AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 15th day of May 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme relating to the episcopal income of the Bishop of Ely.

"Whereas the Right Reverend Thomas, Bishop of Ely, hath, with a view to the regulation of his episcopal income, according to the provisions of the said Act, entered into an agreement with us, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"Agreement made this first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, between the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the one part, and the Right Reverend Thomas, Bishop of Ely, of the other part.

"Whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," after reciting that Her Majesty had issued a Commission to certain persons therein named to inquire, amongst other things, whether any and what improvement could be made in the then existing law and practice relating to the incomes of archbishops and bishops, so as to secure to them respectively fixed instead of fluctuating annual incomes, and that it was expedient that until the said Commissioners should have made their report and Parliament should have determined upon some permanent mode of effecting the object last aforesaid, temporary arrangements should be made for that purpose; it was enacted that, notwithstanding the provisions of the therein first-recited Act, and any Order or Orders of Her Majesty in Council founded thereon relating to or providing for the payment to or by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of fixed annual sums, it should be lawful, by the authority and in the manner by and in which the arrangements for carrying into effect the recommendations in the said Act recited might then be made (that is to say, by a scheme of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, confirmed and ratified by an Order of Her Majesty in Council), so to regulate from time to time the amounts, times, modes and conditions of payments to be made to or by the said Commissioners as the case might be, by or to any archbishop or bishop who should have succeeded to a see upon any avoidance thereof happening after the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, or any other archbishop or bishop who might signify his willingness to accept such annual income as thereafter mentioned in lieu of his present income, as to secure to every such archbishop or bishop the annual income named for the archbishop or bishop of his see, in the same or any other Act then in force, or in any Order of Her Majesty in Council duly made and published, and no more:

"And whereas by an Order of Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, and duly published in the London Gazette, it was provided that, in order to preserve as nearly as may be to the Bishop of Ely the average annual income of five thousand five hundred pounds, there should be paid to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, by the bishop for the time being, the fixed annual sum of three thousand five hundred pounds, by equal half yearly payments in every year:

"And whereas the said Thomas, Bishop of Ely, is subject to the provisions of the said Order in Council, and hath signified his willingness, in accordance with the provisions of the said herein-recited Act, to accept, as from the first day of January now last past, the said annual income or yearly sum of five thousand five hundred pounds and no more, in lieu of the present and future income arising from his said see, or receivable by him under the provisions of the said recited Order in Council, or of any other ecclesiastical profits or emoluments of any kind or description whatsoever, received or enjoyed by him, and to enter into an agreement with the said Commissioners for regulating the income to be received by him as from the said first day of January now last past, in manner hereinafter mentioned:

"Now, it is hereby agreed by and between the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England and the said Thomas, Bishop of Ely, as follows; that is to say:

"1. That the said bishop shall, on the twenty-ninth day of September next, and afterwards half-yearly on the twenty-fifth day of March and the twenty-ninth day of September in every year, deliver to the said Commissioners, in such form as they shall from time to time direct, a correct account in writing, certified under his hand, of all monies actually received by him, whether consisting of arrears or otherwise, accrued due since the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, in respect of the revenues of his said see, or of such other ecclesiastical profits or emoluments as aforesaid, during the half year ending on the thirty-first day of December, or the thirtieth day of June, as the case may be, then last past, and also of all monies remaining unpaid in respect of the said see, or of any such other profits or emoluments as aforesaid, on account of such arrears as aforesaid, or otherwise at the date of such account, and in every such account, shall be included as money actually received by the said bishop, such a sum as shall from time to time be agreed upon between him and the said Commissioners, or, in case of their disagreement, then as shall be determined by two indifferent persons, one to be chosen by the said bishop, and the other by the said Commissioners, or in case of the disagreement of such two persons, then by an umpire to be chosen by them, as a fair and reasonable occupation rent to be charged against the said bishop, for such parts of the estates of the said see (other than and except the episcopal houses of residence, with the grounds and premises appurtenant thereto respectively), of and belonging to the said see, situate respectively at Ely, and in Dover-street, London, as shall have been in the possession or occupation of the said bishop, or of any person or persons under his authority or permission (other than and except under any lease, or agreement for a lease, to be granted or entered into after the execution of these presents, with the consent of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners as hereinafter mentioned), during the preceding half year, or any part thereof, and according to the term of his, her, or their having been in such possession or occupation; and if it shall appear by any such account, that after allowing all such reasonable and customary payments and deductions as shall be allowed by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, or their surveyor, or receiver, the net amount actually received has exceeded two thousand seven hundred and fifty pounds, being one half of the said amount of the annual income so fixed for the said see as aforesaid, the surplus shall at the same time be paid by the said bishop; and he doth hereby agree to pay such surplus to the credit of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, at the Bank of England, and that upon the account so delivered being examined and approved by the Treasurers of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for the time being, their receipt for the amount of such surplus shall be given to the said bishop, and shall be a good and valid discharge for all payments or contributions accruing due during the half year to which the said account shall relate, in respect of the said annual sum of three thousand five hundred pounds, for which the said bishop is now liable under the said Order in Council; but if it shall appear upon due investigation of any such account, that after allowing such payments and deductions as aforesaid, the net amount so received is less than one half of the said annual income so fixed as aforesaid for the said see, there shall be paid by the said Commissioners, and they do hereby agree to pay to the said bishop, on the first day of November, or the first day of May, as the case may be, then next following, such a sum of money as shall make up the deficiency.

“2. Provided always, and it is further agreed by the said bishop, that subject to the right of apportionment (if any), hereinafter mentioned, after the delivery of such account, all arrears of rent due or other payments in respect of the see, or of any such profits or emoluments as aforesaid, which may have remained unpaid at the end of the half year to which such account shall relate, shall form part of the future revenues of the said see, and shall, when received, be included in the account for the then current half year, so to be delivered to the said Commissioners as aforesaid; and the said bishop shall take and use all lawful means and remedies for obtaining and compelling payment of all such monies as last-mentioned, within a reasonable time, or it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, if they shall think fit, to use the name and act as the attorneys of the said bishop, in demanding, obtaining, or compelling payment of such monies, and giving good and sufficient discharges for the same, and all monies so recovered, after payment of the costs of obtaining or compelling payment thereof, and of all incidental expenses, shall be carried over to the common fund of the said Commissioners.

“3. Provided nevertheless, that with respect to all such sums of money as were accruing in respect of the same revenues, profits, or emoluments, on the said first day of January now last past, and have been since, or shall be hereafter, received by the said bishop, he, the said bishop, shall be entitled to such apportioned part thereof (if any), as his legal personal representative would have been by law entitled to, in case he had died on that day, and the said see had thereby become void.

“4. Provided also, and it is hereby further mutually agreed between the said bishop and the said Commissioners, that all monies which shall be due to the said bishop on account of his said see, or any such other ecclesiastical profits or emoluments as aforesaid, at the time of his avoidance of the said see, whether by death or otherwise, or which, in case of the avoidance thereof by death, shall accrue to his legal personal representatives, including all arrears accrued due since the said thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, subject to such right of apportionment (if any) as aforesaid, shall be considered as belonging to the said Commissioners, and shall and may be received or recovered by them, or by the said bishop, or his representatives, on their behalf, and paid over to them with as little delay as practicable; and upon such avoidance, an account shall forthwith be made and rendered by the said bishop, or his representatives, as the case may be, to the said Commissioners, in such form as they shall require, of all monies received or to be accounted for as monies received by him, or them, since the then last half yearly account, and also of all monies then remaining unpaid in respect of the said see, or such other ecclesiastical profits or emoluments as aforesaid, and if it shall appear by such account, that after allowing all such reasonable and customary payments and deductions as aforesaid, the net amount received, or to be accounted for, has exceeded so much of the current half yearly payment of the said annual income, or sum of five thousand five hundred pounds, as would be in proportion to the number of days which shall have intervened between the thirtieth day of June, or the thirty-first day of December, whichever shall have happened next before such avoidance of the said see, and in that event, then the said bishop, or his representatives, as the case may be, shall pay over such surplus to the credit of the said Commissioners, at the Bank of England, or if it shall appear upon the examination of such account, that after allowing such payments and deductions as aforesaid, the net income so received, and to be accounted for, is less in amount than so much of the current half yearly payment of the said annual income of five thousand five hundred pounds as shall be in proportion to such intervening number of days as last mentioned, then the said Commissioners shall pay to the said bishop, or his legal personal representatives, such a sum of money as shall make up such deficiency.

“ 5. And the said bishop doth further agree that, before granting any lease, or entering into any agreement for granting a lease, by way of renewal, or in any other way disposing of the possession of any property belonging to the said see, or any such other profits or emoluments as aforesaid, for any estate, term, or interest whatsoever therein, whether by parole or otherwise, and whether for valuable consideration or not, he will submit to the said Commissioners, for their approval, a statement in writing of his proposal to grant, enter into, or make such lease, agreement, or disposition, and of all the considerations (if any) whether by way of fine, premium, rent, royalty, or other nature, kind, or description whatsoever, to be received, taken, reserved, or rendered, for the granting or making thereof, together with all other terms of such intended lease, agreement, or disposition, and an explanation of the principle upon which such fine, or other like consideration, (if any) shall have been calculated, and that no such lease shall be granted, or agreement entered into, or other disposition made, without the consent of the said Commissioners, in writing under their common seal, and if it shall appear that the amount of any fine, or other like consideration, shall in any case exceed one half of the said annual income of five thousand five hundred pounds, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to direct such fine to be paid to them, and the said bishop doth hereby agree that the same shall be so paid accordingly.

“ 6. Provided always, that this agreement, with all matters herein contained, is subject to the approval and ratification of Her Majesty in Council, and the said Commissioners do hereby agree forthwith to prepare and lay before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, recommending and proposing that Her Majesty should approve and ratify the same accordingly, so that the same, when ratified, shall remain in force until Parliament shall otherwise direct.

“ In witness whereof, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have hereunto set their common seal, and the said Thomas, Bishop of Ely, hath hereunto set his hand, the day and year first above written.

“(Signed) T. Ely.”

“ Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that the said agreement be approved and ratified by your Majesty in Council, so that the same shall remain in force until Parliament shall otherwise direct.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act, or of any other Act of Parliament. All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act, and shall remain in force until Parliament shall otherwise direct; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ely.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 15th day of May 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “ An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes;” as enlarged by the first section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to further amend the Church Building Acts,” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words following, viz.:

“ Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Chorley, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Peter, situate in the said parish of Chorley, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled ‘ An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes;’ as enlarged by the first section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled ‘ An Act to further amend the Church Building Acts,’ and that such proposed district should comprize a portion of the said parish of Chorley, and also a small portion of the district chapelry of Saint George, Chorley, heretofore assigned out of the said parish of Chorley, and that such proposed district should be named or called ‘ The District Chapelry of Saint Peter, Chorley,’ and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

“ The boundary line of the said district chapelry of Saint Peter, Chorley, commences at the boundary stone of the said parish of Chorley, on the Preston turnpike-road, adjoining to the township of Whittle-le-Woods, in the parish of Leyland, and proceeds in a north-easterly direction along the boundary of the said township of Whittle-le-Woods, and easterly along the boundary of the township of Heapy, in the said parish of Leyland, to the point where the townships of Heapy, Heath Charnock, and Chorley meet; thence in a southerly direction, along the boundary of the townships of Chorley and Heath Charnock to the reservoir of the Chorley Water-works; thence along the north side of the said reservoir to a road leading from the said reservoir into a lane leading from Cross Hall Fold to the White House; thence in a south-westerly direction up the centre of the said lane to the centre of a bridge which crosses the Leeds and Liverpool Canal; thence in a north-westerly direction along the centre of the said canal to the foot bridge connecting the path from Cross Hall Mill across Eaves-lane opposite to Moss Cottage; thence in a north-westerly direction down the centre of Eaves-lane to Stump-lane; then westerly along the centre of Stump-lane to the bridge over the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway; then along the centre of the said railway in a northerly direction to the bridge in continuation of Harper's-lane; then south-westerly and north-westerly along Preston-street and Preston turnpike-road to the said boundary-stone, where the said district chapelry of Saint Peter, Chorley, commenced, as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon tinted pink.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed in the said church of Saint Peter, Chorley, and that the fees to arise therefrom should belong and be paid to the minister or incumbent of such church for the time being:

"That the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Manchester.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 15th day of May 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the fourth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act concerning banns and marriages in certain district churches or chapels," and of the seventeenth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Church Building Acts," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the sixteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that on or about the fifteenth day of February one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, your Majesty's said Commissioners, with the consent of the late Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of Canterbury, made a representation to your Majesty in Council, that it appeared to them to be expedient, and therefore humbly prayed that a particular district might be assigned to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Margate, in the parish of Saint John, Isle of Thanet, in the county of Kent, and diocese of Canterbury, under and by virtue of the power or authority for such purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes;' and that such proposed district should be named or called 'The Trinity District Chapelry, Margate;' and that the boundaries thereof should be such as were mentioned or described in the said representation:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners also represented that it appeared to them to be expedient that baptisms and churchings should be solemnized or performed in Trinity Church aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the minister of such church for the time being:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the eleventh day of March one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, your Majesty was graciously pleased, by and with the advice of your Privy Council, to approve of the assignment of the said district, and was pleased to order that the same should be accordingly made, and also that the recommendations of your Majesty's said Commissioners in respect of the solemnization of baptisms and churchings, and of the fees arising therefrom, should be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that the said Order in Council did not direct that banns of marriage should be published, and marriages solemnized in the said church, or that burials should be performed therein; and that having taken into consideration the present circumstances of the said district, so assigned to the said church, called Trinity Church, it appears to your Majesty's said Commissioners to be expedient that banns of marriage should hereafter be published, and that marriages should hereafter be solemnized, and also that burials should hereafter be performed, upon a burial-ground or cemetery being provided for the said Trinity District Chapelry, Margate, and that a Supplemental Order for those purposes should be made, pursuant to the provisions of the fourth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act concerning banns and marriages in certain district churches or chapels,' and of the seventeenth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to amend the Church Building Acts;' and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the incumbent for the time being of Trinity Church aforesaid.

"That the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend John Bird, Archbishop of Canterbury, has been obtained thereto, as required by the two Acts and sections lastly hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal coasideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is by this Supplemental Order ordered, that the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased to direct, that this Supplemental Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Canterbury.
