

of the said road, and proceeding thence along the said Whitwick and Leicester turnpike-road, for a distance of four hundred and forty yards to a bound stone, from the said turnpike-road the boundary of such consolidated chapelry passes in a northwardly direction to another bound stone on the northern side of the Oak's-road, and along the centre of that road westwardly for a distance of seven hundred and seventy yards, to the road leading from Belton to Whitwick; thence along the centre of that road north-eastwardly, to where it joins the boundary of the parish of Sheepshead, near Burrow's Spring, where it leaves the Belton-road, and passes along the Sheepshead parish boundary to the Loughborough and Ashby-de-la-Zouch turnpike-road; from thence the boundary of such consolidated chapelry passes eastwardly along the centre of that road to the junction of the Woodhouse-road, near Snell's Nook, and along the centre of the last-mentioned road south-eastwardly, crossing the Forest Canal, to where that road joins the parish of Loughborough; from thence in a south-westwardly direction to an ancient land mark, called Nettle Bed Bush, where it joins the liberty of Beau Manor and the said consolidated chapelry district of Saint Paul, Woodhouse Eaves; and from thence the boundary proceeds south-westwardly along the boundary line of Sheepshead and Beau Manor, to the Sheepshead and Newtown-road; and from thence in a south-eastwardly direction along the centre of that road to where it crosses the Loughborough and Bosworth-road, at the point where the description of the boundaries of the said consolidated chapelry of the Oak's Church on Charwood Forest commences, as the same is more particularly delineated on the said map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink, green, blue, and yellow.

"That the consents of the Right Reverend George, bishop of the said diocese of Peterborough, of the Right Honourable George Harry, Earl of Stamford and Warrington (patron of the parish church of the said parish of Newtown Linford), of the Right Honourable Robert Adam Christopher (Chancellor of Your Majesty's Duchy of Lancaster, and as such patron in right of the Crown of the parish church of the said parish of Whitwick), of Charles March Phillipps, of Garendon Park, in the county of Leicester, Esquire (patron of the parish church of the said parish of Sheepshead), and of the said George Harry, Earl of Stamford and Warrington, Charles March Phillipps, of the Right Honourable Richard William Penn Curzon, Earl Howe, (on behalf of the Most Honourable Panlyn Reginald Serlo Rawdon, Marquess of Hastings, a minor), and of William Herrick, of Beau Manor Park, in the county of Leicester, Esquire, (patrons with Edward Dawson, of Whatton House, in the said county of Leicester, Esquire, of the church of the said consolidated chapelry district of Saint Paul, Woodhouse Eaves), have been respectively obtained to the formation of the said consolidated chapelry of the Oaks Church, on Charnwood Forest, as required by the Act and section lastly hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof the said George, Bishop of Peterborough, and all the said several patrons, except the said Edward Dawson, have signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty that it has, as required by the last-mentioned Act and section, been mutually agreed between the said George Harry, Earl of Stamford and Warrington, Robert Adam Christopher, Charles March Phillipps, Richard William Penn Curzon, Earl Howe, and William Herrick, as such respective patrons as aforsaid (testified as aforsaid), with the approbation of your Majesty's said Commissioners (testified as hereinafter mentioned), and also of the said George, Bishop of Peterborough (testified as aforsaid), that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church, called the Oaks Church, should be vested in, belong to, and whenever occasion may require, be exercised by the Lords of the several manors for the time being of Groby, Whitwick, Beau Manor, Sheepshead, Ulverscroft, and Belton, in the county of Leicester.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed formation into one consolidated chapelry be accordingly made, and the agreement in respect of the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church, called the Oaks Church, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Peterborough.
