FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1852.

Whitehall, September 7, 1852.

THE following Addresses were presented to The Queen in Person on Her Majesty's route to Scotland, and were very graciously received by Her Majesty :

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the ancient city of Gloucester, avail ourselves with pride and gratification of the present opportunity to renew to your Majesty the expression of our most devoted loyalty and attachment to your Person and Throne, and to offer to your Majesty, and your Royal Consort and Children, our warmest welcome and cordial congratulations.

We beg to express our earnest hope that under the Divine blessing your Majesty's sojourn at your Highland residence may be the means of preserving you in that health, which is so necessary to the happiness and welfare of your faithful subjects.

And we fervently pray that your Majesty and your Majesty's Royal Consort and beloved and youthful Family, may long continue to enjoy the proud satisfaction of beholding the grandeur of your empire, and the contentment, happiness, and unity of your people.

Given under the common seal of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the city of Gloucester, this 30th day of August 1852.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Bishop and Clergy of Gloucester and its neighbourhood, humbly approach you to testify our happiness at beholding your arrival, with your Royal Consort and Family, in this your ancient city. We are deeply sensible of the many blessings which this nation enjoys through your Majesty's sway and your Majesty's example.

We rely upon a continuance of your gracious support to that church of which you are the earthly Head. We might have ventured to express more fully the reasons of our attachment to your Majesty and to your Throne, but at this moment our loyalty will be better shewn by a brief declaration of our sincere hope and devout prayer that Almighty God may guard and protect your Majesty and your Consort and Family both on your present journey and in the course through this life to His everlasting Kingdom.

J. H. Gloucester and Bristol.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Birmingham, in the County of Warwick, in Council assembled, approach your Majesty with the tender of a respectful and hearty welcome.

On the happy occasion of your Majesty's last visit to this borough, we offered to your Majesty the sincere homage of its inhabitants, then enjoying the fruits of the wise legislation which had received the exalted sanction of your Majesty's approval.

The loyalty and devotion of a prosperous and contented people best attest their continued sense of the benefits thus conferred, and of their grateful appreciation of your Majesty's just and beneficent rule.

It is our earnest prayer that your Majesty may long be spared to dispense the blessings of Constitutional Government, and to receive new and enduring proofs of attachment to your Majesty's Throne and Person from all classes in your Majesty's dominions.

In testimony whereof, the corporate common seal of the said borough is hereunto affixed, this 27th day of August 1852.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Derby, in Council assembled, eagerly avail ourselves of your Majesty's visit to this borough to tender to your Majesty our humble duty, and to assure your Majesty of our continued loyal devotion to your Majesty's Person and Throne.

We pray heartily for the blessing of God on your Majesty, for the health and happiness of your Majesty's Royal Consort and Children, and for the long continuance in peace and prosperity of your Majesty's reign.

Jno. Dunnicliff, Mayor.

AT the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight, the 18th day of August 1852.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, entitled "An Act to amend the law of copy-right," it is, among other things, enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any person, not being the proprietor of the copyright, or some person authorized by him, to import into any port in the United Kingdom, or into any other part of the British dominions, for sale or hire, any printed book, first composed, or written, or printed and published in any part of the United Kingdom wherein there shall be copyright, and reprinted in any country or place whatsoever out of the British dominions:

And whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, entitled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," books, wherein the copyright is subsisting, first composed, or written, or printed in the United Kingdom, and printed or reprinted in any other country, are absolutely prohibited to be imported into the British possessions abroad: And whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, entitled "An Act to amend the Law relating to the protection in the colonies of works entitled to copyright in the United Kingdom," it is enacted, that in case the legislature, or proper legislative authorities, in any British possession, shall be disposed to make due provision for securing or protecting the rights of British authors in such possession, and shall pass an Act or make an Ordinance for that purpose, and shall transmit the same, in the proper manner, to the Secretary of State, in order that it may be submitted to Her Majesty, and in case Her Majesty shall be of opinion that such Act or Ordinance is sufficient for the purpose of securing to British authors reasonable protection within such possession, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she think fit so to do, to express Her royal approval of such Act or Ordinance, and thereupon to issue an Order in Council, declaring that so long as the provisions of such Act or Ordinance continue in force within such colony, the prohibitions contained in the aforesaid Acts, and hereinbefore recited, and any prohibitions contained in the said Acts, or any other Acts, against the importing, selling, letting out to hire, exposing for sale or hire, or possessing foreign reprints of books, first composed, written, printed, or published in the United Kingdom, and entitled to copyright therein, shall be suspended, so far as regards such colony: And whereas an Act has been passed in Saint Vincent, No. 602, entitled "An Act to authorise the importation into the Government of the island of St. Vincent and its dependencies, of books being foreign reprints of books first composed or written or printed, or reprinted, or published in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and in which there may be any copy-right," whereby due provision is made for securing and protecting the rights of British authors in the said island: And whereas Her Majesty hath expressed Her royal approval of the same:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, and by the authority of the said recited Act of the session of Parliament held in the tenth and eleventh years of Her Majesty's reign, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that so long as the provisions of the said Act of the Legislature of the said island shall remain and continue in force within the said island, all prohibitions in the said hereinbefore recited Acts of the Imperial Parliament, or in any other Acts thereof contained, against the importing into the said island, or against the selling, letting out to hire, or possessing therein, foreign reprints of books, first composed, written, printed, or published in the United Kingdom, and entitled to copyright therein, shall be suspended, so far as regards the said island.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Sir John Pakington, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight, the 18th day of August 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the law relating to Ecclesiastical Houses of Residence," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirtieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to alter and amend the law relating to Ecclesiastical Houses of Residence,' have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for substituting a money payment for certain property belonging to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Saint Peter, at York.

"Whereas it was by the said recited Acts enacted and declared, that by the authority of a scheme prepared by us, and ratified by an Order of your Majesty in Council, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions of the said first recited Act, any sum of money which should have been invested in the public funds, or in other security or securities, in trust for any ecclesiastical body corporate, aggregate, or sole, might upon application in writing to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, under the hand and seal of such body corporate, and in the case of any chapter, with the consent of the visitor thereof, be directed to be sold, and the same should be sold accordingly, and that the produce of such sale should be applied to such purpose and in such manner as should appear most conducive to the permanent benefit of such body corporate; and also that for any like purpose any arrangement might be made with the consent in writing under the corporate seal of any chapter, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to such chapter, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments; and that the aforesaid provisions relating to the sale and application of any sum of money invested in trust for any ecclesiastical body corporate, did and should include and apply to all monies and securities for money, and to all stock in the Government Funds, or elsewhere, standing in the name of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery, or in the name or names of any other public officer, or of any individual or individuals, for or to the credit of, or in trust for, any bishop, dean and chapter, dean or canon, whether for the purpose of being laid out in land, or otherwise:

“And whereas the said dean and chapter are seized in fee of several manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, the whole or the chief part of which have been heretofore demised on leases for lives or years, at small annual reserved rents, and upon payment of fines, and they are also beneficially interested in or otherwise entitled to certain sums of stock, invested or held in trust as aforesaid, and particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked B:

“And whereas one of the purposes of the said Acts is to provide a fund for making better provision for the cure of souls, and the said dean and chapter have proposed to us, with the consent of their visitor, that the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, and stock, should be dealt with in manner hereinafter mentioned; and we are of opinion, that it would ultimately conduce as well to the improvement of the said fund as to the permanent benefit of the said dean and chapter, that the same should be dealt with accordingly:

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral and metropolitan church of Saint Peter at York, and also of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Thomas, Archbishop of York, as visitor of the said dean and chapter, testified by their having hereunto affixed their respective corporate seals, we humbly recommend and propose, that in consideration of the annual money payment hereinafter mentioned, to be paid by us to the said dean and chapter, all the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, which are described in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked A, or which now belong, either in possession or reversion, to the said dean and chapter (excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage, and any property situate within the precincts of the said cathedral church and not particularly described in the said schedule, and excepting also the property known as St. Peter's Estate and the Fabric Estate), and all the estate and interest therein of the said dean and chapter shall, upon and from the twenty-ninth day of September now next ensuing, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become, and be transferred to, and vested in us and our successors, and that we and they shall become and be absolutely seized or possessed of the same in fee, and that in consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance, there shall be paid by us to the said dean and chapter and their successors, the fixed annual sum of four thousand four hundred and ten pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in every year, subject to such outgoings as are hereinafter mentioned; and that the receipt or receipts of the treasurer for the time being of the said dean and chapter, shall be a good and valid discharge to us for all or any and every such sum or sums of money as shall therein be expressed to have been paid to him by us, under the authority of such Order as aforesaid, provided that the sum to be paid to the said dean and chapter on the first day of November next, as well in respect of the period between the said twenty-ninth day of September and that date, as of certain sums which would have accrued to the said dean and chapter if this scheme had not been passed, shall be two thousand pounds and no more.

“And we further recommend and propose, that the liability now attaching to the said dean and chapter, in respect of the annual outgoings and charges enumerated and set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked C, shall remain with such dean and chapter, to be paid and discharged by them out of the said annual money payment of four thousand four hundred and ten pounds so to be received from us, and that they shall also pay thereout to the receiver for the time being of the said dean and chapter, the annual sum of two hundred and ten pounds in respect of the profits heretofore accruing to him on account of the management of the estates herein proposed to be transferred to us.

“And we further recommend and propose, that none of the monies or estates to be received or acquired under the provisions of this scheme shall be applicable to the purposes of our common fund, except only so far as it may be necessary to reimburse such fund any advances made thereout under the provisions of this scheme, until or unless by and under the like authority, the said dean and chapter shall have been put into possession, in fee simple, of real estates, sufficient to secure to them the above-mentioned income, clear of all charges and outgoings on and from the same, except the costs of management which have, by the allowance of the said sum of two hundred and ten pounds, been provided for in the said sum of four thousand four hundred and ten pounds.

“And we further recommend and propose, with the like consent of the said dean and chapter, and of their visitor, that the said sums of stock so described as aforesaid, in the said schedule marked B, shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the said twenty-ninth day of September next, be sold out, and the proceeds thereof be paid to our account at the Bank of England, to be applied towards the objects of this scheme, and particularly to investment in the purchase of any interest in the estates described in the said schedule marked A, or any or either of them, or of any other real estates.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"SCHEDULE A.

"All those the parsonages of Drayton and Askham, in the county of Nottingham, with all the rights, members, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, all which are now (with certain exceptions) in the tenure or occupation of Henry Barlow and Richard Crawley; their heirs, assigns, or undertenants, by virtue of a lease for lives, dated the eleventh day of November one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, granted by the then Dean and the Chapter of York.

"And also all that the rectory or parsonage of Bubwith, in the county of York, with all the rights, members, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, all which are (with certain exceptions), now in the tenure or occupation of his heirs, assigns, or undertenants, by virtue of a lease for lives, dated the thirtieth day of December one thousand eight hundred and two, granted by the then Dean and the Chapter of York.

"And also all that the lordship manor or town of Dalton-upon-Tees, in the county of York, with all the rights, members and appurtenances to the said lordship manor or town belonging, or in anywise appertaining, all which were (with certain exceptions), late in the tenure or occupation of Jonathan Backhouse, his heirs, assigns, or undertenants, by virtue of a lease for lives, dated the thirteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and eight, granted by the then Dean and the Chapter of York.

"And also all that the tithe corn and hay, yearly and from year to year, coming, growing, and arising, within the parish, town, and fields of Burton Leonard, in the county of York, or the rent-charge awarded in lieu thereof. And also one barn, with the close, gardens, and all other houses, lands, meadows, and commodities, concerning the premises belonging to the parsonage of Burton Leonard aforesaid, all which tithe or rent-charge, barn and premises, are now in the tenure or occupation of Henry Duncombe, his heirs, assigns, or undertenants, by virtue of a lease for lives, dated the twenty-fourth day of February one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, granted by the then Dean and the Chapter of York.

"And also all that the rectory or parsonage of Brodsworth, in the county of York, with the rights, members, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, including the allotments, pieces, or parcels of land set out and allotted to the then Dean and the Chapter of York, and their lessees, under or by virtue of an Act, passed in the fifty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act for exonerating from tithes lands in the parish of Brodsworth, in the county of York,' in lieu of the glebe lands to which they were entitled and next hereinafter described; that is to say:

"All that one piece or parcel of land in Ling Field, marked on the map or plan annexed to the award to be made under the said Inclosure Act No. 70, containing seven acres and thirty-two perches, bounded on the east and north by ancient inclosures numbered 180a, 223a, 224a, 225a, 226a, and 227a, which, at the time of passing the said Act, belonged to Sir Ralph James Woodford, Sir Charles William Flint, and John George Woodford, as trustees, and set out and allotted to the said dean and chapter and their lessees in respect of tithes, and numbered 59 and 69, and part of the Old Red House-road, set out and allotted to the said dean and chapter and their lessees in respect of tithes, and numbered 60, and on the south by an allotment set out and allotted to Roger Wilson, as vicar of the vicarage of Brodsworth aforesaid, in respect of tithes, and numbered 75, and an allotment set out and allotted to John Robinson, numbered 71.

"And also all those allotments, pieces, or parcels of land or ground, containing, together, three hundred and seven acres and twenty-eight perches, set out and allotted to the said dean and chapter and their lessees, under or by virtue of the said Act of inclosure, in lieu of all the great tithes, to which they were entitled in the said parish of Brodsworth, which, except as to the great tithes of the enclosed lands belonging to Sir Joseph Copley, Baronet, in the township of Scausby, ceased from and after Michaelmas, one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and which allotments are next hereinafter described; that is to say:

"One piece or parcel of land on Brodsworth Common, marked on the said map or plan intended to be annexed to the said award No. 4, and containing one hundred and five acres and thirty perches, bounded on all sides thereof by an allotment set out and allotted to the said Sir Ralph James Woodford, Sir Charles William Flint, and John George Woodford, as trustees as aforesaid, and numbered 15.

"And also all that one other piece or parcel of land in Ling Field, marked on the said map or plan No. 76, containing fifteen acres and twenty-nine perches, bounded on the east by an ancient inclosure, No. 227a, which at the time of passing the said Inclosure Act belonged to the said Sir Ralph James Woodford, Sir Charles William Flint, and John George Woodford, as trustees as aforesaid, and allotted to the said dean and chapter and their lessees in respect of tithes, and numbered 69; on the west and north by the Ling Field occupation road, and an ancient inclosure, No. 228b, which at the time of passing the said Act belonged to the said Sir Ralph James Woodford, Sir Charles William Flint, and John George Woodford, as trustees as aforesaid, and set out or allotted to the said dean and chapter and their lessees in respect of tithes, and numbered 78; and on the south by an allotment set out and allotted to the said Roger Wilson, as such vicar as aforesaid, in respect of tithes, and exchanged to the said Sir Ralph James Woodford, Sir Charles William Flint, and John George Woodford, as trustees as aforesaid, and numbered 75.

"And also all that one other piece or parcel of land, being part of an ancient inclosure, called Ling Field Close, numbered 228b, which at the time of passing the said Act belonged to the said Sir Ralph James Woodford, Sir Charles William Flint, and John George Woodford, as such trustees as aforesaid, and marked on the said map or plan No. 78, and containing one acre, three roods, and eleven perches, bounded on the east and south by an allotment set out or allotted to the said dean and chapter and their lessees in respect of tithes, and numbered 76 on the west and north by the Ling Field occupation road.

"And also all those seven other pieces or parcels of land, being part of the ancient inclosure called Ling Field Closes, numbered 221a, 222a, 223a, 224a, 225a, 226a, 227a, which at the time of passing the said Act belonged to the said Sir Ralph James Woodford, Sir Charles William Flint, and John George Woodford, as trustees as aforesaid, marked on the said map or plan No. 69, and containing together thirty-two acres and thirty-one perches, bounded on the south-east by the said allotment, set out and allotted to the said dean and chapter and their lessees, in respect of glebe land, and numbered 70, and by an ancient road leading to the Red House, set out and allotted to the said dean and chapter and their lessees in respect of tithes, and numbered 60; on the west by an allotment set out and allotted to the said dean and chapter and their lessees, in respect of tithes, and numbered 76; on the north by the Ling Field occupation road; and on the south by part of an ancient inclosure belonging to the said Sir Ralph James Woodford, Sir Charles William Flint, and John George Woodford, as trustees as aforesaid, and numbered 227.

“And also all those two other pieces or parcels of land, being part of the ancient inclosures called Ling Field Close and Deep Dale, numbered 221 and 222, which at the time of passing the said Act belonged to the said Sir Ralph James Woodford, Sir Charles William Flint, and John George Woodford, as trustees as aforesaid, marked on the said map or plan No. 68, containing twenty-six acres and twenty-two perches, bounded on the east by four ancient inclosures, belonging to the said Sir Ralph James Woodford, Sir Charles William Flint, and John George Woodford, as trustees as aforesaid, and numbered 216, 217, 218, and 221b, and an ancient inclosure, late belonging to Charles Thelluson, Esquire, No. 219, and an ancient inclosure belonging to the said Sir Ralph James Woodford, Sir Charles William Flint, and John George Woodford, as trustees as aforesaid, and set out or allotted in exchange to the said Roger Wilson, as such vicar as aforesaid, and numbered 220, and an allotment set out or allotted for a public stone, sand, and gravel pit, and numbered 61; on the west by an ancient inclosure belonging to the said Sir Ralph James Woodford, Sir Charles William Flint, and John George Woodford, as trustees as aforesaid, and numbered 223; on the north by the ancient inclosures, in the township of Hampole, and an ancient inclosure belonging to the said Sir Ralph James Woodford, Sir Charles William Flint, and John George Woodford, as trustees as aforesaid, numbered 221b; and on the south by the Ling Field occupation road.

“And also that one other piece or parcel of land, being part of the ancient Red House-road (now stopped up), marked on the said map or plan No. 60, and containing two roods and two perches, situate between the allotment set out or allotted to the said dean and chapter and their lessees in respect of tithes, and numbered 69 and 59.

“And also all those four other pieces or parcels of land, being part of the ancient inclosures called Long Closes and Burden-lane Closes, and numbered 180a, 181b, 182e, 183e, which at the time of passing the said Inclosure Act belonged to the said Sir Ralph James Woodford, Sir Charles William Flint, and John George Woodford, as trustees as aforesaid, together with part of the ancient road from Pigburn to Red House, and marked on the said map or plan No. 59, and containing fifteen acres, one rood, and eleven perches, bounded on the east by the Red House-road; on the west by the said allotment set out or allotted to the said dean and chapter and their lessees in respect of glebe land, and numbered 70; on the north-west by the ancient Red House-road, set out or allotted to the said dean and chapter and their lessees in respect of tithes, and numbered 60; and on the south by ancient inclosures belonging to the said Sir Ralph James Woodford, Sir Charles William Flint, and John George Woodford, as trustees as aforesaid, and numbered 180, 181, and 182a.

“And also all those two other pieces or parcels of land, being part of the said ancient inclosure called Long Close and Burden-lane Close, numbered 182 and 183, which at the time of passing the said Act belonged to the said Sir Ralph James Woodford, Sir Charles William Flint, and John George Woodford, as trustees as aforesaid, and marked on the said map or plan No. 57, and containing seven acres and eight perches, bounded on the east by an ancient lane set out or allotted to the said dean and chapter and their lessees in respect of tithes, numbered 56; on the west by the Red House-road; and on the south by Adwick-road.

Sir Charles William Flint, and John George Woodford, as trustees as aforesaid, and set out or allotted to the said dean and chapter and their lessees in respect of tithes, and numbered 52; and on the south by the Adwick-road and an allotment set out or allotted as a public stone, sand, and gravel pit, No. 51.

"And also all that one other piece or parcel of land, being part of the said ancient inclosure, numbered one hundred and ninety-nine, which at the time of passing the said Inclosure Act belonged to the said William W Tyas, marked on the said map or plan No. 55, and containing two roods and thirty-seven perches, bounded on the east by other part of the said ancient inclosure belonging to the said William W Tyas, and numbered 199; on the west and south by ancient inclosures, numbered 200 and 198, which at the time of passing the said Inclosure Act belonged to the said Sir Ralph James Woodford, Sir Charles William Flint, and John George Woodford, as trustees as aforesaid, and set out or allotted to the said dean and chapter and their lessees in respect of tithes, and numbered 52; and on the north by an allotment set out or allotted to the said Roger Wilson, as such vicar as aforesaid, in respect of tithes, and numbered 63.

"And also all that one other piece or parcel of land, being part of an ancient inclosure called Red House Close, No. 212a, which at the time of passing the said Act belonged to Paul England, and is marked upon the said map or plan No. 67, and contains five acres, one rood, and twenty-one perches, bounded on the east by the ancient part of the Red House-road, which has been widened; on the west and south by two ancient inclosures belonging to the said Sir Ralph James Woodford, Sir Charles William Flint, and John George Woodford, as trustees as aforesaid, and numbered 213 and 214; on the north by other part of the said Red House Close, belonging to the said Paul England, and numbered 212.

"And also all that one other piece or parcel of land in Little East Field, marked upon the said map or plan No. 54, containing two acres, one rood, and thirty six perches, bounded on the east by an allotment set out or allotted to John Robinson, and numbered 53; on the west, north, and south by ancient inclosures, Nos. 196, 194, 197 and 198, which at the time of passing the said Act belonged to the said Sir Ralph James Woodford, Sir Charles William Flint, and John George Woodford, as trustees as aforesaid, and set out or allotted to the said dean and chapter and their lessees, in respect of tithes, and numbered 52.

"And also all the tithes of corn and grain (or the rent-charge awarded in lieu thereof), arising, coming, and growing within and out of the inclosed lands, at the time of the passing of the said Inclosure Act belonging to Sir Joseph Copley, Baronet, in the township of Scausby, including part of Marr Grange, or adjoining thereto, which lands are situate within the said parish of Brodsworth, and were excepted in the said Inclosure Act, and after the completion of the award made thereunder, remained liable to tithes; all which said rectory or parsonage of Brodsworth and premises are now (with certain exceptions) in the tenure or occupation of the said Sir Ralph James Woodford, Sir Charles William Flint, and John George Woodford, their heirs, assigns, or undertenants, by virtue of a lease for lives, dated the sixth day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, granted by the then Dean and the Chapter of York.

"And also all that part or portion of the rectory or parsonage of Aldborough, in the said county of York, consisting of the whole tithes of Dunsforth and Dunsforth, (or the rent-charge awarded in lieu thereof,) with the rights, members, and appurtenances, to the said part or portion of the said rectory or parsonage belonging, situate, lying, and being, or growing, happening, coming, or arising, in Dunsforth and Dunsforth aforesaid, or either of them, so far as the rights of the same part or portion of the said rectory or parsonage of Aldborough are not extinguished under or by virtue of the two Acts of Parliament next hereinafter mentioned, or either of them, and the awards of the Commissioners made in pursuance thereof, or in any other legal manner. Also all that messuage or dwelling-house, with the barn, stables, and other out-buildings belonging thereto, together with the several allotments or parcels of land or ground situate in the township of High Dunsforth and Branton, which, by virtue and in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the tenth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act for dividing and inclosing several common fields, meadows, grounds, common pastures, and other uninclosed grounds within the township or territories of Upper Dunsforth and Branton, in the county of York,' were, by the award of Commissioners, in writing under their hands and seals, bearing date on or about the eleventh day of January one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, allotted and awarded unto and for William Rickinson, Esquire, in the said Act named as lessee under the then Dean and the Chapter of York, and to his heirs and assigns, for the same estate and interest as he had in the rectorial tithes of all the lands and grounds in the said township or territories of Upper Dunsforth and Branton, which are situate and being in the parish and rectory of Aldborough aforesaid, and subject thereto to the said dean and chapter, and their successors, and their lessees for the time being in severalty, and which said allotments or parcels of land or ground are hereinafter more particularly mentioned and described; that is to say: all that parcel of land, containing eighty-six acres, one rood, and twenty-six perches, more or less, lying in Hunday Field, within the township or territories of Upper Dunsforth and Branton aforesaid (subject to the road by the said award after awarded over the same), and bounded by the lordship of Grafton on or towards the north; by lands in the township of Low Dunsforth and lands awarded to the said William Rickinson on or towards the east; by lands severally awarded to the Reverend Henry Hird, Mann Horsfield, Esquire, His Majesty in right of his crown, and Sir John Stapylton, Baronet, on or towards the south; and by the ancient road leading from York to Boroughbridge, and in the said award called the Boroughbridge-road, on or towards the west; by which said award the said Commissioners did set out, appoint, and award that there should be one common public highway or road, sixty feet in breadth between the ditches, if made, leading out of and from the north end of the said Boroughbridge-road, eastward, into and over lands in the said Hunday Field awarded to William Rickinson, Esquire, lessee as aforesaid, along the south side of the fence dividing the same from the township of Grafton, unto the north-east corner of such allotment, and so into the township of Low Dunsforth, which said road was intended to be left open to the said allotment, in order that the said William Rickinson and the owners and occupiers for the time being of the same allotment might have the benefit of the herbage thereof, until he or they should think proper to fence off the same, which said parcel of land hereinbefore described has since been divided into ten closes or parcels of land.

"And all that parcel of land, containing twenty-two acres, one rood, and ten perches, more or less, being the whole of the stinted pasture or parcel of uninclosed ground, called Ilcarr, within the township or territories of Upper Dunsforth and Branton aforesaid, adjoining upon the allotment above described, and bounded in part thereby and by lands in the township of Low Dunsforth and lands awarded to John Raper, Gentleman, on or towards the north and east; by lands severally awarded to George Inchboard, Henry Herd, and a private lane or road on or towards the south; and by the said allotment before described on or towards the west; and which said parcel of land hereinbefore described has since been divided into three closes or parcels of land.

"And all those several allotments or parcels of land or ground, situate in the township of Low Dunsforth, in the said county of York, which by virtue and in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-seventh year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act for inclosing lands in the township of Low Dunsforth, in the parish of Aldborough, in the county of York,' were by the award of Commissioners, in writing under their hands and seals, bearing date on or about the ninth day of October one thousand eight hundred and nine, allotted and awarded unto and for William Abbay, Gentleman, the lessee of the then Dean and the Chapter of York, for and during the continuance of his lease, and from and after the expiration thereof unto and for the said dean and chapter and their successors, and which said last mentioned allotments or parcels of land or ground are hereinafter more particularly mentioned and described; that is to say: all that allotment of twenty-nine acres, one rood, and thirty perches, more or less, parcel of the Ings Field, in Low Dunsforth aforesaid, bounded by lands awarded to and also by ancient inclosures of the said dean and chapter (had in exchange of His Majesty in right of his crown, and of Peter Matterson in his own right), on or towards the east; by lands awarded to, and by ancient inclosures of, the said dean and chapter (had in exchange of James Foster and Peter Matterson in his own right), on or towards the north; by the said ancient inclosures of the said dean and chapter, had in exchange of the said James Foster and Peter Matterson, and by lands awarded to the said dean and chapter and the said William Abbay (as their lessee), and to the said William Abbay in his own right, on or towards the west; and by ancient inclosures of the said dean and chapter, had in exchange of William Clark and of Joshua Crompton, Robert Driffield and David Stansfeld (as trustees), and also of Ann Inchbald and Peter Inchbald, and likewise by ancient inclosures of the vicar of Myton, on or towards the south.

"And all that allotment, containing twenty-five acres, three roods, and twenty-five perches, more or less, part of the Ings, bounded by an ancient inclosure of the said dean and chapter, had in exchange of William Clark, and by the river Ure, on or towards the east; by the last-mentioned ancient inclosure and by lands respectively awarded to the said Joshua Crompton, Robert Driffield, and David Stansfeld (as trustees), and the said William Abbay in his own right, on or towards the north; by ancient inclosures of the said dean and chapter, had in exchange of James Foster and Peter Matterson in his own right, and by lands severally awarded to the said dean and chapter, and their lessee, and to the said William Abbay in his own right, on or towards the west; and by the Ings-road and by lands awarded to the said dean and chapter and their lessee, and by ancient inclosures of the said dean and chapter, had in exchange of James Foster, William Clark, and Peter Matterson in his own right, on or towards the south. And all that allotment containing thirty-nine acres and three perches, more or less, part of the Three Croft Field, bounded by an ancient inclosure of and by lands awarded to the said James Foster, on or towards the east; by the Three Croft Field-road and by an ancient inclosure of the said Peter Matterson in his own right, on or towards the north; by ancient inclosures of John Henlock and Frances Henlock, Widow, and of the said dean and chapter (had in exchange of William Clark and William Pick) on or towards the west; and by the township of High Dunsforth on or towards the south.

"And also all that allotment, containing six acres, two roods, and thirty perches, more or less, part of the Howe Field, bounded by ancient inclosures of the said dean and chapter, had in exchange of William Clark and William Pick, on or towards the east; by an ancient inclosure of the said dean and chapter, had in exchange of the said Peter Matterson, on or towards the north; by lands awarded to the said John Henlock and Frances Henlock, on or towards the west; and by an ancient inclosure of the said dean and chapter, had in exchange of the said Joshua Crompton, Robert Driffield, and David Stansfeld, as trustees, on or towards the south.

"And also all those several ancient inclosures which, by virtue and in pursuance of the power in the said last above mentioned Act of Parliament contained, for making of exchanges, were, by the said last-mentioned award allotted and awarded in exchange, unto and for the said William Abbay, during the continuance of his lease, and from and after the expiration thereof, unto and for the said dean and chapter, and their successors, and which said ancient inclosures are hereinafter more particularly mentioned and described: that is to say; all that ancient inclosure containing seven acres and twenty-four perches, more or less, called Scarer Close, (late the property of His Majesty, in right of his crown,) bounded by an ancient inclosure of the said dean and chapter, had in exchange of the said Peter Matterson, and also by the river Ure, on or towards the east; by the said ancient inclosure, had in exchange of the said Peter Matterson, on or towards the north; by an ancient inclosure of the Vicar of Myton, and by lands awarded to the said dean and chapter, and their lessee, on or towards the west; and by the said last-mentioned ancient inclosure, and by the Beck Closes Drain, on or towards the south.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," the Postmaster-General is authorized to charge on all letters conveyed by packet-boats between one part of Her Majesty's dominions and another part of the same dominions, and between Her Majesty's dominions and foreign parts where post communications shall be established, such rates of postage as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by warrant under their hands, shall from time to time direct:

Now we, the undersigned, being two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do, in exercise of the power and authority in us for such purpose vested in and by the said Act, and of all other powers and authorities enabling us in this behalf, direct that on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post between any place in the United Kingdom and any port in Goree, Liberia, Lagos, Bonny, Old Calebar, Cameroons, and Fernando Po, on the coast of Africa, or between any ports in Goree, Liberia, Lagos, Bonny, Old Calebar, Cameroons, and Fernando Po, without passing through the United Kingdom (the sea conveyance of such respective letters being by packet-boat), there shall be charged and paid, in lieu of any rates of postage now payable thereon, a rate of postage of one shilling.

And we further direct that, on every letter transmitted as is mentioned in this warrant, exceeding half an ounce in weight, there shall be charged and paid progressive and additional rates of postage as follows; that is to say:

On every letter exceeding half an ounce in weight, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of postage.

On every letter exceeding one ounce, and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage.

On every letter exceeding two ounces, and not exceeding three ounces in weight, six rates of postage.

And on every letter exceeding three ounces, and not exceeding four ounces in weight, eight rates of postage.

And for every ounce in weight above the weight of four ounces there shall be charged and taken two additional rates of postage; and every fraction of an ounce above the weight of four ounces shall be charged as one additional ounce, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum of one shilling.

And we further direct, that such printed newspapers as are hereinafter mentioned, may be sent by the post (the sea conveyance being by packet-boat), according to the regulations and rates hereinafter set forth (that is to say):

British or colonial newspapers from or passing through the United Kingdom to Goree, Liberia, Lagos, Bonny, Old Calebar, Cameroons, or Fernando Po, two pence each. Foreign or colonial newspapers from Goree, Liberia, Lagos, Bonny, Old Calebar, Cameroons, or Fernando Po to the United Kingdom or to Her Majesty's Colonies, or any foreign country, through the United Kingdom, two pence each.

British, colonial, or foreign newspapers between Goree, Liberia, Lagos, Bonny, Old Calebar, Cameroons, and Fernando Po (without passing through the United Kingdom), two pence each.

And we direct, that every printed supplement or additional sheet to any such newspaper, shall, for the purpose of charging the postage under this warrant, be deemed a distinct newspaper; unless sent in the same cover, or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition:

And we direct, that no such printed newspaper shall be sent by the post at the rate aforesaid, unless the following conditions shall be observed:

First.—It shall be sent without a cover, or in a band or cover open at the sides or ends.

Second.—There shall be no word or communication printed on the newspaper after its publication, or upon the cover thereof, nor any writing or marks upon it, or upon the cover of it, except the name and address of the person to whom sent.

Third.—There shall be no paper or thing enclosed in or with any such newspaper.

And in case any one of such conditions shall not be fulfilled, the whole paper or packet shall be charged with the letter rates of postage.

And we direct that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions and privileges granted by the said recited Act of the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, or by an Act, made and passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the management of the Post-office," or by any Treasury Warrant issued under or by virtue of the said first-mentioned Act.

And we direct, that the several terms and expressions used in this warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

And we further direct, that this warrant shall come into operation on the tenth day of September one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

Provided lastly, and we do hereby declare and direct, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, for the time being, of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two of them, by warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby fixed or altered, or the regulations hereby made; and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and, from time to time, to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

Plymouth ...	400 ...	500 ...	100 ...	500
Cork ...	150 ...	100 ...	100 ...	100

Their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any; and also an unlimited power of selection, according to quality:

A separate tender must be given for beef, and a separate tender for pork, and every tender must specify where the meat is intended to be cured.

Persons tendering for more than one Port, must give a separate tender for each Port, and every tender must contain a separate price for tierces, and a separate price for barrels.

The beef and pork to be delivered into the respective stores as follows, viz. :— One-third of each by the 31st day of January, another third by the 15th day of March, and the remainder by the 30th day of April 1853, or any greater portion, or the whole, at any earlier period if preferred by the party tendering, and to be paid for by bills payable at sight.

The conditions of the revised contracts, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork, or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Bristol, Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or to the Commander conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender will be admitted for a less quantity than 300 Tierces,	}	for Deptford.

or
450 Barrels,	}	for Portsmouth.

100 Tierces,	}	for Cork.
or
150 Barrels,	}
50 Tierces,
or	}
100 Barrels,

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, and the party tendering, or an agent for him, duly authorized in writing, must attend at this office on Friday, the 8th October next, at two o'clock, to learn the result of his tender.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner of the envelope the words "Tender for Salt Meat," and "Comptroller for Victualling," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and be accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in a sum equal to £20 per cent. on the amount of the contract, for the due performance of the same.

CONTRACT FOR COALS FOR BERMUDA.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, August 27, 1852.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Tuesday the 14th September next, at one o'clock; they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Store at Her Majesty's Naval-yard at Bermuda,

A Cargo of 400 tons of COALS, namely,
Simpson's Pontops;
or Windsor's Pontops:

The coals to be despatched immediately.

A form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends; or an agent for him duly authorized in writing:

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Coals," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £150, for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS FOR WHEAT, OATS, AND VINEGAR.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, August 27, 1852.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 16th September next, at one o'clock; they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz. :

Wheat, 2,000 quarters; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Oats (for making oatmeal), 300 quarters; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Vinegar, 12,000 gallons, to be delivered within four months, in equal monthly quantities.

A proportional part of the price per bushel of wheat will be paid for any weight exceeding 60 lbs per bushel.

No tender will be received for a less quantity of wheat than 500 quarters, or of oats than 100 quarters.

Samples of the wheat and oats, not less than 2 quarts of each, must be produced by the parties tendering.

The conditions of the revised contracts, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said office, at the office of Commander Bevis, at Liverpool, and of the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and every tender for vinegar must be accompanied by a letter, signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £20 per cent. on the value, for the due performance of the contract.
