At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 5th day of March 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the "Church Building Acts," or under or by virtue of any and every other power or authority vested in the said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventeenth day of February one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that they did, on the twenty-third day of August one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, represent to your Majesty that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Treeton, in the West Riding of the county of York, and in the diocese of York, it appeared to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of the Sacred and Undivided Trinity, situate at Ulley, in the said parish of Treeton, under and by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and also in the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of the reign of your Majesty, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical district to churches or chapels, augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority in that behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed district should consist of the townships of Ulley and Brampton-en-le-Morthen, and should be called 'The District Chapelry of Ulley,' with boundaries as thereafter mentioned; that is to say: on the south and west by the parish of Aston, on the north by a stream which separates the said district chapelry from the respective parishes of Whiston, Rotherham, and Wickersley, and on the east by the parish of Laughton-en-le-Morthen, as such district chapelry was more particularly delineated on the map or plan thereunto annexed, and was thereon coloured pink; and that your Majesty's said Commissioners further represented to your Majesty that it also appeared to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in the said church of Ulley; and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the minister or incumbent thereof for the time being :

"That the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Thoms, Archbishop of York, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he had signed and sealed that instrument:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly prayed, that your Majesty would be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereof as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom should seem meet:

"That your Majesty was graciously pleased, by and with the advice of your Majesty's Privy Council, by your Majesty's Order in Council, dated the twenty-fifth day of August one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, to order that the proposed assignment should be accordingly made and effected, which was accordingly done and notified, registered and enrolled, pursuant to the said Acts:

"That your Majesty's said Commissioners have, since the said representation so made as aforesaid, discovered that the township of Ulley (the whole of which was included in the said district chapelry) is not confined to the parish of Treeton, but extends to and comprises a part of the parish of Aston, in the said county and diocese of York, and that instead of a district chapelry being assigned to the said church of Ulley, a consolidated chapelry should have been formed for it, under the powers contained in the ninth section of the Act of Parliament hereinafter mentioned:
