Whitehall, January 27, 1852.

The Queen has been pleased to give and grant unto Frederic Macbean, a Gentleman Commoner of Magdalen College, in the University of Oxford, eldest son of William Macbean, Clerk, Rector of Peter Tavy, in the county of Devon, by Frances, his wife, eldest sister and co-heir of John Bell, of Thirsk, in the county of York, Esquire, deceased, Her royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in compliance with a direction contained in the last will and testament of his maternal uncle, the said John Bell, Esquire, deceased, take and use the surname of Bell only, in lieu of that of Macbean, and also bear the arms of Bell; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage, payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such warrant, and from time to time, by warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid; and it is provided that the power thereby given should extend to any increase or reduction or remission of postage:

And whereas it is considered expedient that an alteration should be made in the rates of postage between the United Kingdom and the Argentine Republic in South America:

Now we, the undersigned, being two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do, in exercise of the powers and authorities in us for such purpose vested in and by the said Act, and of all other powers and authorities enabling us in this behalf, order and direct,—

That on every letter, not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom and any port in the Argentine Republic, there shall be charged and taken in lieu of any rates of British postage now payable by law on such respective letters an uniform rate of British postage of one shilling:

And we direct, that on every letter transmitted as is mentioned in this Warrant exceeding half an ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid progressive and additional rates of postage as follows (that is to say):

On every letter exceeding half an ounce in weight, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of postage.

On every letter exceeding one ounce, and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage.

On every letter exceeding two ounces, and not exceeding three ounces in weight, six rates of postage.

And on every letter exceeding three ounces, and not exceeding four ounces in weight, eight rates of postage.

And for every ounce in weight above the weight of four ounces, there shall be charged and taken two additional rates of postage, and every fraction of an ounce above the weight of four ounces, shall be charged as one additional ounce; and each progressive and additional rate, chargeable under this clause, shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this warrant, if not exceeding half an ounce in weight.

And we direct, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to any letters sent by private ships.

And we further direct, that the term "by the post," used in this warrant, shall, as to the sea conveyance, include the conveyance by packet-boat, and that the several other terms and expressions used in this warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of Her present Majesty.

And we further direct, that this warrant shall come into operation on the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

Provided lastly, and we hereby declare and direct, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two of them, by warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby fixed or altered, or the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the 28th day of January 1852.
