FRIDAY, MAY 7, 1852.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, April 7, 1852.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room, at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday, 13th May next, at two o'clock, to celebrate Her Majesty's Birth-day.

N.B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars.

The Ladies who purpose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing-Room, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names legibly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

It is particularly requested that written cards only be delivered.

Board of Green Cloth, Buckingham-Palace, May 7, 1852.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the carriages proceeding to Her Majesty's Drawing-Room, at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 13th of May, are to fall into line and go down the left-hand side of St. James's-street, enter at the iron gate nearest the Palace, set down at the Arcade, turn round, and go out by the iron gate nearest Marlborough-House, to wait in St. James's-square. When called, they are to pass from the square through Charles-street, into Regent-street and Jermyn-street, go down St. James's-street as before, take up, and go away through Pall-Mall.

No hackney carriages will be admitted within the gates.

For all persons having the privilege of the entrée, tickets will be delivered at the Board of Green Cloth, on Tuesday next, from eleven till three o'clock; their carriages are to pass through Constitution-hill-gate, into St. James's-Park: those belonging to the Ambassadors and Foreign Ministers are to set down at the Ambassadors'-entrance in Marlborough-court, at the east end of St. James's-Palace, and wait there till called: those belonging to the Cabinet Ministers and Great Officers of State are to set down in the Middle-court, and wait there: the carriages of all other persons having the entrée are likewise to set down in the Middle-court, and wait in Stable-yard, or St. James's-Park, till called: they are then to take up in the same order as they had set down, and pass away up St. James's-street.

No carriage will be admitted with company a second time with the same ticket; to prevent which, it must be produced at Constitution-hill-gate, and Stable-yard-gate also, where a corner of it will be torn off by the Marshalmen in attendance; and no person can be allowed the privilege of the entrée by any other approach to the Palace than as above directed.

MONTROSE, Lord Steward.

Westminster, May 3, 1852.

ADMIRALTY NOTICE RESPECTING LIGHTS TO BE CARRIED BY SEA-GOING VESSELS TO PREVENT COLLISION.

By the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c. &c.

BY virtue of the power and authority vested in Us by the Act 14 and 15 Victoria, Cap. 79, dated 7th August, 1851, we hereby require and direct that the following Regulations be strictly observed:—

Steam Vessels.

All British Sea-going Steam Vessels (whether propelled by Paddles or Screws), shall within all Seas, Gulfs, Channels, Straits, Bays, Creeks, Roads, Roadsteads, Harbours, Havens, Ports, and Rivers, and under all circumstances, between sunset and sunrise, exhibit Lights of such description, and in such manner, as hereinafter mentioned, viz:—

When under Steam. { A Bright White Light at the Foremast Head.
A Green Light on the Starboard Side.
A Red Light on the Port Side.

1. The Mast Head Light is to be visible at a distance of at least five miles in a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, and the Lantern is to be so constructed as to shew a uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of twenty points of the Compass, being ten points on each side of the Ship, viz. from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on either side.

2. The Green Light on the Starboard side is to be visible at a distance of at least two miles in a dark night, with a clear atmosphere; and the Lantern is to be so constructed as to shew a uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the Compass, viz. from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the Starboard side.

3. The Red Light on the Port side is likewise to be fitted so as to throw its light the same distance on that side.

4. The side Lights are moreover to be fitted with screens, on the inboard side, of at least three feet long, to prevent the lights from being seen across the bow.

When at Anchor.—A Common Bright Light.

Sailing Vessels.

We hereby require that all Sailing Vessels when under sail, or being towed, approaching or being approached by any other Vessel, shall be bound to shew between sunset and sunrise a bright light in such a position as can be best seen by such vessel or vessels, and in sufficient time to avoid collision.

All Sailing Vessels at anchor in Roadsteads or Fairways, shall be also bound to exhibit between sunset and sunrise, a constant bright light at the Mast-head, except within Harbours or other places where regulations for other Lights for Ships are legally established.

The Lantern to be used when at anchor, both by Steam Vessels and Sailing Vessels, is to be so constructed, as to shew a clear good light all round the horizon.

We hereby revoke all Regulations heretofore made by us relating to Steam Vessels exhibiting or carrying Lights; and we require that the preceding Regulations be strictly carried into effect, on and after the 1st of August, 1852.

Given under our hands the 1st day of May, 1852.

HYDE PARKER.
P. HORNBY.

By Command of their Lordships,

W. A. B. HAMILTON.

DIAGRAMS INTENDED TO ILLUSTRATE THE WORKING OF THIS MODE OF FITTING LIGHTS.

1ST SITUATION.

In this situation the Steamer A. will only see the Red Light of the Vessel B. in whichever of the three positions the latter may happen to be, because the Green Light will be hid from view. A. will be assured that the Port side of B. is towards him, and that the latter is therefore crossing the bows of A. in some direction to Port. A will therefore [if so close as to fear collision] Port his helm with confidence, and pass clear. On the other hand the Vessel B. in either of the three positions, will see the Red, Green, and Mast-head Lights of A. appear in a triangular form, by which the former will know that a Steamer is approaching directly towards him.—B. will act accordingly.

It is scarcely necessary to remark that the Mast-head Light will always be visible in every situation till abaft the Beam.

2ND SITUATION.

Here A. will see B's Green Light only, which will clearly indicate to the former that B. is crossing to Starboard. Again A's three Lights being visible to B. will apprise the latter that a Steamer is steering directly towards him.

3RD SITUATION.

A. and B. will see each other's Red Light only; the screens preventing the Green Lights from being seen. Both Vessels are evidently passing to Port.

4TH SITUATION.

Here a Green light only will be visible to each; the screens preventing the Red Lights from being seen. They are therefore passing to Starboard.

5TH SITUATION.

Here the two coloured Lights, visible to each, will indicate their direct approach towards each other. In this situation both should put their helms to Port.

DIRECTIONS FOR FITTING THE LIGHTS.

The manner of fixing the Coloured Lights is to be particularly attended to. They should be fitted, each, with a screen of wood, on the inboard side, in order to prevent both being seen at the same moment from any direction but that of right-a-head.

This is important, for without the screens (a principle first introduced with this plan) any plan of bow-lights would be ineffective as a means of indicating the direction of steering.

This will be readily understood by a reference to the preceding illustrations, where it will appear evident, that in any situation in which two vessels may approach each other in the dark, the coloured lights will instantly indicate to both the relative course of each—that is, each will know whether the other is approaching directly or crossing the bows, either to starboard or to port. This intimation is all that is required to enable vessels to pass each other in the darkest night, with almost equal safety as in broad day, and for the want of which so many lamentable accidents have occurred.

Patterns of the Lanterns to be carried, and of the mode in which the Screens are to be fitted, may be seen at the Custom Houses of the principal Commercial Ports of the United Kingdom.

By command of their Lordships,

W. A. B. HAMILTON.

NOTE.—The system of Night Lights laid down in the above Regulations has been adopted in Her Majesty's Service, and by the Governments of the principal Foreign Maritime Nations.

WEEKLY RETURNS of the Quantities and Price of BRITISH CORN, IMPERIAL MEASURE, as received from the Inspectors and Officers of Excise in the following Cities and Towns in ENGLAND and WALES, from which the Prices that govern Duty are calculated; conformably to the Act of the 5th Victoria, cap. 14.
