WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery made in a cause Ring v. Jarman, it was referred to the Honourable Sir George Rose, one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire whether Richard Ring, late of Hambledon, in the county of Southampton, the testator in the pleadings in the said cause named, left at the time of his decease, or whether there has since been born, any person answering the description of heir male of his body, and in case he did not leave at the time of his decease and there has not since been born any person answering the description of heir male of his body, then the said Master was to enquire and state to the Court whether the said testator left at the time of his decease or whether there has since been born any person answering the description of heir general of his body, and in case he did not leave and there has not since been any person answering the description of heir general of his body, then it was ordered that the said Master should enquire and state to the Court who at the time of the death of the said testator was, and who is now the said testator's heir general; therefore all persons claiming to be the heir male or heir general of the body of the said Richard Ring, living at the time of his decease (which happened on or about the 5th day of June 1850), or born since his decease, or claiming to be his heir general, are, on or before the 10th day of November 1852, to leave their claims before the said Master, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, and are on or before the 10th day of December 1852, to establish such claims before the said Master, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery made in a cause Ring v. Jarman, all persons claiming to be the next of kin, according to the Statute made for the distribution of intestates' effects, of Richard Ring, late of Hambledon, in the county of Southampton, Esquire, living at the time of his death (which happened on or about the 5th day of June 1850), or claiming to be the legal personal representative or representatives of any of such next of kin who have since died, are on or before the 10th day of November 1852, to leave their claims before the Honourable Sir George Rose, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, and are on or before the 10th day of December 1852, to establish such claims before the said Master, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery made in a cause Ring against Jarman, the creditors of Richard Ring, late of Hambledon, in the county of Southampton, Esquire, deceased, (who died on or about the 5th day of June 1850, are, on or before the 10th day of November 1852, to leave their claims of debts before the Honourable Sir George Rose, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, and are, on or before the 10th day of December 1852, to establish such claims before the said Master; or, in default thereof, they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery made in a cause Baker against Baker, the creditors of Thomas Baker, late of Farnham, in the county of Surrey; Auctioneer (who died in the month of February 1848), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 4th day of November 1852, to come in and prove their debts before Sir George Rose, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by indenture of assignment, bearing date the 28th day of August 1852, William Derbyshire, Edwin Derbyshire, Samuel Bedson, Wagstaff and Baylis.—Bankrupts, 1823.

Notice to Creditors.

SAMUEL WAGSTAFF and Thomas Baylis, Carpet Manufacturers, of Kidderminster, were made bankrupts in 1823, and one Dividend was made in the year 1824 amongst the creditors of the joint estate. A sum of money has lately been received and is now distributable amongst the joint creditors, but as the file of proceedings containing the proofs of debts already made has been lost, all the creditors who had so proved their debts, and such others as may then have omitted to do so are to prove the same at meetings to be holden at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, London, on the 2nd of October and 30th October 1852, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, and on the latter of these days a Final Dividend will be made amongst such creditors as shall then come prepared to substantiate their claims, and those who may not be so prepared will be finally excluded therefrom.
