

NOTICE is hereby given, that pursuant to the provisions of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the thirty-seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for dividing, allotting, and enclosing the open fields, meadows, common pastures, and other common and waste lands and grounds, in the parish of Barrow, in the county of Lincoln,"

I, the undersigned, being an owner and proprietor of lands and hereditaments within the said parish of Barrow, which, under and by virtue of the said Act of Parliament, and the Award of the Commissioners under the same Act, are charged with the payment of a corn rent to the vicar of Barrow aforesaid, in lieu of tithes, intend to apply at the first Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to be held in and for the division of Lindsey, in the said county of Lincoln, in the week after the close of the Feast of Easter now next ensuing, or at such other time as the Justices shall fix and determine for holding their Easter General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to have three persons named and appointed by the Justices then and there assembled to be arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining, by the means in the said Act mentioned, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the county of Lincoln, for the twenty-one years then last past, for the purpose of re-ascertaining the corn rents to be payable to the vicar of Barrow aforesaid for the next fourteen years, in such manner as in and by the said recited Act is directed and set forth in that behalf.—Dated the 1st day of January 1852.

WM. GRABURN.

BY virtue and in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-eighth year of the reign of the late King George the Third, intituled "An Act for enclosing lands in the parish of Harlington, in the county of Bedford," notice is hereby given, that William Dodge Cooper Cooper, Esq. impropiator or owner of the impropriate rectory of Harlington aforesaid, and patron of the vicarage or parish church of Harlington aforesaid, and Elizabeth, his wife, they being also owners and proprietors of certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments in the said parish of Harlington, Edward Firmin Ellis, of Hendon, in the county of Middlesex, and Nathaniel Charles Milne, of the Inner Temple, London, Esquires, their trustees, and all and every other the owners and proprietors of lands, tenements, and hereditaments in the said parish of Harlington, upon or out of which any tithe or corn rent or rents is or are, by virtue of the said Act, charged or made payable to the vicar for the time being of the vicarage and parish church of Harlington, in the county of Bedford, do intend to apply to the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the county of Bedford in the first week after the 31st day of March next ensuing (that is to say), on the 8th day of April next, to have two persons named and appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be, together with a third person to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining by or from, or by means of, the London Gazette, so long as the returns of the average price of corn or grain shall have been published therein, and in case of no such publication, then by such other ways or means as they shall think equitable or proper, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat, within the said county of Bedford, for the ten years then last past, which said three arbitrators or referees, or the major part of them, shall, by their report in writing to be made and delivered to the Court of Quarter Sessions, to be holden in and for the said county of Bedford, in the first week after the 24th day of June then next ensuing (that is to say), on the 1st day of July next, set forth such average price to the intent that all and every the said yearly tithe or corn rent or rents, charged by virtue of the said Act as aforesaid, may be increased or diminished in proportion thereto.—Dated this 29th day of December 1851.

N. C. Milne, for self and E. F. Ellis, my co-trustee and Solicitor to Mr. and Mrs. Cooper.
