

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1851.

Whitehall, October 17, 1851.

THE following Addresses were presented to Her Majesty on the occasion of Her Majesty's visit to the county of Lancaster, and were received very graciously:

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Salford, humbly avail ourselves of the auspicious occasion of your Majesty's gracious visit to this locality, to tender to your Majesty the tribute of our respectful homage, and to express the joyful gratification we experience in being enabled to welcome your Majesty within the precinct of this your Majesty's ancient manor of Salford.

The deep and lively interest your Majesty has ever taken in those measures of public policy which conduce to the physical and moral improvement of the people, combined with the exemplary virtues by which your Majesty is so pre-eminently distinguished, as well in the private relations of domestic life, as in the higher walks of your exalted station, have justly endeared your Majesty to all classes of your dutiful and affectionate subjects; and we ardently cherish the hope that the large and increasing population of this great manufacturing district, under your Majesty's benign sway, may be so educated and trained up in habits of industry and usefulness, that they may rightly fulfil their various duties to society, and be alike distinguished for their regard for social order, their attachment to the principles of religion and of constitutional loyalty.

In conclusion, we trust that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to accept the expression of our humble but earnest desire for the health and happiness of Yourself, your Royal Consort, and Family; and we fervently and devoutly pray, that under the gracious Providence of Almighty God, your Majesty may be long preserved to us as the guardian of the religious and civil rights and liberties of your subjects, and the Sovereign of a free, prosperous, and happy people.

Signed by me, Mayor of the borough of Salford, in name, and by appointment of the Council in Council assembled.

In testimony whereof, the seal of the said borough is hereunto affixed, this 8th day of October, 1851.

Thos. Agnew, Mayor.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Manchester, humbly approach your Majesty to offer, as the representatives of the inhabitants at large, the homage of an ardent and devoted attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government; and the assurance that we hail with feelings of heartfelt and grateful delight the august presence amongst us in this your Majesty's ancient County Palatine, of your Majesty, your Royal Consort, and Children.

The sentiments which the public visit of a Sovereign is in itself calculated to inspire, are greatly enhanced and strengthened, when, as on this auspicious occasion, the honourable distinction is conferred, for the first time in the course of centuries, by the gracious condescension of not only a Sovereign, but a Queen, who is not only entitled to the reverence which belongs to illustrious station and to the possession of constitutional authority, but who has also, in the highest degree, those endearing claims which arise from the constant and exemplary, though unostentatious practice of every private virtue.

Whilst we have the happiness thus to recognize the great moral influence which the example of your Majesty exercises over your people in all the social relations of life, it is also our gratifying duty to acknowledge the blessings which, under Divine Providence, have attended the public policy, that, with your Majesty's willing sanction and approval, has been steadily pursued during the whole of your Majesty's beneficent reign.

The effect of that policy, based on the full and eulightened recognition of a wisely regulated freedom, is strikingly manifest in the generally flourishing condition of the realm, and in the increased content and happiness of your Majesty's people. We believe that our country now enjoys more abundant elements of social welfare, and of national prosperity and strength, than at any former epoch of its history; demonstrating that the free institutions under which we live, and the free commercial policy which, under your Majesty's wise and benign auspices, have been recently consolidated in your Majesty's dominions, are the surest means of promoting, and the firmest foundations on which can rest, the progressive happiness, peace, and prosperity of nations.

That your Majesty may long live to witness the continued moral improvement and well-being of