

in a straight direction partly along the fence of No. 72, until it reaches a brook, along the course of which brook it proceeds north-easterly to the boundary line separating the parish of Chiddingstone, from the parishes of Sundridge and Chevening, and proceeds easterly along such boundary until it meets the parish of Sevenoaks on the east, and which consolidated chapelry of Ide Hill is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured blue, pink, and yellow :

"That the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend John Bird, Archbishop of the said diocese of Canterbury, and also patron in right of his see of the parish churches of the said parishes of Sundridge, Chevening, and Chiddingstone has been obtained to the formation of the said consolidated chapelry of Ide Hill, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that the said John Bird, as Archbishop of the said diocese of Canterbury, and also as patron as aforesaid in right of his see of the said parish churches of Sundridge, Chevening, and Chiddingstone, is willing and has agreed (testified as aforesaid), with the approbation of your Majesty's said Commissioners (testified as hereinafter mentioned), that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent, or perpetual curate, to serve the said church of Saint Mary, at Ide Hill aforesaid, should be vested in, belong to, and whenever occasion may require, be exercised by the rector or incumbent, for the time being, of the said parish church of Sundridge :

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your royal wisdom, shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed formation into one consolidated chapelry be accordingly made, and the agreement, in respect of the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church of Saint Mary, at Ide Hill, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Canterbury.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 15th day of June 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the "Church Building Acts," as enlarged or extended by the nineteenth and twentieth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fourteen and fifteen years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Church Building "Acts," or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority vested in the said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the ninth day of June one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parishes of Newtown Linford, Whitwick, Sheepshead, and the consolidated chapelry district of Saint Paul, Woodhouse Eaves, in the county of Leicester, and the diocese of Peterborough, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate certain contiguous portions of the said parishes of Newtown Linford, Whitwick and Sheepshead, and of the said consolidated chapelry district of Saint Paul, Woodhouse Eaves, and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes for the consecrated church or chapel called 'The Oaks Church,' situate in that part of Charnwood Forest, which is within the said parish of Newtown Linford, under and by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose contained in the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for the further 'amendment of the Church Building Acts,' as enlarged or extended by the nineteenth and twentieth sections of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to 'amend the Church Building Acts,' or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, and that such consolidated chapelry should be named or called 'The Consolidated Chapelry of the Oaks Church on Charnwood Forest,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: the boundary of the consolidated chapelry of the Oaks Church on Charnwood Forest commences at the crossing of the Sheepshead and Newtown, and the Loughborough and Bosworth roads, near Warren Hill, as shewn on the eastern side of the map or plan hereunto annexed, and proceed in a south-westwardly direction along the centre of the Loughborough and Bosworth-road to where it joins the Sheepshead and Ulverscroft-road, along that road in an eastwardly direction for one hundred and forty yards to the boundary of the township of Woodhouse, and along the south-westwardly boundary line of that township to where it joins the liberty of Charley; from thence in a north-westwardly direction along the boundary line of Charley and Beau Manor, to where it joins the parish of Sheepshead; thence in the same direction until it joins the parish of Newtown Linford; thence in a south-westwardly direction till it joins the parish of Whitwick, near an ancient well, called Carter's Well; from thence the boundary of the consolidated chapelry of the Oaks Church passes in a south-westwardly direction along the boundary line of the parishes of Whitwick and Markfield, to the Whitwick and Leicester turnpike-road, near to Green Hill, and at the southern end of the Charley Mill-lane; from thence the boundary of such consolidated chapelry proceeds along the said turnpike-road, north-westwardly to the Hugglescote and Sheepshead-road, including the Forest Rock Public-house, on the westwardly side
