Foreign-Office, November 20, 1851.

A DISPATCH has been this day received by Viscount Palmerston, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, from the Honourable George Edgcumbe, Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Hanover, announcing the melancholy intelligence of the decease of His Majesty the King of Hanover, which took place at Hanover, at a quarter before seven o'clock on the morning of the 18th instant.

At the Court at Windsor, the 23rd day of October 1851,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts," or under or by virtue of any and every other power or authority vested in them by the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eighth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, in the words following; that is to say:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parishes of Siston and Bitton, and also of the parish or district parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingswood, in the county of Gloucester, and all within the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate certain contiguous portions of the said parishes of Siston and Bitton, of the chapelry of Oldland, in the said parish of

Bitton, and of the said parish or district parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingswood, and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, for the consecrated church of Saint Barnabas, situate at Warmley, in the said parish of Siston, under and by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose contained in the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts,' or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed consolidated chapelry should be called or named 'The consolidated chapelry of Warmley,' with boundaries as hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: commencing at the turnpike-road at Bridge Yate, and proceeding southerly and south-easterly along the boundary-line which separates the parishes of Siston and Bitton from the parish of Pucklechurch, until it reaches the brook lying at the eastward of Cann Farm, then following the course of that brook, south-westerly, as far as Cowhorn-hill-bridge, and from that bridge, in a north-westerly direction, along a public footpath on the north-eastern side of the coalpits in the hamlet of Oldland, to the southern end of Wraxall-lane, then northerly up the middle of that lane until it reaches the turnpike-road from Kingswood-hill to Bridge Yate, and crossing that road easterly, enters the lane called Made-for-ever-lane, up the middle of which said lane it proceeds, in a northerly direction, until it reaches the main road across Siston Common, and proceeds south-easterly along the middle of that road until it reaches the southern boundary of the common lands called Goose Green, and continuing along such boundary south-easterly to the farm called Brook Farm, and from thence to the brook, down the course of which brook it then proceeds southerly as far as a field called Hook's Park, and then leaving such brook, to proceed westerly, southerly
