

Whitehall, February 28, 1852.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Stephen Usticke Beauchant, of Falmouth, in the county of Cornwall, Esq. Her royal licence and authority that, in compliance with a proviso in the last will and testament of the Reverend Robert Michael Nowell Usticke (his deceased great uncle), he may take and bear the surnames of Nowell Usticke only, and also bear the arms of Nowell and Usticke quartered with those of his own family, and that such surnames and arms may in like manner be taken and borne by his issue; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And to command that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, February 22, 1852.

The Right Honourable Sir John Jervis, Knt. Lord Chief Justice of Her Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, at Westminster, has appointed Martin Kemp Welch, of the town of Poole, Gentleman, to be one of the Perpetual Commissioners for taking the acknowledgments of deeds to be executed by married women, under the Act passed for the abolition of fines and recoveries, and for the substitution of more simple modes of assurance, in and for the town and county of the town of Poole, also in and for the counties of Dorset and Hants.

London Corporation Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is now making to Parliament for leave to introduce into the Bill now pending in the House of Commons, "for regulating elections within the city of London, and for conferring rights and privileges upon persons occupying and rated to premises therein," provisions for enabling all persons to keep shops, for the sale of all lawful wares and merchandizes, by wholesale, or retail, and to use every lawful trade, occupation, mystery, and handicraft, for hire, gain, sale, or otherwise, within the city of London, and the liberties thereof, and also for abolishing the tolls on carts and other carriages belonging to non-freemen, conveying goods into or out of the city of London, and on carts and other carriages belonging to freemen, conveying goods of non-freemen, into or out of the said city, which are payable, or are collected, at the several bars of the city of London, or at the places where such bars formerly stood.—Dated the 24th day of February 1852.

Edward Tyrrell, City Remembrancer.

NOTICE is hereby given, that James Morrison, late of Guines, Pas de Calais, in the republic of France, Iron Master, now of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in the county of Northumberland, Gentleman, and James Brown, late of Newbridge, in the county of Monmouth, now of Brynglas near Newport, in the same county, Esq. and Claude Georges Robin, of Munster Department du Haut Rhin, in the said republic of France, formerly an advocate, intend to apply by petition, under the statutes 5 and 6 Will. 4 cap. 83, sec. 4, and the 7th and 8th Victoria, cap. 69, sec. 2, to Her Majesty in Council, for prolongation of the several terms of sole using and vending an invention of "certain improvements in the means of economising heat and fuel in furnaces or closed fire-places," respectively granted to Miles Berry, by letters patent, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, bearing date the 31st day of May, in the 1st year of the reign of Her present Majesty, and by letters patent under the Seal used in Scotland, in lieu of the Great Seal thereof, and sealed on or about the 15th day of June, in the year of our Lord 1838; and which said several letters patent have been assigned unto the said Claude Georges Robin and to the said James Morrison and James Brown; and notice is hereby further given, that the said Claude Georges Robin, James Morrison, and James Brown intend to apply by counsel to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council on the 1st day of April now next; or if the said Judicial Committee shall not sit on that day at the then next sitting of the said Judicial Committee for a time to be fixed for hearing the matter of their said Petition, and that on or before the said 1st day of April next, notice must be given of any opposition intended to be made to the said Petition; and any person intending to oppose the said application must lodge a caveat to that effect at the Council Office on or before that day.

Dated this 21st day of February 1852.

Gabb and Secretan Woodhouse, Abergavenny, Solicitors for the above-named James Morrison, James Brown, and Claude Georges Robin.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named Ogden-street Chapel, situate in Ogden-street, in the township of Ardwick, in the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, in the district of Chorlton, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 26th day of February 1852, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 27th day of February 1852.

William Burdett, Superintendent Registrar.
