Master of the Rolls.—Saturday, the 31st day of January, in the 15th year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria 1852, between The Derbyshire, Staffordshire, and Worcestershire Junction Railway Company, Plaintiff; William Arnold Bainbrigg, Thomas Parker Bainbrigg, Frederic Yates, William Thomas Smith, and James Kay, Defendants.

FORASMUCH as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. Palmer, of Counsel for the plaintiffs, that the plaintiffs, having exhibited their Bill in this Court against the defendant, William Arnold Bainbrigg, and sued out process of subpoena on the 17th day of December 1851, to compel him to appear to and answer the same; it appears by the affidavit of Charles Patrick and Edward Rasbrook Edwards, that the last known place of abode or dwelling-house of the defendant, William Arnold Bainbrigg, is No. 8, Pomona-place, Fulham, in the county of Middlesex, where the said defendant has resided within the last four months, but which appears now to be shut up and not inhabited by any person, and that defendants have every reason to believe, and in fact have no doubt, that the said defendant is somewhere in England, and has been seen within the last month in London; and that there is reason to believe that the said defendant is aware of the said Bill being filed against him, and that he keeps out of the way to avoid being served with process; that it appears by the affidavit of Samuel Knight, that he did, on the 2nd day of January instant, serve at the said late known place of abode of the said defendant, William Arnold Bainbrigg, a true copy of a subpoena to appear and answer the plaintiffs' Bill in this cause, but the plaintiffs are unable, with due diligence, to serve the said defendant personally with the said subpoena; it is thereupon, upon hearing the said affidavits and an affidavit of William Davies read, ordered, that the defendant, William Arnold Bainbridge, do appear to the plaintiffs' Bill, on or before the 24th day of February next; and it is ordered that the plaintiffs do cause a copy of this Order, together with a notice thereof to the effect set forth at the foot of the General Order of this Court in that behalf, to be inserted in the London Gazette, of Friday the 13th February next, and in the Times Newspaper and Morning Herald Newspaper, published in London, on or before the 13th February next.

Notice.—William Arnold Bainbridge, take notice, that if you do not appear, pursuant to the above Order, the plaintiffs may enter an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the plaintiffs such relief as they may appear to be entitled to on their own shewing.
