BRITISH GUIANA.
 County of Berbice.

BY virtue of an Order of his Honour Jeffery Hart Bent, Chief Justice of British Guiana, bearing date July 24th, 1851, in the matter of Her Majesty's Assistant Receiver-General versus the Proprietor or Proprietors, or Representative or Representatives of Plantation Port Mourant and Ankerville, situate on the Correntyne Coast of the county of Berbice, in British Guiana;

I, the undersigned, Provost-Marshall of British Guiana, or my lawful deputy, will expose for sale at public judicial auction, in the month of August 1852;

The Sugar Plantation or Estate known as Port Mourant and Ankerville, consisting of lots, numbers ten (10), eleven (11), and the western one-third of lot number twelve (12), including the second depths of said lots numbers ten (10), eleven (11), and the western one-third of lot number twelve (12), all situate, lying, and being on the east sea coast or Correntyne coast of the county of Berbice, in British Guiana, together with the cultivation, buildings, machinery, punts, live and dead stock, and further appurtenances thereunto belonging, save and except a plot or piece of land being part of the western half of Plantation Port Mourant, as laid down in a diagram of the Sworn Land Surveyor Duncan Fraser, dated 16th August 1843, transported to the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of British Guiana, on the 16th October 1843.

All persons who may have any right, title, or interest in and to the nett proceeds of the property above described, are hereby summoned to appear in person, or by attorney, at the Registrar's office for the county of Berbice within one calendar month after the expiration of the Registrar's advertisement to that effect (which advertisement will be issued twenty-one days after the sale of said property), for the purpose of delivering into said Registrar's office their respective claims, with all documents and vouchers in support thereof, in order that the Honourable the Supreme Court of Civil Justice of British Guiana may proceed to a decision of præ et concurrentia on the said nett proceeds, on pain, in default thereof, as the law directs.

An inventory of said plantation may be seen at the counting-house of Messrs. John Kingston and Company, No. 6, Crosby-square, London.

Marshall's Office, this 27th day of August 1851.

W. H. HOLMES, Provost-Marshall.
