bank of the River Canje, as per inventory.

All persons who may have any right, title, or interest in and to the nett proceeds of the property above described, are hereby summoned to appear in person, or by attorney, at the Registrar's office for the county of Berbice, within one calendar month after the expiration of the Registrar's advertisement to that effect (which advertisement will be issued twenty-one days after the sale of the said property), for the purpose of delivering into said Registrar's office their respective claims, with all the documents and vouchers in support thereof, in order that the Honourable the Supreme Court of Civil Justice of British Guiana may proceed to a decision of præ et concurrentia on the said nett proceeds, on pain, in default thereof, as the law directs.

An inventory of the above property may be seen at the counting-house of Messrs. John Kingston and Company, 6, Crosby-square, London.

Marshal's Office, this 31st day of March 1851.

W. H. HOLMES, Provost-Marshal, British Guiana.
