

In the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors.

THE creditors of the estate of Ann Turner, of Great Hucklow, in the parish of Hope, in the county of Derby, Widow, Farmer, Miner, and Butter Dealer, an Insolvent, who filed a Petition for protection in the County Court of Derbyshire, on the 16th day of October 1849, are desired to meet the assignees of her estate and effects on Saturday the 12th day of June next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the Castle Inn, in Castleton, in the said county of Derby, to assent to or dissent from the assignees compounding a suit in the High Court of Chancery, commenced by a bill filed by the said assignees against certain persons to be named at the said meeting as defendants, praying, amongst other things, that it might be declared that certain proceedings in the said bill particularly mentioned were irregular, and contrary to the customs and usages of the King's Field, in the hundred of High Peak, in the county of Derby, and that it might also be declared that under the circumstances in the said bill particularly mentioned, and the several proceedings taken by the defendants to the said bill for obtaining possession of the Hill Top Mine, machinery, ore, implements, tools, and effects, were fraudulent and void as against the said plaintiffs, and that such proceedings might be set aside accordingly; and that the defendants might be decreed to deliver to the said plaintiffs possession of the said Hill Top Mine, and of all machinery, ore, implements, tools, and effects, in or about the same; and that an account might be taken of the ore raised, won, and gotten from the said mine by the defendants since possession was delivered to or obtained by them, or the value thereof respectively; and that the defendants might be decreed to pay to the said assignees what upon taking such account should appear to be the value of such ore, together with the costs of the said suit, and to assent or dissent from the said assignees effecting a compromise with all or any of the defendants to the said suit, touching all or any of the matters in issue therein, and for other important matters.—Dated this 26th day of May 1852.
