

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 5th day of March 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable Orlando George Charles Bridgeman (commonly called Viscount Newport) and the Right Honourable Sir John Trollope, Bart. were, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took their respective places at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 5th day of March 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the district of Christ Church, in Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that any part or parts of any parish or parishes, chapel or chapelries, district or districts, of great extent, and containing a large population, and wherein, or in parts whereof, the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, or any extra-parochial place or places, or any part or parts thereof, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, it shall be lawful, by the authority in the same Act provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying such scheme), with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, under his hand and seal, to set out by metes and bounds, and constitute a separate district accordingly, such district not then containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel, in use for the purposes of divine worship; and to fix and declare the name of such district; and it is by the same Act provided, that the draft of any scheme for constituting any such district shall be delivered or transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron or patrons of the church or chapel of any parish, chapel or district out of which it is recommended that any such district, or any part thereof, should be taken; in order that such incumbent, patron or patrons, may have an opportunity of offering, or making to us, or to such bishop, any observations or objections upon or to the constituting of such district; and that such scheme shall not be laid before your Majesty in Council until after the expiration of one calendar month next after such copy shall have been so delivered or transmitted, unless such incumbent and patron or patrons shall, in the meantime, consent to the same; and it is by the same Act also provided, that in every such scheme for constituting any such district we shall recommend to your Majesty in Council that the minister of such district, when duly licensed according to the same Act, shall be permanently endowed, under the provisions of the same Act, to an amount of not less than the annual value of one hundred pounds; and also, if such endowment be of less than the annual value of one hundred and fifty pounds, that the same shall be increased to such last-mentioned amount at the least, so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as thereafter provided:

"And whereas it is by the said Act further enacted, that it shall be lawful, by the authority aforesaid, at any time to assign the right of patronage of any such district or new parish as aforesaid, and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof respectively, either in perpetuity, or for one or more nomination or nominations, to any ecclesiastical corporation aggregate or sole; or to either of the universities of Oxford, Cambridge, or Durham, or to any college therein respectively; or to any person or persons, or the nominee or nominees of such person or persons or body respectively, upon condition of such corporation, university, college, person or persons contributing to the permanent endowment of such minister or perpetual curate, or towards providing a church or chapel for the use of the inhabitants of such district or new parish, in such proportion and in such manner as shall be approved by the like authority:

"And whereas the said district of Christ Church, in Saint Pancras, is of great extent, and contains a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof; and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of such district hereinafter mentioned and described, such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel, in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter set forth:

"And whereas a sum of Three Pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, sufficient to produce the annual sum of two hundred pounds, has been contributed and transferred to our account and into our names in the books of the governor and company of the Bank of England, by the Reverend Edward Stuart, of Munster-square, Regent's Park, in the said county of Middlesex, towards the permanent endowment of the minister of the district herein recommended to be constituted, and, so soon as such district shall have become a new parish, of the perpetual curate thereof; and it is also the intention of the said Edward Stuart to provide a church or chapel for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants of such district or new parish; and it has been proposed to us by the said Edward Stuart, that the patronage of such district or new parish shall be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James, Bishop of London, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that all that part of the said district of Christ Church, in Saint Pancras, described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof,
