No. 29. Her Majesty's Ship Fox's Boat,
Sir, Bassein, 21st May 1852.

REFERRING to my despatch, No. 28, of yesterday's date, I request you will inform their lordships that after we had obtained possession of Bassein, I sent the Pluto a short distance up the river to endeavour to intercept the retreating army. She returned this morning, and Com. Burbank acquaints me that he proceeded up the river above Bassein, about 40 miles, that he communicated with the village of Mammoon, from which the inhabitants came off, and who informed him that one of the party then on board was a person in high command at Bassein during the attack, that he then arrested this person, and he has delivered him over to me, together with another officer of high rank.

Commander Burbank having been informed that a party of the retreating force, in two boats, had that night left the village, he proceeded in chase, and succeeded in capturing one of the boats, in which he found a quantity of arms and ammunition, which he destroyed; the troops landed, and fled into the jungle.

The Pluto afterwards fell in with another portion of the defeated Burmese, encamped, but who fled on being observed, leaving their arms, all which have been destroyed, as well as their barracks. The party of seamen from the Fox embarked in the Pluto to assist in these operations, under Mr. Lisboa, Midshipman.

The Proserpine steam-vessel having joined me from Moulmein, I dispatched her with the Fox's marines to destroy some unoccupied stockades in the neighbourhood of the village of Naputa, which was accomplished without any opposition, assisted by the villagers.

The Lieutenant-General intends leaving two hundred men of Her Majesty's 51st, and three hundred of the 9th Regiment of Madras Native Infantry, to garrison Bassein, to which I have added the Sesostris steam-frigate. The remainder of the troops embarked to-day, and to-morrow the squadron will return to Rangoon.

I have, &c.

OPERATIONS IN THE IRRAWADY.

No. 31.

Sir, Fox, at Rangoon, May 24, 1852.

IN continuance of my letter, No. 27, I have the honour to request you will inform their lordships that the Phlegethon returned here to-day, having made a most successful expedition in conjunction with the barge of this ship, in charge of Acting Lieutenant Lawrence, which I had despatched to rejoin him on the 11th instant.

While Commodore Niblett was waiting for sufficient water to get into Rangoon River, I directed him to reconnoitre Donabew; he accordingly proceeded to that place and found that the Governor of Dallah had fled, and that this once famous stronghold was unoccupied and defenceless. The inhabitants seemed desirous of affording every assistance, and informed him that a considerable force was collected further up the river, to which spot he also proceeded; and, at about ten miles above Donabew, near the tower of Sagadjee, he fell in with them.

The Phlegethon opened fire upon this force, consisting of about 5000 men, which retreated and fell back upon Sarawah, a town thirty miles higher up the river. He afterwards ascertained that a portion of them crossed over to Hewsada, at the junction of the Bassein river.

Commander Niblett informs me that, wherever the Phlegethon made her appearance, he was received by the natives with every demonstration of friendship; and an anxiety for him to remain and afford them protection from the marauders and Burmese troops.

I have, &c.
