Convention between Her Majesty and the French Republic, for the Establishment of International Copyright.

Signed at Paris, November 3, 1851.

[Ratifications exchanged at Paris, January 8, 1852.]

HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the President of the French Republic, being equally desirous of extending in each country the enjoyment of copyright to works of literature and of the fine arts which may be first published in the other; and Her Britannic Majesty having consented to extend to books, prints, and musical works published in France, that reduction of the duties now levied thereon on importation into the United Kingdom, which she is by law empowered to grant, under certain circumstances, in favour of such works published in foreign countries; Her Britannic Majesty and the President of the French Republic have deemed it expedient to conclude a special Convention for that purpose, and have therefore named as their Plenipotentiaries, that is to say:—

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Constantine Henry, Marquess of Normanby, a Peer of the United Kingdom, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, &c., Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the French Republic;

And the President of the French Republic, M. Louis Felix Etienne Turgot, Officer of the National Order of the Legion of Honour, Knight of the Royal Order of San Fernando of Spain, Second Class, &c. &c., and Minister for the Department of Foreign Affairs;

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles:—

ARTICLE I.

From and after the date on which, according to the provisions of Article XIV, the present Convention shall come into operation, the authors of works of literature or of art, to whom the laws of either of the two countries do now or may hereafter give the right of property, or copyright, shall be entitled to exercise that right in the territories of the other of such countries for the same term, and to the same extent, as the authors of works of the same nature, if published in

SA Majesté la Reine du Royaume Uni de la Grande Bretagne et d'Irlande, et le Président de la République Française, également animés du désir d'étendre dans les deux pays la jouissance des droits d'auteur pour les ouvrages de littérature et de beaux arts, qui pourront être publiés pour la première fois dans l'un des deux; et Sa Majesté Britannique ayant consenti à étendre aux livres, gravures, et œuvres musicales, publiés en France, la réduction que la loi l'autorise à accorder, sous certaines conditions, dans le taux des droits actuellement perçus à l'importation dans le Royaume Uni de ces mêmes articles publiés en pays étrangers; Sa Majesté Britannique et le Président de la République Française ont jugé à propos de conclure dans ce but une Convention spéciale, et ont nommé à cet effet pour leurs Plénipotentiaires, savoir:—

Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume Uni de la Grande Bretagne et d'Irlande, M. Constantin Henry, Marquess de Normanby, Pair du Royaume Uni, Chevalier du Très Noble Ordre de la Jarretière, Grand-Croix du Très Honorable Ordre du Bain, &c., Son Ambassadeur Extraordinaire et Plénipotentiaire près la République Française;

Et le Président de la République Française, M. Louis Felix Etienne Turgot, Officier de l'Ordre National de la Légion d'Honneur, Chevalier de l'Ordre Royal de Saint Ferdinand d'Espagne de 2e Classe, &c. &c., Ministre au Département des Affaires Étrangères;

Lesquels, après s'être communiqué leurs pleins pouvoirs, trouvés en bonne et due forme, sont convenus des Articles suivants:—

ARTICLE I.

A partir de l'époque à laquelle, conformément aux stipulations de l'Article XIV ci-après, la présente Convention deviendra exécutoire, les auteurs d'œuvres de littérature ou d'art, auxquelles les lois de l'un des deux pays garantissent actuellement, ou garantiront à l'avenir, le droit de propriété ou d'auteur, auront la faculté d'exercer le dit droit sur les territoires de l'autre pays pendant le même espace de temps, et dans les mêmes limites, que s'exercerait dans cet autre pays le droit attribué such other country would therein be entitled to exercise such right; so that the republication or piracy in either country, of any work of literature or of art, published in the other, shall be dealt with in the same manner as the republication or piracy of a work of the same nature first published in such other country; and so that such authors in the one country shall have the same remedies before the courts of justice in the other country, and shall enjoy in that other country the same protection against piracy and unauthorized republication, as the law now does or may hereafter grant to authors in that country.

The terms "works of literature or of art," employed at the beginning of this Article, shall be understood to comprize publications of books, of dramatic works, of musical compositions, of drawing, of painting, of sculpture, of engraving, of lithography, and of any other works whatsoever of literature and of the fine arts.

The lawful representatives or assigns of authors, translators, composers, painters, sculptors, or engravers, shall, in all respects, enjoy the same rights which by the present Convention are granted to the authors, translators, composers, painters, sculptors, or engravers themselves.

ARTICLE II.

The protection granted to original works is extended to translations; it being, however, clearly understood, that the intention of the present Article is simply to protect a translator in respect of his own translation, and that it is not intended to confer upon the first translator of any work the exclusive right of translating that work, except in the case and to the extent provided for in the following Article.

ARTICLE III.

The author of any work published in either of the two countries, who may choose to reserve the right of translating it, shall, until the expiration of five years from the date of the first publication of the translation thereof authorized by him, be, in the following cases, entitled to protection from the publication in the other country of any translation of such work not so authorized by him:

§ 1. If the original work shall have been registered and deposited in the one country within three months after its first publication in the other.

§ 2. If the author has notified on the title-page of his work his intention to reserve the right of translating it.

§ 3. Provided always, that at least a part of the authorized translation shall have appeared within a year after the registration and deposit of the original, and that the whole shall have been published within three years after the date of such deposit.

§ 4. And provided that the publication of the translation shall take place within one of the two countries, and that it shall be registered and deposited according to the provisions of Article VIII.

With regard to works which are published in parts, it will be sufficient if the declaration of the author that he reserves the right of translation, shall appear in the first part. But with reference to the period of five years limited by this Article for the exercise of the exclusive right of translation, each part shall be treated as a separate work, and each part shall be registered and deposited in the one country within three months after its first publication in the other.

aux auteurs d'ouvrages de même nature qui y seraient publiés; de telle sorte que la reproduction ou la contrefaçon dans l'un des deux états, de toute œuvre de littérature ou d'art, publiée dans l'autre, sera traitée de la même manière que le serait la reproduction ou la contrefaçon d'ouvrages de même nature originaires publiés dans cet autre état; et que les auteurs de l'un des deux pays auront, devant les tribunaux de l'autre, la même action, et jouiront des mêmes garanties contre la contrefaçon ou la reproduction non autorisée, que celles que la loi accorde, ou pourrait accorder à l'avenir, aux auteurs de ce dernier pays.

Il est entendu que ces mots "œuvres de littérature ou d'art," employés au commencement de cet Article, comprennent les publications de livres, d'ouvrages dramatiques, de composition musicale, de dessin, de peinture, de sculpture, de gravure, de lithographie, et de toute autre production quelconque de littérature et de beaux arts.

Les mandataires ou ayants-cause des auteurs, traducteurs, compositeurs, peintres, sculpteurs, ou graveurs, jouiront à tous égards des mêmes droits que ceux que la présente Convention accorde aux auteurs, traducteurs, compositeurs, peintres, sculpteurs, ou graveurs eux-mêmes.

ARTICLE II.

La protection accordée aux ouvrages originaux est étendue aux traductions. Il est bien entendu toutefois, que l'objet du présent Article est simplement de protéger le traducteur par rapport à sa propre traduction, et non pas de conférer le droit exclusif de traduction au premier traducteur d'un ouvrage quelconque, hormis dans le cas et les limites prévus par l'Article suivant.

ARTICLE III.

L'auteur de tout ouvrage publié dans l'un des deux pays, qui aura entendu réserver son droit de traduction, jouira, pendant cinq années à partir du jour de la première publication de la traduction de son ouvrage autorisée par lui, du privilège de protection contre la publication dans l'autre pays de toute traduction du même ouvrage non autorisée par lui, et ce sous les conditions suivantes:

§ 1. L'ouvrage original sera enregistré et déposé dans l'un des deux pays, dans un délai de trois mois à partir du jour de la première publication dans l'autre pays.

§ 2. Il faudra que l'auteur ait indiqué en tête de son ouvrage l'intention de se réserver le droit de traduction.

§ 3. La dite traduction autorisée devra avoir paru, au moins en partie, dans le délai d'un an à compter de la date de l'enregistrement et du dépôt de l'original, et en totalité dans le délai de trois ans à partir du dit dépôt.

§ 4. La traduction devra être publiée dans l'un des deux pays, et être enregistrée et déposée conformément aux dispositions de l'Article VIII.

Pour les ouvrages publiés par livraisons, il suffira que la déclaration de l'auteur, qu'il entend se réserver le droit de traduction, soit exprimée dans la première livraison. Toutefois, en ce qui concerne le terme de cinq ans assigné par cet Article pour l'exercice du droit privilégié de traduction, chaque livraison sera considérée comme un ouvrage séparé, et chacune d'elles sera enregistrée et déposée dans l'un des deux pays dans les trois mois à partir de sa première publication dans l'autre.

ARTICLE IV.

The stipulations of the preceding Articles shall also be applicable to the representation of dramatic works, and to the performance of musical compositions, in so far as the laws of each of the two countries are or shall be applicable in this respect to dramatic and musical works first publicly represented or performed therein.

In order, however, to entitle the author to legal protection in regard to the translation of a dramatic work, such translation must appear within three months after the registration and deposit of the original.

It is understood that the protection stipulated by the present Article is not intended to prohibit fair imitations, or adaptations of dramatic works to the stage in England and France respectively, but is only meant to prevent piratical translations.

The question whether a work is an imitation or a piracy, shall in all cases be decided by the courts of justice of the respective countries, according to the laws in force in each.

ARTICLE V.

Notwithstanding the stipulations of Article I and II of the present Convention, articles extracted from newspapers or periodicals published in either of the two countries, may be republished or translated in the newspapers or periodicals of the other country, provided the source from whence such articles are taken be acknowledged.

Nevertheless, this permission shall not be construed to authorize the republication in one of the two countries, of articles from newspapers or periodicals published in the other country, the authors of which shall have notified in a conspicuous manner in the journal or periodical in which such articles have appeared, that they forbid the republication thereof.

ARTICLE VI.

The importation into and the sale in either of the two countries of piratical copies of works which are protected from piracy under Articles I, II, III, and V of the present Convention, are prohibited, whether such piratical copies originate in the country where the work was published, or in any other country.

ARTICLE VII.

In the event of an infraction of the provisions of the foregoing Articles, the pirated works or articles shall be seized and destroyed; and the persons who may have committed such infraction shall be liable in each country to the penalties and actions which are or may be prescribed by the laws of that country for such offences, committed in respect of a work or production of home origin.

ARTICLE VIII.

Neither authors, nor translators, nor their lawful representatives or assigns, shall be entitled in either country to the protection stipulated by the preceding Articles, nor shall copyright be claimable in either country, unless the work shall have been registered in the manner following, that is to say:—

1°. If the work be one that has first appeared in France, it must be registered at the Hall of the Company of Stationers in London.

ARTICLE IV.

Les stipulations des Articles précédens s'appliqueront également à la représentation des ouvrages dramatiques, et à l'exécution des compositions musicales, en tant que les lois de chacun des deux pays sont ou seront applicables, sous ce rapport, aux ouvrages dramatiques et de musique représentés ou exécutés publiquement dans ces pays pour la première fois.

Toutefois, pour avoir droit à la protection légale, en ce que concerne la traduction d'un ouvrage dramatique, l'auteur devra faire paraître sa traduction trois mois après l'enregistrement et le dépôt de l'ouvrage original.

Il est bien entendu que la protection stipulée par le présent Article, n'a point pour objet de prohiber les imitations faites de bonne foi, ou les appropriations des ouvrages dramatiques aux scènes respectives d'Angleterre et de France, mais seulement d'empêcher les traductions en contrefaçon.

La question d'imitation ou de contrefaçon sera déterminée dans tous les cas par les tribunaux des pays respectifs, d'après la législation en vigueur dans chacun des deux états.

ARTICLE V.

Nonobstant les stipulations des Articles I et II de la présente Convention, les articles extraits de journaux ou de recueils périodiques publiés dans l'un des deux pays, pourront être reproduits ou traduits dans les journaux ou recueils périodiques de l'autre pays, pourvu qu'on y indique la source à laquelle on les aura puisés.

Toutefois, cette permission ne saurait être comprise comme s'étendant à la reproduction dans l'un des deux pays, des articles de journaux ou de recueils périodiques publiés dans l'autre, dont les auteurs auraient déclaré d'une manière évidente dans le journal ou le recueil même où ils les auront fait paraître, qu'ils en interdisent la reproduction.

ARTICLE VI.

Sont interdites l'importation et la vente, dans l'un ou l'autre des deux pays, de toute contrefaçon d'ouvrages jouissant du privilège de protection contre la contrefaçon en vertu des Articles I, II, III, et V de la présente Convention, que ces contrefaçons soient originaires du pays où l'ouvrage a été publié, ou bien de toute autre contrée étrangère.

ARTICLE VII.

En cas de contravention aux dispositions des Articles précédens, les ouvrages ou objets contrefaits seront saisis et détruits; et les individus qui se seront rendus coupables de ces contraventions seront passibles, dans chaque pays, de la peine et des poursuites qui sont ou seraient prescrites par les lois de ce pays contre le même délit commis à l'égard de tout ouvrage ou production d'origine nationale.

ARTICLE VIII.

Les auteurs, traducteurs, de même que leurs représentans ou ayants-cause légalement désignés, n'auront droit, dans l'un et l'autre pays, à la protection stipulée par les Articles précédens, et le droit d'auteur ne pourra être réclamé dans l'un des deux pays, qu'après que l'ouvrage aura été enregistré de la manière suivante, savoir:—

1°. Si l'ouvrage a paru pour la première fois en France, il faudra qu'il ait été enregistré à l'Hôtel de la Corporation des Libraires (Stationers' Hall) à Londres.

2°. If the work be one that has first appeared in the dominions of Her Britannic Majesty, it must be registered at the Bureau de la Librairie of the Ministry of the Interior at Paris.

No person shall be entitled to such protection as aforesaid, unless he shall have duly complied with the laws and regulations of the respective countries in regard to the work in respect of which such protection may be claimed. With regard to books, maps, prints, or musical publications, no person shall be entitled to such protection, unless he shall have delivered gratuitously, at one or other of the places mentioned above, as the case may be, one copy of the best edition, or in the best state, in order to its being deposited at the place appointed for that purpose in each of the two countries; that is to say, in Great Britain, at the British Museum at London; and in France, at the National Library at Paris.

In every case, the formality of deposit and registration must be fulfilled within three months after the first publication of the work in the other country. With regard to works published in parts, the period of three months shall not begin to run until the date of the publication of the last part, unless the author shall have notified his intention to reserve the right of translating it, as provided in Article III; in which case each part shall be treated as a separate work.

A certified copy of the entry in the Register Book of the Company of Stationers in London shall confer, within the British dominions, the exclusive right of republication, until a better right shall have been established by any other party before a court of justice.

The certificate given under the laws of France, proving the registration of any work in that country, shall be valid for the same purpose throughout the territories of the French Republic.

A certificate or certified copy of the registration of any work so registered in either country shall, if required, be delivered at the time of registration; and such certificate shall state the exact date at which the registration was made.

The charge for the registration of a single work, under the stipulations of this Article, shall not exceed one shilling in England, nor one franc and twenty-five centimes in France; and the further charge for a certificate of such registration shall not exceed the sum of five shillings in England, nor six francs and twenty-five centimes in France.

The provisions of this Article shall not extend to articles which may appear in newspapers or periodicals; which shall be protected from republication or translation simply by a notice from the author, as prescribed by Article V. But if any article or work which has originally appeared in a newspaper or periodical, shall afterwards be published in a separate form, it shall then become subject to the stipulations of the present Article.

ARTICLE IX.

With regard to any article other than books, prints, maps, and musical publications, in respect to which protection may be claimable under Article I of the present Convention, it is agreed, that any other mode of registration than that prescribed in the preceding Article, which is or may be applicable by law in one of the two countries to any work or article first published in such country, for the purpose of affording protection to copyright in 2°. Si l'ouvrage a paru pour la première fois dans les états de Sa Majesté Britannique, il faudra qu'il ait été enregistré au Bureau de la Librairie du Ministère de l'Intérieur à Paris.

La susdite protection ne sera acquise qu'à celui qui aura fidèlement observé les lois et réglemens en vigueur dans les pays respectifs par rapport à l'ouvrage pour lequel cette protection serait réclamée. Pour les livres, cartes, estampes, ou publications musicales, la susdite protection ne sera acquise qu'autant que l'on aura remis gratuitement, dans l'un ou l'autre des dépôts mentionnés ci-dessus, suivant les cas respectifs, un exemplaire de la meilleure édition, ou dans le meilleur état, destiné à être déposé au lieu indiqué à cet effet dans chacun des deux pays; c'est-à-dire, dans la Grande Bretagne, au Musée Britannique à Londres; et en France, à la Bibliothèque Nationale de Paris.

Dans tous les cas, les formalités du dépôt et de l'enregistrement devront être remplies sous les trois mois qui suivront la première publication de l'ouvrage dans l'autre pays. A l'égard des ouvrages publiés par livraisons, ce délai de trois mois ne commencera à courir qu'à dater de la publication de la dernière livraison, à moins que l'auteur n'ait indiqué, conformément aux dispositions de l'Article III, son intention de se réserver le droit de traduction; auquel cas chaque livraison sera considérée comme un ouvrage séparé.

Une copie authentique de l'inscription sur le Registre de la Corporation des Libraires à Londres confèrera dans les états Britanniques le droit exclusif de reproduction, jusqu'à ce que quelqu'autre personne ait fait admettre devant au tribunal un droit mieux établi.

Le certificat délivré conformément aux lois Françaises, et constatant l'enregistrement d'un ouvrage dans ce pays, aura la même force et valeur dans toute l'étendue du territoire de la République Française.

Au moment de l'enregistrement d'un ouvrage dans l'un des deux pays, il en sera délivré, si on le demande, un certificat ou copie certifiée; et ce certificat relatera la date précise à laquelle l'enregistrement aura eu lieu.

Le coût d'enregistrement d'un seul ouvrage, conformément aux stipulations du présent Article, ne pourra pas dépasser la somme d'un shilling en Angleterre, et d'un franc vingt-cinq centimes en France; et les frais additionnels pour le certificat d'enregistrement ne devront pas excéder la somme de cinq shillings en Angleterre, ou de six francs vingt-cinq centimes en France.

Les présentes stipulations ne s'étendront pas aux articles de journaux ou de recueils périodiques; pour lesquels le simple avertissement de l'auteur, ainsi qu'il est prescrit à l'Article V, suffira pour garantir son droit contre la reproduction ou la traduction. Mais si un article ou un ouvrage qui aura paru pour la première fois dans un journal ou dans un recueil périodique, est ensuite reproduit à part, il restera alors soumis aux stipulations du présent Article.

ARTICLE IX.

Quant à ce qui concerne tout autre objet que les livres, estampes, cartes, et publications musicales, pour lesquels on pourrait réclamer la protection en vertu de l'Article I de la présente Convention, il est entendu que tout mode d'enregistrement autre que le mode prescrit par l'Article précédent, qui est ou qui pourrait être appliqué par la loi dans un des deux pays, à l'effet de garantir le droit de propriété à toute œuvre quel-such work or article, shall be extended on equal terms to any similar work or article first published in the other country.

ARTICLE X.

During the continuance of this Convention, the duties now payable upon the lawful importation into the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland of books, prints, drawings, or musical works, published throughout the territories of the French Republic, shall be reduced to and fixed at the rates hereinafter specified; that is to say—

1. Duties on books and musical works, viz.—

	£	s.	d.
(a) Works originally produced in the United Kingdom, and republished in France; the cwt.	2	10	0
(b) Works not originally produced in the United Kingdom; the cwt.	0	15	0

2. Prints or drawings :—

(a) Coloured or plain, single, each	0	0	0½
(b) Bound or sewed, the dozen	0	0	1½

It is agreed that the rates of duty above specified shall not be raised during the continuance of the present Convention: and that if hereafter, during the continuance of this Convention, any reduction of those rates should be made in favour of books, prints, drawings, or musical works published in any other country, such reduction shall be at the same time extended to similar articles published in France.

It is moreover understood that all works published in France, of which any part may have been originally produced in the United Kingdom, shall be considered as "works originally produced in the United Kingdom, and republished in France," and as such shall be subject to the duty of fifty shillings per cwt., although the same may contain also original matter not produced in the United Kingdom; unless such original matter shall be at least equal in bulk to the part of the work originally produced in the United Kingdom, in which case the work shall be subject only to the duty of fifteen shillings per cwt.

ARTICLE XI.

In order to facilitate the execution of the present Convention, the two High Contracting Parties engage to communicate to each other the laws and regulations which may hereafter be established in their respective territories, with respect to copyright in works or productions protected by the stipulations of the present Convention.

ARTICLE XII.

The stipulations of the present Convention shall in no way affect the right which each of the two High Contracting Parties expressly reserves to itself, of controuling or of prohibiting, by measures of legislation or of internal police, the sale, circulation, representation, or exhibition of any work or production, in regard to which either country may deem it expedient to exercise that right.

conque ou article mis pour la première fois au jour dans ce pays, le dit mode d'enregistrement sera étendu, sous des conditions égales, à toute œuvre ou objet similaire mis au jour pour la première fois dans l'autre pays.

ARTICLE X.

Pendant la durée de la présente Convention, les droits actuellement établis à l'importation licite dans le Royaume Uni de la Grande Bretagne et d'Irlande, des livres, gravures, dessins, ou ouvrages de musique publiés dans toute l'étendue du territoire de la République Française, demeurent réduits et fixés au taux ci-après établi, savoir :—

1. Droits sur les livres et œuvres de musique :—

	£	s.	d.
(a) Ouvrages publiés pour la première fois dans le Royaume Uni, et reproduits en France; par quintal Anglais	2	10	0
(b) Ouvrages non publiés pour la première fois dans le Royaume Uni; par quintal Anglais	0	15	0

2. Gravures ou dessins :—

(a) Coloriés ou non, chaque pièce	0	0	0½
(b) Reliés ou brochés, la douzaine	0	0	1½

Il est convenu que le taux des droits ci-dessus spécifiés ne sera pas augmenté pendant la durée de la présente Convention; et que si par la suite, pendant la durée de cette Convention, ce taux était réduit en faveur des livres, gravures, dessins, ou ouvrages de musique publiés dans tout autre pays, cette réduction s'étendra en même temps aux objets similaires publiés en France.

Il est en outre bien entendu que tout ouvrage publié en France, et dont une partie aura été mise au jour pour la première fois dans le Royaume Uni, sera considéré comme "ouvrage publié pour la première fois dans le Royaume Uni, et reproduit en France;" et à ce titre il sera soumis aux droits de cinquante shillings par quintal Anglais, alors même qu'il contiendrait encore des additions originales publiées ailleurs que dans le Royaume Uni; à moins que ces additions originales ne soient d'une étendue pour le moins égale à celle de la partie de l'ouvrage publiée originellement dans le Royaume Uni, auquel cas l'ouvrage ne serait soumis qu'aux droits de quinze shillings par quintal Anglais.

ARTICLE XI.

Pour faciliter l'exécution de la présente Convention, les deux Hautes Parties Contractantes s'engagent à se communiquer mutuellement les lois et réglemens qui pourront être ultérieurement établis dans les états respectifs, à l'égard des droits d'auteurs, pour les ouvrages et productions protégés par les stipulations de la présente Convention.

ARTICLE XII.

Les stipulations de la présente Convention ne pourront, en aucune manière, porter atteinte au droit que chacune des deux Hautes Parties Contractantes se réserve expressément de surveiller ou de défendre, au moyen de mesures législatives, ou de police intérieure, la vente, la circulation, la représentation, et l'exposition de tout ouvrage ou de toute production, à l'égard desquels l'un ou l'autre pays jugerait convenable d'exercer ce droit.

ARTICLE XIII.

Nothing in this Convention shall be construed to affect the right of either of the two High Contracting Parties to prohibit the importation into its own dominions, of such books as, by its internal law, or under engagements with other States, are or may be declared to be piracies, or infringements of copyright.

ARTICLE XIV.

Her Britannic Majesty engages to recommend to Parliament to pass an Act to enable Her to carry into execution such of the arrangements contained in the present Convention as require the sanction of an Act of the Legislature. When such an Act shall have been passed, the Convention shall come into operation from and after a day to be then fixed upon by the two High Contracting Parties. Due notice shall be given beforehand in each country, by the Government of that country, of the day which may be so fixed upon; and the stipulations of the Convention shall apply only to works or articles published after that day.

The Convention shall continue in force for ten years from the day on which it may come into operation; and if neither Party shall, twelve months before the expiration of the said period of ten years, give notice of its intention to terminate its operation, the Convention shall continue in force for a year longer, and so on from year to year, until the expiration of a year's notice from either Party for its termination.

The High Contracting Parties, however, reserve to themselves the power of making by common consent, in this Convention, any modifications which may not be inconsistent with its spirit and principles, and which experience of its working may show to be desirable.

ARTICLE XV.

The present Convention shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Paris as soon as may be within three months from the date of signature.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto their respective seals.

Done at Paris, the third day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one.

ARTICLE XIII.

Rien dans cette Convention ne sera considéré comme portant atteinte au droit de l'une ou de l'autre des deux Hautes Parties Contractantes de prohiber l'importation dans ses propres états des livres qui, d'après ses lois intérieures ou des stipulations souscrites avec d'autres Puissances, sont ou seraient déclarés être des contrefaçons, ou des violations du droit d'auteur.

ARTICLE XIV.

Sa Majesté Britannique s'engage à recommander au Parlement d'adopter une loi qui l'autorise à mettre en vigueur celles des dispositions de la présente Convention qui ont besoin d'être sanctionnées par un acte législatif. Lorsque cette loi aura été adoptée, la Convention sera mise à exécution à partir d'un jour qui sera alors fixé par les deux Hautes Parties Contractantes. Dans chaque pays, le Gouvernement fera dûment connaître d'avance le jour ainsi convenu; et les stipulations de la Convention ne seront applicables qu'aux œuvres et articles publiés après cette date.

La présente Convention restera en vigueur pendant dix années à partir du jour où elle pourra être mise en vigueur; et dans le cas où aucune des deux Parties n'aurait pas signifié, douze mois avant l'expiration de la dite période de dix années, son intention d'en faire cesser les effets, la Convention continuerait à rester en vigueur encore une année; et ainsi de suite d'année en année, jusqu'à l'expiration d'une année à partir du jour où l'une ou l'autre des Parties l'aura dénoncée.

Les Hautes Parties Contractantes se réservent cependant la faculté d'apporter à la présente Convention, d'un commun accord, toute modification qui ne serait pas incompatible avec l'esprit et les principes qui en sont la base, et dont l'expérience aurait démontré l'opportunité.

ARTICLE XV.

La présente Convention sera ratifiée, et les ratifications en seront échangées à Paris dans le délai de trois mois à partir du jour de la signature, ou plus tôt, si faire se peut.

En foi de quoi les Plénipotentiaires respectifs l'ont signée, et y ont apposé leurs cachets respectifs.

Fait à Paris, le troisième jour du mois de Novembre, de l'an de Grâce mil huit cent cinquante-un.

Procès-Verbal of the exchange of Ratifications.

THE Undersigned having met together in order, on the part of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the President of the French Republic, to proceed to the exchange of the respective Ratifications of the Convention between Great Britain and France, signed at Paris on the 3rd of November last, for the mutual protection, in the two countries, of copyright in works of literature and of art; the respective instruments of ratification were produced, and after having been carefully compared and found to be exactly conformable to each other, were exchanged in the usual form.

*Procès-Verbal de l'échange des
Ratifications.*

LES Soussignés s'étant réunis pour procéder, au nom de Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume Uni de la Grande Bretagne et d'Irlande, et du Président de la République Française, à l'échange des Ratifications réciproques de la Convention signée à Paris le 3 Novembre dernier, entre la Grande Bretagne et la France, dans le but de garantir mutuellement, dans les deux pays, la propriété des œuvres de littérature et d'art; les instrumens respectifs de ratification ont été produits; et après avoir été soigneusement collationnés et trouvés exactement conformes l'un à l'autre, l'échange en a été opéré dans les formes usitées.

1. Notwithstanding, however, that by terms of Article XIV, it is stipulated that none of the arrangements of the Convention shall come into operation until after the time when such of those arrangements as require to be confirmed in Great Britain by an Act of the Legislature, shall have been so sanctioned; it was mutually agreed that such of those arrangements as do not require that sanction, and as the present state of the Law enables the British Crown to carry at once into execution, shall on either side receive their full and entire effect as soon as possible.

2. It was also agreed, that the stipulations contained in Article V, which forbid the republication in either of the two countries of articles from newspapers or periodicals published in the other, the authors of which shall have notified in the newspaper or periodical in which such articles have appeared, that they forbid the publication thereof,—shall not be applicable to articles of political discussion.

The preceding interpretations and explanations shall have the same force and validity as if they had been inserted in the Convention itself.

In witness whereof the Undersigned have signed the present procès-verbal, in duplicate, at Paris, the eighth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

Toutefois, 1°. Nonobstant les termes de l'Article XIV, stipulant que la Convention ne sera exécutée en aucune de ses dispositions qu'à partir du jour où celles qui ont besoin d'être validées dans la Grande Bretagne par un Acte législatif, auront reçu cette sanction; il a été convenu d'un commun accord, que celles des dispositions qui ne sont point de nature à y être soumises, et que l'état actuel de la Législation autorise dès à présent la Couronne Britannique à valider, auront le plus tôt possible leur plein et entier effet de part et d'autre.

2°. Il a été également convenu, que les dispositions contenues dans l'Article V, lesquelles interdisent la reproduction dans l'un des deux pays des articles de journaux ou de recueils périodiques publiés dans l'autre, et dont les auteurs auraient déclaré dans le journal ou recueil même où ils les auront fait paraître, qu'ils en interdisent la reproduction,—ne seront pas applicables aux articles de discussion politique.

Les précédentes interprétations et explications auront la même force et valeur que si elles étaient insérées dans le texte même de la Convention.

En foi de quoi les Soussignés ont signé le présent procès-verbal en double copie, à Paris, le huitième jour de Janvier, de l'an de Grâce mil huit cent cinquante-deux.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS a Treaty has been concluded between Her Majesty and the President of the French Republic, whereby due protection has been secured within the French dominions for the authors of books, dramatic works, musical compositions, drawings, paintings, sculpture, engravings, lithographs, and any other works of literature and of the fine arts, in which the laws of Great Britain and of France do now or may hereafter give their respective subjects the right of property, or copyright, and for the lawful representatives or assigns of such authors, with regard to any such works first published within the dominions of Her Majesty:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority committed to Her by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of Her reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law relating to international copyright," doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the seventeenth day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, the authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers of any of the following works; that is to say: books, prints, articles of sculpture, dramatic works, musical compositions, and any other works of literature and the fine arts, in which the laws of Great Britain give to British subjects the privilege of copyright, and the executors, administrators, and assigns of such authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers, respectively, shall, as respects works first published within the dominions of France, after the said seventeenth day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, have the privilege of copyright therein for a period equal to the term of copyright which authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers of the like works, respectively, first published in the United Kingdom are by law entitled to; provided such books, dramatic pieces, musical compositions, prints, articles of sculpture, or other works of art have been registered, and copies thereof have been delivered according to the requirements of the said recited Act, within three months after the first publication thereof in any part of the French dominions, or if such work be published in parts, then within three months after the publication of the last part thereof:

And it is hereby further ordered, that the authors of dramatic pieces and musical compositions which shall, after the said seventeenth day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, be first publicly represented or performed within the dominions of France, or their assignees, shall have the sole liberty of representing or performing in any part of the British dominions such dramatic pieces or musical compositions, during a period equal to the period during which authors of dramatic pieces and musical compositions, first publicly represented or performed in the United Kingdom, or their assignees, are entitled by law to the sole liberty of representing or performing the same; provided such dramatic pieces or musical compositions have been registered, and copies thereof have been delivered according to the requirements of the said recited Act, within three months after the time of their being first represented or performed in any part of the French dominions:
