

3rd. That the Proprietors of the Company be entitled to subscribe for such additional shares in proportion to the number of shares now held by them in the capital of the Company, and that every Proprietor who shall, on or before the said 10th day of July next, pay the first instalment of 10s. per share upon each or any of the shares now held by him in the capital of the Company, and also the three subsequent instalments, at the times before specified shall, upon the completion of the said payments, be entitled to so many additional shares in the capital of the said Company.

4th. That in case any of the said instalments shall remain unpaid after the days on which the same shall be due, the Directors shall be at liberty and they are hereby authorized to declare all previous payments made in respect thereof forfeited to the use of the Company, and the Directors shall be at liberty to deal with such shares in the same way as if they had not been subscribed for.

5th. That if after the said 10th day of July next any of such additional shares shall not have been subscribed for as hereinbefore mentioned, the Directors shall be at liberty to admit others of the Proprietors to subscribe for the same, or to sell them for the benefit of the Company.

6th. That any subscriber for such additional shares be allowed to pay in advance the whole amount of instalments, or any part thereof, and that in that case discount at the rate of five per cent. be allowed in respect thereof.

7th. That it is expedient that the shares in the said Company, as well those already existing as the additional shares proposed to be created, should be consolidated by merging ten shares in one consolidated share; and that the present certificates be called in and new certificates be substituted on the footing of one new share for every ten old shares.

8th. That from and after such consolidation of shares the scale of voting be altered, and that every shareholder shall have one vote in respect of every share he holds.

9th. That after such consolidation of shares the qualification of Directors be altered, and that the qualification of Directors be twenty consolidated shares.

10th. That after such consolidation of shares, any ten shareholders holding not less than ten consolidated shares each, may call upon the Directors to convene a special general meeting of the Proprietors.

11th. That it be wholly left to the judgment and discretion of the Directors to work the said mines and sell the ores and other produce thereof, in such way and on such terms as they shall think most advantageous to the Company.

12th. That for the future the annual general meeting of Proprietors be held on such day in the month of June as the Directors shall in their discretion think most convenient, provided that ten days' previous notice be given by advertisement in the London Gazette and one daily paper.

Dated this 12th day of June 1851.
