Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 29, 1851.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 7th day of August 1851,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with cer- "tain modifications, the fourth report of the Com- "missioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirty-first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act 'to carry into effect, with certain modifications, 'the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ec- 'clesiastical Duties and Revenues,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for augmenting the income of the archdeaconry of Coventry, in the diocese of Worcester.

"Whereas it was by the said Act enacted, that so soon as conveniently might be, and by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same), any archdeaconry might, subject to the consent of the bishop, be endowed by the annexation either of an entire canonry or of a canonry charged with the payment of such portion of its income as should be determined on towards providing for another archdeacon in the same diocese, or with such last-mentioned portion of the income of a canonry, or by augmentation out of the common fund, in the same Act mentioned, but not so as in that case to raise the average annual income thereof to an amount exceeding two hundred pounds, and that no canonry should be so charged with the payment of a portion of the income thereof to any archdeacon, unless the average annual income of such canonry, after payment of such portion as aforesaid, should amount to or exceed five hundred pounds; with a proviso that no archdeacon should be entitled to hold any endowment or augmentation or other emolument as such archdeacon under the provisions of the same Act, unless resident for the space of eight months in every year within the diocese in which his archdeaconry should be situate, but subject to the same provisions as to licences for non-residence which are enacted with respect to incumbents of benefices by the Act relating to pluralities and residence in the same Act mentioned.

"And whereas the permanent average annual income of the said archdeaconry of Coventry does not exceed the average annual sum of fifty-eight pounds.

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of Worcester, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that, until the next vacancy of a canonry in the cathedral church of Worcester, there shall be paid by us, out of the common fund, to the archdeacon of Coventry for the time being, provided that he shall duly reside, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or shall have obtained licence of non-residence, the annual sum of one hundred and forty-two pounds on the first day of November in every year; and that the first such whole yearly payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of November next; and every such whole yearly payment shall be made only on production to us of sufficient evidence that the archdeacon claiming the same continued so entitled during the preceding year.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said archdeaconry, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Worcester.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 7th day of August 1851,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with "certain modifications, the fourth report of the "Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and "Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act "for enabling ecclesiastical corporations, aggre- "gate and sole, to grant leases for long terms of "years," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of August one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act 'to carry into effect, with certain modifications, 'the fourth report of the Commissioners of Eccle- 'siastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for enabling ecclesiastical 'corporations, aggregate and sole, to grant leases 'for long terms of years,' have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for determining the portion of the improved value to be made payable to us in a certain mining lease about to be granted by the perpetual curate of Westhoughton, in the parish of Dean, in the county of Lancaster, and diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas by the said last-recited Act it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for any ecclesiastical corporation, aggregate or sole (excepting as therein is excepted, which exception does not include the case of a perpetual curate), from time to time, with the consent or consents in that behalf thereby required, and subject to the provisions in the same Act contained, to grant or demise by lease, for any term not exceeding sixty years, any mines, minerals, quarries, or beds belonging to such corporation:

"And whereas, in pursuance of the powers contained in the said recited enactment, it is proposed by the Reverend James Richard Alsop, the perpetual curate of Westhoughton aforesaid, with the consents required by the same Act, to grant and demise by lease certain mines, minerals, or beds, with the produce thereof, belonging to him as such perpetual curate, situate at Westhoughton aforesaid, together with the right of opening and working the same:

"And whereas by the same Act it is further enacted, that in case of any lease of mines, minerals, quarries, or beds granted thereunder, such portion of the improved value accruing under such lease, as by the authority provided in the first-recited Act shall be determined, not being more than three fourth parts, nor less than one moiety of such improved value, shall forthwith, and from time to time as the same shall accrue, be paid to us, and shall be subject to the provisions relating to moneys payable to us:

"And whereas the improved value to accrue under the lease so proposed to be granted as aforesaid will, according to the meaning of the same Act, be the whole of the rents, royalties, or other reservations which will become payable thereunder:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that three fourth parts of the whole net amount of the reservation or reservations to be made in the said lease so to be granted, whether consisting of rent, royalty, or otherwise, shall, by such lease, be made directly payable to us; and that we shall have all the like remedies in respect of such three fourth parts of any such reservation as aforesaid, as if the same were a separate rent reserved to us as lessors or grantors and reversioners of the premises comprised in such lease, independently of the rights and remedies of the said James Richard Alsop and his successors, perpetual curates of Westhoughton, in respect of the remaining one fourth part thereof, without any priority or preference between us and the perpetual curates of Westhoughton for the time being: and further, that we shall have full benefit and advantage, either jointly with or separately from the said James Richard Alsop, and his successors, perpetual curates of Westhoughton for the time being, of all or any of the covenants, conditions, and agreements in the said lease to be contained on the lessee's part, in like manner as if we had been grantors, lessors, and reversioners as aforesaid, and as in such lease shall be expressed; and that for effectuating such objects, the said lease shall and may be framed in such manner, and contain all such clauses and provisions as we shall approve, and shall have full force accordingly, any rule of law, statute, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

"And we further recommend and propose, that we shall be authorized and empowered to apply the moneys which shall from time to time be received by us by virtue or on account of the reservation or reservations aforesaid (after deducting therefrom all costs, charges, and expenses which we may have incurred in respect of the premises), towards making better provision for the cure of souls within the present limits of the said chapelry of Westhoughton:

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas notice of the said scheme has been given to the said James Richard Alsop, as such perpetual curate as aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the first-recited Act, and he has made no objection thereto:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Manchester.

The district chapelry of Winchmore Hill is bounded on the north by the parish of Enfield; on the west by the parish of Barnet, as far as the road leading from Barnet and Whetstone to Enfield, the boundary line will then proceed north-easterly up the middle of that road, as far as the road leading from East Pole Farm to Chase Gate, and then southerly down the middle of the latter road to Chase Gate, and enters the road leading from Chase Gate to Dog and Duck-lane, and along the middle of that lane to Fir-lane; the district chapelry is then bounded on the south by the said road, as far as Huxley Farm and Fir-lane; and on the east by proceeding northerly up the middle of Fir-lane, until it reaches the New River, then along the New River, as far as a private road in Mr. Curries' park, then turning westerly along such private road, and enters the road leading to Enfield, up the middle of which said latter road it will proceed north-easterly as far as the boundary line of the said parish of Edmonton; which said district chapelry of Winchmore Hill is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured purple. The district chapelry of Upper Edmonton is bounded on the south by the parish of Tottenham; on the east by the River Lea; on the north by a line proceeding from the River Lea westerly along the road leading from that river as far as the first bridge over a brook, then following the said brook as far as Tanners End Bridge, then along the middle of the road from that bridge to Southgate, as far as the occupation-road, running at right angles from Tanners End to Chase Gate, eastward of the New River; and on the west by the said occupation-road to the north-east end of Tile-kiln-lane, and from thence by the hedge to the New River, then by the New River to the boundary of the parish of Tottenham; which said district chapelry of Upper Edmonton is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured yellow.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in Weld Chapel, at Southgate aforesaid; and further, that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings, and likewise burials (so soon as burial grounds shall have been provided for the said district chapelries of Winchmore Hill and Upper Edmonton), should be solemnized or performed in the said churches of Saint Paul, at Winchmore Hill, and Saint James, at Upper Edmonton aforesaid; and that the fees to arise or accrue therefrom at each of the said three churches or chapels should be paid and belong to the respective incumbents thereof for the time being.

"That the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James, Bishop of the said diocese of London, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned; in testimony whereof, he has signed and sealed this representation:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignments be accordingly made; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns of matrimony, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith enrolled, pursuant to the said Acts, and registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.
