FRIDAY, AUGUST 1, 1851.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 17th day of July, 1851,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorize the division of the parish and vicarage of Leeds, in the county of York, into several parishes and vicarages," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, in the words following, that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventh and eighth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to authorize the division of the parish and vicarage of Leeds, in the county of York, into several parishes and vicarages,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for setting out, constituting, and annexing a district for spiritual purposes to the church or chapel of Saint Michael, Farnley, in the said parish of Leeds.

"Whereas it was by the said Act enacted, that it should be lawful, by the authority provided in certain Acts therein recited, that is to say, by a scheme or schemes prepared by us according to the provisions of the same Acts, and an Order or Orders of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, at such time or times, and from time to time, as by such authority should be deemed expedient, to set out and constitute, and to annex to any and every church or chapel already duly consecrated within the limits of the existing parish of Leeds, but in each and every such case with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, and of the trustees of the advowson of the vicarage of Leeds, a district for spiritual purposes, within such boundaries as by the like authority might be considered to be most suitable and convenient, and for that purpose to vary the boundaries of any district then subsisting; and the same Act contains a proviso for postponing the operation of any such scheme and Order in the case of a church or chapel then consecrated, until the next vacancy thereof, unless with the consent of the incumbent thereof then in possession.

"And whereas it was by the same Act provided and enacted, that a district should not be annexed, under the foregoing provisions, to any such church or chapel unless or until the nave or body thereof should be, or should have been, made free for the use of the inhabitants of such district (subject to the order and disposal of the ordinary), nor unless or until a house of residence for the incumbent of such church or chapel should have been provided, or the means of providing the same should have been secured to the satisfaction of us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and the bishop of the diocese; but it was in the same Act provided, that if any difficulty or impediment should be found or arise by reason whereof the nave or body of any such church or chapel could not be made entirely free as aforesaid, it should be lawful for the bishop of the diocese (if, upon examination into all the circumstances of the case, he should think proper so to do), to order and direct that a district might be annexed to any such church or chapel, although some part or parts of the nave or body, not exceeding one-twentieth part thereof, should not be or have been made free as aforesaid.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us, that the entire floor or body of the said church or chapel of Saint Michael, Farnley, is free for the use of the inhabitants of the district herein recommended to be constituted and annexed to the said church or chapel of Saint Michael, Farnley, with the exception of one pew, situate in the north-east corner of the nave or body of the said church or chapel, and containing not more than one-twentieth part of the sittings therein, the right of occupancy of which pew is claimed by William Armitage, of Farnley Hall, within the said parish, Esquire.

"And whereas the means of providing a house of residence for the incumbent of the said church have been secured, to the satisfaction of ourselves and of the Bishop of Ripon, who has also ordered and directed that, notwithstanding the said pew so claimed by the said William Armitage as aforesaid cannot be made free, a district may be annexed to the said church or chapel, according to the provisions of the said Act.

"And whereas no ecclesiastical district has yet been legally assigned to the said church or chapel, and it has been represented to us, that it would be, and it appears to us and the said bishop to be, expedient, that a district, comprised within the boundaries hereinafter specified, should be forthwith set out and constituted, and annexed to the said church or chapel.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Thomas, Bishop of Ripon; and of the Reverend Thomas Wilson, Clerk, the present incumbent of the said church or chapel of Saint Michael, Farnley, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, and also with the consent of the patrons of the church of Saint Peter, Leeds, in testimony whereof they have hereunto affixed their common seal, that all that part of the parish of Leeds comprised within the boundaries or limits of the township of Farnley, in the same parish, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth in the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall be forthwith constituted and annexed to the said church or chapel of Saint Michael, Farnley, in the said parish of Leeds, so as fully to entitle the said church or chapel, and such district so annexed thereto, and the present and every future incumbent thereof, to all the benefits, rights, privileges, advantages, and attributes accruing and attaching thereto, under the provisions of the same Act; and that the nave or body of the said church or chapel, with the exception of the pew aforesaid, shall be for ever free for the use of the inhabitants of the said district, (subject to the order and disposal of the ordinary) and the house of residence to be provided for the incumbent as aforesaid, when so provided and approved by the bishop of the diocese for the time being, under his hand and seal, shall, with its appurtenances, be and for ever remain the house of residence and vicarage of the incumbent and vicar of the same church or chapel, and of the parish and vicarage of Saint Michael, Farnley.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said recited Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas notice of the said scheme has been duly given in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, and no objection has been made thereto:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ripon.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 17th day of July 1851,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

reign, entitled "An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the third day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for prospectively vesting in us, for the purposes of the said Act, the property now forming the endowment of the prebend of Shipton-under-Wychwood, in the cathedral church of Salisbury, and substituting for the same a money payment to the future holders of such prebend.

"Whereas with a view to enabling us to make the tithes or other property belonging to any prebend which is permanently annexed to any professorship more conducive to the spiritual welfare of the parishes or places dependent thereon or connected therewith, it is by the said recited Act enacted that, by the authority in the therein secondly and thirdly recited Acts provided, (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same,) it shall be lawful, with the consent in writing of the patron of any such professorship, to make any arrangement for vesting in us all or any of the lands, tithes, tenements or hereditaments, or other endowments of such prebend, and to substitute for the same any such and reasonable money payment to the holder thereof, and all such future perpetual annual payments to his successors in the same dignity or office as shall be deemed by the like authority to be fit and proper; and also, with the consent in writing of such patron, to make any arrangement which shall be deemed fit as to the future exercise of the patronage of any benefice, with cure of souls, held by the holder of such prebend; but that no such alterations shall take any effect during the time that the present holder of such prebend shall hold the same, except with the consent in writing thereto of such holder.

"And whereas the said prebend of Shipton-under-Wychwood is annexed to the professorship of civil law, in the University of Oxford, in the patronage of Your Majesty, and is endowed with, inter alia, the impropriate rectory of the parish of Shipton-under-Wychwood, in the county of Oxford, now let upon a lease for three lives, and the parish of Shipton-under-Wychwood, and the several townships or hamlets of Ascot-under-Wychwood, Ramsden, Leafield, Milton, and Lynham are dependent thereon or connected therewith.

"And whereas the following arrangements appear to us to be expedient with a view to enabling us to make better provision for the cure of souls in the said parish and places:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of Your Majesty, as patron of the said professorship, testified by the signing and sealing of this scheme by the first Lord of Your Majesty's Treasury, we humbly recommend and propose that upon the next vacancy of the said professorship, all the lands, tithes, and other hereditaments whatsoever, situate and being, arising or accruing within the said parish and places, or any or either of them, and now belonging to the said prebend (except any right of patronage), shall, subject to any lease or leases thereof, or of any part or parts thereof, then legally subsisting, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be transferred to and become invested in us for the purposes hereinbefore mentioned.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the annual proceeds of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments shall, after making deductions for all necessary expenses, be carried in our books to the credit of a fund, to be called the Shipton Fund, which shall be held by us in trust to be applied, and shall from time to time be applied in manner following, that is to say: there shall, as a primary charge upon such fund, and be paid by us thereout by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in every year, to the professor of civil law, in the University of Oxford, for the time being, the annual sum of one hundred pounds; and the first of such half-yearly payments, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next following such vacancy of the said professorship; and provided also that if upon any such day of payment such fund shall not be sufficient to meet the whole of such primary charge, a sum equivalent to the deficiency shall be paid by us to the said professor out of the common fund under our control, and shall be repaid to the said common fund, together with compound interest for the same, at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum, out of the first moneys standing to the credit of the Shipton Fund aforesaid, on any subsequent day of payment, over and above the amount of such primary charge.

"And we further recommend and propose that at the termination of each and every whole year ending on the said first day of May or of November, as the case may be, the remainder of such fund, after discharging thereout such payments and repayments as aforesaid, shall be divided into thirteen equal parts, and shall be distributed in manner hereinafter mentioned, among the several incumbents or ministers for the time being of the several benefices or churches following, that is to say: to the vicar of Shipton-under-Wychwood aforesaid one of such parts, to each of the incumbents of the chapelries or districts of Ascott, Leafeld, and Ramsden respectively, two of such parts, and to the vicar of Shipton, towards providing a curate for the townships of Milton and Lyneham, or if the said townships or any part thereof shall at any time be formed into an ecclesiastical district, to the incumbent of such district, six of such parts.

"And we further recommend and propose that upon the said vacancy of the said professorship, the advowson of and right of presentation to the vicarage of Shipton-under-Wychwood aforesaid shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than any such duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council as aforesaid, be transferred to and become vested in, and be exercised by the Bishop of Oxford for the time being, and his successors, Bishops of Oxford, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the earlier endowment or augmentation of the income of any or either of the said benefices or churches, at any time, by annexation thereto of any of the said lands, tithes, and other hereditaments now belonging to the said prebend, or the proceeds thereof, or any part or parts thereof, by the owner or owners of the leasehold interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, or to prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the several registries of the dioceses of Oxford and Salisbury.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 17th day of July 1851,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes;" and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend an Act for making better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes;" and of another Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the third day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,' and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventh and eighth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend an Act for making better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,' and of another Act passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for altering the bounds of the new parish of Saint John Baptist, Nottingham, in the diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas it is by the herein secondly-recited Act enacted, that it shall be lawful, by the authority provided in the herein first-recited Act, at any time or times within twelve months after the date of the licence of the minister first licensed to any separate district, constituted under the provisions of the same Act, to alter the bounds of such district, although any alteration be not required with a view to the constituting of another separate district; provided always, that the scheme for making any such alteration shall be subject to all the provisions relating to schemes for constituting separate districts under the said first-recited Act.

"And whereas it is by the herein thirdly-recited Act enacted, that the powers and authority relating to the alteration of the boundaries of districts contained in the said secondly-recited Act may, as to any such district now existing, notwithstanding the limitation in the same Act contained, be exercised at any time within five years from the passing of the said thirdly-recited Act, and that notwithstanding that any such district may have become a new parish by virtue of the provisions of the said first-recited Act.

"And whereas the district of Saint John Baptist, Nottingham, was duly constituted out of the parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Nottingham, in the said diocese of Lincoln, under the provisions of the said first-recited Act, by a scheme prepared by us, and ratified by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the third day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and duly gazetted; and, by reason of a church having been duly approved by us, and consecrated as the church of such district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, such district has since become, under the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, and is now known as such by the name of 'The New Parish of Saint John Baptist, Nottingham.'

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and appears to us to be expedient, that the bounds of such new parish should be altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lincoln, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that the bounds of the said new parish of Saint John Baptist, Nottingham, shall be altered and extended on the southern side thereof, so as to include within such new parish all that part of the said parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Nottingham, which is situate between the carriage road to Wilford and Clifton on the west, and the London Road on the east, and bounded on the south by the stream called 'Tinker's Leen,' all of which is delineated and set forth in the map or plan hereunto annexed, and shall henceforth be united to and form part of the said new parish of Saint John Baptist, Nottingham.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been duly transmitted to the several incumbents and patrons as required by the said Acts, and such incumbents and patrons have respectively consented thereto:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for severing the vicarage of Almondsbury from the see of Gloucester and Bristol.

"Whereas, after reciting that certain benefices, with cure of souls, are annexed to, or have long been accustomedly held with the several sees of Gloucester and Bristol, Oxford, and Peterborough, and that it is expedient that such benefices should be severed from the said sees, and that the endowments thereof should be applied as thereafter mentioned, it is by the said Act enacted, that so soon as conveniently may be, the said several benefices shall, by the authority provided by the Acts therein recited (that is to say by schemes prepared by us and Orders of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same), be detached and severed from the said sees respectively, and that the tithes, glebe, and other endowments belonging to the said benefices respectively, shall by the like authority, by means of division of united parishes, endowment of district churches, or such other arrangements as the case may require, be distributed and appropriated in such manner, within the limits of the respective parishes, as shall be deemed most conducive to the spiritual welfare of the inhabitants thereof respectively, and that there shall be assigned, by the like authority, to the bishop in possession of each such benefice, at the time of such its severance from his see, an annual sum to be paid to him, so long as he shall continue bishop of the same see, out of the funds in our hands, not exceeding in amount the average annual net income theretofore accruing to such bishop from such benefice, after deducting all charges thereupon and outgoings therefrom, including for the stipend or stipends of any curate or curates employed by such bishop, the rate of stipend now by law payable in the like case to the curate of non-resident incumbents, or such greater stipend or stipends as shall have been actually paid by such bishop.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that the annual sum to be assigned to the Right Reverend James Henry, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, under the hereinbefore recited provision, shall be four hundred and fifty pounds, and shall be payable by us by equal half yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November, in every year, and that the first of such payments, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of November next.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 17th day of July 1851,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled “ An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage,” and of another Act passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled “ An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, in the words following; that is to say:

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled ‘ An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage,’ and of another Act passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled ‘ An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,’ have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme, for severing the benefice of Castor from the see of Peterborough, and for abolishing peculiar and exempt jurisdictions in the diocese of Peterborough.

“ Whereas, after reciting that certain benefices, with cure of souls, are annexed to, or have long been accustomed held with, the several sees of Gloucester and Bristol, Oxford, and Peterborough, and that it is expedient that such benefices should be severed from the said sees, and that the endowments thereof should be applied as therein-after mentioned; it is by the secondly recited Act enacted, that, so soon as conveniently may be, the said several benefices shall, by the authority provided by the Acts therein recited (that is to say, by schemes prepared by us, and Orders of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same), be detached and dis severed from the said sees respectively, and that the tithes, glebe, and other endowments belonging to the said benefices respectively shall, by the like authority, by means of division of united parishes, endowment of district churches, or such other arrangements as the case may require, be distributed and appropriated in such manner, within the limits of the respective parishes, as shall be deemed most conducive to the spiritual welfare of the inhabitants thereof respectively; and that there shall be assigned, by the like authority, to the bishop in possession of each such benefice, at the time of such its severance from his see, an annual sum to be paid to him so long as he shall continue bishop of the same see, out of the funds in our hands, not exceeding in amount the average annual net income theretofore accruing to such bishop from such benefice, after deducting all charges thereupon and outgoings therefrom, including, for the stipend or stipends of any curate or curates employed by such bishop, the rate of stipend now by law payable in the like case to the curate of non-resident incumbents, or such greater stipend or stipends as shall have been actually paid by such bishop.

“ And whereas it is by the first recited Act enacted, that we shall from time to time prepare and lay before your Majesty in Council schemes for carrying into effect certain recommendations therein recited (inter alia, that the limits of deanries and archdeaconries be newly arranged, so that every parish and extra-parochial place be within a rural deanry, and every deanry within an archdeaconry), and it is provided that it shall be competent to us to propose in any such scheme that all parishes, churches, or chapelries which are locally situate in any diocese, but subject to any peculiar jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese in which the same are locally situate, shall be only subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which such parishes, churches, or chapelries are locally situate.

“ And whereas by the secondly recited Act it is declared and enacted, that the arrangements with reference to peculiar or exempt jurisdictions which we are, under the provisions of the said first recited Act, empowered and authorised to propose in any scheme for carrying into effect any of the recommendations therein recited, may be recommended and proposed in any scheme or schemes, whether relating to such arrangements solely, or also to any other matter and thing contained in any or either of the Acts therein recited, or of the Act now in recital.

"And whereas the rectory of the parish of Castor, with the chapelries of Sutton and Upton annexed, in the county of Northampton, and diocese of Peterborough, a benefice, with cure of souls, is annexed to or has long been accustomedly held with the see of Peterborough.

"And whereas, by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of June now last past, it was provided that, upon the next avoidance of the said rectory and parish church of Castor, the said chapelries of Sutton and Upton should be separated from the said rectory and parish church, and be constituted respectively separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes, and become separate perpetual curacies and benefices, and that the future holders thereof respectively should be entitled to certain portions of the endowments and profits then belonging to the said rectory, as therein more particularly set forth, subject to the other provisions and conditions therein also particularly mentioned, and we do not desire to recommend to your Majesty any further or other distribution or appropriation of the tithes, glebe, and other endowments belonging to the said rectory; but we deem it expedient that the said benefice of Castor should forthwith be severed from the said see.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that, on and from the day on which any Order of your Majesty in Council for ratifying this scheme shall be first published in the London Gazette, the said rectory of Castor, with the chapelries of Sutton and Upton, shall be detached and dis severed from the said see of Peterborough.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the annual sum to be assigned to the Right Reverend George, Bishop of Peterborough, under the hereinbefore recited provision, shall be the sum of six hundred and seventy-five pounds, and shall be payable by us by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May, and the first day of November, in every year, and that the first of such payments, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of November next.

"And we further recommend and propose that, on and from the day aforesaid, all parishes and places locally situate within the limits of the said diocese of Peterborough, and of the several archdeaconries of the same respectively, and all churches and chapels, and the whole clergy, and others, your Majesty's subjects, locally situate within the limits of such parishes and places respectively, shall, notwithstanding any peculiar or other ecclesiastical jurisdiction or exemption from jurisdiction, which any of such parishes, places, churches, chapels, clergy, or others, may possess or be subject to, or claim to possess or be subject to, be respectively under and subject only to the jurisdiction and authority of the Bishop of Peterborough, and of the respective archdeacons of the several archdeaconries of the said diocese of Peterborough, within the limits of which they shall respectively be so locally situate, except the cathedral church of Peterborough, which shall remain and be subject to the jurisdiction and visitation to which the same is now by law subject, and to none other.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said

Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Peterborough.
