

London, 6th September 1851.
NOTICE is hereby given, that the Partnership hitherto existing between the undersigned, under the firm of Macbryde, Mackenzie, and Co. of Nos. 44 and 45, Watling-street, London, Wine and Spirit Merchants, is this day dissolved by mutual consent; and that the undersigned, Kenneth Mackenzie, by whom the business will in future be carried on, is authorised to settle all the accounts of the said late partnership, and give receipts for moneys due.

Charles Wilson Macbryde.
Kenneth Mackenzie.

WE, the undersigned, Isaac Hart and Lewis Hart, carrying on business in Somerset-street, Whitechapel, in the city of London, as Segar Manufacturers, have this day dissolved Partnership by mutual consent.—Dated this 8th October 1851.

I. Hart.
Lewis Hart.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Partnership heretofore subsisting between us the undersigned, John Colbourn and Samuel Growcutt, of Bankfield Works, in the parish of Sedgley, in the county of Stafford, and the Broad Waters Furnaces and Foundry, in the parish of Wednesbury, in the said county, Iron Masters, was this day dissolved by mutual consent so far as the trade at Bankfield Works is concerned. The trade at the Broad Waters aforesaid will be carried on by the said firm as usual.—Dated this 2nd day of October 1851.

John Colbourn.
Samuel Growcutt.

ALL persons claiming to be the first cousins, and as such the next of kin, of John Stuart, late of Prescott, in the county of Lancaster, Gentleman, deceased, formerly a Captain in the Lancashire Militia (who died at Prescott aforesaid, on the 30th day of December 1850, unmarried) are requested to send in the particulars of their respective claims, and the evidence in support thereof, to Mr. Stephen Church, Grove-cottage, Garvagh, or to Mr. Edmund Ward, Solicitor, Prescott, on or before the 1st day of November next, otherwise they will be excluded from any participation in a certain fund about to be divided by the surviving executors of the said John Stuart amongst his next of kin.

The said John Stuart was the only child of Andrew Stuart, formerly of Lissegrin, or Lissachrin, in the parish of Deasertocchal, in the county of Derry, but afterwards a Lieutenant on the half pay of Dunlop's Corps, and Jannet his wife, formerly Jannet Alexander, of Liverpool, Spinster, and the said Andrew Stuart died at Prescott aforesaid, in the year 1807.

To prevent needless trouble, it must be understood that no claim can be entertained except made by a first cousin, that is to say, by a child of a paternal or maternal uncle or aunt of the said John Stuart, deceased.

As the surviving executors have reason to believe that every first cousin of the said John Stuart, deceased, has duly made out his or her claim as one of such next of kin, this advertisement will not be repeated.—Prescot, 4th October 1851.
